Wyoming and Boise State Battle for Mountain Division Lead on Saturday:

The Wyoming Cowboys 5-2 overall and 3-0 in Mountain West Conference will battle the Boise State Broncos (7-0, 3-0 in the MW) for the top spot in the Mountain Division of the MW on Saturday.

Wyoming's 3-0 record to start league play marks the first time since the Cowboys joined the MW in 1999 that they have begun conference play 3-0. The last time Wyoming began conference play 3-0 was in its last year in the Western Athletic Conference in 1998. UW began that season 6-0 in the conference.

Cowboys Receive Vote in Coaches Poll This Week: The Wyoming Cowboys received a vote in this week's Amway Coaches Poll. That marked the first time since 2007 that Wyoming had received a vote in one of the national polls.

Pokes Seek First Win Over a Top 25 Team Since 2002: The Wyoming Cowboys will be looking for their first win over a Top 25 ranked team since defeating No. 22 ranked Air Force, 34-26, on Oct. 26, 2002, in a game played in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium. Boise State enters this week ranked No. 13 in both the Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls.

Scoring on Defense, Cowboys No. 2 in Nation in Defensive TDs Scored:

The Wyoming Cowboys currently are tied for No. 2 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored. Wyoming, Ohio State and Houston have each scored four defensive TDs during the 2016 season. Only Alabama, which has scored nine defensive touchdowns has scored more.

Wyoming's Defensive Touchdown Streak Broken at Three Games: In three consecutive games leading up to Wyoming's Oct. 22 game at Nevada, the Cowboys had scored a defensive touchdown. But that streak ended at Nevada as Wyoming failed to score defensively in a 42-34 road victory.

The Pokes' most recent score came on a 15-yard fumble return for a TD by senior linebacker D.J. May against Air Force on Oct. 8. The previous two games against Eastern Michigan and Colorado State, UW had three interception returns for touchdowns. Sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps and redshirt freshman linebacker Logan Wilson returned interceptions for touchdowns of 66 and 27 yards, respectively against Eastern Michigan. Senior nose tackle Chase Appleby also had a "Pick Six" of 55 yards against Colorado State.

Forcing Turnovers -- Pokes Rank No. 1 in MW and No. 16 Nationally: Only seven games into the 2016 season and the Wyoming defense has forced 15 turnovers -- 11 interceptions and four fumble recoveries. The Cowboys generated only 10 turnovers for the entire 2015 season when they intercepted five passes and recovered five fumbles. The Cowboys currently are tied for No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 16 nationally in most turnovers gained (15).

Cowboys' 11 Interceptions Rank No. 1 in MW and No. 8 in NCAA: Wyoming's 11 interceptions to date rank the Cowboys No. 1 in the Mountain West with San Diego State and rank the Pokes No. 8 nationally. Only Troy (14 interceptions), Cincinnati (14), BYU (14), Utah (14), Nebraska (13), SMU (13) and Appalachian State (12) have more. Wyoming is tied for eighth with Clemson (11), Colorado (11), Memphis (11), Ohio State (11) and San Diego State (11).

UW Seeking Fifth Consecutive Home Victory and Sixth in Last Seven Home Games:

The Wyoming Cowboys captured their fourth consecutive home win and their fifth home win in their last six home games when they defeated Air Force 35-26 on Sat., Oct. 8.

The last time Wyoming won four consecutive home games was the final home game of the 2013 season through the first three home games of the 2014 campaign.

The last time the Cowboys won five consecutive home games began midway in the 2006 season through midway into the 2007 season. UW won six consecutive home games during that stretch over Utah, Colorado State, San Diego State, Virginia, Utah State and TCU.

Here is a summary of Wyoming's recent home success.

Date	Opponent	Score
Oct. 17, 2015	Nevada	W 28-21
Nov. 7, 2015	Colorado State	L 7-26
Nov. 28, 2015	UNLV	W 35-28
Sept. 3, 2016	Northern Illinois	W 40-34 (3OT)

Tanner Gentry

Tanner Gentry Named to the 2016 Biletnikoff Award Watch List, Earns Honor for Second Straight Year:

The Tallahassee Quarterback Club (TQC) Foundation, Inc., the Florida-based creator and sponsor of the Biletnikoff Award, announced on Tuesday, Sept. 27 that University of Wyoming senior receiver Tanner Gentry had been added to the 2016 Biletnikoff Award Watch List. The Biletnikoff Award is presented annually to the college football season's outstanding receiver. Any player, regardless of position, who catches a pass is eligible for the award. This is the second consecutive year that Gentry has been named to the Biletnikoff Award List.

Recently the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation opened the 2016 FanVote at: <http://biletnikoffaward.com/fan-vote>. Every fan may vote once daily. The aggregate fan tally will be counted as one official vote to determine semi-finalists (10 receivers), finalists (three) and the winner. In 2013, the FanVote tally provided the one-vote margin of victory for Brandin Cooks of Oregon State in the closest contest in years.

Chase Roullier

Chase Roullier Named to the 2016 Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists:

Wyoming senior offensive lineman Chase Roullier has been named to both the 2016 Outland Trophy Watch List and the 2016 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch.

The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) selects the Outland Trophy Watch List. The Outland Trophy is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. Only interior linemen on offense (centers, guards and tackles) and defense (tackles and nose tackles) are eligible for the Outland Trophy. The award is named for the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Penn at the turn of the 20th century. The Rotary Lombardi Award is in its 47th year of existence, having begun in 1970 by the Rotary Club of Houston to honor NFL coach Vince Lombardi. The award began as a way to honor interior line positions, which is the position Lombardi played at Fordham University. Later, the award was expanded to include as candidates linebackers and tight ends. This year, candidates are allowed from all position players who have displayed outstanding performance on the field and exhibit great leadership qualities.

Roullier has been a mainstay for the Cowboy Football team the past three seasons. He was named to the 2016 Preseason All-Mountain West team in voting by conference media members, and earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior in 2015 in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Roullier is also an outstanding student, majoring in mechanical engineering. He is a three-time Academic All-Mountain West Conference selection.

Gentry Part of Second Longest Pass Play in School History in 2015:

Wide receiver Tanner Gentry was part of the second longest pass play in school history in the 2015 season opener vs. North Dakota. Gentry caught a 92-yard touchdown pass from redshirt senior quarterback Cam Coffman for Wyoming's first TD of the season. The only longer pass play in school history was a 93-yard TD pass from Brett Smith to Robert Herron versus San Jose State in 2013.

Ethan Wood

Ethan Wood Selected as Candidate for Ray Guy Award for Second Consecutive Season:

The Ray Guy Award recognizes the nation's Collegiate Punter of the Year each season. This year, Wyoming's Ethan Wood has been selected by the Augusta Sports Council as a preseason candidate for the award for the second consecutive year. The list of candidates will be narrowed to 10 semifinalists who will be announced on Nov. 13. Following the semifinalists announcement, a national body of Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) sports information directors, coaches, media representatives and previous Ray Guy Award winners will vote for the top three finalists. The voting body will then cast ballots to select the winner.

The presentation of the Ray Guy Award will be featured live on ESPN during The Home Depot College Football Awards Show.

Linebacker D.J. May Once Again

One of Nation's Top Kick Returners:

Senior linebacker D.J. May is once again one of the nation's leading kickoff returners. May enters this week ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 43 in the NCAA in kickoff returns, averaging 24.4 yards per return.

A converted running back, who shifted to linebacker at the beginning of his junior season, May averaged 26.2 yards per return in 2016 to rank No. 4 in the MW and No. 24 in the NCAA.

Senior Punter Ethan Wood Had Special Night Against Colorado State:

Senior punter Ethan Wood had a very special night on special teams against rival Colorado State on Oct. 1. The native of Colorado Springs, Colo., punted six times for a 44.5-yard average and placed four punts inside the Colorado State 20-yard line, including two punts downed on the CSU one-yard line. He had a fifth punt of 48 yards that was downed just outside the "Inside-the-20" range, being downed at the CSU 25.

His punting played a critical role in Wyoming's 38-17 win by making CSU start at an average yard line of its own 15-yard line following his six punts. Wood helped the Cowboys average a remarkable 44.7 yards in net punting on the day, as the Rams returned only one punt for a minus one yard. He had punts of 45, 38, 47, 48, 49 and 40 yards. The 47 and 49-yard punts were the ones downed at Colorado State's own one-yard line.

Through the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Roullier has been involved in Hoops Day and Youth Activities. He is a member of the University of Wyoming FCA Leadership Team and was a Huddle Leader for the FCA Next Level Retreat in the Spring of 2016.

From the original list of 156 semifinalists, 12 to 14 finalists will be named on Nov. 1 to the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. Each finalist will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship. Those finalists for the 2016 Campbell Award will travel to New York City for the 59th NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 6. The winner of the Campbell Award will be announced at the NFF Awards Dinner and will receive an additional $7,000 in scholarship money to increase his overall postgraduate scholarship to $25,000.

The Campbell Trophy is named for Bill Campbell, who was chairman of Intuit and was a former player and coach at Columbia University. Campbell was honored in 2004 as the recipient of the NFF's Gold Medal. This year's postgraduate scholarships will push the program's all-time distribution to more than $11.1 million.

This year's semifinalists are represented by all divisions of college football. Roullier is one of 66 nominees from the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), and is one of 91 team captains nominated. There are 67 offensive nominees, 68 defensive nominees and 21 special teams nominees.

Head Coach Bryan Harsin: As head coach of the Boise State football team, Bryan Harsin has found success during his three seasons directing the Bronco football program. He has posted a record of 28-6 and 15-5 in MW play. He also led the Broncos to a 38-30 win over Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl two seasons ago.

A member of the Boise State coaching staff from 2001-10, Harsin assumed duties for former coach Chris Petersen, who left the Broncos to become the head coach at Washington. Previously, Harsin served as co-offensive coordinator at Texas (2011-12) and head coach at Arkansas State (2013).

A native son of Boise, Harsin was BSU's offensive coordinator for five seasons (2006-10), and was named a finalist for the 2009 Broyles Award, awarded annually to the nation's top assistant coach. Boise State went 61-5 during his tenure as O.C., including perfect seasons in 2006 (13-0) and 2009 (14-0), and an undefeated regular season in 2008.

With Harsin at the helm, Boise State finished in the top 25 nationally each season in both total offense and scoring offense. The Broncos led the country in scoring in 2009 (42.21), and finished as the nation's second-highest scoring team in both 2006 (39.69) and 2010 (45.08). Boise State also ranked second-nationally in total offense in 2010 (521.31), and added top-10 finishes in the statistical category in 2006 and 2009.

As quarterbacks coach, Harsin mentored Kellen Moore, the winningest quarterback in college football history, during his first four seasons as a Bronco. Moore, now with the Detroit Lions, was named first-team All-America by the Football Writers Association of America in 2010, and became Boise State's first Heisman Trophy Finalist that same season.

Last Meeting -- Wyoming 14, Boise State 34 on Oct. 24, 2015: An early deficit for the University of Wyoming Cowboy (1-7 overall, 1-3 MW) football team was too much to overcome in a 34-14 loss to Boise State (6-2 overall, 3-1 MW) on Saturday evening in Albertson's Stadium in Boise, Idaho. The Broncos led 24-7 going into the second half on the way to the win. Sophomore running back Brian Hill made history becoming the fastest Cowboy to reach 1,000 yards rushing in a season.

University of Wyoming Football

University of Wyoming Launches Major Initiative for new $44 Million High Altitude Performance Center:

The University of Wyoming unveiled plans in April of 2015 for a $44 million renovation and expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center that will triple the size of the facility. This major new addition to the Rochelle Athletics Center will be called the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center.

In addition, UW announced a $3 million leadership gift from Marian Rochelle to launch the project. The gift will be doubled to $6 million by the State of Wyoming. Marian and her late husband Curt were the lead contributors to the Rochelle Athletics Center in 1998.

The High Altitude Performance Center will be funded by a $24 million private support campaign and a $20 million State of Wyoming matching program.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," said Governor Matt Mead. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support, and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

This remarkable public-private partnership will expand the current 48,000-square-foot Rochelle Athletics Center into a 126,000-square-foot premier collegiate athletics complex, solidifying Wyoming's reputation as a state committed to excellence—producing student-athletes who succeed in the classroom, compete at the highest level on the field, and define a lasting legacy for this great state.

"The expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center to include the High Altitude Performance Center will assist our student-athletes to be the best they can be," said April Brimmer Kunz, daughter of Marian Rochelle and UW Foundation Board of Directors vice chair. "Our family's donation is targeted to help student-athletes receive a meaningful degree when they graduate from the University of Wyoming."

"It is fitting that the lead gift to this important project is being made by Marian Rochelle," said Cowboy Football Head Coach Craig Bohl. "Her unwavering commitment is a testament to Marian's recognition of the ongoing needs of our student-athletes. Marian's extraordinary philanthropy continues to shape the course of Cowboy Athletics and Wyoming's university. It is a redefining moment for Cowboy football."

While the central focus of the expansion is to provide the football program with the tools it needs to win Mountain West Conference championships, the facility will also benefit all UW student-athletes.

When this initiative is complete, the facility will become the premier athletics center in the Mountain West Conference, featuring new or expanded spaces focused on academic success, nutrition, strength and conditioning and sports medicine and rehabilitation facilities for all of Wyoming's student-athletes.

"The Athletics department and university have had a wonderful long-term partnership with the Rochelle family," says UW Athletics Director Tom Burman. "It is exciting that Marian is investing in this transformational project. When this facility is complete, the new High Altitude Performance Center will become the premier athletic center in the Mountain West Conference. We are so appreciative of Marian and April. It is simply amazing the impact that they have had on UW through the years."

The first floor will maximize efficiency and create a welcoming environment with the Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center centrally located so it can be accessed by all student-athletes.

The first floor will also have the Football Strength and Performance Center, a tiered team meeting room and an expanded football locker room, as well as a Heritage Hall honoring the history and traditions of Cowboy Football.

The existing football coaches' office suite and position meeting rooms on the second floor will be reconfigured and enlarged.

The second floor Training Table will integrate technology for customizing each meal to meet the individual nutritional needs of every individual student-athlete. The arrangement of the space will allow for team meals, as well as more casual and intimate dining.

"The University of Wyoming, in partnership with transformational private supporters like Marian Rochelle and State of Wyoming leaders guided by Governor Mead and so many key members of the Wyoming Legislature, is making a statement that the commitment to excellence in our state knows no bounds," said Ben Blalock, UW Foundation president.

"Marian H. Rochelle is one of UW's greatest supporters and friends," said UW President Dick McGinity. "She and her husband Curt's initial gift for the Rochelle Athletics Center changed the face of the university and its programs. That gift made the center possible, and this most recent one will make it better. Marian's generosity has touched many places on campus, but the most important impact her generosity has had is on students. She shares the university's vision of giving students every opportunity to become successful, and with her continued support, they will be able to accomplish just that."

2016 Mountain West Bowl Synopsis

The following bowl information has been compiled by the Mountain West Conference entering the 2016 season.

(The schedule at the bottom of this page reflects the bowl games Mountain West teams will play in during the 2016 bowl season. The Mountain West also has a relationship with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl that is explained below.)

The number of postseason appearances for the Mountain West will be driven by on-the-field performance, starting with the opportunity to play in the national semifinals or another New Year's Day bowl game as part of the College Football Playoff arrangement.

The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system.

In the 17 seasons since the league's inception, the Mountain West's champion or a current MW member has secured that position 12 times, placing teams in the Fiesta (3), Rose and Sugar (2) Bowls during that period.

The MW also has agreements with six (6) different bowl games that in any given year will generate as many as six (6) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Nova Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and a secondary position with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl.

The Mountain West will collaborate with the bowl partners to place all eligible teams with consideration given to matchup, geography and historical considerations (e.g., last time a team participated in any bowl or a particular bowl). NOTE: The MW is the primary backup for the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl if the Big 12 or Pac-12 does not fill.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In its third season, the College Football Playoff format remains unchanged: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and the national championship game played in a different city every year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performances during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The 2016 season will mark the third season Craig Bohl will lead the Wyoming Football program as head coach and will mark his 14th year as a college head coach. Over his first two years at Wyoming, he focused on building Cowboy Football for the long term. Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 13 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in his last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2016 season will be Bohl's 36th year coaching at the college level.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 58 years old when the 2016 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Players Who Will Return for 2016 Season After Missing All or Part of 2015 Season Due to Injury:

The Wyoming Cowboys suffered a number of key injuries during the 2015 season. Here are some of those key players who missed significant playing time last year that will return in 2016.

•Josh Allen, RSo., QB, A broken clavicle in the second game of season versus Eastern Michigan ended Allen's 2015 season prematurely. He played in only the first two series of the Eastern Michigan game before breaking his collarbone on that second series. Allen missed the rest of the 2015 season. He was granted a medical hardship and will have three years of eligibility remaining. Allen came to Wyoming in 2015 from Reedley Community College in California where he played one season.

•Chase Appleby, Sr., NT, A sprained MCL forced him to miss the final five games of the 2015 season. Appleby started five of the first seven games of his junior season before suffering the season-ending injury.

•Tanner Gentry, Sr., WR, Missed the final five games of the 2015 season following a shoulder injury suffered against Nevada in Week 7. He was leading the Mountain West and ranked 16th in the nation in receiving yards per game (98.7) entering the Nevada game.

•Shaun Wick, RSo., RB, Suffered a concussion early in the fourth game of the 2015 season versus New Mexico and missed the final eight games of the season. Granted a medical hardship giving him his senior year back. Wick had never redshirted at Wyoming, having played since his true freshman season of 2012. He enters the 2015 season ranked No. 9 in school history in career rushing yards, with 2,179.

Wyoming 40, NIU 34 3 OT

Sept. 3, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

The 2016 season opener for the Wyoming Cowboys resulted in one of the most memorable victories in the history of Cowboy Football. In triple overtime, the Pokes captured a 40-34 triple overtime home win over Northern Illinois to kick off the 120th season of Wyoming Football. The game was the longest in school history at 4 hours and 14 minutes.

In the third overtime the Cowboy defense held the Huskies on their final series of the contest. During the Cowboys' final possession on a third and four from the seven-yard line, UW sophomore quarterback Josh Allen scrambled out of the pocket and after avoiding several defenders dived into the end zone for the winning touchdown giving the Pokes' a 40-34 victory. Allen ended the night with 315 yards of total offense, with two touchdown passes and his game-winning rushing TD.

In addition to Allen's outstanding performance, junior running back Brian Hill rushed for 125 yards on 33 carries and scored two touchdowns, including a five-yard TD run in the second overtime. Senior wide receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt each had 100-yard receiving games. Gentry caught eight passes for 104 yards and one TD. Maulhardt had five receptions for 106 yards.

Defensively, sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard led the way with 12 tackles. Sophomore linebacker Logan Wilson and senior linebacker D.J. May each finished with nine tackles.

GAME #3

Wyoming 45, UC Davis 22

Sept. 17, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

A fast start by the Wyoming Cowboys gave UW a 14-0 lead with only six minutes gone in the first quarter on way to a 45-22 home win over UC Davis as the Cowboys captured their third consecutive home victory. The Cowboy offensive attack featured a physical running game, accounting for 274 yards, while the UW defense held the Aggies to only 74 rushing yards and only 255 yards of total offense.

The 45 points scored by the Cowboys tied for the most in the Craig Bohl era. UC Davis' 22 points were the fewest by a Cowboy opponent since Nevada scored 21 in a 28-21 Cowboy victory last season. Wyoming led UC Davis 35-9 at halftime. That was the most points the Pokes had scored in a half since scoring 35 in the first half of a 59-56, double-overtime victory over Hawai'i in 2013.

Junior Brian Hill would end the day with 207 yards rushing and two TD runs. It was the sixth 200-yard rushing game of his career, and his 13th 100-yard game. Hill began the day fifth on Wyoming's career rushing list and ended the day third. He now has 2,808 career rushing yards. Hill passed former Cowboys Marques Brigham (2,605 yards from 1995-98) and Wynel Seldon (2,672 yards from 2005-08).

The Cowboy defense was led by cornerback Antonio Hull, who had eight tackles and 1.0 tackle for a loss. He was joined by strong safety Marcus Epps, who had seven tackles and forced a fumble.

Wyoming 35, Air Force 26

Oct. 8, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

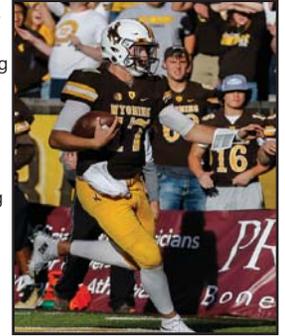

An aggressive Wyoming defense that forced four Air Force turnovers and a balanced Cowboy offense that generated 189 yards rushing and 173 passing led the Wyoming Cowboys to a 35-26 home win over the Falcons.

For Air Force, it was the Falcons' first loss of the season, dropping them to 4-1 and 1-1 in the Mountain West. The Falcons came into the game allowing opponents only 53 rushing yards per game, but the Cowboys were able to generate 189 rushing yards, including 92 by junior running back Brian Hill and 74 by sophomore quarterback Josh Allen.

Forcing turnovers were key for the Cowboys for the second straight week. The Pokes intercepted the Falcons three times and senior linebacker D.J. May returned an Air Force fumble for 15 yards and a touchdown.

May's TD marked the third consecutive game that the Wyoming defense scored at least one touchdown. Sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps picked off an Air Force pass in the first quarter. Sophomore cornerback Antonio Hull intercepted two passes -- one late in the third quarter and a second interception on Air Force's final possession with 1:43 remaining in the game to seal the victory for the Pokes.

The Cowboys built a 28-6 lead late in the third quarter, but Air Force fought its way back into the game with three consecutive touchdowns to pull with two points at 28-26 with 3:31 remaining in the game.
