2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball
Conference Information

Three Cowgirl Basketball Players Garner Postseason Honors, Legerski named Coach of the Year: Three members of the Wyoming Cowgirl basketball team, Liv Roberts, Marta Gomez and Taylor Rusk, were recognized as the Mountain West announced the 2017 All-Conference Team. Head Coach Joe Legerski was selected the 2017 Coach of the Year by his peers. Roberts was named to the All-MW and All-Defensive Teams for the first time in her career while Gomez was selected the Sixth Player of the Year. Rusk earned a spot on the league's All-Freshman Team. Roberts, a junior from Missoula, Mont., played in 25 contests along with 14 conference games before suffering a season-ending knee injury. She led the team in nine statistical categories overall including points and rebounds, plus leading the way in ten conference categories. In league games, she ranked among the Top 15 in eight statistical categories. Roberts scored in double-digits in all but one contest she played, reached double-figures in rebounding five times which included four double-doubles. She led the team in rebounding ten times, nine times in scoring and six times in assists. Gomez played in all 18 games during conference action. She averaged 8.9 points and 2.6 rebounds in 25.1 minutes per play. She led the team in three-point field goals made and attempts while being ranked among the top 15 in those two categories in league games. Gomez recorded nine double-figure scoring games which included an 18-point performance against UNLV. A freshman from Highlands Ranch, Colo., Rusk played in all 18 league games including her first career start against Boise State. She averaged 7.2 points and 2.8 rebounds in league play. Rusk led the league in three-point field goal percentage for all games and was second overall in league games. She finished with four double-figure scoring games including a career-high 14 points against San Jose State. Legerski earned Coach of the Year honors for the second time in his career. The 14th-year head coach also received the award following the 2003-04 season. He helped lead the Cowgirls to a 20-plus win season for the eighth time in his career and a program best 13 conference victories. The all-time winningest head coach in school history he has amassed 266 overall wins and an MW best 133 conference victories.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball Media Information/Schedule

Welcome to the University of Wyoming and Cowgirl Basketball. The following information is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the 2016-17 season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for the media area and photo credentials should be directed to Director of Media Relations Amy Dambro and the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. Her number is 307-766-2269. Press-pass requests should be made at least 24 hours prior to game time. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at the Will Call Window, located at the northwest side of the Arena-Auditorium at the Athletics Ticket Office.

Arena Auditorium

Wyoming's Arena Auditorium is located on Willett Drive in Laramie, just north of War Memorial Stadium and the Fieldhouse complex. Media parking is located to the south and west of the Double A, in the "S, Brown and Summit View" lots.

Post Game Procedures

Members of the Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the media room at the top of the player ramp. Head Coach Joe Legerski and requested Cowgirl players will come to the room. Opponent coaches and players will be interviewed outside their locker room.

Legerski and Player Interviews

All interview requests for head coach Joe Legerski or any players should be made through the UW Athletics Media and Public Relations Office, 307-766-2256, at least 24 hours in advance. Players are available as their class schedules, practices and meetings permit. Players will not be available until post-game on game days. Media members are also required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending any Cowgirl practice session.

Conference Call

Joe Legerski will conduct a conference call every week during the season. The day will vary, so contact the MR office for more information. Media members are asked to call the bridge three to five minutes prior to the conference. The number is 307-766-1007 and the access number is 2256#.

Cowgirls On The Radio

The University of Wyoming women's basketball team is excited to have its games broadcast during the 2016-17 year. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo. In Laramie, the games can be heard on KOWB (1290). Check local listings for games carried in your area on one of the 25 Cowboy Sports Network affiliates. Games will begin with a 30-minute pre-game. Handling the play-by-play will be Reece Monaco. Joining Monaco as the color analyst is Wyoming Hall of Famer Margie McDonald.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball Team Notes

Roberts Named MW Player of the Week: For the fourth time this season, junior guard Liv Roberts was selected as the Mountain West Women's Basketball Player of the Week for games played through Jan. 21. It's the fourth honor of her career and is the first Cowgirl to win four times in a year since Hillary Carlson during the 2010-11 season. She also earned it for games played through Dec. 5, Dec. 25 and Jan. 8. Roberts, a 5-11 junior from Missoula, Mont., led the Cowgirls to a 2-0 mark last week with an 89-60 win over San Jose State and a 68-52 victory against New Mexico. She averaged a double-double over the two contests with 16.5 points and 14 rebounds. Roberts was 10-24 (.417) and 10-10 (1.00) from the free throw line. She also added six assists and four steals. Against the Spartans, she recorded 19 points and 13 rebounds. She was 6-15 (.400) from the field and 6-6 (1.00) from the charity stripe. She followed that up with her sixth double-double of the season with 14 points and a career-high 15 boards. Roberts recorded 22 double-figure scoring games and seven double-figure rebounding games in 2016-17.

Cowgirls Ranked In The Polls: For the first time since the 2012-13 season, the Wyoming Cowgirl Basketball program received a vote in either the AP or the Division I Top 25 Coaches Poll. In the January 23, 2017 Associated Press Poll, the Cowgirls received two votes which is 37th among all schools. The last time they received votes was February 11, 2013. During the 2007-08 season, the Cowgirls were ranked as high as 15th in the AP Poll (January 28, 2008) and 16th in the Coaches' Poll (January 29, 2008).

Cowgirls For Three: The Wyoming Cowgirl basketball team has made it a habit from shooting from beyond the arc. Through the Fresno State game (3/7/17), UW had made a three-point field goal in every game during the season and 44 consecutive games. The streak dates back to the 2015-16 season against San Jose State (1/13/16).

Legerski for 250: Head coach Joe Legerski reached another milestone in his stellar career. With the 68-48 win over the Southern Utah Thunderbirds (12/2/16), he reached 250 wins for his career. Already the winningest coach in school history, he recorded that mark with a 72-50 win over Waves on Nov. 24, 2012. His current record stands at 266-165 (.617), while his conference mark is 133-93 (.588). He overtook Chad Lavin who completed his coaching career at Wyoming with 175 wins.

Reaching Double-Figures: With a 59-40 win over Utah State (2/11/17), the Cowgirls reached ten wins in conference play. It's the first time since the 2014-15 the team reached double-figures in league wins and the ninth time in school history. Under head coach Joe Legerski, Wyoming had notched double-digit wins eight times in MW action.

20-plus wins or more: For the first time since the 2013-14 season, the Cowgirls collected 20 wins on the season. They are 21-9 overall. It's the eighth time in head coach Joe Legerski's career with 20-plus wins on the year and the 21 wins is tied for seventh most all-time in school history. Their .700 winning percentage is also ninth all-time.

The number 13: With their 68-59 win over San Jose State (3/3/17), the Cowgirls reached 13 league wins for the season. It's the most wins in conference play in the programs history. The previous record was 12 which was set by the 2007-08, 2010-11 and 2012-13 teams.

Program Reaches A Milestone: On January 18, 2017, the Wyoming Cowgirl basketball program reached a milestone in its history. With an 89-60 win over San Jose State, it recorded the 650th win for the program in school history. Three coaches have accounted for 557 of those wins, they include current head coach Joe Legerski, Chad Lavin and Margie McDonald.

Bringing In The Crowd: The Cowgirls is averaging 2,457 fans for the 2016-17 campaign with a total of 39,317. Their largest regular season crowd of the year was 2,952 against Boise State (2/18/17). UW currently ranks 47th in the latest NCAA attendance numbers.

Doing It With Defense: The Cowgirls have been impressive on defense so far during the 2016-17 season. They are holding opponents to 54.1 points per game overall and 54.1 points in league games, which ranks second for both. In the NCAA, they are currently eighth overall in scoring defense. Wyoming has also held ten of its opponents to 50 points or less.

Off to a Quick Start: With its ninth straight victory over New Mexico (1/21/17), the program had its longest winning streak since the 2007-08 season when they won 12 in a row. The 15-3 record through Jan. 21, 2017 marked the best start through 18 games since the 2007-08. The 7-0 conference start was the best ever in program history. The streak was ended by the UNLV on Jan. 25, 2017.

A Little Help Off the Bench: The Cowgirl bench has done a solid job this season adding an average of 21.6 points per game. The team recorded a season-high 42 against Adams State (11/22/16) and it has added 30 or more in six games.

Tapia with the Assist: Newcomer Clara Tapia has made an impression on the team in the assist category. The sophomore has recorded 137 assists for an average of 4.6 assists per game, which ranks sixth in the league. She finished with a career-high ten against San Diego State (2/1/17).

WBB Coaches and Media Pick Wyoming Eighth in MWC Poll:

UW was picked to finish eighth as the MW announced its 2016-17 preseason women's basketball poll and all-conference team. The voting panel consisted of the league's 11 head coaches and select women's basketball media.

JOE LEGERSKI

(WYOMING, 1979)

University of Wyoming, Head Women's Basketball Coach

Joe Legerski will be entering his 14th season in 2016-17 as the head women's basketball coach at the University of Wyoming. He was named head coach on May 1, 2003 and became the sixth head coach in Cowgirl history.

During the 2015-16 campaign, the Cowgirls finished with a 13-16 overall record and 6-12 in MW play. His overall record stands at 245-156 while he holds a 120-88 mark in league play. Two individuals were selected for postseason honors. Senior Marquelle Dent was named to the All-Conference and All-Defensive teams for the second straight year while newcomer Marta Gomez was selected to the MW All-Freshman team.

He recorded his first career coaching victory on Dec. 13, 2003, as Wyoming defeated Montana State Billings, 62-51. His first conference win came on Jan. 17, 2004 against rival BYU.

In his first season, he guided the Cowgirls to an 11-18 record overall and a 6-8 mark in the Mountain West including their first ever Mountain West Tournament victory in school history. Two Cowgirls also garnered All-Conference awards as he earned MW Coach of the Year honors in his first year with the program.

In 2004-05, he helped the Cowgirls to a 16-12 overall mark, along with a 7-7 record and a fourth place finish in the MW. It was the highest they'd finished in conference play since 1996-97. They swept BYU for the first time since 1994-95 and earned a 72-67 win over the Colorado Buffaloes which snapped a 13-game losing streak. Three Cowgirls earned All-MW awards including Ashley Elliott who earned First Team All-MW honors for the second year in a row.

For the 2005-06 season, the Cowgirls completed the year 21-9 overall, while finishing 10-6 overall in the Mountain West Conference. They made an appearance in the WNIT for only the third time in school history. The 21-wins were at the time the most since the 1989-90 season when they went 24-8 and the ten conference victories at the time tied an all-time school record which was set in 1978-79. Three Cowgirls garnered All-Conference honors, including Hanna Zavec who earned First Team All-MW and Defensive Player of the Year honors along with Megan McGuffey who took home the MW Newcomer of the Year award.

During the 2006-07 campaign, it was a magical year for Legerski and the Cowgirls as they won the WNIT Postseason Championship over the Wisconsin Badgers. Wyoming went 6-0 enroute to the championship. They completed the season with a program best 27-9 record, which eclipsed the 24-8 mark set in 1989-90, and the 11-5 record and second place finish in the league standings were the second most wins in both the MW and school history. It was the also the first time in school history that a Cowgirl team had won at least 20 games in back-to-back seasons, along with being invited to post season play. For the second year in a row, Hanna Zavec was named First Team All-MW and Justyna Podziemska was named MW Newcomer of the Year along with earning Second Team All-MW honors.

In 2007-08, the Cowgirls continued where they left off from the previous season as further marks were broken. They started off with an 18-1 record, which was the best start in school history, and tied for the best in the MW as well. With 24 wins, they recorded their third straight 20-win season, which had never been done in the programs' history, and with a 12-4 mark in conference play it also was the most conference wins breaking the 11 wins set the year before. Their play helped them earn the Cowgirl programs' first ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. For the first time in school history, they were also ranked among the Top 25 teams in the country by both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Division I Coaches' Poll. Their highest ranking was 15th in the AP (1/28/08) and 16th in the Coaches' Poll (1/29/08). As a team, they were ranked in either poll for 13 weeks during the season and received votes for the other six polls. Wyoming was also honored with several individual awards. Hanna Zavec was named First Team All-Mountain West for the third straight year, while being named the MW Defensive Player of the Year, Justyna Podziemska earned Second Team All-MW honors for the second straight year, and Aubrey Vandiver was awarded Third Team All-MW honors. Zavec also garnered Honorable Mention All-America accolades by the Associated Press and for the second year in a row was named to the State Farm Coaches' Honorable Mention All-America Team.

In his sixth season with the Cowgirls, they wrapped up the year with a 16-14 record overall and an 8-8 mark in MWC. With a victory over Denver (11/14/08), he would reach his 100th career victory, the fastest head coach to achieve that mark in school history. Four Cowgirls earned conference honors as Hillary Carlson was named Second Team All-MW, Megan McGuffey was Third Team All-MW, Kristen Scheffler was Honorable Mention All-MW and Emma Langford was named the Sixth Player of the Year.

Under his guidance in 2009-10, the Cowgirls recorded a 20-win or more season finishing with a 21-12 overall record and a 9-7 mark in the MWC. It was the fourth time out of the five seasons that a Wyoming team had recorded 20-wins or more, along with their sixth consecutive winning season. His teams have played in postseason a record number of times as well. They had played beyond the regular season in four of his seven years, which included the last four of five. Three Cowgirls garnered conference honors for the seventh straight year under Legerski as Hillary Carlson and Aubrey Vandiver were each named to the Second Team All-MW, while Emma Langford earned Third Team All-MW honors.

It was another record setting year for the Cowgirls during the 2010-11 basketball campaign. Wyoming posted their fifth 20-win season out of the last six years by going 24-9 overall and 12-4 in the Mountain West. The 12 conference victories tied for the most wins set by the 2007-08 team and the 24 wins tied for the third most wins in school history. It also marked the Cowgirls seventh consecutive winning season and the second time in the last eight years they recorded back-to-back 20-win seasons. Wyoming continued their latest run through the post-season under Legerski. They were selected to participate in the WNIT for the second year in a row and the fourth time in the Legerski era. With a win over Air Force (1/22/11), he reached 150 wins for his career. The awards followed as well for UW. For the first time in MW history and only the second time in school history, a Cowgirl player earned Player of the Year honors. Aubrey Vandiver was named the Mountain West Player of the Year for her performance during the MW season. She and fellow senior Hillary Carlson were both named First Team All-MW, while Jade Kennedy and Chaundra Sewell each earned Honorable Mention All-MW.

It was a rebuilding year in 2011-12 with the program having to replace four graduating seniors including MW Player of the Year Aubrey Vandiver and First Team All-MW selection Hillary Carlson. Despite finishing the non-conference schedule 4-9, they would rally in Mountain West play to go 7-7 on their way to a fifth place finish. The Cowgirls finished the season 12-17 overall and 1-1 at the MW championships. They won their opener against the TCU Frogs but lost to the eventual conference champion and number one seed San Diego State Aztecs. Three players garnered postseason honors for the ninth straight year. Chaundra Sewell was selected Second Team All-Conference and to the All-Defensive Team. Freshman Kayla Woodward earned Third Team All-Conference honors followed by junior Ashley Sickles who was an Honorable Mention All-MW selection.

It was quite a turnaround in 2012-13 after a previous year that saw the Cowgirls win just 12 games. Wyoming started off the season going 12-4 overall in non-conference action which equaled their win total from the previous season. During that time, Legerski would become the all-time winningest coach with a 72-50 victory over Pepperdine (11/24/12). They finished the year off with a 24-8 overall record. The 24-wins tied for the third most in school history. Wyoming has also reached 20-plus wins for the sixth time under Legerski. In league action, the Cowgirls improved their record by five games going 12-4 and finishing third. The 12-wins tied the most conference wins with the 2007-08 and 2010-11 teams. They reached the postseason for the sixth time in ten seasons as well. Four Cowgirls earned postseason honors for the tenth straight year led by senior Chaundra Sewell. She earned First Team All-Conference and All-Defensive Team honors. Sophomore Kayla Woodward was selected Second Team while senior Ashley Sickles and sophomore Kaitlyn Mileto were named Third Team All-Mountain West. Sewell also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America honors and All-Region VII honors, while being named Capital One Third Team Academic All-American.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball

Head Coach Joe Legerski

In 2013-14, several more records and marks were achieved within the program. Wyoming finished with a 20-11 overall mark and a 10-8 record in MW. The 20-wins marked the seventh time in the last nine years that a Cowgirl team has reached that mark. The program also reached its 600th win in school history with an 87-76 win over Fresno State (1/29/14). With a victory over Pepperdine (11/23/13), Legerski earned his 200th career victory. Two Cowgirls earned postseason honors led by junior Kayla Woodward. She was selected First Team All-MW and to the MW Championships All-Tournament Team. Woodward also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America honors and All-Region VII honors. Senior Fallon Lewis was also selected Honorable Mention All-Mountain West.

In his 12th season with the Cowgirls, UW went 16-14 overall and 10-8 in league play for a fifth place finish. Two Cowgirls earned conference honors as Kayla Woodward and Marquelle Dent were each selected All-Mountain West. Dent also garnered WBCA Honorable Mention All-America and All-Region VII honors. Woodward was named CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District.

During his time, the Cowgirls have been successful in the classroom as well. Including players that earned honors multiple times 70 Academic All-MW student-athletes while 43 have been MW Scholar Athlete.

Legerski came to Wyoming following a highly-successful stint at the University of Utah. As an assistant (1991-1998), and later associate head coach (1998-2003) for Elaine Elliott, he was part of the most successful women's program in the history of both the Western Athletic and Mountain West Conferences. The Utes compiled a 254-96 record while he was there, including seven league titles. They were 135-35 in conference play.

Legerski earned a bachelor of science degree in business education from UW in 1979. He was an assistant with the Cowgirls from 1987 through 1991, before taking the Utah position. He was the head women's basketball coach at Western Wyoming College (Rock Springs) for one season, finishing second in the region. Prior to that he was the head women's basketball coach at Rock Springs High from 1984 to 1986.

Legerski, and his wife, Jamie, are parents of three children, step-son Zane Beadles, daughter Madison and son Joseph III.

2016-17 Cowgirl Basketball Assistant Coaches

Gerald Mattinson

Associate Head Basketball Coach, Weber State '81

Gerald Mattinson will be entering his 14th season on the Cowgirl coaching staff and his tenth as an associate head coach.

He began his college basketball career as a student-athlete at Casper College for head coach Oscar "Swede" Ericson. While there, he was a First Team All-American and All-Region selection in 1978. Mattinson then moved onto a three-year career at Weber State University in Ogden, Utah. He earned All-Conference honors twice during his career for head coach Neil McCarthy. A two-time Academic All-American selection, he graduated from Weber State with a bachelor's of science degree in business education in 1981. He completed a master's of sports science degree from the United States Sports Academy in 1988 and earned his principal endorsement from the University of Wyoming.

Mattinson's professional coaching career began at Weber State as a graduate assistant coach with the men's basketball program during the 1981-82 season. From 1982-1987, he was the head boy's basketball coach at Rock Springs High School. He earned Wyoming State Coach of the Year honors and was named Conference Coach of the Year twice. From 1987-90, Mattinson was an assistant men's coach at Western Wyoming Community College. He was elevated to an Assistant Athletics Director and the Head Men's Basketball Coach in 1991 and held the position until 1998. For the 1998-99 season, he became an assistant with the women's program for one year. Mattinson had been a business education teacher at Rock Springs High School since 1982 before taking the position of Principal at East Junior High School in June of 2001.

Mattinson, and his wife, Carey are the parents of three children, stepson Morgan Splichal, stepdaughter Tiffany Paradis and son Ashton.

Bojan Jankovic

Assistant Basketball Coach, University of the Ozarks, '06

Bojan Jankovic joined the Cowgirl basketball program in the summer of 2015. Jankovic came to Wyoming after a five-year stint at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Okla. He joined the ORU staff in 2010, and helped guide the Golden Eagles to the Southland Conference Championship in 2013. At ORU, Jankovic was responsible for international recruiting and scheduling, working with the post player's and game day preparation. He coached Sarah Shelton to All-Southland Conference honors in 2013 while in 2015 coached Vicky McIntyre to leading the nation in rebounds and blocks per game. She was drafted 20th by the Seattle Storm, the first player in Oral Roberts history. Also in his time at ORU, the Golden Eagles won 88 games and made four postseason appearances, including a 2013 trip to the NCAA Tournament and a pair of WNIT bids.

He also has experience coaching at the highest levels of international basketball. He currently serves as an assistant coach on the Serbian senior national team. The team won the gold medal during the 2015 European Championship which helped them qualify for the 2016 Rio Olympics. The team mounted an upset of the Australian's 73-71 in the quarterfinals before falling to Spain in the semifinals. The team would respond with a 70-63 win over France in the Bronze medal game. During the summer of 2013, the squad finished fourth at the European Championship which was at the time the highest in the nation's history. In 2014, the Serbian national team reached its best ever finish at the FIBA World Championships in Turkey finishing eighth. All-together, he has helped coach four players who have reached the WNBA, Ana Dabovic, Vicky McIntyre, Jelena Milovanovic and Sonja Petrovic.

Prior to that, Jankovic spent four seasons at Centenary College in Shreveport, La., serving as assistant coach for three years before taking over the head coaching duties for the 2009-10 season. He also assisted at the University of the Ozarks for one year, where he helped the men's basketball team achieve the most conference wins in team history.

He spent five years with Radnicki, a Division I Professional team in Serbia, where he served as the head coach for the U18 team. In 2004, he helped lead Radnicki's U18 team to a win in one of the largest tournaments on the European circuit in Goteborg, Sweden.

Jankovic started his playing career with Radnicki, and he also played at Belgrade Basketball Club before coming to the United States. Collegiately, he played at Mount Senario College in Ladysmith, Wis., leading the team to the National Small College National Championship in 1996. He received his degree from the University of the Ozarks in 2006. Jankovic and his wife Bojana have a daughter Anja and son Vuk.

Heather Ezell

Assistant Basketball Coach, Iowa State, '09

Heather Ezell is entering her second season as an assistant coach with the Wyoming basketball program in 2016-17. She came to Wyoming after spending the past four seasons at Southeast Missouri State. She joined the staff in 2011 and was responsible for working with the guards along with organizing practices, game day preparation and running summer camps. In 2012-13, she helped mentor Kara Wright to an Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer selection, marking the first Redhawk to earn postseason honors since the 2008-09 season.

Ezell spent the 2010-11 season as an assistant coach at Fairfield University, where the Stags posted a 17-13 overall record and a 10-8 mark in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. She worked primarily with perimeter players while assisting in the day-to-day operations of the program, including practice and game planning, recruiting and coordinating the team's community service efforts.

She had a highly decorated career both collegiately and professionally which began as a four-year letterwinner at Iowa State University (2005-09). She finished her career tied for the Cyclones' career record with 287 made three-point field goals and finished 10th in program history with 1,339 points. In her senior season, Ezell earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors. She ranked 27th nationally with 2.5 three-point field goals made per game and eighth in the Big 12 with 3.5 assists per contest. Ezell also earned a spot on the 2008 Big 12 All-Tournament Team and helped the Cyclones to three NCAA appearances including the Elite Eight in 2009.

Ezell moved onto the professional level in 2009-10, playing in Iceland for Haukar where she was named Best Player in the Iceland Express League. She led the league in points and steals while finishing second in assists and rebounds. She also earned Most Valuable Player recognition in the league's All-Star Game.

A native of Springfield, Mo., Ezell led her Kickapoo High School team to two state championships and a 113-7 record during her prep years. She was named Miss Show Me Basketball as Missouri's top player in 2005. Ezell graduated from Iowa State in 2009 with bachelor's degrees in management and marketing.

Fallon Lewis

Assistant Director of Player Development, Wyoming'14

Fallon Lewis joined the Cowgirl staff as the Director of Recruiting beginning in September 2015. She was recently named the Assistant Director of Player Development. Lewis returned to her alma mater after spending eight months playing for CB Arxil in Pontevedra, Spain. In 24 games, she averaged 11.9 points and 6.5 rebounds in 27.8 minutes per contest. She also spent time over the summer as a private basketball trainer.

Lewis had a highly successful two-year career (2013-14) with the Cowgirls. An Honorable Mention All-Conference selection during her senior campaign, she played in 62 games with 31 starts. In her final season with Wyoming, she averaged 14.3 points and a team-leading 8.9 rebounds. Lewis also recorded 20 points and 21 rebounds in a game becoming only the second player in school history to achieve that. As a junior, she came off the bench and averaged 6.1 points and 3.6 boards in 31 contests. Prior to UW, she spent two seasons at Sheridan College from 2011-12. Lewis was an Honorable Mention NJCAA All-American selection in 2012 and a two-time Region IX All-Conference selection. She helped the Lady Generals to a 45-21 mark and a NJCAA North Sub-Region IX title over her two years.

A Dayton, Wyoming native, Lewis graduated with her degree in business administration from the UW in May of 2014 and was a two-time Academic All-Mountain West selection.
