TEEING OFF

This Week: The Cowboys head to the Colorado Golf Club in Parker, Colo., for the Paintbrush Invitational. Hosted by the University of Denver, the tournament will feature a field of 15 teams, including Mountain West foes Air Force, Colorado State, and New Mexico.

Records Were Made to Be Broken: The Cowboys put on a record-setting performance at the Mark Simpson Colorado Invite on Sept. 26-27. Wyoming's team score of 845 (-19) broke the previous school record for strokes under par in a 54-hole tournament by a whopping five strokes. UW finished 14-under at the 2012 Battle of the Tetons, the 2006 Ron Moore Invite and the 1998 Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate. Additionally, Wyoming's two rounds of 280 (-8) at the Mark Simpson Colorado Invite each tied for the sixth-best single-round team score in program history.

Going (W)all-in: Ryan Wallen's 54-hole score of 206 (-10) at the Mark Simpson Colorado Invite tied for the second-best individual finish in program history, just two strokes behind Kurt Kowaluk's program record of -12 from 2002. Wallen carded a career-best 65 in the second round, which tied for the best single round score for any player in the 108-golfer field and also tied for the third-best single-round finish in program history. The Cowboys' veteran leader finished the tournament just one stroke off the lead, taking second place overall.

Living in the Red: Four of five Cowboys in the starting lineup finished under par at the Mark Simpson Colorado Invite. While Wallen led the way at 206 (-10), junior Drew McCullough carded a score of 212 (-4) and fellow junior Glenn Workman finished at 213 (-3). In his first career appearance in Wyoming's starting lineup, sophomore John Murdock finished with an impressive score of 214 (-2). Wallen, McCullough, Workman and Murdock all finished in the top 20 places at the tournament and carded eight below-par rounds between them.
