2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball Opponent Information/Notes

Last Time Out: The Wyoming women's basketball team (1-1 overall) gave a great effort, but fell short 63-51 against the 22nd-ranked Michigan State Spartans (2-0 overall) on Sunday afternoon.

Sophomore Marta Gomez led the way for the Cowgirls with 15 points along with six rebounds in 27 minutes of action. Sophomore Rachelle Tucker and freshman Taylor Rusk each added eight points while Tucker also recorded five rebounds. Bailee Cotton finished her night with six boards while Clara Tapia tallied six assists. UW shot 17-of-42 (.405) from the field and 8-of-14 (.571) from beyond the arc. UW also out rebounded the Spartans, 32-29.

"I told the team at the end of the game that coaching is a difficult profession. You can win by 22 and not be happy with the performance or take a loss like today and I couldn't be more proud of them," head coach Joe Legerski said. "We had to compete. I thought in the second quarter we got down by nine, fought back and went in to the locker room down two. We executed what we wanted to do, were there mistakes made, but there will always be. I was so pleased that we kept fighting all the way until the end. Marta (Gomez) played well on the offensive end and did what we asked her to do. Also, we got a big lift from Taylor (Rusk) with eight points, defended well, and Rachelle (Tucker) gave us that energy off the bench. I'm happy with what we are progressing to become."

Michigan State was led by Tori Jankoska with a game-high 22 points and four assists. Taya Reimer followed with 18 points and seven rebounds while Brannndais Agee added nine points and ten rebounds. The Spartans shot 21-of-54 (.389) from the field and 16-of-21 (.762) from the free throw line.

Michigan State extended the lead to nine, 32-23, with a 7-0 run to begin the third quarter. A basket by Tucker ended a 3:30 minute scoring drought for the Cowgirls and they would close the gap to six, 38-32, with 3:10 left on the clock. The Spartans closed out the period scoring seven of nine to take a 45-34 advantage. Wyoming fell behind by 14, 50-36, in the first couple of minutes of the fourth until free throws and a basket by Gomez started a 9-6 run to cut the deficit to ten, 56-46. Despite a solid effort, the Cowgirls would run out of chances, falling by the final of 63-51.

The Cowgirls got on the board first with a Liv Roberts three-point field goal while the Spartans followed with five-straight to go up 5-3 in the early part of the game. UW responded with five unanswered points to go ahead 8-5. After free throws by MSU ended a scoreless drought, another three by Ligocki made it 11-7 for Wyoming. Michigan State scored the next 13 straight to take a 20-11 lead. A three by Gomez started a 12-3 run to even up the score at 23 all. A late basket with under a minute to go gave the Spartans a 25-23 lead headed in to the locker room.

Gomez led UW with six points and 2-of-4 from beyond the arc. Roberts had five points while Tucker led the way with four boards. The Cowgirls shot 9-of-27 (.333) from the field and 5-of-10 (.500) from three. The Spartans were led by Jankoska with 12 points while Agee finished with seven rebounds. MSU was 7-of-27 (.259) from the field and 3-of-6 (.500) from three.

Scouting the Pioneers: Wyoming returns home to welcome the Denver Pioneers this week. The Pioneers are currently 1-1 overall. Samantha Romanowski leads the way averaging 16 points per game while Jesse Spittel and Jordyn Alt are adding 6.5 rebounds per contest. As a squad, Denver returns four starters and eight letterwinners to a team that went 5-25 overall and 3-13 in The Summit League a season ago. This is the 25th meeting between the two schools. UW leads the series 20-4 and has won the last four in a row. The last time the two met was December 9, 2015. The Cowgirls came out on top with a 75-64 victory. The Pioneers are coached by Kerry Cremeans who is in her fifth season with the program.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball Media Information/Schedule

Welcome to the University of Wyoming and Cowgirl Basketball. The following information is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the 2016-17 season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for the media area and photo credentials should be directed to Director of Media Relations Amy Dambro and the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. Her number is 307-766-2269. Press-pass requests should be made at least 24 hours prior to game time. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at the Will Call Window, located at the northwest side of the Arena-Auditorium at the Athletics Ticket Office.

Arena Auditorium

Wyoming's Arena Auditorium is located on Willett Drive in Laramie, just north of War Memorial Stadium and the Fieldhouse complex. Media parking is located to the south and west of the Double A, in the "S, Brown and Summit View" lots.

Post Game Procedures

Members of the Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the media room at the top of the player ramp. Head Coach Joe Legerski and requested Cowgirl players will come to the room. Opponent coaches and players will be interviewed outside their locker room.

Legerski and Player Interviews

All interview requests for head coach Joe Legerski or any players should be made through the UW Athletics Media and Public Relations Office, 307-766-2256, at least 24 hours in advance. Players are available as their class schedules, practices and meetings permit. Players will not be available until post-game on game days. Media members are also required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending any Cowgirl practice session.

Conference Call

Joe Legerski will conduct a conference call every week during the season. The day will vary, so contact the MR office for more information. Media members are asked to call the bridge three to five minutes prior to the conference. The number is 307-766-1007 and the access number is 2256#.

Cowgirls On The Radio

The University of Wyoming women's basketball team is excited to have its games broadcast during the 2016-17 year. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo. In Laramie, the games can be heard on KOWB (1290). Check local listings for games carried in your area on one of the 25 Cowboy Sports Network affiliates. Games will begin with a 30-minute pre-game. Handling the play-by-play will be Reece Monaco. Joining Monaco as the color analyst is Wyoming Hall of Famer Margie McDonald.

Ticket Information

Season and single-game tickets can be purchased through the Wyoming Athletics Ticket Office at 307-766-7220, 877-WYO-FAN1 (877-996-3261) or online at www.GOWYO.com.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball
Conference Information

Two Cowgirls Garner All-MW Honors: Two members of the Wyoming Cowgirl basketball team, Marquelle Dent and Marta Gomez, were recognized on Monday as the Mountain West announced the 2016 All-Conference Team. Dent was named to the All-MW and All-Defensive Teams for the second year in a row while Gomez was selected to the league's All-Freshman Team. Dent, a senior from Denver, Colo., led the way with a team-high in points, assists and steals. She was also first on the team in minutes played, field goals and attempts. In conference games, she ranked second in minutes played, third in steals and assists, fifth in assist/turnover ratio and seventh in scoring. Dent recorded double-figures in 14 of 18 games while leading the team in assists 16 times, steals 12 times and eight times in scoring. She is ranked among the top 15 in several career categories in school history and is the only player with over 1,000 points, 500 assists and 175 steals. A first year player with the program from Valles, Spain, Gomez started in all 18 games during conference action. She averaged 10.3 points and 5.1 rebounds in 31.6 minutes per play. She led the team in three-point field goals made, attempts and percentage while being ranked in among the top ten in each of those categories in league games. Gomez recorded ten double-figure scoring games and one double-digit rebounding game.

JOE LEGERSKI

(WYOMING, 1979)

University of Wyoming, Head Women's Basketball Coach

Joe Legerski will be entering his 14th season in 2016-17 as the head women's basketball coach at the University of Wyoming. He was named head coach on May 1, 2003 and became the sixth head coach in Cowgirl history.

During the 2015-16 campaign, the Cowgirls finished with a 13-16 overall record and 6-12 in MW play. His overall record stands at 245-156 while he holds a 120-88 mark in league play. Two individuals were selected for postseason honors. Senior Marquelle Dent was named to the All-Conference and All-Defensive teams for the second straight year while newcomer Marta Gomez was selected to the MW All-Freshmen team.

He recorded his first career coaching victory on Dec. 13, 2003, as Wyoming defeated Montana State Billings, 62-51. His first conference win came on Jan. 17, 2004 against rival BYU.

In his first season, he guided the Cowgirls to an 11-18 record overall and a 6-8 mark in the Mountain West including their first ever Mountain West Tournament victory in school history. Two Cowgirls also garnered All-Conference awards as he earned MW Coach of the Year honors in his first year with the program.

In 2004-05, he helped the Cowgirls to a 16-12 overall mark, along with a 7-7 record and a fourth place finish in the MW. It was the highest they'd finished in conference play since 1996-97. They swept BYU for the first time since 1994-95 and earned a 72-67 win over the Colorado Buffaloes which snapped a 13-game losing streak. Three Cowgirls earned All-MW awards including Ashley Elliott who earned First Team All-MW honors for the second year in a row.

For the 2005-06 season, the Cowgirls completed the year 21-9 overall, while finishing 10-6 overall in the Mountain West Conference. They made an appearance in the WNIT for only the third time in school history. The 21-wins were at the time the most since the 1989-90 season when they went 24-8 and the ten conference victories at the time tied an all-time school record which was set in 1978-79. Three Cowgirls garnered All-Conference honors, including Hanna Zavec who earned First Team All-MW and Defensive Player of the Year honors along with Megan McGuffey who took home the MW Newcomer of the Year award.

During the 2006-07 campaign, it was a magical year for Legerski and the Cowgirls as they won the WNIT Postseason Championship over the Wisconsin Badgers. Wyoming went 6-0 enroute to the championship. They completed the season with a program best 27-9 record, which eclipsed the 24-8 mark set in 1989-90, and the 11-5 record and second place finish in the league standings were the second most wins in both the MW and school history. It was the also the first time in school history that a Cowgirl team had won at least 20 games in back-to-back seasons, along with being invited to post season play. For the second year in a row, Hanna Zavec was named First Team All-MW and Justyna Podziemska was named MW Newcomer of the Year along with earning Second Team All-MW honors.

In 2007-08, the Cowgirls continued where they left off from the previous season as further marks were broken. They started off with an 18-1 record, which was the best start in school history, and tied for the best in the MW as well. With 24 wins, they recorded their third straight 20-win season, which had never been done in the programs' history, and with a 12-4 mark in conference play it also was the most conference wins breaking the 11 wins set the year before. Their play helped them earn the Cowgirl programs' first ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. For the first time in school history, they were also ranked among the Top 25 teams in the country by both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Division I Coaches' Poll. Their highest ranking was 15th in the AP (1/28/08) and 16th in the Coaches' Poll (1/29/08). As a team, they were ranked in either poll for 13 weeks during the season and received votes for the other six polls. Wyoming was also honored with several individual awards. Hanna Zavec was named First Team All-Mountain West for the third straight year, while being named the MW Defensive Player of the Year, Justyna Podziemska earned Second Team All-MW honors for the second straight year, and Aubrey Vandiver was awarded Third Team All-MW honors. Zavec also garnered Honorable Mention All-America accolades by the Associated Press and for the second year in a row was named to the State Farm Coaches' Honorable Mention All-America Team.

In his sixth season with the Cowgirls, they wrapped up the year with a 16-14 record overall and an 8-8 mark in MWC. With a victory over Denver (11/14/08), he would reach his 100th career victory, the fastest head coach to achieve that mark in school history. Four Cowgirls earned conference honors as Hillary Carlson was named Second Team All-MW, Megan McGuffey was Third Team All-MW, Kristen Scheffler was Honorable Mention All-MW and Emma Langford was named the Sixth Player of the Year.

Under his guidance in 2009-10, the Cowgirls recorded a 20-win or more season finishing with a 21-12 overall record and a 9-7 mark in the MWC. It was the fourth time out of the five seasons that a Wyoming team had recorded 20-wins or more, along with their sixth consecutive winning season. His teams have played in postseason a record number of times as well. They had played beyond the regular season in four of his seven years, which included the last four of five. Three Cowgirls garnered conference honors for the seventh straight year under Legerski as Hillary Carlson and Aubrey Vandiver were each named to the Second Team All-MW, while Emma Langford earned Third Team All-MW honors.

It was another record setting year for the Cowgirls during the 2010-11 basketball campaign. Wyoming posted their fifth 20-win season out of the last six years by going 24-9 overall and 12-4 in the Mountain West. The 12 conference victories tied for the most wins set by the 2007-08 team and the 24 wins tied for the third most wins in school history. It also marked the Cowgirls seventh consecutive winning season and the second time in the last eight years they recorded back-to-back 20-win seasons. Wyoming continued their latest run through the post-season under Legerski. They were selected to participate in the WNIT for the second year in a row and the fourth time in the Legerski era. With a win over Air Force (1/22/11), he reached 150 wins for his career. The awards followed as well for UW. For the first time in MW history and only the second time in school history, a Cowgirl player earned Player of the Year honors. Aubrey Vandiver was named the Mountain West Player of the Year for her performance during the MW season. She and fellow senior Hillary Carlson were both named First Team All-MW, while Jade Kennedy and Chaundra Sewell each earned Honorable Mention All-MW.

It was a rebuilding year in 2011-12 with the program having to replace four graduating seniors including MW Player of the Year Aubrey Vandiver and First Team All-MW selection Hillary Carlson. Despite finishing the non-conference schedule 4-9, they would rally in Mountain West play to go 7-7 on their way to a fifth place finish. The Cowgirls finished the season 12-17 overall and 1-1 at the MW championships. They won their opener against the TCU Frogs but lost to the eventual conference champion and number one seed San Diego State Aztecs. Three players garnered postseason honors for the ninth straight year. Chaundra Sewell was selected Second Team All-Conference and to the All-Defensive Team. Freshman Kayla Woodward earned Third Team All-Conference honors followed by junior Ashley Sickles who was an Honorable Mention All-MW selection.

It was quite a turnaround in 2012-13 after a previous year that saw the Cowgirls win just 12 games. Wyoming started off the season going 12-4 overall in non-conference action which equaled their win total from the previous season. During that time, Legerski would become the all-time winningest coach with a 72-50 victory over Pepperdine (11/24/12). They finished the year off with a 24-8 overall record. The 24-wins tied for the third most in school history. Wyoming has also reached 20-plus wins for the sixth time under Legerski. In league action, the Cowgirls improved their record by five games going 12-4 and finishing third. The 12-wins tied the most conference wins with the 2007-08 and 2010-11 teams. They reached the postseason for the sixth time in ten seasons as well. Four Cowgirls earned postseason honors for the tenth straight year led by senior Chaundra Sewell. She earned First Team All-Conference and All-Defensive Team honors. Sophomore Kayla Woodward was selected Second Team while senior Ashley Sickles and sophomore Kaitlyn Mileto were named Third Team All-Mountain West. Sewell also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America honors and All-Region VII honors, while being named Capital One Third Team Academic All-American.

In 2013-14, several more records and marks were achieved within the program. Wyoming finished with a 20-11 overall mark and a 10-8 record in MW. The 20-wins marked the seventh time in the last nine years that a Cowgirl team has reached that mark. The program also reached its 600th win in school history with an 87-76 win over Fresno State (1/29/14). With a victory over Pepperdine (11/23/13), Legerski earned his 200th career victory. Two Cowgirls earned postseason honors led by junior Kayla Woodward. She was selected First Team All-MW and to the MW Championships All-Tournament Team. Woodward also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America honors and All-Region VII honors. Senior Fallon Lewis was also selected Honorable Mention All-Mountain West.

In his 12th season with the Cowgirls, UW went 16-14 overall and 10-8 in league play for a fifth place finish. Two Cowgirls earned conference honors as Kayla Woodward and Marquelle Dent were each selected All-Mountain West. Dent also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America and All-Region VII honors. Woodward was named CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District.

During his time, the Cowgirls have been successful in the classroom as well. Including players that earned honors multiple times 70 Academic All-MW student-athletes while 43 have been MW Scholar Athlete.

Legerski came to Wyoming following a highly-successful stint at the University of Utah. As an assistant (1991-1998), and later associate head coach (1998-2003) for Elaine Elliott, he was part of the most successful women's program in the history of both the Western Athletic and Mountain West Conferences. The Utes compiled a 254-96 record while he was there, including seven league titles. They were 135-35 in conference play.

Legerski earned a bachelor of science degree in business education from UW in 1979. He was an assistant with the Cowgirls from 1987 through 1991, before taking the Utah position. He was the head women's basketball coach at Western Wyoming College (Rock Springs) for one season, finishing second in the region. Prior to that he was the head women's basketball coach at Rock Springs High from 1984 to 1986.

Legerski, and his wife, Jamie, are parents of three children, step-son Zane Beadles, daughter Madison and son Joseph III.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball Assistant Coaches

Gerald Mattinson

Associate Head Basketball Coach, Weber State '81

Gerald Mattinson will be entering his 14th season on the Cowgirl coaching staff and his tenth as an associate head coach.

He began his college basketball career as a student-athlete at Casper College for head coach Oscar "Swede" Ericson. While there, he was a First Team All-American and All-Region selection in 1978. Mattinson then moved onto a three-year career at Weber State University in Ogden, Utah. He earned All-Conference honors twice during his career for head coach Neil McCarthy. A two-time Academic All-American selection, he graduated from Weber State with a bachelor's of science degree in business education in 1981. He completed a master's of sports science degree from the United States Sports Academy in 1988 and earned his principal endorsement from the University of Wyoming.

Mattinson's professional coaching career began at Weber State as a graduate assistant coach with the men's basketball program during the 1981-82 season. From 1982-1987, he was the head boy's basketball coach at Rock Springs High School. He earned Wyoming State Coach of the Year honors and was named Conference Coach of the Year twice. From 1987-90, Mattinson was an assistant men's coach at Western Wyoming Community College. He was elevated to an Assistant Athletics Director and the Head Men's Basketball Coach in 1991 and held the position until 1998. For the 1998-99 season, he became an assistant with the women's program for one year. Mattinson had been a business education teacher at Rock Springs High School since 1982 before taking the position of Principal at East Junior High School in June of 2001.

Mattinson, and his wife, Carey are the parents of three children, stepson Morgan Splichal, stepdaughter Tiffany Paradis and son Ashton.

Bojan Jankovic

Assistant Basketball Coach, University of the Ozarks, '06

Bojan Jankovic joined the Cowgirl basketball program in the summer of 2015. Jankovic came to Wyoming after a five-year stint at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Okla. He joined the ORU staff in 2010, and helped guide the Golden Eagles to the Southland Conference Championship in 2013. At ORU, Jankovic was responsible for international recruiting and scheduling, working with the post player's and game day preparation. He coached Sarah Shelton to All-Southland Conference honors in 2013 while in 2015 coached Vicky McIntyre to leading the nation in rebounds and blocks per game. She was drafted 20th by the Seattle Storm, the first player in Oral Roberts history. Also in his time at ORU, the Golden Eagles won 88 games and made four postseason appearances, including a 2013 trip to the NCAA Tournament and a pair of WNIT bids.

He also has experience coaching at the highest levels of international basketball. He currently serves as an assistant coach on the Serbian senior national team. The team won the gold medal during the 2015 European Championship which helped them qualify for the 2016 Rio Olympics. The team mounted an upset of the Australian's 73-71 in the quarterfinals before falling to Spain in the semifinals. The team would responded with a 70-63 win over France in the Bronze medal game. During the summer of 2013, the squad finished fourth at the European Championship which was at the time the highest in the nation's history. In 2014, the Serbian national team reached its best ever finish at the FIBA World Championships in Turkey finishing eighth. All-together, he has helped coach four players who have reached the WNBA, Ana Dabovic, Vicky McIntyre, Jelena Milovanovic and Sonja Petrovic.

Prior to that, Jankovic spent four seasons at Centenary College in Shreveport, La., serving as assistant coach for three years before taking over the head coaching duties for the 2009-10 season. He also assisted at the University of the Ozarks for one year, where he helped the men's basketball team achieve the most conference wins in team history.

He spent five years with Radnicki, a Division I Professional team in Serbia, where he served as the head coach for the U18 team. In 2004, he helped lead Radnicki's U18 team to a win in one of the largest tournaments on the European circuit in Goteborg, Sweden.

Jankovic started his playing career with Radnicki, and he also played at Belgrade Basketball Club before coming to the United States. Collegiately, he played at Mount Senario College in Ladysmith, Wis., leading the team to the National Small College National Championship in 1996. He received his degree from the University of the Ozarks in 2006. Jankovic and his wife Bojana have a daughter Anja and son Vuk.

Heather Ezell

Assistant Basketball Coach, Iowa State, '09

Heather Ezell is entering her second season as an assistant coach with the Wyoming basketball program in 2016-17. She came to Wyoming after spending the past four seasons at Southeast Missouri State. She joined the staff in 2011 and was responsible for working with the guards along with organizing practices, game day preparation and running summer camps. In 2012-13, she helped mentor Kara Wright to an Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer selection, marking the first Redhawk to earn postseason honors since the 2008-09 season.

Ezell spent the 2010-11 season as an assistant coach at Fairfield University, where the Stags posted a 17-13 overall record and a 10-8 mark in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. She worked primarily with perimeter players while assisting in the day-to-day operations of the program, including practice and game planning, recruiting and coordinating the team's community service efforts.

She had a highly decorated career both collegiately and professionally which began as a four-year letterwinner at Iowa State University (2005-09). She finished her career tied for the Cyclones' career record with 287 made three-point field goals and finished 10th in program history with 1,339 points. In her senior season, Ezell earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors. She ranked 27th nationally with 2.5 three-point field goals made per game and eighth in the Big 12 with 3.5 assists per contest. Ezell also earned a spot on the 2008 Big 12 All-Tournament Team and helped the Cyclones to three NCAA appearances including the Elite Eight in 2009.

Ezell moved onto the professional level in 2009-10, playing in Iceland for Haukar where she was named Best Player in the Iceland Express League. She led the league in points and steals while finishing second in assists and rebounds. She also earned Most Valuable Player recognition in the league's All-Star Game.

A native of Springfield, Mo., Ezell led her Kickapoo High School team to two state championships and a 113-7 record during her prep years. She was named Miss Show Me Basketball as Missouri's top player in 2005. Ezell graduated from Iowa State in 2009 with bachelor's degrees in management and marketing.

Fallon Lewis

Director of Recruiting, Wyoming'14

Fallon Lewis joined the Cowgirl staff as the Director of Recruiting beginning in September 2015. Lewis returns to her alma mater after spending eight months playing for CB Arxil in Pontevedra, Spain. In 24 games, she averaged 11.9 points and 6.5 rebounds in 27.8 minutes per contest. She also spent time over the summer as a private basketball trainer.

Lewis had a highly successful two-year career (2013-14) with the Cowgirls. An Honorable Mention All-Conference selection during her senior campaign, she played in 62 games with 31 starts. In her final season with Wyoming, she averaged 14.3 points and a team-leading 8.9 rebounds. Lewis also recorded 20 points and 21 rebounds in a game becoming only the second player in school history to achieve that. As a junior, she came off the bench and averaged 6.1 points and 3.6 boards in 31 contests. Prior to UW, she spent two seasons at Sheridan College from 2011-12. Lewis was an Honorable Mention NJCAA All-American selection in 2012 and a two-time Region IX All-Conference selection. She helped the Lady Generals to a 45-21 mark and a NJCAA North Sub-Region IX title over her two years.

A Dayton, Wyoming native, Lewis graduated with her degree in business administration from the UW in May of 2014 and was a two-time Academic All-Mountain West selection.
