Wyoming Swimming and Diving returns to the pool for its first dual of 2017 this Saturday, Jan. 7, against Colorado School of Mines. The competition is set to begin at 12 p.m. MT at the Corbett Pool.

The Cowgirls closed out their 2016 schedule at the Colorado Mesa Invite on Dec. 3. The Orediggers also competed at the CMU Invite. Two Cowgirls swimmers earned first-place finishes at the meet with their top times of the season. Sophomore Shannon Chelsvig logged the top time in the 400 individual medley, clocking in at 4:34.97. Senior Emily Stevens raced to victory in the 100 backstroke, beating out the competition by less than half a second with a time of 55.29.

Midway through the season, three Cowgirls currently hold top-five times among Mountain West competitors. Sophomore Isobel Ryan ranks fifth in the 50 freestyle (23.03), third in the 100 freestyle (50.08) and first in the 100 backstroke (53.82). Junior Maria Harutjunjan also owns top-five times in three events. She has the top times in both the 100 breaststroke (1:01.96) and 200 breaststroke (2:11.85), and the fifth-best time in the 200 individual medley (2:02.78). Freshman Daniela Luna Rocha, Wyoming's top distance freestyler, holds the fifth-fastest time in the 1000 freestyle (10:09.81).

The Cowboys last competed on Dec. 3 against Utah in Green River, Wyoming. The Cowboys earned victories in six of the day's 16 events. Sophomore Jack Herron earned UW's first win of the dual in the 200 freestyle with a time of 1:40.76. Senior Gabe Rooker swept the 100 and 200 breaststroke events, with times of 54.59 and 2:01.52, respectively. Senior Ryan Ball outpaced the competition in the 200 backstroke, clocking in at 1:49.81. Junior Wade Nelson placed first in the 200 individual medley, finishing in 1:52.71. On the boards, freshman Scotia Mullin claimed the top score (322.80) on the three-meter, just ahead of redshirt-sophomore Ryan Russi (317.48). The men's squad also swam against Mines at the CMU Invite last month.

Eight Cowboys have posted top-five times in the Western Athletic Conference thus far this season. Sophomore Jack Herron, junior Wade Nelson and senior Gabe Rooker lead the way, each with a conference-leading time. Herron holds the fastest time in the 200 freestyle (1:37.20) and ranks fifth in the 500 freestyle (4:29.20). Nelson has recorded top-five times in five different events. He leads the conference in the 400 individual medley (3:49.43) and is second in the 200 individual medley (1:48.21). Rooker has been strong in the breaststroke events this season, with the top time in the 100 (53.84) and second-fastest time in the 200 (1:57.45).

LAST TIME OUT

Cowboys Fall in Dual Against Utah, 171-129

Wyoming men's swimming and diving fell to the University of Utah on Saturday afternoon in Green River, Wyo., by a score of 171-129.

The Cowboys earned victories in six of the day's 16 events. Sophomore Jack Herron earned UW's first win of the dual in the 200 freestyle with a time of 1:40.76. Senior Gabe Rooker swept the 100 and 200 breast-stroke events, with times of 54.59 and 2:01.52, respectively. Senior Ryan Ball outpaced the competition in the 200 backstroke, clocking in at 1:49.81. Junior Wade Nelson placed first in the 200 individual medley, finishing in 1:52.71. On the boards, freshman Scotia Mullin claimed the top score (322.80) on the three-meter, just ahead of redshirt-sophomore Ryan Russi (317.48)

"It was a great weekend of racing, I thought the team did a terrific job," UW head coach Tom Johnson said. "We need to focus on continued improvement in the second half of the season and see what we can do."

Both the men's and women's teams competed in the preliminary heats in the final day of the CMU Invite on Saturday morning. The two squads departed early in order for the men to meet up with their teammates in Green River.

UW swimming and diving will be back in action on Jan. 7 against Colorado School of Mines beginning at 12 p.m. MT at Corbett Pool
