ROOT SPORTS™

ROOT SPORTS to Televisify Wyoming-UNLV Game:

This week's Wyoming-UNLV game will be televised on ROOT SPORTS. The kickoff for the game has been set for 1:30 p.m., M.T. (12:30 p.m., P.T.). The ROOT SPORTS' announcers for the game will be Drew Goodman (Play-by-Play), Sed Bonner (Color Analyst) and Brad Thompson (Sideline Reporter).

Wyoming One of Only 12 Teams Nationally Undefeated in Conference Play in 2016:

The Wyoming Cowboys 5-0 record in the Mountain West Conference this season ranks them as one of only 12 of the 128 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) programs in the country to be undefeated in conference play in 2016. The other 11 teams are: Alabama (6-0 in SEC), Clemson (6-0 in ACC), Michigan (6-0 in Big Ten), Oklahoma (6-0 in Big 12), San Diego State (5-0 in MW), Washington and Washington State (6-0 in PAC 12), Western Michigan (5-0 in MAC), Appalachian State (5-0 in Sun Belt) and Arkansas State and Troy (4-0 in Sun Belt).

Wyoming's 5-0 record to start league play marks the first time since the Cowboys joined the MW in 1999 that they have begun conference play 5-0. The last time Wyoming began conference play 5-0 was in its last year in the Western Athletic Conference in 1998. UW began that season 6-0 in the conference.

UW Tied for 12th Best Overall Winning Percentage in the Nation:

Wyoming's 7-2 overall record this season is tied for the 12th best winning percentage among the 128 FBS programs in the nation. The only teams ahead of the Cowboys are: Alabama, Clemson, Michigan, Washington and Western Michigan, which are all 9-0; Boise State, Louisville, Ohio State and San Diego State, all at 8-1; and Troy and West Virginia, both a 7-1.

Wyoming of course handed Boise State its only loss of the season on Oct. 29

Pokes Continue to Receive Votes in the National Polls: The Wyoming Cowboys continued to receive votes in this week's national polls. Wyoming is tied for No. 34 in this week's Associated Press media poll and is No. 31 in this week's Amway Coaches Poll.

Cowboys' 7-2 Start the Best Since 1998: Wyoming's 7-2 start to the 2016 season is its best since the 1998 Cowboys began the season 8-1. UW's next best start since 1998 was a 6-3 start, which the Pokes posted in 1999, 2004 and 2011 seasons.

Pokes Record First Win Over a Top 25 Team Since 2002: The Wyoming Cowboys recorded their first win over a Top 25 ranked team since 2002 when they defeated the No. 13 Boise State Broncos, 30-28, on Oct. 29, 2016. The last time UW had defeated a nationally-ranked team was Oct. 26, 2002, versus then No. 22 ranked Air Force, 34-26, in a game played in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium.

Scoring on Defense, Cowboys No. 3 in Nation in Defensive TDs Scored: The Wyoming Cowboys currently are tied for No. 3 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored. Wyoming, San Diego State, Arkansas, Central Florida, Central Michigan and Houston have each scored four defensive TDs during the 2016 season. Only Alabama, which has scored nine defensive touchdowns, and Ohio State, with six, have scored more.

Chase Scores Again! Wyoming's defense continued its amazing run of scoring points this season when nose tackle Chase Appleby forced a fumble that bounced out of the end zone for a safety in UW's win over No. 13 Boise State on Oct. 29.

Appleby had a "Pick Six" of 55 yards against Colorado State earlier this season.

The Pokes' also scored on a 15-yard fumble return for a TD by senior linebacker D.J. May against Air Force on Oct. 8. Sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps and redshirt freshman linebacker Logan Wilson returned interceptions for touchdowns of 66 and 27 yards, respectively against Eastern Michigan.

UW Seeking Third Straight Road Win for First Time Since 1999: The Wyoming Cowboys broke through for a road win on Oct. 1 against rival Colorado State (38-17) and followed that up with a second consecutive road win at Nevada (42-34) on Oct. 22. The last time UW had won consecutive road games was in the 2012 season, winning at New Mexico on Nov. 10 and at UNLV on Nov. 17 by identical scores of 28-23.

The last time UW won three consecutive road games was back in the 1999 season, winning at No. 24 ranked Air Force (10-7), at Louisiana-Monroe (38-20) and at Utah (43-29).

The Cowboys also won three consecutive road games in 1998 at UNLV (28-25 ot), at TCU (34-27) and at Colorado State (27-19).

The last time the Pokes won four consecutive road games was a stretch at the end of the 1995 season and in to the 1996 season, winning at San Diego State (34-31) and at UTEP (42-19) to end the '95 season and defeating Iowa State (41-38 ot), UNLV (33-21) and San Jose State (45-22) on the road to start the 1996 season for five consecutive road wins.

Ethan Wood Named Ray Guy Award Punter of the Week vs. Boise State:

The Augusta Sports Council and Ray Guy Award named Wyoming senior punter Ethan Wood the national Ray Guy Award Punter of the Week following his performance in Wyoming's victory over the 13th ranked Boise State Broncos.

Wood had an incredible day punting the football and had a critical impact on the game, averaging a season high 46.4 yards per punt on five punts. He placed four of his five punts inside the Boise State 20-yard line, including punts downed at the Broncos' 7, 12, 5 and 10 yard lines. The punt that he placed at the Boise State five resulted in Boise taking possession at their own one-yard line after a muff.

His fifth punt was also fielded inside the Boise State 20 -- at the 19 and returned only six yards to the Broncos' 25-yard line. That was the only punt returned on the day by the Broncos.

Wood helped the Cowboys average 46.0 yards net punting as a team in the win over the Broncos. Due to Wood's punting, Boise State did not score on any of its five possessions following Wood's five punts on the day.

His final punt of 42 yards was downed at the Boise State 10-yard line and led to Cowboy senior nose tackle Chase Appleby sacking Bronco quarterback Brett Rypien two plays later for the game-winning safety.

Cowboy QB Josh Allen Named a Manning Award Star of the Week the Past Two Weeks:

For the second consecutive week, Wyoming quarterback Josh Allen has been named one of the eight Manning Award Stars of the Week. He was the only quarterback from a Group of Five school among this week's Manning Award Stars of the Week. The Manning Award is sponsored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl. Fans may vote for their top performer of the week on Facebook at: https://www.facebook.com/pg/allstatesugarbowl/photos/?tab=album&album_id=10157605314455459 up until Thursday at 10 a.m., M.T.

Against Utah State last Saturday, Allen had career highs in total offense (327 yards), touchdown passes (4) and TDs responsible for (5). He threw for 261 yards and rushed for 66. Allen accounted for five of Wyoming's seven touchdowns throwing four touchdown passes and rushing for a fifth TD.

Allen was nearly flawless in leading Wyoming to a 35-7 halftime lead. He completed 70.6 percent of his passes (12 of 17) in the first half and threw three of his four TD passes before halftime. He personally converted 7 of 8 third-down attempts in the first half -- three by passing and four by rushing.

The other quarterbacks vying for this week's Manning Award Star of the Week award are: Jake Browning, Washington; Luke Falk, Washington State; Nick Fitzgerald, Mississippi State; Lamar Jackson, Louisville; Baker Mayfield, Oklahoma; Mason Rudolph, Oklahoma State; and Wilton Speight, Michigan.

Cowboys Celebrate Win Over Boise State

Association of America National Team of the Week honor for games of the weekend of Oct. 29.

Allen hit Tanner Gentry in the back of the end zone with 6:42 left, then dodged the Boise State rush and hit Jake Maulhardt for a two-point conversion for a 28-28 tie. Minutes later, punter Ethan Wood pinned Boise State at its own 10-yard line, his fourth punt inside the Broncos' 20-yard line, that set up the decisive series. On second down, nose tackle Chase Appleby came free on a defensive line stunt and hit Boise State quarterback Brett Rypien, knocking the ball loose. The ball bounced out of the back of the end zone for a safety, and Wyoming took its first lead of the day.

"If a win could help define a program this one did," said Bohl. "We have a lot of respect for Boise State and Coach (Bryan) Harsin. I want to say thanks to our fans and students. A couple of years ago, I had someone take a photo of the crowd and it was bleak, but tonight it was neat to see the students and people around the state rally around the team. A lot of great plays and effort, and coming in we knew it was going to be down to a play here or there. It shows resolve and belief with our coaches and players. A lot of hard work went in to this win and it's victory number six."

This is Wyoming's first time to be selected as the FWAA National Team of the Week since the award's inception in the 2002 season. The other National Team of the Week nominees for the weekend of Oct. 29 were Clemson, who defeated Florida State, and Texas, who defeated Baylor.

Members of the 12-person FWAA All-America Committee -- plus one fan vote from Twitter -- decide the weekly honor.

Mountain West Names Allen and Wilson Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week:

For the second consecutive week, two Wyoming Cowboys were honored as the Mountain West Conference Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week. This week, Cowboy redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen and redshirt freshman linebacker Logan Wilson earned the honors for their performances in Wyoming's 52-28 home win over Utah State to improve the Cowboys' record to 7-2 overall and 5-0 in the Mountain West. It is the second MW Player of the Week honor for Allen this season and the first for Wilson. Allen was also recognized for his play against Northern Illinois in the 2016 season opener.

Josh Allen

Logan Wilson

Allen accounted for five of Wyoming's seven touchdowns throwing four touchdown passes and rushing for a fifth TD. He had career highs in total offense (327 yards), touchdown passes (4) and TDs responsible for (5) against Utah State. Allen threw for 261 yards and rushed for 66.

The native of Firebaugh, Calif., produced 11 big plays on Saturday -- nine pass plays of 15 or more yards (18, 16, 25, 24, 15, 20, 46, 37, 21 yards) and two rushing plays of over 10 yards (15 and 38 yards).

Wilson was instrumental in both of the two turnovers forced by the Wyoming defense in its 52-28 win over the Aggies. He also accounted for 7 tackles, including 5 solo tackles, to go with his interception, which he returned for 56 yards, and his fumble recovery.

Late in the second quarter, Wilson recovered a fumble forced by Cowboy cornerback Rico Gafford at the Utah State 44-yard line with only 1:19 remaining in the first half. Midway through the fourth quarter, Wilson intercepted an Aggie pass at the Wyoming 18-yard line and returned the interception 56 yards to the Utah state 26-yard line. Both turnovers led to Wyoming touchdowns.

Last week, Wyoming senior nose tackle Chase Appleby and senior tight end Jacob Hollister were named the Mountain West Conference Defensive and Offensive Players of the Week.

Running the Ball and Stopping the Run:

A focus of head coach Craig Bohl and his team has been to run the ball effectively and stop the opponent's rushing attack. Thus far this season, the Cowboys have done a good job of accomplishing both of those goals.

- Wyoming ranks No. 5 in the Mountain West and 26th nationally in rushing offense, averaging 228.7 yards per game.

- Wyoming ranks No. 3 in the Mountain West and No. 37 in the nation in rushing defense, allowing opponents only 138.4 rushing yards per game.

Special, Special Teams:

How special were the Wyoming Special Teams in the win over Boise State on Oct. 29? Here are a few of the Cowboys' special teams' accomplishments against Boise State.

- Senior punter Ethan Wood punted five times in the game. Boise State's average starting field position after those five punts was its own 11-yard line.

- Boise State did not score on any of its possessions following a Wyoming punt.

- True freshman place-kicker Cooper Rothe was a perfect 2 for 2 in field goals against Boise State, including hitting a career long 40-yarder and a 39-yarder.

- Rothe continued his season long streak of consecutive point-after-touchdown attempts. He was a perfect 2 for 2 in PATs vs. the Broncos.

- Wyoming's punt coverage team allowed Boise State a net of only two punt return yards on five punts.

Mountain West Names Appleby and Hollister Defensive and Offensive

Players of the Week Following Win Over Boise State:

University of Wyoming senior nose tackle Chase Appleby and senior tight end Jacob Hollister were named the Mountain West Conference Defensive and Offensive Players of the Week, respectively, after leading the Cowboys to a 30-28 win over #13 ranked Boise State on Oct. 29. It was the first MW Player of the Week honor for both Appleby and Hollister.

Appleby made one of the great defensive plays of the college football season versus Boise State. With his Wyoming Cowboys tied 28-28, Appleby sacked Boise State quarterback Brett Rypien and knocked the ball loose. The ball bounced out of the back of the Broncos' end zone for a safety that gave Wyoming a 30-28 upset win. It was a very rare game-winning safety. Appleby also had 1.0 sack and 2.0 tackles for loss on the night.

Hollister made critical play after critical play in Wyoming's 30-28 victory Saturday. Hollister had single-game career highs in receptions (6), yards (144) and touchdown receptions (2) vs. Boise State. He averaged 24.0 yards per reception, with catches of 14 yards, 29, 19, 27, 28 and 27 yards. His catches of 19 and 28 yards were TD receptions. The 19-yard TD catch pulled the Cowboys to within a touchdown, 14-7, of Boise State in the second quarter. His 28-yard touchdown reception cut the Boise State lead to 21-17 with less than a minute to go in the first half. Hollister also had a spectacular catch of 27 yards on the sideline in the fourth quarter with a defender in his face that setup Wyoming's game-tying touchdown a few plays later.

Forcing Turnovers -- Pokes Rank No. 1 in MW and No. 17 Nationally:

Nine games into the 2016 season and the Wyoming defense has forced 19 turnovers -- 13 interceptions and six fumble recoveries. The Cowboys generated only 10 turnovers for the entire 2015 season when they intercepted five passes and recovered five fumbles. The Cowboys currently are No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 17 nationally in most turnovers gained (19).

Cowboys' 13 Interceptions Rank No. 2 in MW and No. 11 in NCAA:

Wyoming's 13 interceptions to date rank the Cowboys No. 2 in the Mountain West and rank the Pokes No. 11 nationally. Only Appalachian State (16), San Diego State (16), Cincinnati (15), Clemson (15), BYU (15), Utah (15), Nebraska (15), Troy (15), Ohio State (14) and SMU (14) have more. Wyoming is alone by itself in 11th place with 13 interceptions.

Winning the Turnover Battle:

A key to Wyoming's success this season has been its ability to win the turnover battle. The Cowboys have won the turnover battle in eight of nine games this season, including the last seven consecutive games. The only game UW didn't win the turnover battle was its loss at Nebraska.

Here is Wyoming's game-by-game turnover comparison with its 2016 opponents.

Game	Wyoming	Opponent	TO Margin
	Turnovers Forced	Turnovers Forced
vs. N. Illinois	1	0	+1

at Nevada	1	0	+1
vs. Boise State	2	1	+1
vs. Utah State	2	1	+1

Chase Roullier Named to the 2016 Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists:

Wyoming senior offensive lineman Chase Roullier has been named to both the 2016 Outland Trophy Watch List and the 2016 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch.

The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) selects the Outland Trophy Watch List. The Outland Trophy is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. Only interior linemen on offense (centers, guards and tackles) and defense (tackles and nose tackles) are eligible for the Outland Trophy. The award is named for the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Penn at the turn of the 20th century. The Rotary Lombardi Award is in its 47th year of existence, having begun in 1970 by the Rotary Club of Houston to honor NFL coach Vince Lombardi.

The award began as a way to honor interior line positions, which is the position Lombardi played at Fordham University. Later, the award was expanded to include as candidates linebackers and tight ends. This year, candidates are allowed from all position players who have displayed outstanding performance on the field and exhibit great leadership qualities.

Roullier has been a mainstay for the Cowboy Football team the past three seasons. He was named to the 2016 Preseason All-Mountain West team in voting by conference media members, and earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior in 2015 in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Roullier is also an outstanding student, majoring in mechanical engineering. He is a three-time Academic All-Mountain West Conference selection.

Wood helped the Cowboys average a remarkable 44.7 yards in net punting on the day, as the Rams returned only one punt for a minus one yard. He had punts of 45, 38, 47, 48, 49 and 40 yards. Cowboy Middle Linebackers Wacha and Nzeocha Have Ties to MLB and NFL:

Wyoming has a couple current Cowboys with interesting family ties. Senior middle linebackers Lucas Wacha and Eric Nzeocha both have brothers currently playing professionally.

Wacha, who has been a starting linebacker for Wyoming over the past three seasons, is the younger brother of St. Louis Cardinals' pitcher Michael Wacha. The Wachas are originally from Texarkana, Texas. Michael played his college baseball at Texas A&M.

Nzeocha is the younger brother of former Wyoming Cowboy linebacker Mark Nzeocha, who was drafted as the 19th pick in the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Nzeocha is currently playing linebacker for the Cowboys. The Nzeocha brothers hail from Neusitz, Germany.

Josh Allen Emerging as One of the Top QBs in the Mountain West:

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen is emerging as one of the top quarterbacks in the Mountain West Conference in 2016. Allen ranks among league leaders in numerous statistical categories.

He has been named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week twice during his sophomore season. His first MW Player of the Week honor came after leading the Cowboys to a 40-34 triple overtime win against Northern Illinois in the 2016 season opener. Allen also earned the honor for his play in a 52-28 win over Utah State.

University of Wyoming Football

Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center Will Benefit All UW Student-Athletes:

The University of Wyoming broke ground Saturday, Oct. 29 on the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center (HAPC). The HAPC will be one of the preeminent athletic facilities in the country. It will add 71,000 square feet of new space and will expand the current Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center to over 118,000 square feet.

The HAPC groundbreaking was held on the same day the Wyoming Cowboys hosted the Boise State Broncos in a battle for first place in the Mountain West Conference's Mountain Division.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," Wyoming Gov. Matt Mead said in April, when fundraising was announced. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

The project is funded by $24 million in private donations that were raised by UW Athletics and the UW Foundation and $20 million in state matching approved by Gov. Mead and the Legislature. Overwhelming interest by donors—55 total—saw the fundraising efforts completed ahead of schedule. Marian Rochelle and her family donated $3 million as a leadership gift to kick off the project, and the combined gifts of Marian Rochelle and her daughter April Brimmer Kunz have since grown to $4.1 million.

"Mick and Susie McMurry's generosity and their commitment to making the University of Wyoming a premier university in both athletics and academics will be symbolized by the High Altitude Performance Center that will bear their name," says Tom Burman, UW athletics director. "We also want to thank Marian Rochelle and April Brimmer Kunz for their generous lead gift for this project. And we of course want to thank Governor Mead and the members of the Wyoming State Legislature for making funds available to match the private funds that we raised for this facility."

"The High Altitude Performance Center will be one of the best facilities of its kind in all of college athletics. It will provide the student-athletes in all of our sports the athletic training resources to compete with the best in the nation, and it will provide our academic counseling unit exceptional resources to help our student-athletes achieve their educational and career goals."

"The Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center will redefine Cowboy football," says UW Head Football Coach Craig Bohl. "This facility will play a critical role in our vision of recruiting to what we call the Wyoming Profile. That recruiting effort involves attracting a young man who is committed to earning a meaningful degree from an outstanding academic institution and has a laser-like focus to win Mountain West Conference championships. The High Altitude Performance Center will put us at the top of the league in terms of training and academic facilities, which is where we also aspire to be on the field of competition."

The new facility will focus on the unique advantages of training at an altitude of 7,220 feet. From strength and conditioning training, to nutrition, to recovery and rehabilitation services following injuries, the HAPC will serve the needs of all of Wyoming's 400-plus student-athletes.

The facility's design will stay true to the architectural tradition of iconic sandstone buildings featured throughout the UW campus.

Located just beyond the north end zone, the High Altitude Performance Center will enhance the aesthetics of War Memorial Stadium. Due to its location, the HAPC will be highly visible for national television audiences. It will show the commitment that the state of Wyoming has in ensuring Wyoming Athletics continues to successfully compete at the NCAA Division I level -- the highest level of competition in college sports.

The ground level of the HAPC will house both an Olympic sport weight-training area and a separate strength and conditioning center for the Cowboy football team that will overlook Jonah Field. Also on the first floor will be a sports medicine area that will nearly double the size of its previous space, allowing for more effective and efficient treatment of UW student-athletes. The football locker room, like the football strength and conditioning area, will overlook the field and will include a player lounge.

The second floor will include an expansive academic center to house academic counselors, tutoring areas and a computer lab, as well as enhanced and renovated football offices, meeting rooms, a new recruiting lounge and the nutrition center/training table. The theater-style team meeting room will span both the first and second floors.

Construction on the project will begin after the conclusion of the 2016 Cowboy football season. It is estimated that the project will take 18-20 months to complete.

The original Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center was opened in 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. Fundraising for the RAC included a historic $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, which was the largest donation in school history at the time. A total of 167 donors contributed to the original RAC.

2016 Mountain West Bowl Synopsis

The following bowl information has been compiled by the Mountain West Conference entering the 2016 season.

(The schedule at the bottom of this page reflects the bowl games Mountain West teams will play in during the 2016 bowl season. The Mountain West also has a relationship with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl that is explained below.)

The number of postseason appearances for the Mountain West will be driven by on-the-field performance, starting with the opportunity to play in the national semifinals or another New Year's Day bowl game as part of the College Football Playoff arrangement.

The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system.

In the 17 seasons since the league's inception, the Mountain West's champion or a current MW member has secured that position 12 times, placing teams in the Fiesta (3), Rose and Sugar (2) Bowls during that period.

The MW also has agreements with six (6) different bowl games that in any given year will generate as many as six (6) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Nova Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and a secondary position with the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl.

The Mountain West will collaborate with the bowl partners to place all eligible teams with consideration given to matchup, geography and historical considerations (e.g., last time a team participated in any bowl or a particular bowl). NOTE: The MW is the primary backup for the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl if the Big 12 or Pac-12 does not fill.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In its third season, the College Football Playoff format remains unchanged: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and the national championship game played in a different city every year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performances during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The 2016 season will mark the third season Craig Bohl will lead the Wyoming Football program as head coach and will mark his 14th year as a college head coach. Over his first two years at Wyoming, he focused on building Cowboy Football for the long term. Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 13 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in his last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2016 season will be Bohl's 36th year coaching at the college level.

Players Who Will Return for 2016 Season After Missing All or Part of 2015 Season Due to Injury:

The Wyoming Cowboys suffered a number of key injuries during the 2015 season. Here are some of those key players who missed significant playing time last year that will return in 2016.

•Josh Allen, RSo., QB, A broken clavicle in the second game of season versus Eastern Michigan ended Allen's 2015 season prematurely. He played in only the first two series of the Eastern Michigan game before breaking his collarbone on that second series. Allen missed the rest of the 2015 season. He was granted a medical hardship and will have three years of eligibility remaining. Allen came to Wyoming in 2015 from Reedley Community College in California where he played one season.

•Chase Appleby, Sr., NT, A sprained MCL forced him to miss the final five games of the 2015 season. Appleby started five of the first seven games of his junior season before suffering the season-ending injury.

•Tanner Gentry, Sr., WR, Missed the final five games of the 2015 season following a shoulder injury suffered against Nevada in Week 7. He was leading the Mountain West and ranked 16th in the nation in receiving yards per game (98.7) entering the Nevada game.

•Shaun Wick, RSo., RB, Suffered a concussion early in the fourth game of the 2015 season versus New Mexico and missed the final eight games of the season. Granted a medical hardship giving him his senior year back. Wick had never redshirted at Wyoming, having played since his true freshman season of 2012. He enters the 2015 season ranked No. 9 in school history in career rushing yards, with 2,179.

A fast start by the Wyoming Cowboys gave UW a 14-0 lead with only six minutes gone in the first quarter on way to a 45-22 home win over UC Davis as the Cowboys captured their third consecutive home victory. The Cowboy offensive attack featured a physical running game, accounting for 274 yards, while the UW defense held the Aggies to only 74 rushing yards and only 255 yards of total offense.

GAME #5

Wyoming 38, Colorado State 17

Oct. 1, 2016

Hughes Stadium - Fort Collins, Colo.

A balanced effort by the Cowboy offense, defense and special teams lifted Wyoming (3-2, 1-0 MW) past Colorado State (2-3, 0-1 MW) 38-17 on Saturday evening in Hughes Stadium in Fort Collins, Colo. Junior running back Brian Hill became UW's all-time rushing leader and became the first UW back to reach 3,000 career rushing yards.

The Cowboys also earned the "Bronze Boot" in the process for the first time since 2012. The "Bronze Boot" game record swings in the Pokes' favor at 25-24 after Saturday's win.

Hill finished the game with 166 yards with one touchdown on 19 carries. He was the first 100 yard rusher against the Rams this season. He passed Devin Moore's career rushing mark on a 39-yard run in the second quarter. He now has 3,056 rushing yards in his career. Not to be out done senior punter Ethan Wood was effective as well.

The Pokes rushed for 284 yards on the night and went 4-of-4 in the red zone. The Cowboy defense played a big role helping UW score 14 points off of turnovers. The Cowboy defense added a defensive touchdown for back-to-back games with a defensive score. Wyoming has now forced 10 turnovers during the 2016 season (7 interceptions and 3 fumbles). Wyoming forced 10 total turnovers in 2015 (5 interceptions and 5 fumbles).

Allen finished the game with 165 passing yards with one touchdown. He also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown. Gentry has caught a pass in 24-straight games. With 15 carries for 54 yards, Wick moved into sixth place on UW's all-time rushing yards list.

GAME #6

Wyoming 35, Air Force 26

Oct. 8, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

An aggressive Wyoming defense that forced four Air Force turnovers and a balanced Cowboy offense that generated 189 yards rushing and 173 passing led the Wyoming Cowboys to a 35-26 home win over the Falcons.

For Air Force, it was the Falcons' first loss of the season, dropping them to 4-1 and 1-1 in the Mountain West. The Falcons came into the game allowing opponents only 53 rushing yards per game, but the Cowboys were able to generate 189 rushing yards, including 92 by junior running back Brian Hill and 74 by sophomore quarterback Josh Allen.

Forcing turnovers were key for the Cowboys for the second straight week. The Pokes intercepted the Falcons three times and senior linebacker D.J. May returned an Air Force fumble for 15 yards and a touchdown.

May's TD marked the third consecutive game that the Wyoming defense scored at least one touchdown. Sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps picked off an Air Force pass in the first quarter. Sophomore cornerback Antonio Hull intercepted two passes -- one late in the third quarter and a second interception on Air Force's final possession with 1:43 remaining in the game to seal the victory for the Pokes.

The Cowboys built a 28-6 lead late in the third quarter, but Air Force fought its way back into the game with three consecutive touchdowns to pull with two points at 28-26 with 3:31 remaining in the game.

GAME #7

Wyoming 42, Nevada 34

Oct. 22, 2016

Mackay Stadium - Reno, Nev.

Junior running back Brian Hill rushed for a career-high 289 leading the Pokes to a 42-34 win over Nevada on Saturday evening in Mackay Stadium in Reno, Nev. With the win the Cowboys move to 5-2 overall and 3-0 in Mountain West. It is the best start in conference play for the Pokes since moving to the conference.

Hill had seven rushes over 15 yards on the night and added a career-high three touchdowns. It was the highest rushing total in the MW this season and the second most in school history. He now owns four of the top-10 single-game rushing outputs in school history.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen threw for 145 yards on 9-of-13 passing. He also rushed for 52 yards with two touchdowns and one receiving touchdown. Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry had four grabs for 109 yards.

Sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard recorded 11 tackles on the night. He has double-digit tackles in 12 career games. Redshirt freshman Logan Wilson added nine tackles tying a career high. He added a sack and an interception to seal the game for the Pokes. Sophomore Antonio Hull had a career-high 10 tackles for the Wyoming.

Hill was on fire in the opening quarter running for 97 yards. On his first touch of the contest, he sprinted past the Wolf Pack defenders for a 41-yard gain. He would later put the Pokes on the board first on a 56-yard rush to make it 7-0.

GAME #8

Wyoming 30, Boise State 28

Oct. 29, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

Wyoming defeated #13 ranked Boise State 30-28 in War Memorial Stadium in a come-from-behind win.

A fourth-quarter touchdown drive led by redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen and a safety forced by senior nose tackle Chase Appleby with 1:25 remaining in the game gave Wyoming its first win over a Top 25 ranked team since 2002 and earned the Cowboys sole possession of first place in the Mountain West Conference's Mountain Division, with a 4-0 conference mark. The Pokes trailed the entire game until that fourth quarter TD and two-point conversion tied the game at 28-28, and the safety gave them their first lead.

On the night, Cowboy quarterback Allen posted a career best 274 yards passing. Hollister recorded a career best 144 yards receiving, and Hill rushed for 146 yards for his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season.

With 10:50 remaining in the game, Boise State grabbed a 28-20 lead following a five-play, 78-yard TD drive. The Cowboys would take the ball at their own 25-yard line on the ensuing possession and began their drive with two runs of nine and two yards by junior running back Brian Hill. Allen then dropped back and fired a pass to the back of the end zone and Gentry jumped over the Bronco defender pulling in the TD pass to get the Cowboys to within two points at 28-26 with 6:42 remaining. Allen worked some more magic on the two-point conversion. He was flushed out of the pocket to his right and then threw back across the field to the middle of the end zone, hitting Maulhardt to tie the game at 28-28.

GAME #9

Wyoming 52, Utah State 28

Nov. 5, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys scored on their first two drives of the game and scored 35 points in the first half on way to a 52-28 home win over the Utah State Aggies on Saturday.

Saturday's victory extended the Cowboys' winning streak to five games, and their home winning streak to six straight. The last time Wyoming won five consecutive games was back in 1998, when UW won seven straight. The 1998 season was also the last time Wyoming started a season this well. Through the first nine games of '98, Wyoming was 8-1. Six consecutive home victories has not been accomplished since a stretch from 2006 to 2007.

Wyoming's 52 points Saturday were the most scored during the three years of the Craig Bohl era, and the 24-point margin of victory was the largest of the season for the Pokes.

Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen had another outstanding night, completing 16 of 26 passes (61.5 percent) for 261 yards. He threw four touchdown passes and one interception. Allen also ran for 66 yards and another TD. The four TD passes were a career high. The 327 yards of total offense matched his career high set a week ago in the Cowboys win over Boise State. Allen came into Saturday's game leading the Mountain West in points responsible for, averaging 14.5 points per game passing, running and receiving. He was responsible for 30 points against Utah State, with his four TD passes and one rushing touchdown.
