COWGIRL GOLF

TEERING OFF

Up Next: The Cowgirls closed out the 11th annual Cowgirl Classic with a share of eighth place on April 7. UW will now conclude the spring season with the Mountain West Championship. The three-day, 54-hole tournament begins on Monday and will end with the final round on Wednesday. The championship will once again be held on the Dinah Shore Tournament Course at Mission Hills Country Club. The field features all nine Mountain West teams.

That's Four, We Want More: Junior Gabrielle Gibson earned the fourth top-ten finish of her career after she tied for fourth at the Lady Thunderbird Invite in St. George, Utah. Additionally, Gibson has a top-15 finish in the last three tournaments for UW.

Top-15, Cash Machine: With Knadler's latest top-15 finish, UW has now had one Cowgirl finish within the top-15 in the last five tournaments. Knadler started the trend with her top-five mark at the Battle at the Rock before Gibson earned three in a row for the Brown and Gold.

High Five: With one scheduled tournament remaining, UW currently has five top-five finishes in its nine tournaments this season. The last time UW posted more than two was in 2011-12 when the Cowgirls closed three tournaments within the top-five.

Reawaken Megan: After not finishing within the top-20 in the four fall tournaments, sophomore Megan Knadler finished tied for fifth in UW's first spring tournament of 2017. It was the best collegiate finish and third top-ten mark of her career. She led the squad last week in Maricopa with a top-15 finish as well.

Southern Dunes: Three Cowgirls placed within the top-30 at the 2017 Cowgirl Classic to lead the Brown and Gold to an eighth-place team finish on Friday in Maricopa, Ariz. UW shot a three-round total 902 (+38) as sophomore Megan Knadler earned her second top-15 finish of the season and tied for 13th. Freshman Erin Sargent tied for 24th and senior Mackenzie Barrie earned a share of 29th to pace UW.

UW CLOSES OUT COWGIRL CLASSIC IN EIGHTH PLACE

MARICOPA, Ariz. (April 7, 2017) – Three Cowgirls placed within the top-30 at the 2017 Cowgirl Classic to lead the Brown and Gold to an eighth-place team finish on Friday in Maricopa, Ariz. Sophomore Megan Knadler earned her second top-15 finish of the season and tied for 13th, while freshman Erin Sargent tied for 24th and senior Mackenzie Barrie earned a share of 29th to pace UW.

“I want to thank the entire staff from AK-Chin Southern Dunes Golf Club for their tremendous hospitality and championship event,” Cowgirl head coach Josey Stender said. “The team battled hard today and we were just a few putts short of where we hoped to finish. The event, like our season as a whole, was a team effort and great preparation for the Mountain West Championships.”

Knadler picked up where she left off yesterday at the AK-Chin Southern Dunes Golf Course. She fired a 74 (+2) to close out the tournament with a total mark of 222 (+6). Knadler added five birdies on Friday for what was her second top-20 finish in two years at the Cowgirl Classic. Last year as a freshman, Knadler led the team and tied for 20th in her first tournament at Southern Dunes.

Barrie recorded the best round of the day for UW with a 73 (+1). The senior finished with a 226 (+10) for the three-round tournament, as Sargent posted a 78 (+6) during the final round to close out Southern Dunes one shot ahead of Barrie.

Gabrielle Gibson finished strong with a 76 (+4) during the third round. The junior totaled a 231 (+15) and two shots ahead of redshirt sophomore Sarah Hankins. Hankins scored a 78 (+6) on Friday morning to tie for 57th.

Taylor Dorans led the individuals for Wyoming during the two-day tournament. Dorans totaled 234 (+18) and tied for 63rd after a 78 (+6) on Friday. Michelle Romano was just a few shots behind with a 239 (+23). She saved her best round for last as she posted a 75 (+3) during the final round. Klara Castillo also recorded her best round of the tournament on Friday. Castillo fired a 76 (+4) and tied for 87th, as Amanda Hinchey recorded a three-round total 257 (+41).

UC Irvine claimed the team title with a total three-round tally of 874 (+10) as Sacramento State took second with 880 (+16). Kaitlin Collom of Nevada won the tiebreaker on the 16th hole for the individual honors. Collom and Sacramento State's Julia Becker each shot a 213 (-3) for the tournament.

The Cowgirls will close out the season at the Mountain West Championships in Rancho Mirage, Calif. The three-day championships will take place on March 17-19 at the Mission Hills Country Club.
