Wyoming Hosts 92nd Homecoming Game This Week: This week's game versus Air Force will mark the 92nd Homecoming game in University of Wyoming history, and the 67th Homecoming game to be played in War Memorial Stadium.

Last season on Oct. 17, Wyoming defeated Nevada, 28-21, on Homecoming Day.

UW's Overall Record in Homecoming Games	44-44-3 (.500)
UW's Homecoming Record in War Memorial	39-25-2 (.606)

Cowboys and Falcons Will Meet for the 55th Time Saturday: The Wyoming Cowboys and Air Force Falcons will be playing each other for the 55th time this week. Here are some notes on the long standing series.

- Wyoming has won three of the last five meetings in the series.
- The Cowboys won the last game played in Laramie against the Falcons. UW defeated Air Force 17-13 back in the 2014 season.
- The Falcons won last year's meeting in Colorado Springs by a score of 31-17.
- Air Force leads the overall series 28-23-3.
- In games played in Laramie, Wyoming leads 12-11-2.
- Wyoming and Air Force have played each other every year since 1980. This year's meeting will be the 37th consecutive season the two Front Range rivals have played.
- Prior to 1980, the Cowboys and Falcons played 18 times in the 23 seasons from the first game in 1957 through the 1977 meeting. The only five years Wyoming and Air Force didn't play each other since 1957 were in 1961, '63, '73, '78 and '79.

Pokes Seeking Fourth Consecutive Home Win and Fifth in Last Six Home Games:

The Wyoming Cowboys will be seeking their fourth consecutive home win and their fifth home win in their last six home games when they host Air Force on Saturday.

The last time Wyoming won four consecutive home games was the final home game of the 2013 season through the first three home games of the 2014 campaign.

Here is a summary of Wyoming's recent home success.

Date	Opponent	Score
Oct. 17, 2015	Nevada	W 28-21
Nov. 7, 2015	Colorado State	L 7-26
Nov. 28, 2015	UNLV	W 35-28
Sept. 3, 2016	Northern Illinois	W 40-34 (3OT)
Sept. 17, 2016	UC Davis	W 45-22

Breaking Through on the Road: The Wyoming Cowboys broke through for a road win last week, and it came against rival Colorado State. While the Wyoming Cowboys have enjoyed recent success at home, the Pokes' 38-17 road win at CSU on Oct. 1 was its first road win since UW won a 45-17 road game at Fresno State on Nov. 7, 2014. The Cowboys had lost their last nine road games prior to their win over CSU.

Second-Half Shutout: The Cowboy defense played one of its best halves of the season last Saturday against Colorado State. The Cowboys shutout the Rams in the second half and allowed only 134 yards of total offense. UW gave up only two rushing yards to CSU in the second half and only 132 passing yards.

Forcing Turnovers -- Pokes Rank No. 1 in MW and No. 19 Nationally: Only five games into the 2016 season and the Wyoming defense has forced 10 turnovers -- seven interceptions and three fumble recoveries. That is as many turnovers as the Cowboys generated the entire 2015 season when they intercepted five passes and recovered five fumbles the entire season.

The Cowboys currently are tied for No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 19 nationally in most turnovers gained (10).

Defense Scoring Big: With three interception returns for touchdowns in Wyoming's last two games, the Cowboy defense has shown a talent for scoring points early in the 2016 season. Sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps and redshirt freshman linebacker Logan Wilson returned interceptions for touchdowns of 66 and 27 yards, respectively against Eastern Michigan. Senior nose tackle Chase Appleby also had a "Pick Six" of 55 yards against Colorado State.

Cowboys Attract Attention from ESPN With Week 1 Success: Wyoming attracted attention from ESPN this past weekend when College GameDay host Desmond Howard (@DesmondHoward) picked the Cowboys as his "Super Dog" pick to upset the favored Northern Illinois Huskies. Following the Cowboys 40-34, triple overtime win over the Huskies, Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen's winning TD run was highlighted in the weekend's top plays at No. 9.

Offensive Line Play Has Been Strength in 2016: The play of Wyoming's offensive line has been a strength for the Cowboys in 2016.

- Wyoming has allowed only 7.0 quarterback sacks this season, ranking the Pokes No. 4 in the Mountain West and No. 31 in the nation.

- In terms of rushing offense, the Cowboy offensive line helped UW rush for 269 yards against Colorado State in a 38-17 Wyoming win.

Cowboy Middle Linebackers Have Ties to NFL and MLB: Wyoming has a couple current Cowboys with interesting brother ties. Senior middle linebackers Lucas Wacha and Eric Nzeocha both have brothers currently playing professionally.

Wacha, who has been a starting linebacker for Wyoming over the past three seasons, is the younger brother of St. Louis Cardinals' pitcher Michael Wacha. The Wachas are originally from Texarkana, Texas. Michael played his college baseball at Texas A&M.

Nzeocha is the younger brother of former Wyoming Cowboy linebacker Mark Nzeocha, who was drafted as the 19th pick in the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Nzeocha is currently playing linebacker for the Cowboys. The Nzeocha brothers hail from Neusitz, Germany.

Carl Granderson's Start to 2016 Has Been Grand, Sacramento Native is Sack Leader for Pokes: A valuable member of Wyoming's defense a year ago as a true freshman, Carl Granderson has begun his sophomore season at Wyoming in grand style.

The sophomore from Sacramento, Calif., is leading UW in quarterback sacks this season. He recorded a sack in each of Wyoming's first three games of the 2016 season and added a fourth sack against Colorado State. His 0.80 sack per game average ranks No. 7 in the Mountain West and No. 40 nationally. He also has been credited with 18 total tackles, with nine solo tackles, one forced fumble and one pass breakup.

Granderson became the first Cowboy to record at least one sack in each of the first three games of a season since linebacker Brian Brown accomplished that back in 1997. The last UW defensive lineman to accomplish that was Jeff Knapton in 1986.

Tanner Gentry Named to the 2016 Biletnikoff Award Watch List, Earns Honor for Second Straight Year: The Tallahassee Quarterback Club (TQC) Foundation, Inc., the Florida-based creator and sponsor of the Biletnikoff Award, announced on Tuesday, Sept. 27 that University of Wyoming senior receiver Tanner Gentry has been added to the 2016 Biletnikoff Award Watch List. The Biletnikoff Award is presented annually to the college football season's outstanding receiver. Any player, regardless of position, who catches a pass is eligible for the award. This is the second consecutive year that Gentry has been named to the Biletnikoff Award List.

Gentry was one of eight receivers nationally to be added on Tuesday to this year's Biletnikoff Award Watch List.

Recently the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation opened the 2016 FanVote at: <http://biletnikoffaward.com/fan-vote>. Every fan may vote once daily. The aggregate fan tally will be counted as one official vote to determine semi-finalists (10 receivers), finalists (three) and the winner. In 2013, the FanVote tally provided the one-vote margin of victory for Brandin Cooks of Oregon State in the closest contest in years.

Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt Approaching Career Marks: Senior receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt are fast approaching the Top 10 lists in Wyoming history in several career receiving categories. Gentry is nearing the Top 10 in career receiving yards, career receptions and career touchdown receptions. Maulhardt is also nearing the Top 10 in school history in career TD catches. Appleby Makes Play of a Lifetime: You couldn't have drawn up a more memorable play for a senior than the play Chase Appleby made versus Colorado State. Wyoming's senior nose tackle from Frisco, Texas, playing against his archrival for the final time intercepted a pass and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown to give Wyoming a 24-14 lead on way to a 38-17 road win.

Senior Punter Ethan Wood Had Special Night Against Colorado State: Senior punter Ethan Wood had a very special night on special teams against rival Colorado State on Oct. 1. The native of Colorado Springs, Colo., punted six times for a 44.5-yard average and placed four punts inside the Colorado State 20-yard line, including two punts downed on the CSU one-yard line. He had a fifth punt of 48 yards that was downed just outside the "Inside-the-20" range, being downed at the CSU 25.

His punting played a critical role in Wyoming's 38-17 win by making CSU start at an average yard line of its own 15-yard line following his six punts. Wood helped the Cowboys average a remarkable 44.7 yards in net punting on the day, as the Rams returned only one punt for a minus one yard. He had punts of 45, 38, 47, 48, 49 and 40 yards. The 47 and 49-yard punts were the ones downed at Colorado State's own one-yard line.

Gentry Extends Streak of Consecutive Games With a Reception, Maulhardt's Streak Ends at 21 Games:

Consistency has been a strength of senior receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt. Gentry has extended his streak of consecutive games with a reception to 24 games entering this week. Maulhardt had his streak of 21 consecutive games with a reception broken on Oct. 1 against Colorado State. Gentry enters this week tied for 24th in the nation in terms of consecutive games with a reception.

Chase Roullier Named to the 2016 Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists:

Wyoming senior offensive lineman Chase Roullier has been named to both the 2016 Outland Trophy Watch List and the 2016 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch.

The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) announced its 2016 Outland Trophy Watch List. The Outland Trophy is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. Only interior linemen on offense (centers, guards and tackles) and defense (tackles and nose tackles) are eligible for the Outland Trophy. The award is named for the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Penn at the turn of the 20th century.

The Rotary Lombardi Award is in its 47th year of existence, having begun in 1970 by the Rotary Club of Houston to honor NFL coach Vince Lombardi. The award began as a way to honor interior line positions, which is the position Lombardi played at Fordham University. Later, the award was expanded to include as candidates linebackers and tight ends. This year, candidates are allowed from all position players who have displayed outstanding performance on the field and exhibit great leadership qualities.

Roullier has been a mainstay for the Cowboy Football team the past three seasons. He was named to the 2016 Preseason All-Mountain West team in voting by conference media members, and earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior in 2015 in voting by conference head coaches and media. Roullier has started 28 career games, including the last 27 consecutive.

Head Coach Troy Calhoun: Air Force head man Troy Calhoun has found success at the Academy in a relatively short amount of time. In his 10th season, he's lifted the program to new heights within the Mountain West Conference. Calhoun is 71-50 after taking over a program that had posted three-straight losing seasons before his arrival. They have posted wins at Notre Dame and Utah and led the Falcons to a school-record six straight bowl games from 2007-12. In Mountain West Conference play Calhoun is 41-31.

He is the only coach in the 100-plus year history of service academy football to lead teams to at least seven wins and a bowl game in each of his first five seasons. Calhoun has twice been semifinalist for the National Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field (2007, 2010).

His players have also been amazingly successful finishing their academic and leadership responsibilities. The Air Force football team's most recent NCAA APR is an astounding 976 which once again places the Academy amongst the nation's best in the sport of football.

Calhoun brought a wealth of experience and impressive resume at the collegiate and professional levels that is flooded with success at every stop to the Academy. Calhoun came to the Academy after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Houston Texans in 2006. The Texans were one of only two NFL teams to triple their number of wins from the previous year.

University of Wyoming Launches Major Initiative for new $44 Million High Altitude Performance Center:

The University of Wyoming unveiled plans in April of 2015 for a $44 million renovation and expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center that will triple the size of the facility. This major new addition to the Rochelle Athletics Center will be called the High Altitude Performance Center.

In addition, UW announced a $3 million leadership gift from Marian Rochelle to launch the project. The gift will be doubled to $6 million by the State of Wyoming. Marian and her late husband Curt were the lead contributors to the Rochelle Athletics Center in 1998.

The High Altitude Performance Center will be funded by a $24 million private support campaign and a $20 million State of Wyoming matching program.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," said Governor Matt Mead. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support, and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

This remarkable public-private partnership will expand the current 48,000-square-foot Rochelle Athletics Center into a 126,000-square-foot premier collegiate athletics complex, solidifying Wyoming's reputation as a state committed to excellence—producing student-athletes who succeed in the classroom, compete at the highest level on the field, and define a lasting legacy for this great state.

"The expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center to include the High Altitude Performance Center will assist our student-athletes to be the best they can be," said April Brimmer Kunz, daughter of Marian Rochelle and UW Foundation Board of Directors vice chair. "Our family's donation is targeted to help student-athletes receive a meaningful degree when they graduate from the University of Wyoming."

"It is fitting that the lead gift to this important project is being made by Marian Rochelle," said Cowboy Football Head Coach Craig Bohl. "Her unwavering commitment is a testament to Marian's recognition of the ongoing needs of our student-athletes. Marian's extraordinary philanthropy continues to shape the course of Cowboy Athletics and Wyoming's university. It is a redefining moment for Cowboy football."

While the central focus of the expansion is to provide the football program with the tools it needs to win Mountain West Conference championships, the facility will also benefit all UW student-athletes.

When this initiative is complete, the facility will become the premier athletics center in the Mountain West Conference, featuring new or expanded spaces focused on academic success, nutrition, strength and conditioning and sports medicine and rehabilitation facilities for all of Wyoming's student-athletes.

"The Athletics department and university have had a wonderful long-term partnership with the Rochelle family," says UW Athletics Director Tom Burman. "It is exciting that Marian is investing in this transformational project. When this facility is complete, the new High Altitude Performance Center will become the premier athletic center in the Mountain West Conference. We are so appreciative of Marian and April. It is simply amazing the impact that they have had on UW through the years."

The first floor will maximize efficiency and create a welcoming environment with the Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center centrally located so it can be accessed by all student-athletes.

The first floor will also have the Football Strength and Performance Center, a tiered team meeting room and an expanded football locker room, as well as a Heritage Hall honoring the history and traditions of Cowboy Football.

The existing football coaches' office suite and position meeting rooms on the second floor will be reconfigured and enlarged.

The second floor Training Table will integrate technology for customizing each meal to meet the individual nutritional needs of every individual student-athlete. The arrangement of the space will allow for team meals, as well as more casual and intimate dining.

"The University of Wyoming, in partnership with transformational private supporters like Marian Rochelle and State of Wyoming leaders guided by Governor Mead and so many key members of the Wyoming Legislature, is making a statement that the commitment to excellence in our state knows no bounds," said Ben Blalock, UW Foundation president.

"Marian H. Rochelle is one of UW's greatest supporters and friends," said UW President Dick McGinity. "She and her husband Curt's initial gift for the Rochelle Athletics Center changed the face of the university and its programs. That gift made the center possible, and this most recent one will make it better. Marian's generosity has touched many places on campus, but the most important impact her generosity has had is on students. She shares the university's vision of giving students every opportunity to become successful, and with her continued support, they will be able to accomplish just that."

2016 Mountain West Bowl Synopsis

The following bowl information has been compiled by the Mountain West Conference entering the 2016 season.

(The schedule at the bottom of this page reflects the bowl games Mountain West teams will play in during the 2016 bowl season. The Mountain West also has a relationship with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl that is explained below.)

The number of postseason appearances for the Mountain West will be driven by on-the-field performance, starting with the opportunity to play in the national semifinals or another New Year's Day bowl game as part of the College Football Playoff arrangement.

The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system.

In the 17 seasons since the league's inception, the Mountain West's champion or a current MW member has secured that position 12 times, placing teams in the Fiesta (3), Rose and Sugar (2) Bowls during that period.

The MW also has agreements with six (6) different bowl games that in any given year will generate as many as six (6) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Nova Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and a secondary position with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl.

The Mountain West will collaborate with the bowl partners to place all eligible teams with consideration given to matchup, geography and historical considerations (e.g., last time a team participated in any bowl or a particular bowl). NOTE: The MW is the primary backup for the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl if the Big 12 or Pac-12 does not fill.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In its third season, the College Football Playoff format remains unchanged: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and the national championship game played in a different city every year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performances during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The 2016 season will mark the third season Craig Bohl will lead the Wyoming Football program as head coach and will mark his 14th year as a college head coach. Over his first two years at Wyoming, he focused on building Cowboy Football for the long term. Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 13 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in his last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2016 season will be Bohl's 36th year coaching at the college level.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 58 years old when the 2016 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Players Who Will Return for 2016 Season After Missing All or Part of 2015 Season Due to Injury:

The Wyoming Cowboys suffered a number of key injuries during the 2015 season. Here are some of those key players who missed significant playing time last year that will return in 2016.

•Josh Allen, RSo., QB, A broken clavicle in the second game of season versus Eastern Michigan ended Allen's 2015 season prematurely. He played in only the first two series of the Eastern Michigan game before breaking his collarbone on that second series. Allen missed the rest of the 2015 season. He was granted a medical hardship and will have three years of eligibility remaining. Allen came to Wyoming in 2015 from Reedley Community College in California where he played one season.

•Chase Appleby, Sr., NT, A sprained MCL forced him to miss the final five games of the 2015 season. Appleby started five of the first seven games of his junior season before suffering the season-ending injury.

•Tanner Gentry, Sr., WR, Missed the final five games of the 2015 season following a shoulder injury suffered against Nevada in Week 7. He was leading the Mountain West and ranked 16th in the nation in receiving yards per game (98.7) entering the Nevada game.

•Shaun Wick, RSo., RB, Suffered a concussion early in the fourth game of the 2015 season versus New Mexico and missed the final eight games of the season. Granted a medical hardship giving him his senior year back. Wick had never redshirted at Wyoming, having played since his true freshman season of 2012. He enters the 2015 season ranked No. 9 in school history in career rushing yards, with 2,179.

Wyoming 45, UC Davis 22

Sept. 17, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

A fast start by the Wyoming Cowboys gave UW a 14-0 lead with only six minutes gone in the first quarter on way to a 45-22 home win over UC Davis as the Cowboys captured their third consecutive home victory. The Cowboy offensive attack featured a physical running game, accounting for 274 yards, while the UW defense held the Aggies to only 74 rushing yards and only 255 yards of total offense.

The 45 points scored by the Cowboys tied for the most in the Craig Bohl era. UC Davis' 22 points were the fewest by a Cowboy opponent since Nevada scored 21 in a 28-21 Cowboy victory last season. Wyoming led UC Davis 35-9 at halftime. That was the most points the Pokes had scored in a half since scoring 35 in the first half of a 59-56, double-overtime victory over Hawai'i in 2013.

Junior Brian Hill would end the day with 207 yards rushing and two TD runs. It was the sixth 200-yard rushing game of his career, and his 13th 100-yard game. Hill began the day fifth on Wyoming's career rushing list and ended the day third. He now has 2,808 career rushing yards. Hill passed former Cowboys Marques Brigham (2,605 yards from 1995-98) and Wynel Seldon (2,672 yards from 2005-08).

The Cowboy defense was led by cornerback Antonio Hull, who had eight tackles and 1.0 tackle for a loss. He was joined by strong safety Marcus Epps, who had seven tackles and forced a fumble.
