WYOMING TENNIS OUTLOOK

The Wyoming Cowgirl tennis team and head coach Dean Clower are excited about the beginning of the 2016-17 season. With a solid group of returning players and newcomers, they will continue to build the program towards the top of the Mountain West.

"This is one of the deepest teams we have had here as a coaching staff," Clower said. "We have players that can win in singles and will have four doubles team that can win at any line. More importantly than the physical, we have leaders throughout the team and athletes that want to achieve greatness day in and day out."

Magdalena Stencel

The Cowgirls welcome back five starters and letterwinners to a team that posted an 11-12 overall record and a 3-2 mark in MW action a year ago. It was the seventh straight season the Cowgirls have recorded double-digit wins and finished .500 or better in league play. As a team, UW entered the spring ranked 74th and were as high as 71st during the season.

"With the number of returning players, it is helpful as a team on many levels. First, they understand the culture of our program and what is expected here at UW. Second, they all have the burning desire to leave a legacy and that is something that is contagious throughout the program. As far as athleticism goes the sky is the limit for what we can do. All of the players have speed, power and an ability to develop. It will be up to the coaching staff to develop all of their tools they have. I believe if these young women buy into the process of what we are doing each athlete will set many records here at UW."

Entering his sixth season at the helm, head coach Dean Clower has an overall mark of 61-46 and a 21-9 record in league play. At least two individuals have earned All-Conference honors in each of his five years including last season. Outgoing senior Nastya Tokareva and Stencel were selected to the All-Conference doubles team in 2016 for the first time in their careers, while both were named First Team All-Conference in singles play.

Several individuals will be looked upon to help the Cowgirls in 2016-17, including senior Dorottya Jonas and junior Magdalena Stencel. Jonas finished her junior campaign with a 21-14 overall singles record and 14-12 in doubles action. She currently ranks 11th all-time with 58 singles wins and 13th in doubles with 52. Stencel recorded a 23-12 mark in singles and 19-14 in doubles, which helped her earn MW honors in both categories. She ranks 24th in singles wins (41) and 25th in doubles victories (32).

"Dorottya is a seasoned veteran who brings past success, leadership, and wants matches to come down to her. She is one of the toughest athletes that I have ever coached. If the match is tied I would be very happy if it came down to her."

"Magdalena has all the tools to be the best player to ever wear the Brown and Gold. Even more than just the tools, she has the heart of what it takes to be a champion. Not a day goes by I don't see her working to develop more and along the way she is showing and teaching the other players how to be a champion. I expect her to take this team on her shoulders and climb to the top."

Other returning letterwinners include Miranda Talbert, Elisa Koonik and Tessa van Der Ploeg.

Talbert finished with ten singles wins and 13 in doubles play in her first season with the program. She and Jonas went 10-5 for the spring.

"Miranda has had a great start to the fall season while coming back better than she ended a year ago. She understands the program and is always reliable in what she brings day in and day out. I expect with her improvements and mentality will have a great spring season for us."

Koonik won 14 matches in both doubles and singles. She and playing partner Tessa van Der Ploeg went 9-7 overall in dual play and a perfect 4-0 in MW play.

"One of the best overall athletes I have seen on a tennis court. Elisa has the ability to impose her will during matches with her speed, power and style of play. I expect her to be the anchor of the line-up with her heart and passion. Elisa has the ability to inspire with her sheer passion to win" van Der Ploeg finished her freshman campaign with 13-19 singles mark and 14-16 in doubles action. She went 10-12 during the spring in doubles play and 4-0 with Koonik.

"One of the best doubles players on the team and athletes for that matter. Tessa is another athlete that brings it day in and day out and will definitely be an impact player in our line-up this year. I expect she will win many matches this spring due to her athletic ability and overall willingness to go the extra mile."

There are also three newcomers to the 2016-17 squad who hope to contribute to the team in Imogen Clews, Milka Genkova and Ana Tkachenko.

Clews won the Level 4 Canberra Junior ITF Doubles championship, while reaching the quarterfinals in five tournaments. She also had a national ranking of 71st.

"We are fortunate to have an athlete like Imogen who can do it all on the court. Her all-around game includes great hands at the net, a solid back-court and instincts that give her chances to win every point. I expect her to develop rapidly in our system as her style of play and attitude are just what we coach."

Genkova was a three-time regional champion while twice winning a Plovdiv city championship. She won the U18 doubles national championship in 2015.

"Another freshman with endless abilities but probably her best quality is her passion. Milka has all the tools to be a performer at any line. There is no weakness in her game and with her development will be a big part of our success this year."

Tkachenko won two Level 5 ITF doubles championships and was seventh at the U18 Russian Championships in 2015. She had a national ranking of 49th and an ITF ranking of 900.

"I absolutely love Ana's attitude on and off the court. She brings a passionate presence for what she is doing every single day. With her athletic ability, height, and ball striking ability who knows where she will be by the end of the year and we are excited to be a part of it."

The Cowgirls will have a difficult non-conference schedule in order to prepare them for conference play later in the season. They will open up the spring season against Idaho and Gonzaga followed by a three-match road swing in Lincoln, Neb. Mountain West play will begin on Friday, March 31 against Utah State.

"As always our non-conference season will be a difficult task. As long as we progress during the non-conference season we should be ready for a solid league schedule."

In all, the Cowgirls will have ten home matches throughout the season with non-conference competition against Hastings, Idaho, Montana, Montana State, New Mexico State, Northern Arizona and UTEP. Conference home matches this year feature the New Mexico Lobos, on Friday, April 14, the Air Force Falcons on Saturday, April 15 and the Colorado State Rams, on Saturday, April 22. The MW tournament will be held in Las Vegas, Nev. from April 27-April 30.

DEAN CLOWER

Lamar University, 2006
Director of Tennis/Head Coach

Dean Clower, who held the title of interim head tennis coach and was an assistant the previous four years, was promoted to head coach of the Wyoming Cowgirl tennis program in the spring of 2012.

During the 2015-16 campaign, Wyoming recorded an 11-12 mark overall and 3-2 in the MW conference. It's the seventh straight season the Cowgirls have recorded double-digits wins and finished .500 or better in league play. As a team, UW entered the spring ranked 74th and were as high as 71st during the season. Finishing his fifth season at the helm, Clower had an overall mark of 61-46 and a 21-9 record in league play. At least two individuals have earned All-Conference honors in each of his five years including this season. Senior Nastya Tokareva and sophomore

Magdalena Stencel were selected to the All-Conference Doubles Team for the first time in their careers, while both were named First Team All-Conference in singles play.

Clower became the fifth head women's tennis coach in Cowgirl history. After taking over the program, he led them to a 14-9 overall mark and a record of 5-2 in Mountain West play. They finished tied for second which at the time was the highest finish ever for a Wyoming team. As a team, the Cowgirls were ranked in the Campbell's/ITA national rankings every week since they started coming out on January 3, 2012. Their highest was the 56th spot on March 27th, which was a best in school history. Along with that, they defeated three nationally ranked teams on the year and finished the year ranked 61st. The doubles team of Veronica Popovici and Simona Synkova also won the ITA Mountain Regional Tournament in the fall, while earning a spot of 47th in the rankings. In addition to that, two members of the squad were named All-Mountain West. Popovici and Synkova were named First Team All-Conference in singles play, while they were selected to the All-Conference Doubles Team as well. It was the third time in school history that a player had won back-to-back singles awards and the first time that a player won the doubles award three seasons in a row.

In his second season, Clower and the Cowgirls finished the year with an 11-12 record and a 4-4 mark in league play. The 11-wins marked the fourth straight year that the tennis program reached double-figure victories. As a team, they were ranked 61st heading into the spring and six weeks throughout the season. The doubles team of Synkova and Popovici were ranked 21st in the preseason Campbell's/ITA rankings and entered the spring 52nd. They participated in the Riviera/ITA All-American Championships and reached the finals of the ITA Mountain Regional Tournament. They also garnered All-Mountain West honors. For the fourth time in her career, Synkova was selected All-MW in doubles and is the only Cowgirl to achieve that honor in school history. Popovici earned All-MW honors in doubles for the second year in a row. Both student-athletes were selected to the All-Mountain West singles team. It was the second time for Synkova and the third for Popovici, which is also a school record.

For the fifth straight year, the Cowgirl tennis team reached double-figure victories with an 11-8 mark overall while finishing with a 4-1 record in league play during the 2013-14 season. Two Cowgirls earned All-Mountain West honors for the third time in Clower's head coaching tenure. Popovici was selected in singles for the fourth straight year and was the first Cowgirl to achieve that honor in school history. She and doubles partner Dorottya Jonas were named to the All-MW team in doubles. It was the first such honor for Jonas and the third for Popovici.

It was another milestone year for Clower and the Cowgirl program during the 2014-15 season. He helped the Cowgirls to a 15-6 record overall during the 2015 spring season and a perfect 5-0 mark in league play. The 15-wins were the most in program history, while the five wins tied for the most wins in league play. The first-place finish in MW action was also a school best for a Wyoming tennis team. Four individuals garnered postseason honors during the season including seniors Alma Espinosa and Christa Gecheva, sophomore Dorottya Jonas and redshirt freshman Magdalena Stencel. Earlier during season, he became the all-time winningest coach and all-time leader in conference wins in school history. Wyoming went 2-1 at the 2015 Mountain West Tennis Championships defeating the top-seeded Fresno State Bulldogs, 4-3, before falling in the championship match against New Mexico, 4-2. For his efforts, Clower was named the Mountain West Women's Tennis Coach of the Year.

Clower came to Wyoming after two seasons as an assistant coach at Lamar University (Beaumont, Texas). His duties included assisting with practice sessions, on the court training of both singles and doubles teams, creating and maintaining data bases for prospective players, along with ensuring compliance with recruitment regulations. Prior to that, he spent one season as a volunteer assistant with the program and as an adjunct professor for kinesiology.

He also worked as an assistant teaching pro at The Greens Country Club in Oklahoma City (2002, 2004, 2007). Clower trained juniors players and was responsible for tournament travel and preparation for competition, while providing private and group lessons to juniors and adults. Prior to that, he worked at the Indian Springs Country Club in Broken Arrow, Okla.

Clower began his collegiate career as a student-athlete at Cowley County Community College in Arkansas City, Kan. He was a two-year team captain and was ranked fifth in the nation in doubles as a freshman and sophomore. Clower then moved on to a two-year career at Lamar University. He finished with a season-best 14-7 record in singles play and 9-9 in doubles at the number one spot as a junior. During his senior season, he posted a 9-10 overall record, 12-6 in doubles-play and a 48th ranking in NCAA Division I. He became the first player in school history to accomplish that feat.

A native of Broken Arrow, Okla., Clower earned a bachelor's of arts degree in general studies with a minor in history and kinesiology from Lamar University in 2006. He and his wife, Amanda, who is an assistant coach with the UW Track and Field Team, have a daughter, Riley, and son, Westyn.

MACIEJ BOGUSZ

Lamar, 2009
Associate Head Coach

Maciej Bogusz joined the Wyoming Cowgirls tennis program as a volunteer assistant coach in the spring of 2013 and was promoted to a full-time assistant in the summer of 2014 and an associate head coach in 2015. He came to Wyoming after a three and a half year stint as an Assistant Tennis Pro at the Indian Springs Country Club. While there, he coached and trained several state and nationally ranked players including the Oklahoma State Champion in 2011 and six Oklahoma high school regional champions.

As a student-athlete at Lamar University, he was ranked among the Top 25 in Division I in doubles play, which was the highest ranking in school history, along with being ranked in the ITA South Central Region. Bogusz was also a First Team All-Southland Conference selection at number one doubles in 2008.

A native of Wroclaw, Poland, he was a top juniors player and represented Poland in several International tournaments and achieved an ATP ranking as high as 1549. Bogusz graduated from Lamar University in the spring of 2009 with a degree in management.

EWA SZATKOWSKA

Tulsa, 2012
Director of Tennis Complex

Szatkowska will be entering her fifth season at Wyoming and her second as the Director of the UW Tennis Complex. She joined the Cowgirl staff after a four-year career at the University of Tulsa. She finished with an 88-45 singles record and a 93-31 doubles mark. Her 93 doubles victories ranks second all-time in school history, while her singles wins are eighth all-time. A three-time team captain, she was a Second Team All-Conference USA selection in doubles and singles, while reaching the semifinals of the 2011 ITA Central Region Doubles Championships during her senior year. The previous season, she went 30-5 in doubles and 23-11 in singles action, which helped her earn Third Team All-CUSA honors in doubles and singles. As a sophomore, she earned a career high doubles ranking of 46. Szatkowska helped her team to three-Conference USA Championships and was a part of three teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

She has also worked as a Tennis Professional at Westbrook Tennis Academy in Tulsa (2008-12) and was a Coach and Camp Counselor at Westbrook-Orford Tennis Camps for two summers.

A native of Torun, Poland, she earned her bachelor of science in exercise and sports sciences in May of 2012. An excellent student, she was on the Conference USA Commissioners Honor Roll from 2009-12 and on the Dean's List.

The University of Wyoming Athletics Department officially opened the UW Indoor Tennis Facility on October 10, 2011. This new state-of-the-art facility is one of the premier indoor tennis facilities in the Rocky Mountain Region and will be a great asset to UW and the community. UW broke ground June 30, 2010 on UW's new Indoor Tennis Facility. It is located adjacent to the existing indoor courts at the UW Tennis Facility on the east side of the UW campus north of Willett Drive.

"We are very excited about the future of our tennis program, and this will move us another step forward in our program's development. This facility will enhance both the UW tennis program and the tennis community in Wyoming at large," said UW Athletics Director Tom Burman.

The new Indoor Tennis Facility has expanded the current indoor courts from two courts to six. Other facilities provided in the expansion, include public lockerrooms with showers, family restroom, Tennis Team lockerroom, Tennis Team Room, storage, viewing area over four new courts and viewing area over two older courts.

The UW Board of Trustees approved the construction phase of the project on May 7, 2010. In November of 2009, UW Trustees authorized a preliminary design study for the Indoor Tennis Facility. The project was part of the UW Capital Facilities Plan since 2006. The anticipated cost of the facility is $2.75 million. It was built by Sampson Construction.

WYOMING TRADITIONS

RAGTIME COWBOY JOE

The familiar fight song of the University of Wyoming athletics teams is Ragtime Cowboy Joe. This song is performed by the band as UW teams enter the playing surface, following a score or big play, and to fire up the fans. The Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes traditionally sing this following each Wyoming victory.

RAGTIME COWBOY JOE

"He always sings raggy music to the cattle as he swings back and forward in the saddle, on a horse - a pretty good horse! He's got a syncopated gaiter, and you ought to hear the meter to the roar of his repeater; how they run - yes run! - when they hear that he's 'a-comin', cause the western folks all know, he's a high-falootin', rootin', tootin', son of a gun from ol' Wyoming, Ragtime Cowboy, Talk about your Cowboy, Ragtime Cowboy Joe."

THE WILD BUNCH

The Wild Bunch is the official athletics fan club for University of Wyoming students. The Wild Bunch is one BIG fan club for all 17 NCAA Division I sports at the University of Wyoming. The Wild Bunch leads Wyoming fans in spirit, tradition and passion for Wyoming Athletics. Members of the Wild Bunch receive multiple benefits, and as a student at UW, The Wild Bunch is the best way to become involved in Wyoming Athletics.

COWBOY NICKNAME

The nickname "Cowboys" was applied to Wyoming athletic teams as early as 1891 - two years before the first official football game. The story is that the Wyoming pick-up football team appealed to a 220 pound cowpuncher, Fred Bush, for help in a game against the Cheyenne Soldiers. Bush signed up for a course or two and came out for the team. When he trotted onto the field decked out in a checkered shirt and Cowboy hat, someone yelled, "Hey, look at the Cowboy!" Since many of the members of the team were also ex-cowboys, the name stuck. When women's sports were added at UW, the nickname of Cowgirls was applied to those squads.

COWBOY JOE PONY

Cowboy Joe IV, a fourth generation Wyoming mascot, trots around War Memorial Stadium after each Cowboy touchdown, a tradition which started in 1950 when the Farthing Family of Cheyenne made a generous donation of a young pony to become Wyoming's mascot. Cowboy Joe also represents UW in parades around the region, appears in Tailgate Park on football game days and leads the band and team in the pre-game Cowboy Walk. This beautiful little pony is very popular with Cowboy & Cowgirl fans of all ages.

SPIRIT SQUADS

The primary purpose of Wyoming's Spirit Squads is to support the Cowboys and Cowgirls, and to serve as public relations ambassadors for the University of Wyoming. The UW cheer and pom squads work hard to get the crowd involved, lead cheers, entertain, and to boost the level of fan excitement and support to new extremes. In addition to their game-day involvement at UW Athletics' contests, Wyoming Spirit Squad members also make numerous appearances at university activities, functions, programs, charitable and public events. Cowboy and Cowgirl sports are flying high and the Wyoming Spirit Squads are leading the way.

PISTOL PETE

Pistol Pete is a UW student mascot who works alongside the Wyoming Spirit Squads, encouraging the crowd and getting fans involved in the game.

WESTERN THUNDER MARCHING BAND

The University of Wyoming Marching Band - "Western Thunder" - features musicians from nearly every major on campus, who perform for thousands of football fans each year at home and road Cowboy football games. The Wyoming Pep Band plays at numerous other UW sporting events.

UW'S LOGO - STEAMBOAT

One of the nation's best, and most distinctive logos, the image on Wyoming's uniforms depicts a cowboy riding a bucking horse. This symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920's, when UW Equipment Manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of a cowboy, Guy Holt, riding the world famous bucking horse Steamboat. Hunton had the photo made into a logo, which was then utilized by UW athletic teams. While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider is depicted on all of UW's athletic uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. A statue honoring the symbol called 'Fanning a Twister', was erected at the north entrance of UW's athletics facilities in 1991.

BROWN AND GOLD COLORS

The story behind the colors of the University of Wyoming dates back to 1895. In the spring of that year, the first ever UW Alumni Banquet was held. Decorations for the banquet included Brown-Eyed Susans, a flower native of Southeastern Wyoming. The Alumni were so impressed with the colors (brown and yellow) and the beauty of the flowers that they decided to select these colors as the official school colors at UW. Currently, the colors are described as brown and gold.

Spend some time here and you'll agree that much of UW's character is shaped by this great "home on the range." Laramie, the location of the main campus, is a safe, friendly community of 30,000 people. Nestled between the Laramie and Snowy Range mountains in southeastern Wyoming, it's a beautiful, unspoiled place with a special life-style.

The campus extends over 785 tree-shaded acres. There's an attractive mix of modern and traditional structures; many were built with native Wyoming sandstone. It's a place where the sun shines 320 days each year. It's hard to be gloomy here. When you view it from 7,200 feet, you see things more clearly. But it's not just a pretty place; it's also a place that works.

Up-to-date facilities support the learning and research mission that makes UW special. There are classrooms with state-of-the art computer technology, laboratories with the latest equipment, excellent libraries, computer systems with universal Internet access, and a long list of premier research facilities both on campus and in the surrounding area.

WYOMING...LIKE NO PLACE ON EARTH

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys and Cowgirls. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

LARAMIE... THE CLEAR CHOICE

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other Colorado resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area offers a unique flavor that delights visitors from all over the world.

Things to Check Out In Laramie:

- ✓ Rappel down a rock face at Vedauwoo
- ✓ Ski, mountain bike or hike the trails at Happy Jack
- ✓ Snowboard the slopes at the Snowy Range Ski Area
- ✓ Catch a trophy fish at Lake Hattie

OFFICE OF ACADEMIC SUPPORT

A student-athlete has time commitments and academic requirements that no other college student has to manage. Balancing practices, road trips, and contests with tests, papers, and classes isn't easy. But a student-athlete isn't alone in this endeavor!

The Office of Academic Support in Athletics (OAS) exists solely to help you on your journey through college athletics. Simply put, our mission is to give you all the academic support you need so you can meet your goal of earning the best college education possible while participating in the sport you love. Whether it be helping you find that tutor for the big Math exam, or to help you pick the right classes to add a Biology Minor, or just to talk about the big match coming up; the OAS strives to help you succeed.

Most importantly, the OAS helps to bridge your communication with professors and deans as well as to help inform you of NCAA academic eligibility rules. We have an excellent relationship with University administration, faculty and deans and work to keep them aware of student-athlete road trips and contests. The academic support staff visits regularly with every student-athlete to be certain they are making progress toward their degree and assists them with understanding and meeting NCAA academic standards. Our coordinators also provide support on matters such as registration, degree planning and compliance with University of Wyoming and Mountain West Conference policies and procedures.

Finally, the OAS offers specific programs designed to assist each student-athlete in achieving their athletic and academic goals. Staffed by five full-time coordinators, the entire staff is dedicated to achieving the program goal of providing comprehensive services to ensure a successful student-athlete experience — academically, personally, vocationally and athletically. The Office of Academic Support offers a full range of services in the following areas:

1. Academic Development

The core of our academic-support program is the tutorial and mentor program. A qualified staff of tutors and mentors assist students in clarifying their study material and, in the case of travel, help students catch up on what material was missed. In addition to the tutorial program, attention is given to each individual in the development of their class schedule. All UW student-athletes must take a minimum of twelve hours of classes each semester, which directly apply to their chosen degree, and appropriate scheduling is a critical priority. Study skills assistance is available for those who need special help in areas including test preparation, note taking and time-management techniques. Finally, each student-athlete's academic progress is closely monitored during the semester for such things as attendance, current grade and class participation. Steps are taken to address deficiencies identified by student-athlete progress reports on an individual basis.

2. Career Development

The purpose of obtaining a college education is to prepare an individual for meaningful employment following graduation. Needless to say, the act of choosing a useful major is indeed a challenging task considering the multitude of possibilities. Career counseling is available to assist student-athletes in the very important process of selecting a major that will lead to a desired career. The Office of Academic Support continues to establish a career network that will assist students secure employment after graduation.

3. Personal Growth and Development

The OAS offers various speakers, presentations, and training sessions through the NCAA "CHAMPS/Life Skills" program, which emphasizes the importance of the "entire student-athlete." Student-athletes are encouraged to not only graduate and participate in sports, but to continue to grow personally and professionally while at the University of Wyoming. Various recent presentations have featured issues such as Drugs/Alcohol Abuse, Becoming Your Personal Best, Sexual Awareness and Responsibility, and Cultural Diversity.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING PROGRAM

The University of Wyoming strength and conditioning staff recognizes each UW student-athlete will spend a large amount of their undergraduate experience training and preparing to be successful in their chosen sport. The Wyoming strength and conditioning staff works diligently to enhance this experience using our expertise, knowledge and coaching abilities. Each full time coach is a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

The mission of the Wyoming strength and conditioning department is to foster a positive, safe, challenging and properly equipped training environment while developing all of the individuals physical qualities needed to be successful in their sport. Our approach calls for all coaches and athletes to work together towards developing an athlete's full physical and mental potential and thereby improving sport performance.

Training programs incorporate sport specific and scientifically proven training methods to produce a progressive and year-round training program. The focal points of this comprehensive training program includes: mastery of correct training techniques, developing functional strength training, improving sport specific speed, power and agility, improving sport and position specific conditioning, work capacity and flexibility while also increasing the athletes knowledge of proper dietary practices. We feel this holistic approach will facilitate the individual's and team's ability to successfully compete in conference, regional and national championships.

The following Wyoming Strength and Conditioning program objectives guide to our training:

1. IMPROVED SPORT PERFORMANCE
2. INJURY REDUCTION
3. ENHANCED PHYSICAL AND MENTAL CONFIDENCE

Program principles that guide the Wyoming Strength and Conditioning department.

1. Total body strength development emphasis.
2. Hip, core and power zone strengthening emphasis.
3. Total body power and explosiveness development.
4. Training programs that are sport and position specific.
5. Variations in exercise selection, intensity and frequency are utilized.
6. Weight training exercises are free weight and multi-joint oriented.
7. Strength, speed, agility and conditioning programs are cycled throughout the year.
8. Correct technique is emphasized on all exercises and movements.
9. Yearly testing and evaluation of sport specific qualities promote competition and improvement.

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 15th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements over its first 14 years of existence, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean.

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San Jose State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members.
