A Preview of This Week's Game

•Wyoming and Colorado State will meet in the 108th edition of the "Border War" this Saturday. The two teams first met in 1899 and have played in three different centuries.

•The Cowboys and Rams will be playing for the 71st consecutive season this year. Since 1946, the two Front Range rivals have played each other every season uninterrupted.

•This year's meeting will mark the 49th season the two rivals have competed for the "Bronze Boot" traveling trophy. The "Bronze Boot" portion of the series is currently tied at 24-24.

•Junior running back Brian Hill needs 74 rushing yards to become the Wyoming career rushing leader. He enters this week with 2,890 rushing yards. Senior running back Shaun Wick needs 41 yards to take over sixth place in career rushing at Wyoming. Wick has rushed for 2,238 yards.

•Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry is 151 yards away from taking over 10th place in career receiving yards. He currently has 1,877 career receiving yards.

Wyoming-Colorado State Game to be Televised on ESPNU:

This week's Wyoming at Colorado State game will be televised on ESPNU. The kickoff for Saturday's game is set for 8:15 p.m., M.T. from Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium.

The ESPNU announcers for the game will be: play-by-play announcer Mike Corey. He will be joined by color analyst Rene Ingoglia.

Saturday's game will be the second of five Cowboy games on ESPN Networks this season.

Annual Bronze Boot Run -- Running of the Game Ball -- This Friday: The annual running of the game ball by the ROTC detachments of the University of Wyoming and Colorado State University will take place on Friday, Sept. 30.

Wyoming ROTC members will begin the run in Laramie Friday morning. They will deliver the game ball to Colorado State ROTC members at approximately 11:45 a.m. on Friday at the Wyoming-Colorado state border on U.S. Highway 287.

After a brief ceremony and exchange of the game ball, Colorado State ROTC members will run the game ball from the border to Fort Collins.

The Bronze Boot Trophy will be located on the sidelines during Saturday's game for the winning team to grab as soon as the game ends.

Wyoming and Colorado State Meet Saturday in the 108th Edition of "The Border War" -- the Oldest Rivalry for Both the Cowboys and Rams Has Been Played in Three Different Centuries, Battle for the Bronze Boot in 49th Year:

The Wyoming Cowboys and Colorado State Rams will be playing for the 108th time this week in "The Border War". The series is the oldest rivalry for both schools. Here are some notes on "The Border War" rivalry.

- "The Border War" series has been played in three different centuries, dating back to Nov. 30, 1899, when CSU won the first meeting 12-0 in Fort Collins, Colo.
- This year is the 117th anniversary of that first meeting.
- Since 1968, the two schools have battled for the "Bronze Boot" traveling trophy. This year will be the 49th meeting in the "Bronze Boot" portion of the series. The series is tied at 24-24.
- The Bronze Boot trophy was created from an actual boot worn in Vietnam by Dan Romero, a CSU ROTC instructor.
- Since the end of World War II, Wyoming and CSU have played every season for 71 consecutive seasons from 1946 to this season.
- Over the past 70 consecutive meetings, dating back to the 1946 season, Wyoming leads 39-31-0.
- Colorado State leads the overall series 58-44-5.

Where Does the Difference in the Series Record Come From -- 108th Meeting or 107th?

Thanks to the research of author John Hirn, who wrote a history of CSU football, the one-game difference that appears in the series history between Wyoming and Colorado State has been explained.

Wyoming's media information indicates that this year's meeting is the 108th. Colorado State indicates that they don't officially recognize the first game in the series on Nov. 30, 1899. The issue surrounding the original meeting between the two schools in 1899, which Hirn discovered in his research, was that the first game was a forfeit victory in favor of CSU.

CSU has chosen not to recognize that game in their official series record, following NCAA rules that don't recognize forfeits. But we, at Wyoming, have chosen to leave the game in our series history since Hirn's research indicated the two teams had begun the game before a disagreement resulted in the forfeit.

After all how many schools can say they've played each other in three different centuries.

Wyoming Defense Forces Four Interceptions Last Week at Eastern Michigan and Records Two "Pick Sixes":

The Wyoming defense had one of its most productive games in terms of forcing turnovers that it has had in a long time when it intercepted four passes at Eastern Michigan last Friday. The last time a Cowboy defense intercepted four passes in a single game was Sept. 25, 2004, against Ole Miss.

Wyoming sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps intercepted two passes, returning his first interception 66 yards for a "Pick Six". He became the first Cowboy to intercept two passes in the same game since Tyran Finley accomplished that on Nov. 1, 2014, at Fresno State.

Redshirt freshman linebacker Logan Wilson had a 27-yard interception return for a touchdown against Eastern Michigan. That marked the first time Wyoming had two "Pick Sixes" in the same game since a Sept. 14, 2013 victory over Northern Colorado when linebacker Jordan Stanton and defensive back Cortland Fort each had interception returns for TDs.

Brian Hill

Chasing History -- Brian Hill Approaching Wyoming Career Rushing Record, Hill and Wick Could Become the Greatest Running-Back Tandem in School History:

Following his 82-yard rushing performance versus Eastern Michigan last week, junior Brian Hill has drawn within 73 yards of the Wyoming career rushing record. Hill enters this week with 2,890 rushing yards for his career for third place on the UW all-time list. He trails Ryan Christopherson by 16 yards for second place and trails Devin Moore by 73 yards for the record.

Hill and senior running back Shaun Wick enter this week as one of the most productive running-back tandems in school history. In fact, the two trail only Devin Moore and Wynel Seldon as the greatest running-back tandem to ever play at Wyoming. Wick trails Gerald Abraham by only 40 yards for the No. 6 spot on the Wyoming career rushing list.

Brian Hill Returns as One of the Nation's Leading Rushers in 2016: Cowboy junior running back Brian Hill enters the 2016 season as one of the nation's top returning rushers, ranking No. 6 nationally among a talented group of returning running backs.

He concluded his sophomore season of 2015 ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 8 in the NCAA in average yards rushing per game, 135.9 and was No. 9 in the NCAA in total rushing yards, with 1,631. Hill also ranked 13th in the NCAA in all-purpose yards, averaging 146.9 yards per game. He was one of only 11 players nationally to be selected as a semifinalist for the 2015 Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the premier running back in college football.

2016 Wyoming Team Notes

University of Wyoming Football

Cowboys Attract Attention from ESPN With Week 1 Success:

Wyoming attracted attention from ESPN this past weekend when College GameDay host Desmond Howard (@DesmondHoward) picked the Cowboys as his "Super Dog" pick to upset the favored Northern Illinois Huskies. Following the Cowboys 40-34, triple overtime win over the Huskies, Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen's winning TD run was highlighted in the weekend's top plays at No. 9.

Offensive Line Play Has Been

Strength in 2016: The play of Wyoming's offensive line has been a strength for the Cowboys in 2016.

- Wyoming has allowed only 4.0 quarterback sacks this season, ranking the Pokes No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 21 in the nation.

- In terms of passing offense, the Cowboy offensive line has helped UW rank No. 4 in the Mountain West, averaging 216.5 rushing yards per game.

Cowboy Middle Linebackers Have

Ties to NFL and MLB: Wyoming has a couple current Cowboys with interesting brother ties. Senior middle linebackers Lucas Wacha and Eric Nzeocha both have brothers currently playing professionally.

Wacha, who has been a starting linebacker for Wyoming over the past three seasons, is the younger brother of St. Louis Cardinal pitcher Michael Wacha. The Wachas are originally from Texarkana, Texas. Michael played his college baseball at Texas A&M.

Nzeocha is the younger brother of former Wyoming Cowboy linebacker Mark Nzeocha, who was drafted as the 19th pick in the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Nzeocha is currently playing linebacker for the Cowboys. The Nzeocha brothers hail from Neusitz, Germany.

Carl Granderson's Start to 2016 Has Been Grand, Sacramento Native

is Sack Leader for Pokes: A valuable member of Wyoming's defense a year ago as a true freshman, Carl Granderson has begun his sophomore season at Wyoming in grand style.

The sophomore from Sacramento, Calif., is leading UW in quarterback sacks this season. He recorded a sack in each of Wyoming's first three games of the 2016 season. His 0.75 sack per game average ranks No. 4 in the Mountain West and No. 45 nationally. He also has been credited with 14 total tackles, with six solo tackles, one forced fumble and one pass breakup.

Granderson became the first Cowboy to record at least one sack in each of the first three games of a season since linebacker Brian Brown accomplished that back in 1997. The last UW defensive lineman to accomplish that was Jeff Knapton in 1986.

Coaching Connections: When the Wyoming Cowboys and Colorado State Rams take the field for Saturday's Border War there will be some familiar faces on the opposite sidelines.

For Wyoming, defensive coordinator Steve Stanard, who has guided the Cowboy defense the past three seasons, previously served as defensive coordinator at Colorado State from 2003-07. Cowboy volunteer assistant Tim LeRoy was previously Director of Recruiting at Colorado State from 2012-14. He was a former graduate assistant at Wyoming back in 1999.

On the Colorado State sideline, defensive coordinator Marty English is in his fifth season at CSU. Prior to joining the Ram coaching staff, English served as an assistant coach at Wyoming for nine seasons from 2003-11. Bryan Applewhite is entering his second season as the running backs coach at CSU. For six seasons from 2003-08, Applewhite was the running backs coach at Wyoming. Former UW football player and assistant strength coach Michael Ray is in his third season as an assistant strength coach at Colorado State.

Josh Allen Emerging as One of the Top QBs in the Mountain West: Redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen is emerging as one of the top quarterbacks in the Mountain West Conference in 2016. Allen ranks first or second in numerous statistical categories.

He was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week after leading the Cowboys to a 40-34 triple overtime win against Northern Illinois in the 2016 season opener. Allen scored the winning touchdown on a spectacular seven-yard scramble in the third overtime to give Wyoming the home victory over NIU.

2016 Mountain West and NCAA Rankings

Josh Allen's 2016 Rankings	Average	MW Rank	NCAA Rank
Passing Touchdowns	6 total touchdowns	No. 1	No. 48*
Completion Percentage	61.9 percent	No. 2	No. 48*
Total Passing Yards	866 total passing yards	No. 2	No. 50*

Tanner Gentry Named to the 2016 Biletnikoff Award Watch List, Earns Honor for Second Straight Year:

The Tallahassee Quarterback Club (TQC) Foundation, Inc., the Florida-based creator and sponsor of the Biletnikoff Award, announced on Tuesday that University of Wyoming senior receiver Tanner Gentry has been added to the 2016 Biletnikoff Award Watch List. The Biletnikoff Award is presented annually to the college football season's outstanding receiver. Any player, regardless of position, who catches a pass is eligible for the award. This is the second consecutive year that Gentry has been named to the Biletnikoff Award List.

Gentry was one of eight receivers nationally to be added on Tuesday to this year's Biletnikoff Award Watch List. He is currently leading the Mountain West Conference and is ranked 10th in the nation in receptions per game (7.25). Gentry also is No. 1 in the MW and No. 16 nationally in total receiving yards (388) this season. He is No. 2 in the league and No. 23 in the NCAA in receiving yards per game, averaging 97.0 yards per game, and his three touchdown receptions in 2016 rank him No. 2 in the conference and No. 34 in the nation.

The senior from Aurora, Colo., has caught 29 passes for 388 yards and three touchdowns through the first four games of the 2016 season. Gentry has recorded three 100-yard receiving games this season. He had 127 yards at Eastern Michigan, 124 at Nebraska and 104 vs. Northern Illinois.

Recently the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation opened the 2016 FanVote at: <http://biletnikoffaward.com/fan-vote>. Every fan may vote once daily. The aggregate fan tally will be counted as one official vote to determine semi-finalists (10 receivers), finalists (three) and the winner. In 2013, the FanVote tally provided the one-vote margin of victory for Brandin Cooks of Oregon State in the closest contest in years.

Gentry Part of Second Longest Pass Play in School History in 2015:

Wide receiver Tanner Gentry was part of the second longest pass play in school history in the 2015 season opener vs. North Dakota. Gentry caught a 92-yard touchdown pass from redshirt senior quarterback Cam Coffman for Wyoming's first TD of the season. The only longer pass play in school history was a 93-yard TD pass from Brett Smith to Robert Herron versus San Jose State in 2013.

Dynamic Duo at Wide Receiver -- Gentry and Maulhardt Form One of the Mountain West's Most Productive Receiving Duos:

An area of the Cowboy offense that emerged during the 2015 season and has continued in 2016 is the receiving corps -- particularly wide receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt. Both return for their senior seasons in 2016.

•Gentry and Maulhardt are averaging a combined 11.0 receptions per game and 162.0 receiving yards per game this season.

•Gentry has had three 100-yard receiving games in the first four games of 2016 (127 at Eastern Michigan, 124 at Nebraska and 104 vs. Northern Illinois). In 2015, he also had three 100-yard games (176 vs. North Dakota, 130 vs. New Mexico and 127 at Washington State).

•Maulhardt has had one 100-yard receiving game in the first four games of 2016 (106 vs. Northern Illinois). He had two 100-yard games in 2015 (113 yards at Washington State and 107 at San Diego State).

Chase Roullier

Chase Roullier Named to the 2016 Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists:

Wyoming senior offensive lineman Chase Roullier has been named to both the 2016 Outland Trophy Watch List and the 2016 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch.

The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) announced its 2016 Outland Trophy Watch List. The Outland Trophy is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. Only interior linemen on offense (centers, guards and tackles) and defense (tackles and nose tackles) are eligible for the Outland Trophy. The award is named for the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Penn at the turn of the 20th century.

The Rotary Lombardi Award is in its 47th year of existence, having begun in 1970 by the Rotary Club of Houston to honor NFL coach Vince Lombardi. The award began as a way to honor interior line positions, which is the position Lombardi played at Fordham University. Later, the award was expanded to include as candidates linebackers and tight ends. This year, candidates are allowed from all position players who have displayed outstanding performance on the field and exhibit great leadership qualities.

Roullier has been a mainstay for the Cowboy Football team the past three seasons. He was named to the 2016 Preseason All-Mountain West team in voting by conference media members, and earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior in 2015 in voting by conference head coaches and media. Roullier has started 28 career games, including the last 27 consecutive.

Roullier is also an outstanding student, majoring in mechanical engineering. He is a three-time Academic All-Mountain West Conference selection.

Ethan Wood Selected as Candidate for Ray Guy Award for Second Consecutive Season:

The Ray Guy Award recognizes the nation's Collegiate Punter of the Year each season. This year, Wyoming's Ethan Wood has been selected by the Augusta Sports Council as a preseason candidate for the award for the second consecutive year.

Ethan Wood

The list of candidates will be narrowed to 10 semifinalists who will be announced on Nov. 13. Following the semifinalists announcement, a national body of Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) sports information directors, coaches, media representatives and previous Ray Guy Award winners will vote for the top three finalists. The voting body will then cast ballots to select the winner.

The presentation of the Ray Guy Award will be featured live on ESPN during The Home Depot College Football Awards Show.

Cowboys Open Their 18th Mountain West Season This Week and Open MW Conference Play for Only the Third Time Versus Colorado State:

The 2016 season marks the 18th season of the Mountain West Conference, and this Saturday's Wyoming-Colorado State contest is the first conference game of the year for both the Cowboys and the Rams.

Wyoming is 8-9 (.471) in Mountain West openers. UW is 5-5 (.500) when opening MW play at home, and is 3-4 (.429) when opening on the road.

This week's MW opener will mark only the third time in the 18 seasons of the MW that the Cowboys have opened Mountain West Conference play against Colorado State.

The Cowboys have won seven of their last 12 MW openers, and have won two of their last three Mountain West openers

Taking a Stand Against Northern

Illinois: The Wyoming Defense took a stand on Saturday night. The Cowboy defenders allowed Northern Illinois to convert only 5 of 18 third-down attempts on the night, and came up with the only turnover of the game in the first overtime on a fumble recovery by freshman linebacker Logan Wilson. Wilson made that recovery at the four-yard line in the first overtime, ending a Northern Illinois threat.

Then in the third overtime, the Cowboy defense came up with a huge stop of the NIU offense, giving the ball back to the Cowboys for what would be the eventual game-winning possession.

Safety Combo of Andrew Wingard and Marcus Epps Continue to Lead

Wingard leads the Pokes in tackles this season, with 42. He ranks No. 3 in the MW in that category and ranks No. 13 in the nation in tackles, averaging 10.5 per game. Wingard is also ranked among the league and NCAA leaders in solo tackles and interceptions

Epps has 31 tackles on the season to rank second on the Cowboy team and No. 11 in the Mountain West, averaging 7.8 tackles per game.

A year ago, Wingard and Epps finished their freshman years ranked No. 1 and No. 3 for the Cowboys in total tackles, with 122 and 83, respectively.

Player, Statistical Category	Total or Average	MW Rank	NCAA Rank
Andrew Wingard, Tackles	10.5 tackles per game	No. 3	No. 13
Andrew Wingard, Solo Tackles	5.3 solo tackles per game	No. 7	No. 54
Andrew Wingard, Interceptions	0.25 per game	Tie No. 14	NA
Marcus Epps, Interceptions	0.50 per game	Tie No. 3	Tie No. 19
Marcus Epps, Passes Defended	1.25 per game	No. 7	No. 49
Marcus Epps, Tackles	7.8 tackles per game	Tie No. 11	Tie No. 93

Key Stats: Among the key stats for the Wyoming Cowboys in their games to date have been:

In 40-34, 3OT Win Over Northern Illinois

- The Cowboys generated 488 yards of total offense and ran 85 plays in the game.
- Wyoming was extremely balanced on offense, rushing for 243 yards and passing for 245 yards.
- Wyoming controlled the ball, possessing it 35 minutes and 39 seconds to NIU's 24:21.
- The Cowboys did not commit a turnover, while coming up with a critical turnover in overtime
- UW converted 5 of 6 red-zone opportunities on the night.
- UW did not allow a single sack of quarterback Josh Allen.

In 52-17 Loss at Nebraska

•Through the first three quarters at Nebraska, Wyoming had overcome two turnovers to pull to within a touchdown at 17-24. UW ran 52 plays for 296 yards through the first three quarters, compared to 55 plays for 381 yards for the Huskers. The Cowboys also possessed the ball for 22:14 -- only a few seconds less than Nebraska's 22:39.

•In the fourth quarter, Nebraska outscored Wyoming 28-0 and outgained the Cowboys 232 yards to 24 yards.

In 45-22 Win Over UC Davis

•Wyoming scored 14 points in the first six minutes of the game on an opening offensive touchdown drive and an interception that resulted in a three-yard TD run on the very next play.

•The 45 points scored by the Cowboys tied for the most in the Craig Bohl era. UC Davis' 22 points were the fewest by a Cowboy opponent since Nevada scored 21 in a 28-21 Cowboy victory last season.

•Wyoming led UC Davis 35-9 at halftime. That was the most points the Pokes had scored in a half since scoring 35 in the first half of a 59-56, double-overtime victory over Hawai'i in 2013.

In 24-27 Loss at Eastern Michigan

•Wyoming turned three first-half interceptions into 17 points to take a 17-3 lead in to the second quarter. Two of those interceptions, including a 66-yard pick six, were made by strong safety Marcus Epps.

•Eastern Michigan scored two second quarter touchdowns to tie the game at 17-17 by halftime. One of those touchdowns was scored following a Wyoming fumble.

•After EMU had taken a 20-17 lead on its opening drive of the second half, it appeared the Cowboys had retaken the lead on its final possession of the third quarter when quarterback Josh Allen hurdled a tackler and launched himself toward the end zone. The play was originally ruled a touchdown, but after review the play was overruled and UW had the ball 4th and Goal at the one-yard line. As the Pokes lined up to go for the touchdown, they were called for a false start. Head coach Craig Bohl then decided to kick a field goal to tie the game, but the kick was blocked and the score remained 20-17 in favor of Eastern Michigan.

•Wyoming regained the lead early in the fourth quarter on its second pick six of the night -- this time redshirt freshman Logan Wilson returned the interception 27 yards for the TD to take a 24-20 lead with 12:45 remaining in the game.

Brian Hill Selected One of 11 Semifinalists for 2015 Doak Walker Award, Only Group of Five Running Back Selected as Semifinalist:

When the PwC SMU Athletic Forum selected the 11 semifinalists for the 2015 Doak Walker Award, University of Wyoming sophomore running back Brian Hill was one of the 11 in that exclusive group. The Doak Walker award is presented annually to the nation's premier college running back.

Hill joined 10 of the nation's other top running backs as semifinalists for the 2015 honor. Hill was the only running back from a Group of Five school to be named a semifinalist for the 2015 Doak Walker Award.

Hill was one of five sophomores and one of nine underclassmen vying for the honor. The sophomore from Belleville, Ill., set a new University of Wyoming single-season record rushing for 1,631 yards in 2015. He ended his sophomore season with 2,427 career rushing yards, which ranks him No. 5 all-time in school history.

Members of the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee cast their votes to determine the 2015 Doak Walker Award recipient, which was Derrick Henry of Alabama. His selection was announced live on The Home Depot College Football Awards on Thu., Dec. 10, on ESPN. The Doak Walker Award Presentation Banquet was held in Dallas on February 19, 2016.

The National Selection Committee consists of past recipients, former NFL All-Pro and college All-America running backs, media members and selected special representatives.

The Award is named after three-time SMU All-America running back and 1948 Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker. Walker, who also punted, returned kicks and kicked extra points, led the Mustangs to two Southwest Conference Championships. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions and led the league in scoring his rookie year. During his six years with the Lions, he led the team to two NFL championships and was chosen All-Pro four times. Walker is a member of both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame. The 2015 recipient was the 26th in the history of the award.

Andrew Wingard

The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) selected Wyoming free safety Andrew Wingard as one of only 29 freshmen in the nation to be named to the 2015 FWAA Freshman All-America Team. The FWAA selected 12 players on offense, 12 on defense and five on special teams to the 2015 FWAA Freshman All-America Team.

Wingard, who started at free safety as a true freshman, led the Cowboys in total tackles, with 122. He ranked 12th in the nation in tackles and No. 2 in the Mountain West Conference, averaging 10.2 tackles per game. The native of Arvada, Colo., averaged 6.9 solo tackles per game to rank No. 4 in the nation and No. 1 in the Mountain West.

Wingard became the first Wyoming freshman to exceed 100 tackles in a single season (122). His 122 total tackles rank as the 15th best single-season total in school history.

The true freshman recorded seven double-figure tackles games in the first 12 games of his career. He had a single-game best 16 tackles at San Diego State, 15 tackles at Utah State, 12 vs. Washington State and Eastern Michigan, 11 vs. Boise State and Colorado State and 10 at Air Force. He intercepted his first career pass versus Colorado State. He also was credited with 7.0 tackles for loss in 2015.

Wingard played his high school football at Ralston Valley High School in Arvada, Colo. He was coached in high school by Matt Loyd. His parents are Dan and Missy Wingard. His father was a three-year letterman as a punter at the University of Nebraska from 1983-85.

Brian Hill Set Two School Single-Season Rushing Records in 2015: Cowboy sophomore running back Brian Hill set two new Wyoming single-season rushing records in 2015.

- Hill averaged 135.9 rushing yards per game in 2015 to break the Wyoming single-season record of 121.3 yards per game set by Ryan Christopherson in 1994.
- Hill also rushed for 1,631 yards in 2015 to break the school record of 1,455 rushing yards, also set by Christopherson in 1994.
- Hill's 281 carries in 2015 ranks second only to Christopherson's 300 rushing attempts in 1994.
- Hill's 35 carries in the 2015 season finale vs. UNLV fell only two rushing attempts shy of Christopherson's record 37 carries vs. NE Louisiana in 1994 and Steve Cockreham's 37 carries vs. Arizona State in 1972.

Hill and Wick Rank Among NCAA Active Career Rushing Leaders in 2016:

Wyoming running backs Brian Hill and Shaun Wick rank among the NCAA's active leaders in career rushing yards for the 2016 season. Hill currently ranks No. 18 among active FBS players, and Wick ranks 31st. Below are this year's top active career rushers entering this week's games.

Cowboys Gaining Experience, But Still Among Younger Teams in Nation:

Wyoming's team youth was evident in 2015 as 16 true freshmen and 10 redshirt freshmen played for UW for a combined total of 26. The Cowboys also ranked second in 2015 in terms of teams with the fewest seniors. Wyoming had only eight (8) seniors in 2015.

While the Cowboys are more experienced entering the 2016 season, they are still a relatively young team as evidenced by having only 18 seniors on this year's team, which ranks them among the top 25 teams in the nation in fewest seniors.

About Colorado State: The Rams head in Saturday evening's contest with a 2-2 overall record. Colorado State fell at Minnesota last Saturday by a score of 31-24. The Rams own wins over Northern Colorado and UT-San Antonio. CSU opened the season falling to Colorado.

Colorado State is averaging 25.2 points per game, while allowing 27.5 points per game. The Rams average 372.8 yards of total offense per game with 196.2 rushing yard per game and 176.5 passing yards per contest. Defensively, CSU allows 410.2 yards of total offense. The Ram defense allows 148.8 rushing yards a game and 261.5 passing yards.

The Ram offense is paced quarterback Collin Hill. The freshman quarterback Collin Hill. In three games this season he is 38-of-63 passing for a 60.3 completion percentage. He has thrown for 523 yards with five touchdowns. Running back Izzy Mathews has rushed for 171 yards on the season to lead the Rams. Wide receiver Michael Gallup has a team-high 14 receptions for 173 yards with two touchdowns.

The Colorado State defense is paced by linebacker Kevin Davis. He leads the team with 41 tackles including a Mountain West best six tackles for loss with three sacks. Safety Braylin Scott leads the MW and ranks third in the nation in interceptions with three on the season. Linebacker Josh Watson has 31 tackles on the season with 5.5 tackles for loss ranking second in the MW in that category.

CSU kicker Wyatt Bryan is 6-for-7 on the season in field goals. He has a season-long field goal of 53 yards. Punter Hayden Hunt is one of the best in the country. He is averaging 44.5 yards per punt with nine punts inside the 20 yard line.

Head Coach Mike Bobo: In his second season at the helm of the Colorado State football program Mike Bobo has led the Rams to a 9-8 overall record. He was named head coach of the Rams on Dec. 23, 2014 after serving as offensive coordinator at Georgia the previous eight seasons.

During his first season in Fort Collins Bob led the Rams to a 7-6 overall record and a trip to the Arizona Bowl. Bobo became the only head coach in program history to win seven regular season games in his first season at the helm. Bobo's Rams won four games in a row, and five out of six, to close the 2015 regular season, securing CSU's third consecutive bowl invitation en route to a 7-6 record. CSU's four wins in the season's final month marked the first undefeated November by a Rams team since 1948.

During his time at Georgia he helped lead the Bulldogs to a 135 wins in his 14-year stint in Athens. He spent eight seasons as the offensive coordinator and six seasons as the quarterback coach.

At Georgia, Bobo led the Bulldogs to two SEC Championships and five SEC Eastern Division titles. Georgia also won eight bowl games during that stretch. In his final season with the Bulldogs his offense racked up a single-season school record 537 points.

Bob guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia. One of the most recent includes Kansas City Chiefs fifth round pick in 2014 Aaron Murray. He became the first ever quarterback in SEC history to record 3,000 passing yards in four-consecutive seasons. Another quarterback includes Detroit Lions first round pick Matthew Stafford.

Prior to his time at Georgia, Bobo served one season as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State University, after he worked as an administrative assistant and graduate assistant at Georgia from 1998-99.

Bobo was a quarterback at Georgia from 1994-97, earning four letters and leading the team in passing in 1996 and 1997.

Last Meeting -- Wyoming 7, Colorado State 26 on Nov. 7, 2015: The Wyoming Cowboys got off to a slow start, while Colorado State scored on its first four possessions of the game, resulting in a 26-7 home loss for the Cowboys in the 107th meeting in the "Border War" series.

On the day, the Cowboys were unable to get their offense on track. Wyoming entered the game averaging 177 rushing yards per game and 196 passing for a combined average of 373. But Saturday, the Cowboys could manage only 239 total yards -- 130 rushing and 109 passing. UW also turned the ball over four times on three lost fumbles and one interception, while forcing only one turnover by the Rams.

While Wyoming's standout running back Brian Hill was held to 65 yards rushing -- 75 yards under his average of 140 per game.

FOOTBALL 2016

2016 Marks 120th Season of

Wyoming Football: The 2016 season will be the 120th season of Wyoming Football. The Cowboys first season was 1893.

Since that first season, there have been only four seasons in which Wyoming has not played football. In 1918, while Wyoming had a team they played no games due to an influenza epidemic. The other three seasons Wyoming did not field a team were 1943, '44 and '45 during World War II.

Wyoming Football's All-Time

Record: The Wyoming Cowboy Football program has played a total of 1,100 games in its history. Wyoming is 44 games under .500 all-time (514 wins to 558 losses), and has played 50 more road games than home games in its history (517 home games to 567 road games). The Cowboys played their 1,000th game on Sept. 6, 2008, against Air Force.

War Memorial Stadium Will Host Its 67th Season in 2016:

The 2016 college football season will mark the 67th season of War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming has won 65.4 percent of its games in War Memorial Stadium.

"The War" first opened on Sept. 16, 1950, with UW recording a 61-13 win over Montana State. War Memorial's original capacity was 20,000 in 1950. It was expanded to 25,500 in 1970, and the seating was increased to a capacity of 33,500 in 1977.

Following reconstruction of the upper deck on the West side of War Memorial Stadium in the summer of 2004, the new capacity of War Memorial Stadium was 30,514. With the construction of the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites in 2009-10, the current capacity is 29,181.

University of Wyoming Launches Major Initiative for new $44 Million High Altitude Performance Center:

The University of Wyoming unveiled plans in April of 2015 for a $44 million renovation and expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center that will triple the size of the facility. This major new addition to the Rochelle Athletics Center will be called the High Altitude Performance Center.

In addition, UW announced a $3 million leadership gift from Marian Rochelle to launch the project. The gift will be doubled to $6 million by the State of Wyoming. Marian and her late husband Curt were the lead contributors to the Rochelle Athletics Center in 1998.

The High Altitude Performance Center will be funded by a $24 million private support campaign and a $20 million State of Wyoming matching program.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," said Governor Matt Mead. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support, and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

This remarkable public-private partnership will expand the current 48,000-square-foot Rochelle Athletics Center into a 126,000-square-foot premier collegiate athletics complex, solidifying Wyoming's reputation as a state committed to excellence—producing student-athletes who succeed in the classroom, compete at the highest level on the field, and define a lasting legacy for this great state.

"The expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center to include the High Altitude Performance Center will assist our student-athletes to be the best they can be," said April Brimmer Kunz, daughter of Marian Rochelle and UW Foundation Board of Directors vice chair. "Our family's donation is targeted to help student-athletes receive a meaningful degree when they graduate from the University of Wyoming."

"It is fitting that the lead gift to this important project is being made by Marian Rochelle," said Cowboy Football Head Coach Craig Bohl. "Her unwavering commitment is a testament to Marian's recognition of the ongoing needs of our student-athletes. Marian's extraordinary philanthropy continues to shape the course of Cowboy Athletics and Wyoming's university. It is a redefining moment for Cowboy football."

While the central focus of the expansion is to provide the football program with the tools it needs to win Mountain West Conference championships, the facility will also benefit all UW student-athletes.

When this initiative is complete, the facility will become the premier athletics center in the Mountain West Conference, featuring new or expanded spaces focused on academic success, nutrition, strength and conditioning and sports medicine and rehabilitation facilities for all of Wyoming's student-athletes.

"The Athletics department and university have had a wonderful long-term partnership with the Rochelle family," says UW Athletics Director Tom Burman. "It is exciting that Marian is investing in this transformational project. When this facility is complete, the new High Altitude Performance Center will become the premier athletic center in the Mountain West Conference. We are so appreciative of Marian and April. It is simply amazing the impact that they have had on UW through the years."

The first floor will maximize efficiency and create a welcoming environment with the Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center centrally located so it can be accessed by all student-athletes.

The first floor will also have the Football Strength and Performance Center, a tiered team meeting room and an expanded football locker room, as well as a Heritage Hall honoring the history and traditions of Cowboy Football.

The existing football coaches' office suite and position meeting rooms on the second floor will be reconfigured and enlarged.

The second floor Training Table will integrate technology for customizing each meal to meet the individual nutritional needs of every individual student-athlete. The arrangement of the space will allow for team meals, as well as more casual and intimate dining.

"The University of Wyoming, in partnership with transformational private supporters like Marian Rochelle and State of Wyoming leaders guided by Governor Mead and so many key members of the Wyoming Legislature, is making a statement that the commitment to excellence in our state knows no bounds," said Ben Blalock, UW Foundation president.

"Marian H. Rochelle is one of UW's greatest supporters and friends," said UW President Dick McGinity. "She and her husband Curt's initial gift for the Rochelle Athletics Center changed the face of the university and its programs. That gift made the center possible, and this most recent one will make it better. Marian's generosity has touched many places on campus, but the most important impact her generosity has had is on students. She shares the university's vision of giving students every opportunity to become successful, and with her continued support, they will be able to accomplish just that."

2016 Mountain West Bowl Synopsis

The following bowl information has been compiled by the Mountain West Conference entering the 2016 season.

(The schedule at the bottom of this page reflects the bowl games Mountain West teams will play in during the 2016 bowl season. The Mountain West also has a relationship with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl that is explained below.)

The number of postseason appearances for the Mountain West will be driven by on-the-field performance, starting with the opportunity to play in the national semifinals or another New Year's Day bowl game as part of the College Football Playoff arrangement.

The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system.

In the 17 seasons since the league's inception, the Mountain West's champion or a current MW member has secured that position 12 times, placing teams in the Fiesta (3), Rose and Sugar (2) Bowls during that period.

The MW also has agreements with six (6) different bowl games that in any given year will generate as many as six (6) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Nova Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and a secondary position with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl.

The Mountain West will collaborate with the bowl partners to place all eligible teams with consideration given to matchup, geography and historical considerations (e.g., last time a team participated in any bowl or a particular bowl). NOTE: The MW is the primary backup for the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl if the Big 12 or Pac-12 does not fill.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In its third season, the College Football Playoff format remains unchanged: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and the national championship game played in a different city every year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performances during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

Pokes' Overtime History: The Wyoming Cowboys have played 13 overtime games in their history. The most recent overtime game the Cowboys played was on Sept. 3, 2016. The Cowboys defeated Northern Illinois 40-34 in triple overtime. That marked only the third overtime game ever played at home in War Memorial Stadium. Two of Wyoming's 13 overtime games have been played on neutral sites in postseason -- the 1996 WAC Championship game in Las Vegas and the 2009 New Mexico Bowl in Albuquerque, N.M. The other eight overtime games have been played on the road.

The 2016 season will mark the third season Craig Bohl will lead the Wyoming Football program as head coach and will mark his 14th year as a college head coach. Over his first two years at Wyoming, he focused on building Cowboy Football for the long term. Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 13 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in his last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2016 season will be Bohl's 36th year coaching at the college level.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 58 years old when the 2016 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Players Who Will Return for 2016 Season After Missing All or Part of 2015 Season Due to Injury:

The Wyoming Cowboys suffered a number of key injuries during the 2015 season. Here are some of those key players who missed significant playing time last year that will return in 2016.

•Josh Allen, RSo., QB, A broken clavicle in the second game of season versus Eastern Michigan ended Allen's 2015 season prematurely. He played in only the first two series of the Eastern Michigan game before breaking his collarbone on that second series. Allen missed the rest of the 2015 season. He was granted a medical hardship and will have three years of eligibility remaining. Allen came to Wyoming in 2015 from Reedley Community College in California where he played one season.

•Chase Appleby, Sr., NT, A sprained MCL forced him to miss the final five games of the 2015 season. Appleby started five of the first seven games of his junior season before suffering the season-ending injury.

•Tanner Gentry, Sr., WR, Missed the final five games of the 2015 season following a shoulder injury suffered against Nevada in Week 7. He was leading the Mountain West and ranked 16th in the nation in receiving yards per game (98.7) entering the Nevada game.

•Shaun Wick, RSo., RB, Suffered a concussion early in the fourth game of the 2015 season versus New Mexico and missed the final eight games of the season. Granted a medical hardship giving him his senior year back. Wick had never redshirted at Wyoming, having played since his true freshman season of 2012. He enters the 2015 season ranked No. 9 in school history in career rushing yards, with 2,179.

GAME #1

Wyoming 40, NIU 34 3 OT

Sept. 3, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

The 2016 season opener for the Wyoming Cowboys resulted in one of the most memorable victories in the history of Cowboy Football. In triple overtime, the Pokes captured a 40-34 triple overtime home win over Northern Illinois to kick off the 120th season of Wyoming Football. The game was the longest in school history at 4 hours and 14 minutes.

In the third overtime the Cowboy defense held the Huskies on their final series of the contest. During the Cowboys' final possession on a third and four from the seven-yard line, UW sophomore quarterback Josh Allen scrambled out of the pocket and after avoiding several defenders dived into the end zone for the winning touchdown giving the Pokes' a 40-34 victory. Allen ended the night with 315 yards of total offense, with two touchdown passes and his game-winning rushing TD.

In addition to Allen's outstanding performance, junior running back Brian Hill rushed for 125 yards on 33 carries and scored two touchdowns, including a five-yard TD run in the second overtime. Senior wide receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt each had 100-yard receiving games. Gentry caught eight passes for 104 yards and one TD. Maulhardt had five receptions for 106 yards.

Defensively, sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard led the way with 12 tackles. Sophomore linebacker Logan Wilson and senior linebacker D.J. May each finished with nine tackles.

GAME #2

Nebraska 52, Wyoming 17

Sept. 10, 2016

Memorial Stadium - Lincoln, Neb.

After not committing a turnover in the season opener, the Cowboys recorded six total turnovers in a 52-17 loss at Big Ten foe Nebraska on Saturday afternoon in Memorial Stadium in Lincoln, Neb. The Pokes fall to 1-1 on the season, as the Huskers improve to 2-0.

The Husker offense recorded 550 yards of total offense on the day with 412 passing yards. The Cowboy offense produced 320 yards of total offense with 189 yards through the air.

Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry paced the Cowboy offense recording seven catches for 124 yards with one touchdown. He has five career 100-yard games and has 100 yards receiving in back-to-back contests. Sophomore Andrew Wingard finished with a game-high 13 tackles and one forced fumble. He has at least 10 tackles in six of his last seven games.

Allen was 16-of-32 passing for 189 yards with a touchdown and five interceptions. Hill rushed for 49 yards on 17 carries. He remains fifth in career rushing at Wyoming and is five yards short of passing Marques Brigham for fourth in school history.

Senior D.J. May recorded a career-high two tackles for loss for 10 yards against the Huskers. Sophomore Carl Granderson tied a career-high in tackles with six. Granderson added a sack and has a sack in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

GAME #3

Wyoming 45, UC Davis 22

Sept. 17, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

A fast start by the Wyoming Cowboys gave UW a 14-0 lead with only six minutes gone in the first quarter on way to a 45-22 home win over UC Davis as the Cowboys captured their third consecutive home victory. The Cowboy offensive attack featured a physical running game, accounting for 274 yards, while the UW defense held the Aggies to only 74 rushing yards and only 255 yards of total offense.

The 45 points scored by the Cowboys tied for the most in the Craig Bohl era. UC Davis' 22 points were the fewest by a Cowboy opponent since Nevada scored 21 in a 28-21 Cowboy victory last season. Wyoming led UC Davis 35-9 at halftime. That was the most points the Pokes had scored in a half since scoring 35 in the first half of a 59-56, double-overtime victory over Hawai'i in 2013.

Junior Brian Hill would end the day with 207 yards rushing and two TD runs. It was the sixth 200-yard rushing game of his career, and his 13th 100-yard game. Hill began the day fifth on Wyoming's career rushing list and ended the day third. He now has 2,808 career rushing yards. Hill passed former Cowboys Marques Brigham (2,605 yards from 1995-98) and Wynel Seldon (2,672 yards from 2005-08).

The Cowboy defense was led by cornerback Antonio Hull, who had eight tackles and 1.0 tackle for a loss. He was joined by strong safety Marcus Epps, who had seven tackles and forced a fumble.

GAME #4

Eastern Michigan 24, Wyoming 20

Sept. 23, 2016

Rynearson Stadium - Ypsilanti, Mich.

A late touchdown drive and interception by Eastern Michigan lifted the Eagles past the University of Wyoming, 27-24 on Friday in Rynearson Stadium in Ypsilanti, Mich. The Pokes fall to 2-2 with the Eagles moving to 3-1 on the season.

The Cowboys recorded four interceptions on the day including two for touchdowns. It was the most interceptions since recording four against Ole Miss in Laramie in 2004. It was also the first time UW had returned two interceptions for touchdowns since 2013 against Northern Colorado.

Redshirt sophomore Josh Allen was 19-of-29 passing for 234 yards. Junior running back Brian Hill rushed for 82 yards on 22 carries. He now needs 74 yards to become Wyoming's all-time leader in rushing. Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry had a career-high 12 receptions for 127 yards. It was his sixth game with over 100 yards in his career and third this season.
