2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball
Opponent Information/Notes

Last Time Out: With 16-point win on Saturday afternoon, the Wyoming women's basketball team (15-3 overall, 7-0 MW) extended its winning streak to nine and a program best 7-0 start in conference play with a 68-52 victory over the New Mexico Lobos (9-9, 5-3 MW) on Saturday afternoon. The nine-game winning streak is their longest since 12 in 2007-08 and ties the 1989-90 team who also won nine in a row. It's a season-best start through 18 games since the 2007-08 team which was 17-1.

Three Cowgirls finished the night in double-figures led by junior Natalie Baker who finished with a season-high 18 points along with six boards. Junior Liv Roberts recorded her third straight double double-with 14 points and a career-high 15 points followed by Hailey Ligocki with 14 points and three assists. Freshman Taylor Rusk chipped in nine points and two assists in 25 minutes of action. The Cowgirls shot 24-54 (.444) from the field, 12-16 (.750) from the free throw line and out rebounded the Lobos, 40-31. Wyoming recorded 16 assists on 24 baskets and recorded 20 points off the bench.

"I truly believe that the game of basketball is about match-ups," head coach Joe Legerski said. "New Mexico creates a number of problems for you, on the inside and perimeter so we had to juggle what we wanted to do offensively and to make sure when we changed worked for us defensively. I thought Natalie (Baker) and Marta (Gomez) did a tremendous job. We had to put two shooting four players in the game and ask them to guard 6-4 and 6-5 all night. I thought they stepped up and opened up so many lanes for Hailey (Ligocki) and Liv (Roberts). One of the other keys was the play of Taylor (Rusk), she stepped in as at the guard spot for us, played extended minutes, made play after play, seemed comfortable and you would never know she was a freshman. I would also like to tip my hat to our fans. The place rocked today. It was loud, they were behind us and helped us in the third quarter, which I think was a part of us turning the corner."

New Mexico was led by junior Cherise Beynon who recorded 20 points and five rebounds in her 35 minutes of action. Senior Richelle van der Keijl followed with 14 points and five boards while sophomore Jaisa Nunn recorded a team-high seven rebounds. The Lobos shot 21-59 (.356) from the field and 4-24 (.167) from beyond the arc.

Both teams went several minutes without scoring out of the break until a three by Alex Lapeyrolerie gave the Lobos a six point lead, 36-30. Free throws by Roberts ended the Wyoming scoring drought and it was until the 4:48 mark that Roberts hit a three which would start a 8-0 run help the Cowgirls go up by two, 40-38. After van der Keijl hit one of two free throws, UW scored seven straight to increase the lead to seven, 46-39. New Mexico continued to battle back and went on a 9-4 run to cut the deficit to two, 50-48, with 6:41 to go. The Cowgirls responded and rattled off 14 unanswered to pull ahead by double-figures, 64-48. New Mexico scored just four points down the stretch as Wyoming would earn the 16-point win, 68-52.

New Mexico opened up an early 5-0 lead to begin the game. Roberts and Campbell hit back to back three point shots to give UW its first lead, 6-5. The teams traded scores until an 11-5 run by the Lobos opened up a five point advantage, 18-13, after ten minutes. Two straight baskets to begin the quarter tied it up at 18 and Wyoming would score 10 of the next 15 to take a five point lead, 28-23. UNM answered right back with six straight to pull back ahead by one, 29-28. The teams combined for six points down the stretch with New Mexico taking a 33-30 lead headed to the locker room.

Roberts led the Cowgirls in scoring with eight along with five rebounds. Ligocki followed with seven points. UW shot 12-29 (.414) from the field and out rebounded the Lobos 23-15. New Mexico was led by Beynon with 18 points and four boards. The Lobos were 14-34 (.412) from the field.

Scouting the Lady Rebels: Wyoming will host its first conference game on Saturday against the UNLV Lady Rebels UNLV enters the contest with a 13-6 overall mark and 4-3 in conference action. Last time out, they defeated the Air Force Falcons, 60-56. Junior Dakota Gonzalez is averaging a team-high 12.4 points plus 5.4 rebounds. Sophomores Paris Strawther and Katie Powell lead the team in rebounding with 6.2 rpg. As a squad, the Lady Rebels are shooting 418-1120 (.373) from the field, averaging 61.9 points and 40.8 rebounds per contest. This will be the 45th meeting between the two schools with the series tied at 22. The last time the two teams met was December 31, 2016 with the Cowgirls earning a 79-57 win in Laramie. The Lady Rebels are coached by Kathy Olivier who is in her ninth season.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball Team Notes

Roberts Named MW Player of the Week: For the fourth time this season, junior guard Liv Roberts has been selected as the Mountain West Women's Basketball Player of the Week for games played through Jan. 21. It's the fourth honor of her career and is the first Cowgirl to win four times in a year since Hillary Carlson during the 2010-11 season. She also earned it for games played through Dec. 5, Dec. 25 and Jan. 8. Roberts, a 5-11 junior from Missoula, Mont., led the Cowgirls to a 2-0 mark last week with an 89-60 win over San Jose State and a 68-52 victory against New Mexico. She averaged a double-double over the two contests with 16.5 points and 14 rebounds. Roberts was 10-24 (.417) and 10-10 (1.00) from the free throw line. She also added six assists and four steals. Against the Spartans, she recorded 19 points and 13 rebounds. She was 6-15 (.400) from the field and 6-6 (1.00) from the charity stripe. She followed that up with her sixth double-double of the season with 14 points and a career-high 15 boards. Roberts has recorded 16 double-figure scoring games and six double-figure rebounding games in 2016-17.

Cowgirls Ranked In The Polls: For the first time since the 2012-13 season, the Wyoming Cowgirl Basketball program received a vote in either the AP or the Division I Top 25 Coaches Poll. In the January 23 Associated Press Poll, the Cowgirls received two votes which is 37th among all schools. The last time they received votes was February 11, 2013. During the 2007-08 season, the Cowgirls were ranked as high as 15th in the AP Poll (January 28, 2008) and 16th in the Coaches' Poll (January 29, 2008).

Cowgirls For Three: The Wyoming Cowgirl basketball team has made it a habit from shooting from beyond the arc. Through the New Mexico game (1/21/17), UW had made a three-point field goal in every game during the season and 32 consecutive games. The streak dates back to the 2015-16 season against San Jose State (1/13/16).

Legerski for 250: Head coach Joe Legerski reached another milestone in his stellar career. With the 68-48 win over the Southern Utah Thunderbirds (12/2/16), he reached 250 wins for his career. Already the winningest coach in school history, he recorded that mark with a 72-50 win over Waves on Nov. 24, 2012. His current record stands at 260-159 (.621), while his conference mark is 127-88 (.591). He overtook Chad Lavin who completed his coaching career at Wyoming with 175 wins.

Program Reaches A Milestone: On January 18, 2017, the Wyoming Cowgirl basketball program reached a milestone in its history. With an 89-60 win over San Jose State, it recorded the 650th win for the program in school history. Three coaches have accounted for 557 of those wins, they include current head coach Joe Legerski, Chad Lavin and Margie McDonald.

Bringing In The Crowd: The Cowgirls is averaging 2,383 fans for the 2016-17 campaign with a total of 26,204. Their largest regular season crowd of the year was 2,831 against UNLV (12/31/16). UW currently ranks 41st in the latest NCAA attendance numbers.

Doing It With Defense: The Cowgirls have been impressive on defense so far during the 2016-17 season. They are holding opponents to 53.9 points per game overall and 54.0 points in league games, which ranks second for both. In the NCAA, they are currently ninth overall in scoring defense. Wyoming has also held eight of its opponents to 50 points or less.

Off to a Quick Start: With its ninth straight victory with the win over New Mexico, the program now has the longest winning streak since the 2007-08 season when they won 12 in a row. The 15-3 mark through Jan. 21, 2017 marks the best start through 18 games since the 2007-08. The 7-0 conference start is the best ever in program history.

A Little Help Off the Bench: The Cowgirl bench has done a solid job this season adding an average of 24.3 points per game. The team recorded a season-high 42 against Adams State (11/22/16) and it has added 30 or more in five games.

Tapia with the Assist: Newcomer Clara Tapia has made an early impression on the team in the assist category. The sophomore has recorded 88 assists for an average of 4.9 assists per game, which ranks fourth in the league. She finished with a career-high eight assists against UNLV (12/31/16).

WBB Coaches and Media Pick Wyoming Eighth in MWC Poll:

UW was picked to finish eighth as the MW announced its 2016-17 preseason women's basketball poll and all-conference team. The voting panel consisted of the league's 11 head coaches and select women's basketball media.

JOE LEGERSKI

(WYOMING, 1979)

University of Wyoming, Head Women's Basketball Coach

Joe Legerski will be entering his 14th season in 2016-17 as the head women's basketball coach at the University of Wyoming. He was named head coach on May 1, 2003 and became the sixth head coach in Cowgirl history.

During the 2015-16 campaign, the Cowgirls finished with a 13-16 overall record and 6-12 in MW play. His overall record stands at 245-156 while he holds a 120-88 mark in league play. Two individuals were selected for postseason honors. Senior Marquelle Dent was named to the All-Conference and All-Defensive teams for the second straight year while newcomer Marta Gomez was selected to the MW All-Freshmen team.

He recorded his first career coaching victory on Dec. 13, 2003, as Wyoming defeated Montana State Billings, 62-51. His first conference win came on Jan. 17, 2004 against rival BYU.

In his first season, he guided the Cowgirls to an 11-18 record overall and a 6-8 mark in the Mountain West including their first ever Mountain West Tournament victory in school history. Two Cowgirls also garnered All-Conference awards as he earned MW Coach of the Year honors in his first year with the program.

In 2004-05, he helped the Cowgirls to a 16-12 overall mark, along with a 7-7 record and a fourth place finish in the MW. It was the highest they'd finished in conference play since 1996-97. They swept BYU for the first time since 1994-95 and earned a 72-67 win over the Colorado Buffaloes which snapped a 13-game losing streak. Three Cowgirls earned All-MW awards including Ashley Elliott who earned First Team All-MW honors for the second year in a row.

For the 2005-06 season, the Cowgirls completed the year 21-9 overall, while finishing 10-6 overall in the Mountain West Conference. They made an appearance in the WNIT for only the third time in school history. The 21-wins were at the time the most since the 1989-90 season when they went 24-8 and the ten conference victories at the time tied an all-time school record which was set in 1978-79. Three Cowgirls garnered All-Conference honors, including Hanna Zavec who earned First Team All-MW and Defensive Player of the Year honors along with Megan McGuffey who took home the MW Newcomer of the Year award.

During the 2006-07 campaign, it was a magical year for Legerski and the Cowgirls as they won the WNIT Postseason Championship over the Wisconsin Badgers. Wyoming went 6-0 enroute to the championship. They completed the season with a program best 27-9 record, which eclipsed the 24-8 mark set in 1989-90, and the 11-5 record and second place finish in the league standings were the second most wins in both the MW and school history. It was the also the first time in school history that a Cowgirl team had won at least 20 games in back-to-back seasons, along with being invited to post season play. For the second year in a row, Hanna Zavec was named First Team All-MW and Justyna Podziemska was named MW Newcomer of the Year along with earning Second Team All-MW honors.

In 2007-08, the Cowgirls continued where they left off from the previous season as further marks were broken. They started off with an 18-1 record, which was the best start in school history, and tied for the best in the MW as well. With 24 wins, they recorded their third straight 20-win season, which had never been done in the programs' history, and with a 12-4 mark in conference play it also was the most conference wins breaking the 11 wins set the year before. Their play helped them earn the Cowgirl programs' first ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. For the first time in school history, they were also ranked among the Top 25 teams in the country by both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Division I Coaches' Poll. Their highest ranking was 15th in the AP (1/28/08) and 16th in the Coaches' Poll (1/29/08). As a team, they were ranked in either poll for 13 weeks during the season and received votes for the other six polls. Wyoming was also honored with several individual awards. Hanna Zavec was named First Team All-Mountain West for the third straight year, while being named the MW Defensive Player of the Year, Justyna Podziemska earned Second Team All-MW honors for the second straight year, and Aubrey Vandiver was awarded Third Team All-MW honors. Zavec also garnered Honorable Mention All-America accolades by the Associated Press and for the second year in a row was named to the State Farm Coaches' Honorable Mention All-America Team.

In his sixth season with the Cowgirls, they wrapped up the year with a 16-14 record overall and an 8-8 mark in MWC. With a victory over Denver (11/14/08), he would reach his 100th career victory, the fastest head coach to achieve that mark in school history. Four Cowgirls earned conference honors as Hillary Carlson was named Second Team All-MW, Megan McGuffey was Third Team All-MW, Kristen Scheffler was Honorable Mention All-MW and Emma Langford was named the Sixth Player of the Year.

Under his guidance in 2009-10, the Cowgirls recorded a 20-win or more season finishing with a 21-12 overall record and a 9-7 mark in the MWC. It was the fourth time out of the five seasons that a Wyoming team had recorded 20-wins or more, along with their sixth consecutive winning season. His teams have played in postseason a record number of times as well. They had played beyond the regular season in four of his seven years, which included the last four of five. Three Cowgirls garnered conference honors for the seventh straight year under Legerski as Hillary Carlson and Aubrey Vandiver were each named to the Second Team All-MW, while Emma Langford earned Third Team All-MW honors.

It was another record setting year for the Cowgirls during the 2010-11 basketball campaign. Wyoming posted their fifth 20-win season out of the last six years by going 24-9 overall and 12-4 in the Mountain West. The 12 conference victories tied for the most wins set by the 2007-08 team and the 24 wins tied for the third most wins in school history. It also marked the Cowgirls seventh consecutive winning season and the second time in the last eight years they recorded back-to-back 20-win seasons. Wyoming continued their latest run through the post-season under Legerski. They were selected to participate in the WNIT for the second year in a row and the fourth time in the Legerski era. With a win over Air Force (1/22/11), he reached 150 wins for his career. The awards followed as well for UW. For the first time in MW history and only the second time in school history, a Cowgirl player earned Player of the Year honors. Aubrey Vandiver was named the Mountain West Player of the Year for her performance during the MW season. She and fellow senior Hillary Carlson were both named First Team All-MW, while Jade Kennedy and Chaundra Sewell each earned Honorable Mention All-MW.

It was a rebuilding year in 2011-12 with the program having to replace four graduating seniors including MW Player of the Year Aubrey Vandiver and First Team All-MW selection Hillary Carlson. Despite finishing the non-conference schedule 4-9, they would rally in Mountain West play to go 7-7 on their way to a fifth place finish. The Cowgirls finished the season 12-17 overall and 1-1 at the MW championships. They won their opener against the TCU Frogs but lost to the eventual conference champion and number one seed San Diego State Aztecs. Three players garnered postseason honors for the ninth straight year. Chaundra Sewell was selected Second Team All-Conference and to the All-Defensive Team. Freshman Kayla Woodward earned Third Team All-Conference honors followed by junior Ashley Sickles who was an Honorable Mention All-MW selection.

It was quite a turnaround in 2012-13 after a previous year that saw the Cowgirls win just 12 games. Wyoming started off the season going 12-4 overall in non-conference action which equaled their win total from the previous season. During that time, Legerski would become the all-time winningest coach with a 72-50 victory over Pepperdine (11/24/12). They finished the year off with a 24-8 overall record. The 24-wins tied for the third most in school history. Wyoming has also reached 20-plus wins for the sixth time under Legerski. In league action, the Cowgirls improved their record by five games going 12-4 and finishing third. The 12-wins tied the most conference wins with the 2007-08 and 2010-11 teams. They reached the postseason for the sixth time in ten seasons as well. Four Cowgirls earned postseason honors for the tenth straight year led by senior Chaundra Sewell. She earned First Team All-Conference and All-Defensive Team honors. Sophomore Kayla Woodward was selected Second Team while senior Ashley Sickles and sophomore Kaitlyn Mileto were named Third Team All-Mountain West. Sewell also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America honors and All-Region VII honors, while being named Capital One Third Team Academic All-American.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball

Head Coach Joe Legerski

In 2013-14, several more records and marks were achieved within the program. Wyoming finished with a 20-11 overall mark and a 10-8 record in MW. The 20-wins marked the seventh time in the last nine years that a Cowgirl team has reached that mark. The program also reached its 600th win in school history with an 87-76 win over Fresno State (1/29/14). With a victory over Pepperdine (11/23/13), Legerski earned his 200th career victory. Two Cowgirls earned postseason honors led by junior Kayla Woodward. She was selected First Team All-MW and to the MW Championships All-Tournament Team. Woodward also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America honors and All-Region VII honors. Senior Fallon Lewis was also selected Honorable Mention All-Mountain West.

In his 12th season with the Cowgirls, UW went 16-14 overall and 10-8 in league play for a fifth place finish. Two Cowgirls earned conference honors as Kayla Woodward and Marquelle Dent were each selected All-Mountain West. Dent also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America and All-Region VII honors. Woodward was named CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District.

During his time, the Cowgirls have been successful in the classroom as well. Including players that earned honors multiple times 70 Academic All-MW student-athletes while 43 have been MW Scholar Athlete.

Legerski came to Wyoming following a highly-successful stint at the University of Utah. As an assistant (1991-1998), and later associate head coach (1998-2003) for Elaine Elliott, he was part of the most successful women's program in the history of both the Western Athletic and Mountain West Conferences. The Utes compiled a 254-96 record while he was there, including seven league titles. They were 135-35 in conference play.

Legerski earned a bachelor of science degree in business education from UW in 1979. He was an assistant with the Cowgirls from 1987 through 1991, before taking the Utah position. He was the head women's basketball coach at Western Wyoming College (Rock Springs) for one season, finishing second in the region. Prior to that he was the head women's basketball coach at Rock Springs High from 1984 to 1986.

Legerski, and his wife, Jamie, are parents of three children, step-son Zane Beadles, daughter Madison and son Joseph III.
