COWGIRL GOLF

TEEING OFF

2016-17 WYOMING GOLF SCHEDULE/RESULTS

Up Next: The Cowgirls closed out the Islander Classic with the third top-five finish of the year as they tied for fourth. UW will make its way to St. George, Utah, for the annual BYU Entrada Classic before the Lady Thunderbird Classic. The BYU Entrada Classic is set to begin on Monday, March 13.

That's Three, For GG: Junior Gabrielle Gibson earned her third top-ten finish after she tied for ninth at the Islander Classic in Corpus Christi, Texas. Gibson posted a final round 78 (+6) for a total score of 226 (+10), which was one off her season-best.

Reawaken Megan: After not finishing within the top-20 in the four fall tournaments, sophomore Megan Knadler finished tied for fifth in UW's first spring tournament of 2017. It was her best collegiate finish and third top-ten mark of her career.

Back to Back: The Cowgirls found themselves in the record books in two of their tournaments this past fall. At the Nebraska Chip-N Club, UW posted the second-lowest team round in program history with a 292 (+4), while they went on to capture a third-round 293 (+5) to tie for the third-lowest team round in program history at their Cowgirl Desert Intercollegiate.

Mac Attack: Senior Mackenzie Barrie led the Cowgirls during each round of the Wyoming Cowgirl Desert Intercollegiate. She tied for 15th with a 224 (+8), for her first top-25 finish this fall season and the fourth of her career. She continued her hot streak with posting a career-best 70 (-1) during the opening round of the Denver "Ron Moore" Intercollegiate.

Hankins Top-Ten: After redshirting a year ago, Sarah Hankins was just one of the highlights of the Cowgirls fall season. Hankins is the lone Cowgirl to finish a tournament in the top-ten, as she earned her first top-ten finish at the Nebraska Chip-N Club with a 221 (+5). Her three-round total is the lowest individual tournament score of the 2016-17 season for the Cowgirls. Additionally, the redshirt sophomore recorded the lowest round in two of the three days in Lincoln.

Lowest Fall Season: The Cowgirls once again broke its lowest team average this fall. After competing in four tournaments, UW averaged 303 strokes during each round. Last fall, the Cowgirls averaged 306.8 strokes after also competing in four tournaments.

COWGIRLS TIE FOR FOURTH, GIBSON TIES FOR NINTH AT ISLANDER CLASSIC

Corpus Christi, Texas (Feb. 28, 2017) – Junior Gabrielle Gibson tied for ninth to pace the University of Wyoming Cowgirl golf team on Tuesday at the Islander Classic. UW finished with a share of fourth place after posting a three-round score of 926 (+62). It was the third top-five finish of the year for the Brown and Gold.

“The course played very tough today in the coastal, three-club wind,” Cowgirl head coach Josey Stender said. “We fought hard and almost closed the gap on a couple more teams. We are happy to move up at the end of the day. I thought we’ve had a true team effort the last few events and some great individual results. We will head home with time to work on a few things and look forward to getting back to a familiar course at Entrada.”

Gibson earned her third career top-ten finish after posting a final round 78 (+6). Her total score of 226 (+10) was one off her season-best. Gibson recorded nine pars and two birdies during the final round of play at the Corpus Christi Country Club.

Senior Mackenzie Barrie and freshman Erin Sargent tied for 22nd in the 68-player field. It was the second-best finish this season for both Barrie and Sargent. Barrie posted her best round of the tournament with a 77 (+5), while Sargent shot an 81 (+9) on Tuesday. They each finished with a three-round total of 234 (+18).

Sophomore Megan Knadler recorded an 81 (+9) during the final round to close out the tournament one shot behind Barrie and Sargent with a 235 (+19). Knadler tied for 28th for her third top-30 finish of 20-16-17.

Klara Castillo led UW with three birdies during the third and final round. Castillo saved the best for last with a 78 (+6) on Tuesday. She jumped nine spots during the final round to tie for 38th. Playing as an individual, Sarah Hankins shot an 85 (+13) to close out the tournament with a 243 (+27).

Of the 12 teams competing, Sam Houston State ran away with the team title on Tuesday. The Bearkats shot a 904 (+40) and were led by Heather Shake who claimed the individual title with a three-round score of 220 (+4).

The Cowgirls will be back in action on March 13-14 for the BYU at Entrada Classic.
