Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center Will be One of the Premier Athletic Facilities in the Country

Construction of Wyoming's $44 million, state-of-the-art Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center began in December of 2016, the week following Wyoming hosting the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game.

The new facility is located at the north end of War Memorial Stadium. It will expand the current Rochelle Athletics Center by 71,000 square feet to a total of 118,000 square feet.

Contained in the new facility will be: an expanded academic center, a larger sports medicine area that will incorporate two recovery pools, new strength and conditioning center, new football locker room, a theatre-style squad room, a player lounge, a recruiting lounge, new football meeting rooms and a training table that will include a complete kitchen to help meet the nutritional needs of all UW student-athletes.

The project is being funded by $24 million in private donations and a $20 million State of Wyoming matching program. The matching program was established by Gov. Matt Mead and the Wyoming State Legislature. The project will be completed in 2018.

WYOMING COWBOYS ENJOY SUCCESS IN THE NFL DURING BOHL ERA

Since the 2014 season when head coach Craig Bohl and his staff took leadership of Wyoming Football, several former Wyoming Cowboys have enjoyed success in the NFL.

Following the 2014 season, linebacker Mark Nzeocha was selected in the 2015 draft pick. After the 2015 season, defensive end Eddie Yarbrough signed as a free agent following the 2016 NFL Draft.

This past year, Cowboy running back Brian Hill and center Chase Roullier were selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, and three other Cowboys made NFL camp rosters as free agents. Those three were: Tanner Gentry (WR); Jacob Hollister (TE); and Lucas Wacha (LB).

Dave Walsh

Kevin McKinney

Hall of Fame Announcers Dave Walsh and Kevin McKinney to Call Games Again in 2017

All Wyoming Cowboy Football games may be heard live on the 26 affiliate radio stations of the Cowboy Sports Network throughout the states of Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Each Wyoming Football game is also broadcast on the official University of Wyoming athletics website: www.gowyo.com.

Dave Walsh will be calling Cowboy games for his 34th season in 2017. He will be joined by longtime Cowboy color analyst Kevin McKinney, who will be adding color commentary on Wyoming Football games for the 20th consecutive season. McKinney will be entering his 45th year as color analyst on Cowboy Basketball broadcasts in 2017-18.

Walsh and McKinney were inducted together into the Wyoming Association of Broadcasters (WAB) Hall of Fame in the summer of 2015. McKinney was inducted into the UW Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2013, and Walsh was inducted in the fall of 2016.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Walsh received his degree in radio and television in 1975 from San Diego State. He was the sports director at KVOC Radio in Casper, Wyo., prior to joining the Cowboys. He is a nine-time Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year as selected by his peers of the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters.

McKinney, a Cheyenne native and University of Wyoming graduate, has also been honored during his distinguished career as a Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year. McKinney serves as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at UW.

Welcome to the University of Wyoming, and Cowboy Football. The information on these pages is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the upcoming season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for press box and photo credentials should be directed to the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. To ensure consideration, requests should be submitted on company letterhead — either by email, fax or mail — two weeks prior to the game. Requests made the week of the game will be handled as space allows. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at Will Call.

Media Parking at Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming's Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium is located on the north side of Grand Ave. at the intersection of Grand and 22nd Street in Laramie, Wyo. Most media members will be assigned parking in the FA or S lots on the west side of War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium. The FA or S lots may both be accessed by taking Willett Drive, which runs on the north side of War Memorial Stadium. On the west side of the Arena-Auditorium turn south off of Willett Drive into the FA or S parking lots.

Media Facilities

The War Memorial Stadium Press Box facility is located on the top of the Stadium's West Stands. Working media are accommodated in the main "Larry Birleffi Media Area", while broadcast personnel are assigned booth space as available. The Press Box is accessible via an elevator, located in the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium.

Photographic Services

Photographers can either shoot from designated areas on the sidelines or from the camera deck that is located in front of the press box and is accessible from the main press area. Wireless internet access is available in the press box. There is also a room available to photographers during and after games on field level in the former Stadium Club room located underneath the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium. Wireless internet and high speed data lines will also be available in this room.

Media Services

Complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame coach and player quotes are provided for working media. A media folder including flip-card, updated statistics and game-day notes will be provided pregame. An internal public address is provided for updated information and notes throughout the game. A pregame meal is served through the first quarter, and coffee, soft drinks and snacks are available during and following the game. For radio, ISDN lines, as well as regular land lines are available. Ample phone lines and wireless internet are available in the press box.

Ticket Information

Tickets to all University of Wyoming Athletics' events may be purchased through the UW Athletics Ticket Office. Tickets may be ordered over the phone by calling 307-766-7220, or online at www.gowyo.com, and go to the ticket links on the front page.

Postgame Procedures

Members of the Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the respective team interview areas with two minutes remaining in the game. Requested Cowboy players and Head Coach Craig Bohl will be escorted to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) War Room following the 10-minute cooling off period. Opponent players and head coach will meet with media members in War Memorial Fieldhouse following the cooling off period.

Practice

Media members are required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending a practice sesson.

Craig Bohl Press Conference and Interviews

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will be available on a weekly press conference each Monday during the season from Noon-12:30 p.m. The press conference will be held in the Rochelle Athletics Center. Bohl will also be available via teleconference during the press conference. Contact the UW Media Relations Office for details regarding the weekly press conference.

Player and Assistant Coach Interviews

Wyoming football players and assistant coaches will be available to the media for individual interviews each Monday following Coach Bohl's press conference.

Media need to submit specific player and assistant coach interview requests to Tim Harkins of the UW Media Relations Office by phone or e-mail no later than 1 p.m. on Sundays for the Monday interviews.

It is requested that media conduct their interviews on Mondays. If there are student-athletes and assistant coaches unable to meet an interview request on Monday due to a scheduling conflict, those student-athletes and coaches will be made available Tuesday.

Video Services

Media in need of assistance with video may contact the UW Athletics Media Relations Office.

Media Teleconferences

A teleconference will be included as a part of Craig Bohl's Monday press conferences during the season, giving those media, unable to attend, an opportunity to phone in and ask questions of the Cowboy head coach.

For detailed information on teleconferences and how to connect to the calls, contact the UW Media Relations Office at (307) 766-2256

Real Time Data Rights Policy

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Wyoming's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Wyoming may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Wyoming may result in revocation of press credentials. The University of Wyoming reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

Media Relations Office

The Wyoming Media Relations Office is located at the north end of the Intercollegiate Athletics Building in the Fieldhouse North Addition. The office is located on the second floor, Room 206. The phone number is 307-766-2256.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

If you are looking for a wonderful college environment, look no further than the University of Wyoming. From its' beautiful mountain setting in Laramie, to its wide range of academic offerings and its nationally-respected football program, UW offers a memorable college experience to its students.

UW provides an atmosphere that allows you to achieve both your academic and athletic goals.

The University was founded in 1886. It opened with one building, five professors, two tutors and 42 students. Programs of study included philosophy, arts, literature and science. We've come a long way since then.

Today, UW offers approximately 180 undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs through the colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Law, as well as through the Graduate School and the Outreach School, including the University of Wyoming/Casper College Center. This wide range of choices allows each student to explore many options to find his or her career niche. Another way we contribute to the success of our students is by offering a large number of courses each semester, making it possible for most to graduate in four years.

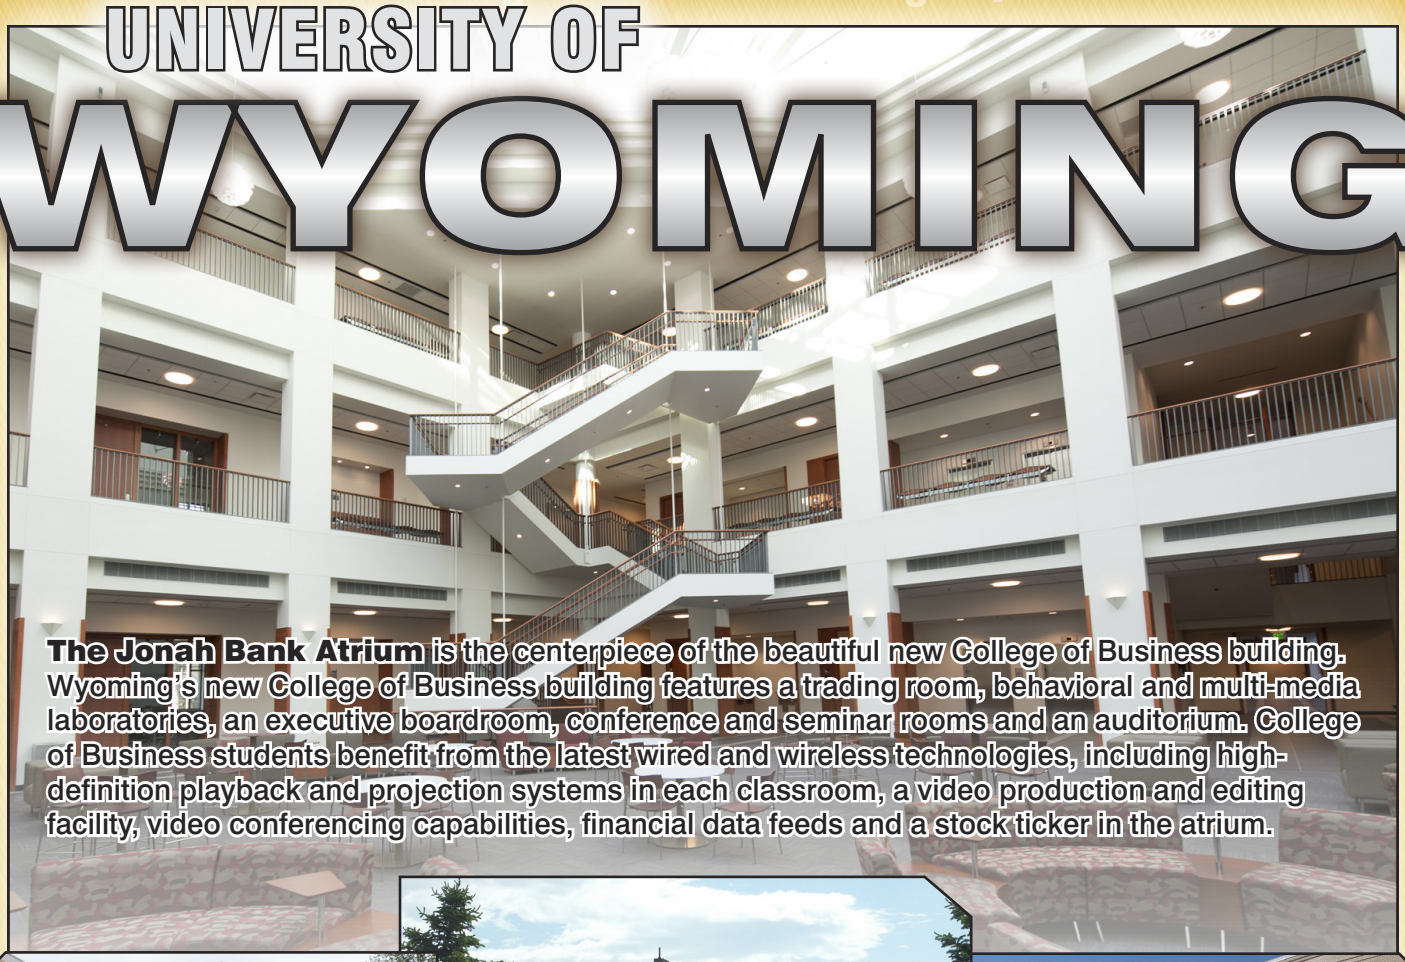
The Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center

Opened in the fall of 2014, the Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center was built to be a "Gateway" to the University of Wyoming. It houses the UW Foundation, Alumni Association, Admissions Office and Career Services Center. The Gateway Center serves as a fantastic recruiting tool for UW Athletics. The Cowboy Football team hosts recruiting functions in the Gateway Center, and the President's Room in the Gateway Center serves as the location for the Craig Bohl TV Show that airs on ROOT SPORTS Rocky Mountain during the football season.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING



The Jonah Bank Atrium is the centerpiece of the beautiful new College of Business building. Wyoming's new College of Business building features a trading room, behavioral and multi-media laboratories, an executive boardroom, conference and seminar rooms and an auditorium. College of Business students benefit from the latest wired and wireless technologies, including high-definition playback and projection systems in each classroom, a video production and editing facility, video conferencing capabilities, financial data feeds and a stock ticker in the atrium.

The College of Health Sciences

At UW, we encourage students to develop their full potential by becoming involved as active members of the university, local community and the world. Opportunities for involvement in some 200 recognized student organizations include student government, publications, the speech and debate team and religious and cultural organizations. Many of our students also take advantage of exceptional international opportunities to become part of the world community through Study Abroad and International Programs. With so many choices, our students enjoy the benefits of meeting new people, making good friends, developing leadership skills and gaining invaluable life experiences.

UW offers a true college-town atmosphere. Laramie has a population of approximately 30,000 with a student enrollment of 12,600. The Laramie campus is composed of 80 major buildings on 785 beautifully landscaped acres. There is a pleasant mix of modern and traditional structures, many built of native Wyoming sandstone quarried northeast of Laramie. At the heart of the campus is the Wyoming Student Union. Fresh from a new multi-million dollar renovation, the Union is where students can kick back between classes, have a sandwich, meet friends, check out an art exhibit or study.

UW is the perfect place for learning in a friendly yet achievement-oriented environment.

As the state's sole four-year educational institution, the university receives strong support from the state and its residents. There is a dedication to making UW the best it can be in terms of its facilities, programs, people and aesthetics. Capital improvements on campus are a high priority, reflecting a commitment to maintaining UW's world-class stature.

NEWEST ADDITION TO FANTASTIC FACILITIES

New Head Coach's Office in the Rochelle Athletics Center

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dominic Rufran Shares a Laugh with a Haitian Youth

In May of 2012, '13, '14 and '15, several University of Wyoming Football players, along with student-athletes from other UW sports teams and other UW students traveled to Haiti to honor the memory of fallen football teammate Ruben Narcisse.

The 2010 college football season started on a sad note for the Wyoming Cowboys when the Monday following their season opener linebacker Narcisse was killed in an early morning car accident on Labor Day, Sept. 6, 2010. Narcisse was a 19-year old freshman from Miami, Fla.

Ruben Narcisse Takes the Field as a Cowboy in 2010

While Narcisse played his high school football at Chaminade-Madonna Prep in Miami, his family is originally from Haiti. His father Lyonel continues to return to his native country to help in the rebuilding efforts following the tragic 2010 earthquake in Haiti that left 200,000 people dead and 1.6 million homeless.

It was decided in the winter of 2012, that the Cowboy football team would go to Haiti to aid in the ongoing relief efforts. The Wyoming Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes organized the "Wyoming in Haiti" trips for four consecutive years.

Eddie Yarbrough, Tom Thornton, D.J. May and Chase Roullier help in Rebuilding Efforts

The Cowboys and Cowgirls have conducted sports camps and assisted the local church of Lyonel Narcisse in rebuilding efforts. The Wyoming group also worked with another ministry, Love a Child, which reaches out to Haiti's most vulnerable youth through a variety of ministries including an orphanage, rural outreach programs, food distribution, medical care and a soccer league ministry.

Members of the University of Wyoming Football team work as a team to assist in flood-prevention efforts in Saratoga, Wyo.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

On May 30, 2014, approximately 60 University of Wyoming football student-athletes accompanied by several other university employees and students traveled over the Snowy Range to help the community of Saratoga, Wyo., fight off flooding from the North Platte River.

Spring runoff from melting snow and rainstorms had swelled the North Platte River that runs through downtown Saratoga. Wyoming National Guard units had already been in town for several days working to assist the community in its battle against the river.

One of the Cowboy volunteers who traveled to Saratoga to help was former Cowboy Darrenn White.

"The reason we came is to help out the people in this community," White said. "We want to support them. I'm really enjoying it, and I'm glad to help out any way we can."

Wyoming hosted the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns before a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium in 2009. Texas made its first-ever appearance in Laramie, and went on to finish the '09 season as the national runnerup.

In 2008, Wyoming defeated the Tennessee Volunteers, 13-7, in Knoxville's Neyland Stadium, becoming the first team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference to win there since 1986.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

SUCCESS

VS. THE FBS

In 2007, Devin Moore ran away from #91 Chris Long and the Virginia defense as the Cowboys defeated the Cavaliers, 23-3, before a sellout crowd in Laramie.

The biggest home game in University of Wyoming school history was played in 2011, as Wyoming hosted Nebraska for the first time before a sellout crowd.

In the 2009 season, Wyoming hosted the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns. It was the Longhorns' first-ever appearance in Laramie, Wyo. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 late in the first half before losing to the eventual national runnerup in front of a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium.

Not only have the Cowboys played the best in the nation, but over the past 13 seasons, Wyoming has enjoyed success against those teams, recording victories over:

- Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference (13-7 in Knoxville, Tenn., in 2008);
- Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference (23-3 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2007);
- Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference (37-32 in Laramie, in 2004, and 24-14 in Oxford, Miss., in 2005) and
- UCLA of the Pacific-10 Conference (24-21 in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl in 2004).

UW has faced numerous Top 25 ranked programs over the past 20 years, including: Ohio State (1997); Colorado (1997); Georgia (1998); Tennessee (1999, 2002 and 2008); Auburn (2000); Texas A&M (2000, 2001, 2004); Kansas (2001, 2003); Washington (2002); Oklahoma State (2003); Ole Miss (2004, 2005); Florida (2005); Virginia (2006, 2007), Texas (2009 and 2010), Nebraska (2011, 2013, 2016), Michigan State (2014) and Oregon (2014).

Looking to the future, Wyoming has upcoming games with: Washington State (2018); Iowa (2017); Oregon (2017); Missouri (2018, 2019); Texas Tech (2020, 2023); Clemson (2021); and Illinois (2022). Oregon (2017), Washington State (2018), Missouri (2019) and Texas Tech (2023) are scheduled to appear once each in Laramie.

Wyoming vs. Nebraska
The Biggest Event in the History of War Memorial Stadium

On Sept. 24, 2011, Wyoming hosted Nebraska in the Cornhuskers' first-ever appearance in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium. The sellout crowd and regional appeal of the game made it the biggest event in the history of War Memorial Stadium.

Wyoming Cowboy Football is accustomed to playing on national television and against some of the top college football programs in the country -- and they've enjoyed success against the best in the country.

Wyoming was featured on ESPN twice during the 2016 postseason. ESPN televised the Mountain West Conference Championship from Laramie. ESPN also televised the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl versus BYU.

The Cowboys kicked off the 2009 bowl season in an ESPN nationally-televised game that was one of the most exciting of the college bowl season. In double overtime, Wyoming defeated Fresno State, 35-28. The Cowboys and Temple Owls once again began the college bowl season in 2011 on ESPN in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The Mountain West Conference's television package includes partnerships with CBS Sports Network, ESPN and ROOT Sports.

In addition to more wide-ranging television coverage of University of Wyoming football games, in 2010 CBS Sports Network aired a special on Wyoming Football entitled "College Football Confidential".

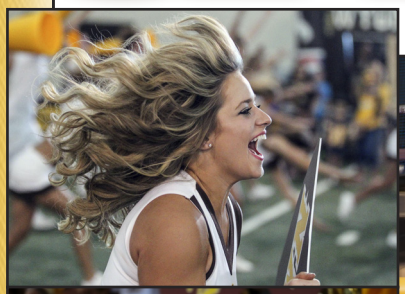
GAMEDAY

ATMOSPHERE



Gameday at War Memorial Stadium is the place to be in the state of Wyoming on Saturdays. As the only NCAA Division I university in Wyoming, everyone is a Cowboy fan.

There is nothing like a college football gameday. From pregame tailgating to the pageantry of bands, cheerleaders and mascots entertaining loyal fans, college football is unmatched in the excitement it generates.

Sharing the day with a group of close friends makes the experience that much more exciting.

And when the game is over and another Wyoming home victory is a reality, the team and Cowboy fans celebrate together by singing the traditional victory song — Ragtime Cowboy Joe.

GAMEDAY

TRADITIONS

There are many traditions associated with Wyoming Football gamedays. From Pistol Pete to the Cowboy Joe Pony and a new tradition, the Cowboy Walk.

The Cowboy Walk sees fans lineup to wish the Cowboys well as they make their way to the locker room prior to each home game.

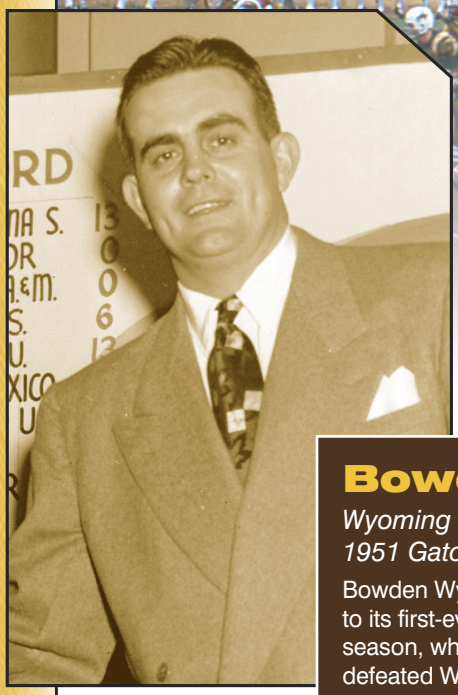
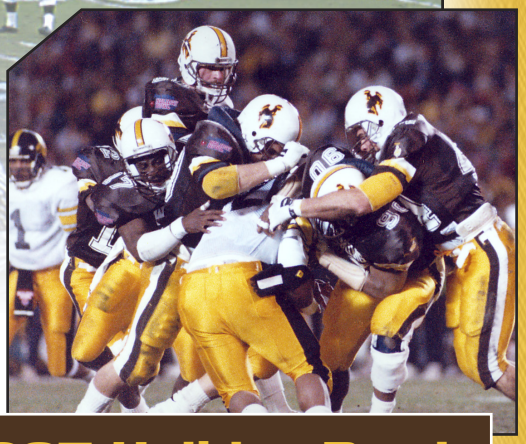
WYOMING BOWL HISTORY



1968 Sugar Bowl

Wyoming had posted a perfect 10-0 record in 1967 entering its game versus LSU in the 1968 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 1968. While Wyoming lost to the Tigers, 13-20, the Cowboys appearance in the Sugar Bowl is still remembered by Cowboy fans as one of the greatest moments in school history.



Bowden Wyatt

Wyoming Head Coach of
1951 Gator Bowl Champions

Bowden Wyatt guided the Wyoming Cowboys to its first-ever bowl appearance in the 1950 season, when on Jan. 1, 1951, Wyoming defeated Washington & Lee, 20-7, to complete an undefeated, 10-0, season.

1987 Holiday Bowl

The Wyoming defense, seen swarming an Iowa ballcarrier here, played an outstanding game in the 1987 Holiday Bowl. UW's defense held the Hawkeyes to only one offensive touchdown. But Iowa returned a blocked punt for a TD and returned an interception for another score to give the Hawkeyes a one-point, 20-19, victory.

Tom Corontzos

Quarterback of 1990 Copper Bowl Team

Tom Corontzos threw for 226 yards against the California Bears in the 1990 Copper Bowl. The game came down to the last 49 seconds, but Wyoming lost a 15-17 heartbreaker.

Jim Kiick

MVP of the 1966 Sun Bowl

Wyoming running back Jim Kiick scored two touchdowns, including one on a 43-yard run in leading Wyoming to a 28-20 victory over Florida State in the 1966 Sun Bowl to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

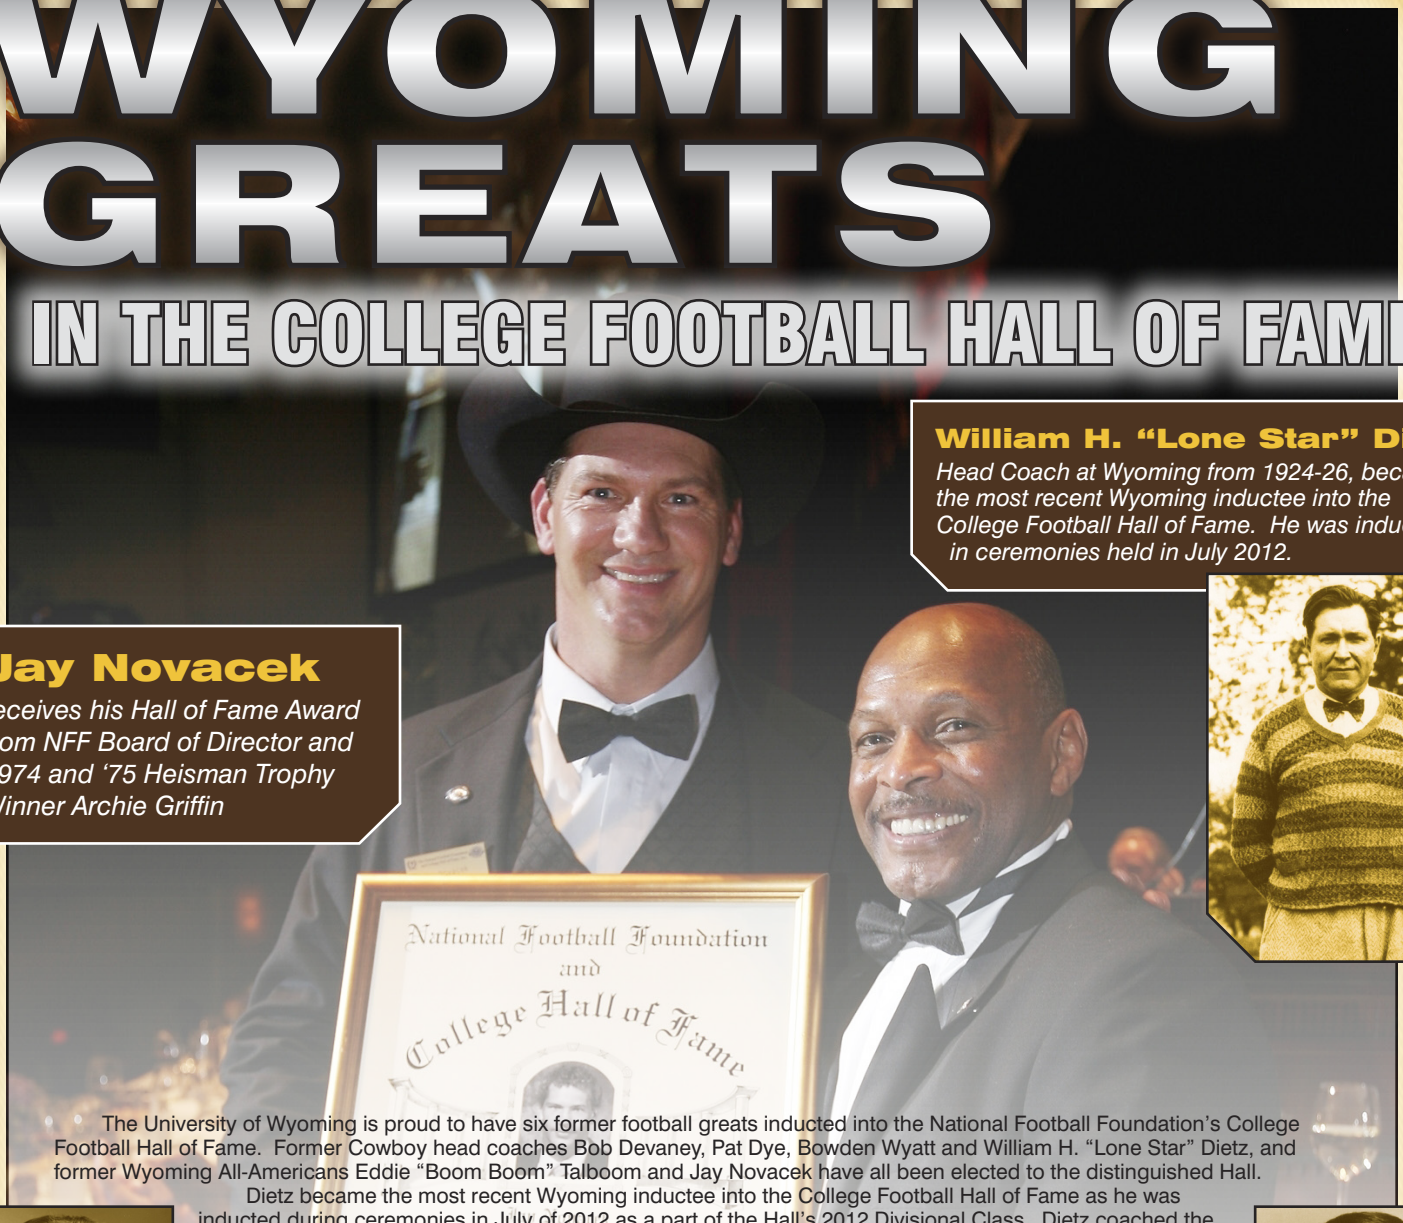
WYOMING GREATS

IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME



Jay Novacek
receives his Hall of Fame Award from NFF Board of Director and 1974 and '75 Heisman Trophy Winner Archie Griffin

William H. "Lone Star" Dietz
Head Coach at Wyoming from 1924-26, became the most recent Wyoming inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame. He was inducted in ceremonies held in July 2012.

The University of Wyoming is proud to have six former football greats inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Former Cowboy head coaches Bob Devaney, Pat Dye, Bowden Wyatt and William H. "Lone Star" Dietz, and former Wyoming All-Americans Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom and Jay Novacek have all been elected to the distinguished Hall.

Dietz became the most recent Wyoming inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame as he was inducted during ceremonies in July of 2012 as a part of the Hall's 2012 Divisional Class. Dietz coached the Cowboys for three seasons from 1924-26. During his career which spanned from 1915-42, he also served as the head coach at Washington State, Purdue, Louisiana Tech, Haskell Indian Institute and Albright (Pa.), building a career record of 96-62-7 (.603).

The mission of the National Football Foundation is to promote the power of amateur football in developing the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, competitive zeal and the drive for academic excellence in America's young people. The NFF was founded in 1947.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Football Foundation (NFF) was founded in 1993 by former UW head coach and athletics director Paul Roach when he gathered a group of interested ex-players, businessmen, coaches, athletic administrators, educators and football fans together.

Two scholar-athletes from each of the five Wyoming high school classifications and the University of Wyoming are honored each year at the Wyoming Chapter's annual banquet.

The Wyoming Chapter has had three West Regional Winners and three Regional Runners-up, competing against 25 other chapters in the West. That speaks volumes for the outstanding young men in Wyoming. Former Cowboy Football player Justin Hopkin from Burlington, Wyo., won the West Region High School Award in 1996. Another former Cowboy, Chris Prosinski of Buffalo, Wyo., was the NFF West Regional High School winner in 2006. Gavin Mills from Powell, Wyo., won the NFF West Regional High School Award in 2009.

Former Cowboy, John Wendling, was one of only 17 national finalists for the 2006 Draddy Trophy. The Draddy Trophy, which was renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often called the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded annually to the top college football scholar-athlete in the nation. By being named one of the Draddy finalists in '06, Wendling received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the NFF.

Wendling was also the first individual to be both a Wyoming NFF Chapter High School scholarship winner, as well as a Wyoming Chapter College scholarship winner. Jake Edmunds a UW graduate in 2009 and Chris Prosinski in 2010 were the second and third individuals to be honored as both a Wyoming high school and University of Wyoming Scholar-Athlete Finalist.

The Wyoming Chapter is currently the largest in the nation out of 121 chapters. If you would like to become a member or help support the Wyoming Chapter as it strives to be No. 1 please contact former Cowboy Football letterman and current Wyoming NFF Chapter Membership Chairman, Mike Schutte at 3608 Green Spring Drive, Fort Collins, CO 80528 or email him at MShootee@gmail.com.

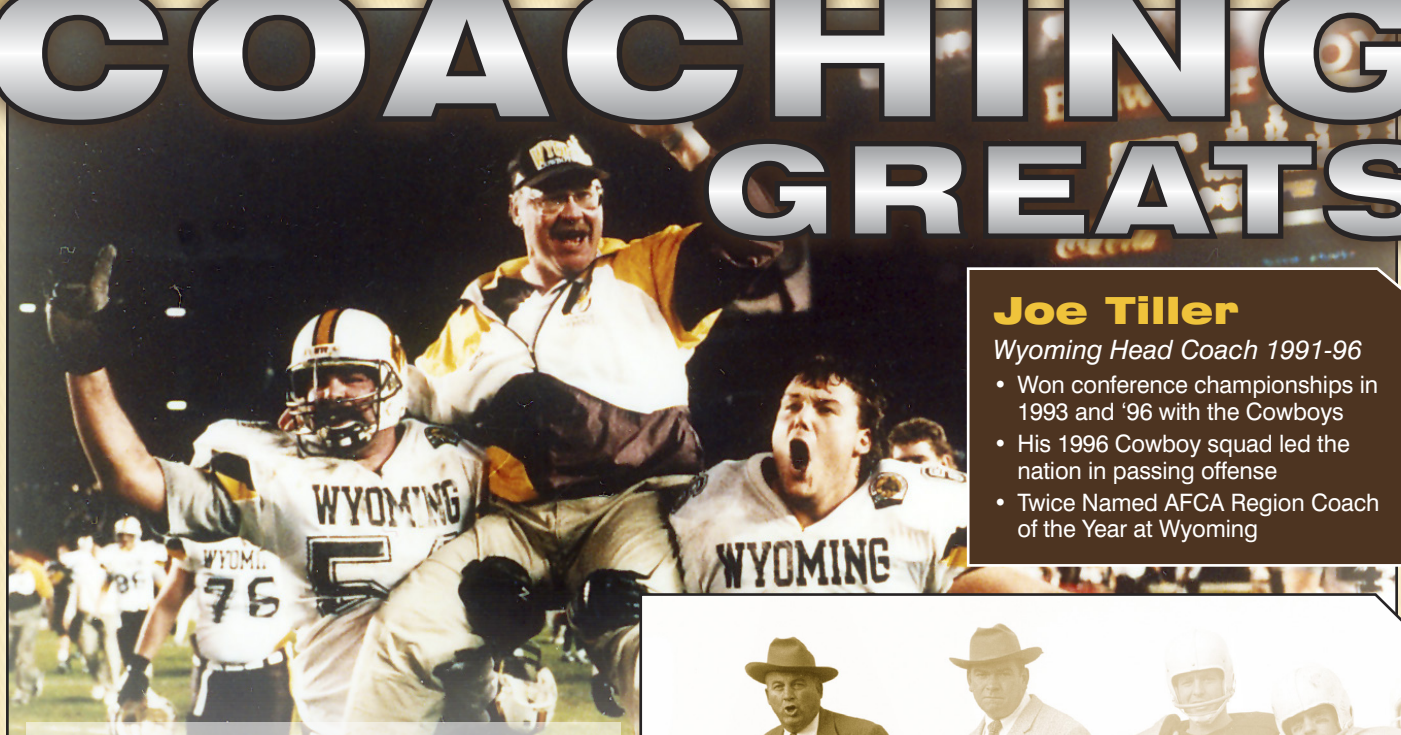
COACHING GREATS



Joe Tiller

Wyoming Head Coach 1991-96

- Won conference championships in 1993 and '96 with the Cowboys
- His 1996 Cowboy squad led the nation in passing offense
- Twice Named AFCA Region Coach of the Year at Wyoming

Some of the greatest names in college football have held the postion of head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys. Bowden Wyatt, Phil Dickens, Bob Devaney, Lloyd Eaton, Fred Akers, Paul Roach and Joe Tiller have all led the Cowboy Football program to exciting victories, conference championships and bowl games as head coach of the Cowboys.

Four former Wyoming head coaches have been enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those four are; Wyatt, who was inducted in 1997; Devaney, inducted in 1981; Pat Dye, who went on to great success at Auburn and was inducted in 2005; and Lone Star Dietz in 2012.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Trenton Franz was a First Team Academic All-American in 2004, and earned a prestigious Postgraduate Fellowship from the National Football Foundation. After completing his bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he pursued his graduate studies at Princeton where he earned his master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and his Ph.D. in January 2011. Franz was also a team captain of Wyoming's 2004 Las Vegas Bowl Championship Team.

Luke Ruff

Wyoming's Most Recent First Team Academic All-American, 2012

Luke Ruff, a civil engineering major with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average was named First Team Capital One Academic All-American in 2012.

The University of Wyoming Football program has enjoyed a rich tradition of attracting outstanding student-athletes to UW. The quality of these young men is perhaps best represented by the number of Academic All-Americans who have worn the Cowboy colors.

Since 1952, when the College Sports Information Directors of America began selecting Academic All-America teams, the University of Wyoming has produced 18 First Team Academic All-Americans.

In both 1996 and 1997, Wyoming's football program led the nation in First Team honorees with two First Team selections in 1996 and three in 1997.

The most recent honoree was senior free safety Luke Ruff in 2012. Ruff graduated from UW in 2013, earning a bachelor's degree in civil engineering with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average. He chose to continue his graduate studies at the University of Wyoming, where he completed his master's degree in environmental engineering in December 2014.

At the conclusion of his undergraduate studies, Ruff was chosen to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, helping him to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Wyoming.

Among his other honors were: being named a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, also referred to as the "Academic Heisman"; being selected as one of 30 football national finalists for the Senior CLASS Award; and being honored by the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Hampshire Honor Society member. He was a 2012 Preseason First Team All-Mountain West Conference selection by conference media members. His junior season, Ruff earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors for his achievements on the football field.

Cory Wedel and Jay Korth

Two-Time Academic All-Americans

Teammates Jay Korth and Cory Wedel share the distinction of being the only two Wyoming Cowboys to earn First Team Academic All-America honors twice. Wedel and Korth were both named to the Academic All-America First Team in 1996 and 1997.

Brian Lee

First Team Academic All-American and Consensus All-American

In 1997, Brian Lee accomplished a very rare feat as he earned First Team Academic All-America honors and Consensus All-America honors in the same season. He is the only Cowboy in school history to achieve both those honors.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

John Wendling was one of only 17 national finalists for the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded each year to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. Here Wendling is pictured with 2006 NFF College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Emmitt Smith at the annual NFF & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner.

Each year since 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program. The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Through the years, four Wyoming Cowboys have received this prestigious honor. Pat Smyth in 1959, Marty Eliopulos in 1986, Trenton Franz in 2004 and John Wendling in 2006 were chosen by the National Football Foundation for this elite honor.

Wyoming's most recent honoree, John Wendling, was named one of only 17 national finalists for the NFF's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is presented annually by the NFF to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. It is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". By being named a finalist, Wendling was also named to the NFF's National Scholar-Athlete team, and he was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

Former Cowboy center Trenton Franz earned the honor in 2004. Franz went on to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Princeton University, where he earned master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and then received his Ph.D. in January 2011.

Former Wyoming Cowboy Chris Prosinski joined some very elite company when the National Football Foundation (NFF) selected him as one of only five high school student-athletes in the nation to be honored in its 2006 NFF High School Scholar-Athlete Class. Prosinski was the West Region honoree.

Over one million high school student-athletes play football each season. The NFF, through its 120 chapters nationwide, honor approximately 2,500 of these high school student-athletes with over $800,000 in annual scholarships.

From that group of 2,500 scholarship recipients, the NFF chooses only five for the distinct honor of National High School Scholar-Athlete.

Hampshire Honor Society

Beginning in 2007, the National Football Foundation created the Hampshire Honor Society to honor college football players across the country who achieved both on and off the football field.

Wyoming has had players receive the honor in 10 of the first 11 years of the award's existence. Those former Cowboy honorees are listed below.

2007	Mike Groover, Defensive End Tyler Holden, Wide Receiver John Wendling, Strong Safety

SUCCESSFUL COWBOYS

RETURN HOME TO LARAMIE

The wonderful college experience that is offered by attending the University of Wyoming is one that remains with student-athletes long after they complete their eligibility as Wyoming Cowboys. The University, the Laramie community and the beauty of the Rocky Mountains draw UW alumni back to the region.

Eric Worden

Matt Lehning

Included among the many former Cowboys who have returned to Wyoming to make their homes is the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler, Galand Thaxton. Thaxton was an Associated Press All-American in 1987 as a middle linebacker. He was part of the Cowboys' 1987 WAC Championship season. Thaxton returned to Laramie in 1999 to manage his own State Farm Insurance agency. He is a native of Denver, Colo.

Randy Welniak returned to Laramie in the summer of 2007. The 1988 WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback, Welniak led the Cowboys to the 1988 WAC Championship. A native of Ord, Neb., he is currently a Senior Associate Athletics Director at UW.

Eric Worden, a four-year letterwinner from 1988 through 1991, is an engineer for the TriHydro Corporation, an environmental engineering firm located in Laramie. A native of Loveland, Colo., Worden was an outstanding offensive linemen for the Cowboys during that era. He was a member of the 1988 WAC Championship team.

Matt Lehning, owner of Brown 'N Gold Outlet, a retail apparel company in Laramie, was a standout player for the Cowboys. Lehning, who lettered in 1998 and 1999, was a First Team All-MWC free safety in 1999. Lehning's hometown is Sublette, Kan.

Julius Stinson

Julius Stinson was a First Team All-Conference cornerback in 2007, and was one of 12 semifinalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe award, which honors the top defensive back in the nation each season. Stinson currently works for Cathedral Home for Children in Laramie.

These individuals are only a few of the former Cowboys who make Wyoming their home.

JONAH FIELD

AT WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The words Jonah Field are displayed prominently on the playing surface in War Memorial Stadium to recognize the generous gift of the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families.

Martin and McMurry Gift Makes Jonah Field Surface Possible

The University of Wyoming named the playing surface at War Memorial Stadium, "Jonah Field" following a $5 million gift from the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families. Pictured at the press conference are left to right: UW's former NCAA 400-meter hurdle champion Shauna Smith, Senator Alan K. Simpson, Susie McMurry, the late Mick McMurry, John Martin, Mari Ann Martin and former UW quarterback Corey Bramlet.

For the 2013 college football season, a brand new FieldTurf Revolution playing surface with a distinctive Wyoming design was unveiled on Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium. The new surface was installed in June 2013, and was selected by Wyoming Athletics due to its elite-level playability. FieldTurf has been installed at many of the top NCAA and NFL football stadiums in the country for its grass-like performance and safety.

Jonah Field will continue as the name of Wyoming Football's playing surface to commemorate the generous donations to UW Athletics by Casper entrepreneurs Susie and the late Mick McMurry and John and Mari Ann Martin and their families.

Sporting one of the finest grass gridirons for its first 55 seasons, the initial switch to artifical turf was completed in August of 2005.

The Martin and McMurry families donated $5 million to UW Athletics in May 2005. That gift was matched by the state of Wyoming for a total of $10 million. The new surface was originally named Jonah Field to recognize not only the prolific natural gas field in Sublette County (Wyoming) that made the Martin-McMurry gift possible, but also to recognize the financial contributions to state funding projects, including higher education, made over time by Wyoming's extractive industries.

Gifts totalling $2 million by George and Dianna Archuleta of La Barge and Ron and Linda Flack of Cheyenne, launched UW's Intercollegiate Athletics capital campaign for facilities. Their gifts were made in March of 2004. Many other alumni, friends and Cowboy supporters also contributed through the Strategic Plan for Intercollegiate Athletics,

The new elements of the 2013 design include the words "Jonah Field" prominently displayed on both sidelines. A depiction of Wyoming's iconic Teton Mountains are prevalent in both end zones along with the traditional words "WYOMING" and "COWBOYS" in brown on a gameday gold background in opposite end zones. Those words appear in a new western-style font. Also new is the lettering "7220 Feet" on both sidelines, indicating the elevation of War Memorial Stadium as the highest NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision field in the nation. Wyoming's traditional "Steamboat" symbol of a bucking horse and rider will remain at midfield in brown, outlined in white and gameday gold.

The field design was provided by award-winning graphic designer David Coleman, who is a Wyoming native and UW graduate.

The project was supervised by the Mountain West Regional Manager for FieldTurf, Jed Easterbrook, who is also a UW graduate and Cowboy baseball letterwinner.

THE "BORDER WAR" AND THE "BRONZE BOOT"

The series began in 1899, and has been played in three different centuries. Wyoming and CSU have waged the "Border War" every year but six since the schools began playing, and the 2017 season will mark the 72nd consecutive season the two border rivals will meet, dating back to 1946. In fact, this is one of the oldest rivalries west of the Mississippi River. This year will mark the 109th meeting.

In 1968, the ROTC detachments of the respective schools initiated the "Bronze Boot", traveling trophy awarded to the winner of the contest each year. The Boot was originally worn in Vietnman by Dan Romero, a CSU ROTC instructor. The boot has rested in UW's possession in 25 of the 49 years since its inception.

The "Bronze Boot" has become one of the most famous traveling trophies in college football. This year's 2017 meeting will be the 50th time the trophy has been fought over.

The Bronze Boot Series

Wyoming 25 Wins, CSU 24 Wins

The statue "Fanning a Twister", depicting the great Wyoming bucking horse Steamboat was erected in 1991 north of War Memorial Stadium to welcome visitors to the University of Wyoming Athletics complex. Sculptor Peter Fillerup from Cody, Wyo., created "Fanning a Twister".

BUCKING HORSE AND RIDER — SYMBOL OF WYOMING

Cowboy Tough Statue

The sculpture "Cowboy Tough" was added to the UW Athletics facilities in the early 2000s. Casper, Wyo., artist Chris Navarro created this new bucking horse and rider sculpture.

There are two full-size originals of the statue that are located in the UW Athletics Department — one is on the second floor of the Rochelle Athletics Center and the second sits at the north endzone of War Memorial Stadium. It has become a tradition for the Wyoming Cowboy players and coaches to touch "Cowboy Tough" as they enter and exit the field at War Memorial Stadium on gamedays.

The symbol on the Wyoming Cowboy football helmet depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. That symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920s, when UW equipment manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of cowboy Guy Holt riding the world famous bucking horse "Steamboat" at the Albany County fairgrounds in 1903. Hunton traced the photo of Steamboat and Holt and turned it into a logo for use on athletics equipment. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler, Wyo., in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses in history.

In later years, the symbol used by Wyoming Athletics more closely resembled the logo on the state's automobile license plates., which depicted another famous bucking horse "Deadman" with a rider by the name of "Stub" Farlow atop it. "Deadman" was owned by the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The license plate design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt, who later became the Governor of Wyoming and a United States Senator in 1935. Hunt utilized a photograph of "Deadman" and Farlow for the design of the state's license plates, which first appeared in 1936.

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider are depicted on all of UW's athletics uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. Whether it is "Steamboat" or "Deadman", the bucking horse and rider logo is without a doubt one of the best and most distinctive symbols in college sports.

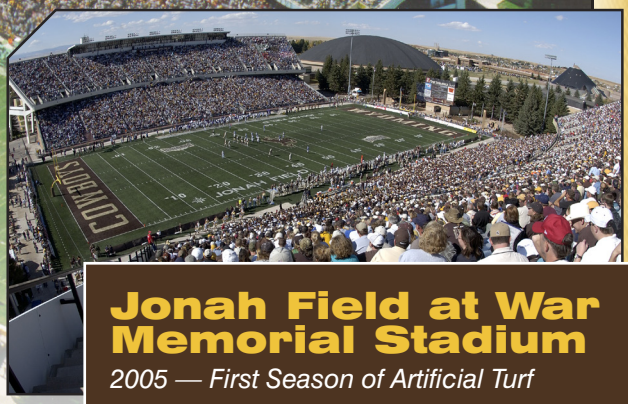
Stadium Dedication

Sept. 23, 1950, Versus Baylor

War Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1950, in a game versus Baylor. The Bears came to Laramie nationally ranked. They were led by quarterback Hayden Fry, who later went on to a College Hall of Fame career as head coach at SMU and Iowa. But Wyoming recorded a 7-0 victory over the Bears led by single-wing tailback Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom, who would also later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a player. Wyoming went on to achieve an undefeated season, 10-0-0, and earned the school's first bowl bid to the 1951 Gator Bowl.



Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

2005 — First Season of Artificial Turf

In 2005, artificial turf was installed in War Memorial Stadium for the first time after 55 seasons of featuring a natural grass surface in the stadium. This photo from the 2005 TCU game shows the artificial surface that was installed in the summer of 2005 at a cost of slightly more than $1 million.

In conjunction with the installation of the artificial surface, the field at War Memorial Stadium was named Jonah Field to recognize a very generous gift of $5 million by the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families to the UW Athletics Department. The Martin and McMurry families developed the Jonah Field natural gas field in western Wyoming.

War Memorial Stadium is the only state-and privately-funded memorial to Wyoming veterans, but when it was dedicated it honored only those who served in World War II. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the veterans of all other wars, thereby making the entire stadium truly a Wyoming veterans' memorial.*

THE VETERANS' MEMORIAL PLAZA

Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff who lettered for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968, spoke to the team prior to a recent game.*

Cowboy fans have witnessed the glory of Wyoming Football in the beautiful confines of War Memorial Stadium since 1950. However, the magnificent football venue, along with its fieldhouse counterpart, had very humble beginnings. The very thought of the two structures started out as just a dream by the UW Board of Trustees at the end of World War II in 1946.

The 'War to End All Wars' hit the University of Wyoming hard, as many of its students left school to serve their country. But at the conclusion of the war, UW President George 'Duke' Humphrey, Athletics Director Glenn 'Red' Jacoby and the UW Board of Trustees started a state-wide campaign to help raise additional money for the construction of a new football stadium and basketball fieldhouse for the Cowboys. The two structures would be living memorials to honor those Wyoming natives who served in World War II. The Board of Trustees believed that such facilities would serve an important role in the physical development of Wyoming's future generations.

On September 16, 1950, the Cowboys downed Montana State 61-13 in their new stadium. A week later, September 23, 1950, President Humphrey, along with Athletics Director Jacoby, dedicated War Memorial Stadium to over thirty-thousand Wyoming veterans who bravely served in World War II. The Pokes went on to win their second home game in the stadium, 7-0 over Baylor.

"War Memorial Stadium is a state memorial to our war heroes. Surely, there could be no better way the people of Wyoming could memorialize the men and women of our state who served so bravely in World War II," said Jacoby in 1950.

Since World War II, many citizens of Wyoming have served their country during times of conflict. Some even gave the ultimate sacrifice for the values of freedom, independence and liberty — values every person in Wyoming holds close to their heart.

The University of Wyoming, along with the Veterans' Memorial Plaza committee dedicated an addition to this beautiful stadium in 2003. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza recognizes all Wyoming veterans who have bravely and faithfully served their country in any time of armed conflict. This dedication makes true to the title "War Memorial Stadium".

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza was funded almost identically to how the stadium was funded. The committee received funds from the Wyoming State Legislature, University of Wyoming, the Wyoming Governor's Office, along with veterans, corporations and general public donations. War Memorial Stadium was funded in the same manner as the Wyoming State Legislature and public donations footed much of the cost of its construction.

The Plaza is separated into two sections in the north end zone. As you look north, the section on the right displays flags of every military branch; Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marines. That structure also features a dedication plaque to all Wyoming veterans as well as two plaques listing all contributors to the memorial funding. The section to the left proudly displays the United States flag and Wyoming's state flag along with the P.O.W./M.I.A. banner. The original plaque that dedicated War Memorial Stadium to the veterans of World War II on September 23, 1950, also is located there, as is a plaque presented to UW by Vice President Dick Cheney on Veterans Day 1999 (during the 20th Century Commemorative of Veterans' celebration).

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the bravery and faithful service Wyoming veterans have given our country for over half a century. A nation, along with the state of Wyoming, will forever be indebted.

Paul and Marge Roach

"This state, the University, and the intercollegiate athletics program have always been very special to my family," said Roach at the dedication of Roach Hall. "We will always cherish our association with the great fans of Wyoming."

Paul Roach Highlights

As an assistant coach, head coach and athletics director at the University of Wyoming, Paul Roach was a part of six of Wyoming's 14 bowl teams and six of seven Western Athletic Conference Championships. Among his other accomplishments was establishment of the UW Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

Opened in the fall of 2010, the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites features 12 individual suites and 256 club seats.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM'S WILDCATTER STADIUM CLUB AND SUITES

A look inside one of the 12 suites contained in the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites.

An exciting new facility, offering University of Wyoming Football fans the advantages of indoor, luxury seating, began construction in the spring of 2009 and was named the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. The new facility project was completed for the start of the 2010 football season.

A total of 12 individual suites along with a stadium-club area that contains 256 indoor seats is located on the upper east side of War Memorial Stadium and is named after the many successful "Wildcatters" of Wyoming. A Wildcatter is a person who displays the strength and courage to risk drilling oil or gas wells in areas where there is no guarantee that oil or gas will be found.

The project was funded with private donations and matching funds appropriated by the Wyoming State Legislature.

The world-renown architecture and design firm Populous served as designer for the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. Populous has designed athletic facilities around the world for the past 25 years. Included in its recent projects are: the University of Phoenix Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL; Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a renovation of the University of Oklahoma Stadium; the new Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals; AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants; the new Yankee Stadium; and the London 2012 Olympic Stadium.

In connection with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium, the new War Memorial Stadium east side renovation was completed at the same time. The renovation of the east side of War Memorial included improved seating, enhanced concession areas and improved and expanded restroom facilities for fans.

"THE WAR"

HIGHEST STADIUM IN THE LAND — 7,220 FEET

The new 2013 redesign of the playing surface on Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium prominently displays the elevation of "7220 Feet" on the sidelines.

Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium, "The War", is the highest NCAA Football stadium in the country at 7,220 feet. It has gone through extensive renovations and new construction over the past decade. The new Wildcatter Stadium Club and Suites, pictured above, were completed in 2010. An extensive renovation of the east side seating, bathroom and concession areas was completed at the same time the Wildcatter addition was constructed.

Wyoming fans cheer on the Cowboys with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites overlooking Jonah Field.

In the fall of 2007, Wyoming's new Indoor Practice Facility (IPF) opened for use. Containing over 80,000 square feet, the facility includes a full-size 100-yard by 50-yard football field, featuring a state-of-the-art artificial turf surface.

The Indoor Practice Facility was built at a cost of $11 million.

ROCHELLE ATHLETICS CENTER

The Rochelle Athletics Center as Seen From War Memorial Stadium

The proximity of the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) and Indoor Practice Facility to War Memorial Stadium make the UW Football Complex one of the finest in the country. The RAC and Indoor Practice Facility are pictured here in a photo taken from the west upper deck of War Memoral Stadium.

The University of Wyoming has experienced remarkable success nationally through the years on the field and in the classroom. The Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) ensures a continuation of that success, as well as enhancing the Cowboys' reputation across the country. The Rochelle Athletics Center has allowed UW to continue its tradition of providing quality academic programs side-by-side with a quality football program.

Thanks to a $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, the largest in school history at the time, the facility began construction in May of 2000. It was completed in August of 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. The project was funded totally by private donations.

Located just north of War Memorial Stadium, the RAC occupies 46,140 square feet. It includes a state-of-the-art sports medicine and treatment center, a strength and conditioning center, an academic and counseling area and large meeting rooms.

The expanded academic support area provides a full range of services for student-athletes. Included are networked computer stations, a student counseling area and study tables.

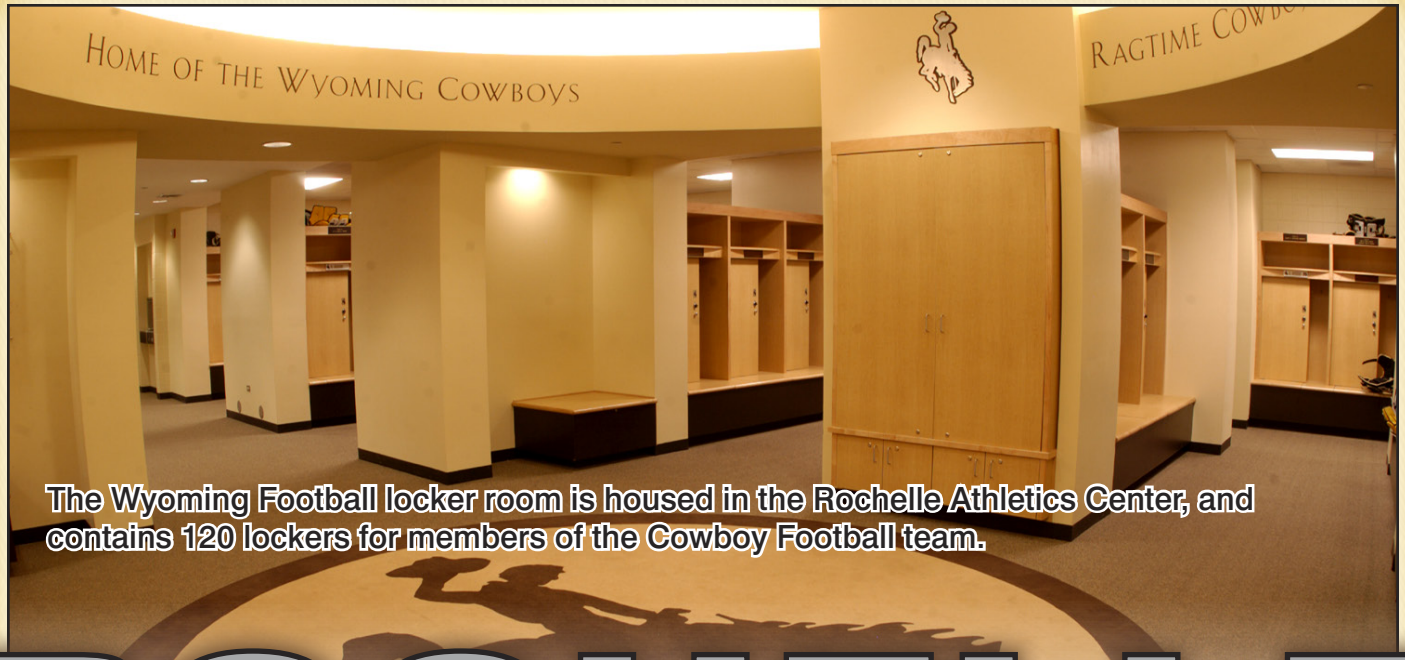
A broader scope and greater availability of sports medicine services includes space for treatment, practice preparation, examination/diagnosis and hydrotherapy. The strength and conditioning center allows improved weight and agility training for the Cowboys.

"We wanted our gift to help create a lasting athletic legacy for the University and for the State of Wyoming," Rochelle said after presenting the gift. "The University of Wyoming has had a major influence in our lives. We are proud to be a part of the tradition of academic and athletic excellence at the University of Wyoming."

Born in Lusk, Wyo., Rochelle received a B.S. degree in animal science from UW in 1941. While a student, he was president of his senior class.

Rochelle served as a UW Trustee from 1983 through 1989, and received a UW Trustee Award of Merit. In 1994, he was awarded the UW Medallion Service Award recognizing his outstanding service and dedication to the University. Marian, a native of Denver, is a graduate of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Colorado College in Colorado Springs.

Curtis Rochelle passed away in the spring of 2005.



The Wyoming Football locker room is housed in the Rochelle Athletics Center, and contains 120 lockers for members of the Cowboy Football team.

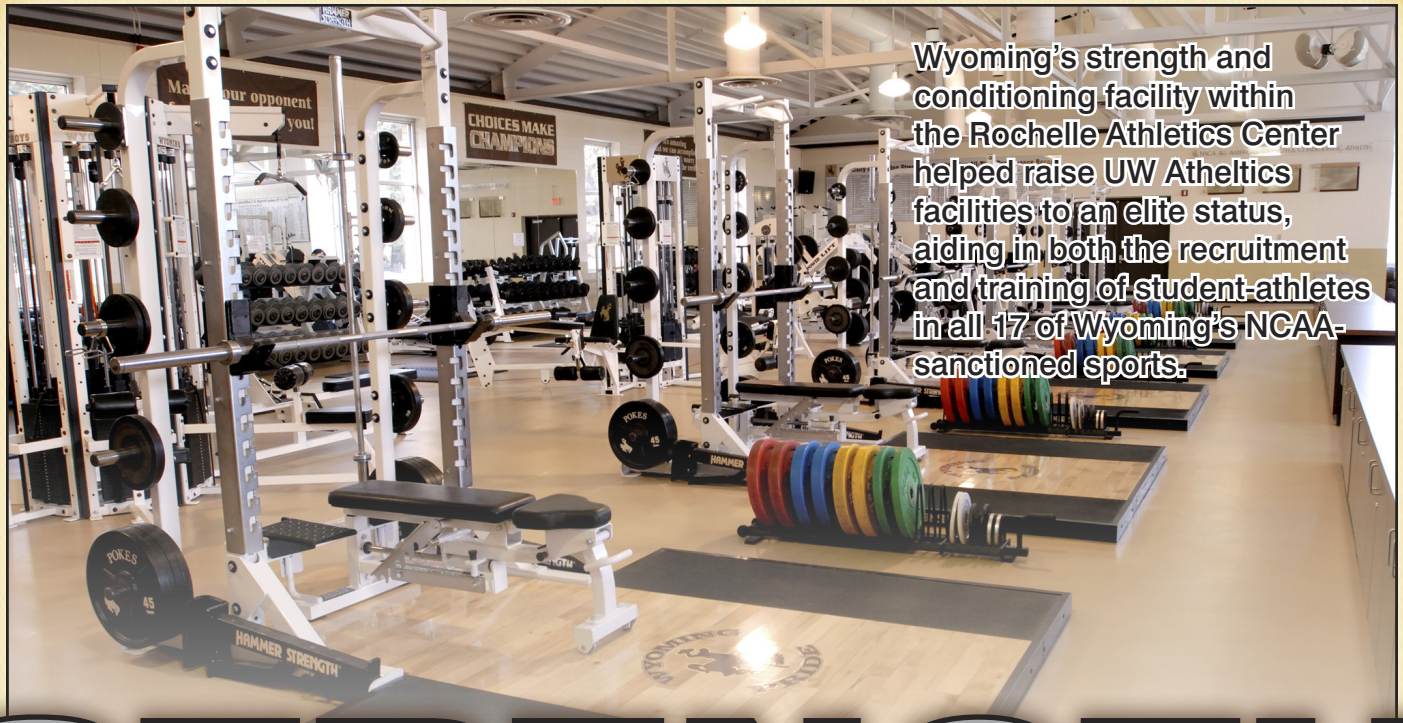
Sports Medicine Center

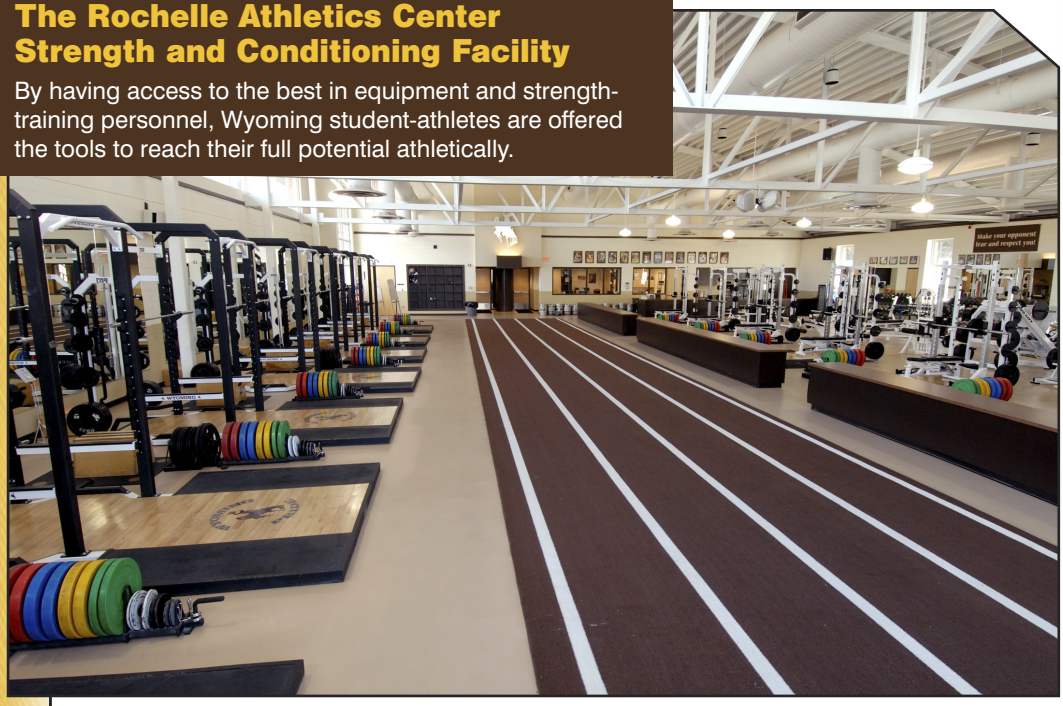


Wyoming's strength and conditioning facility within the Rochelle Athletics Center helped raise UW Atheltics facilities to an elite status, aiding in both the recruitment and training of student-athletes in all 17 of Wyoming's NCAA-sanctioned sports.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING FACILITY

The Rochelle Athletics Center Strength and Conditioning Facility

By having access to the best in equipment and strength-training personnel, Wyoming student-athletes are offered the tools to reach their full potential athletically.

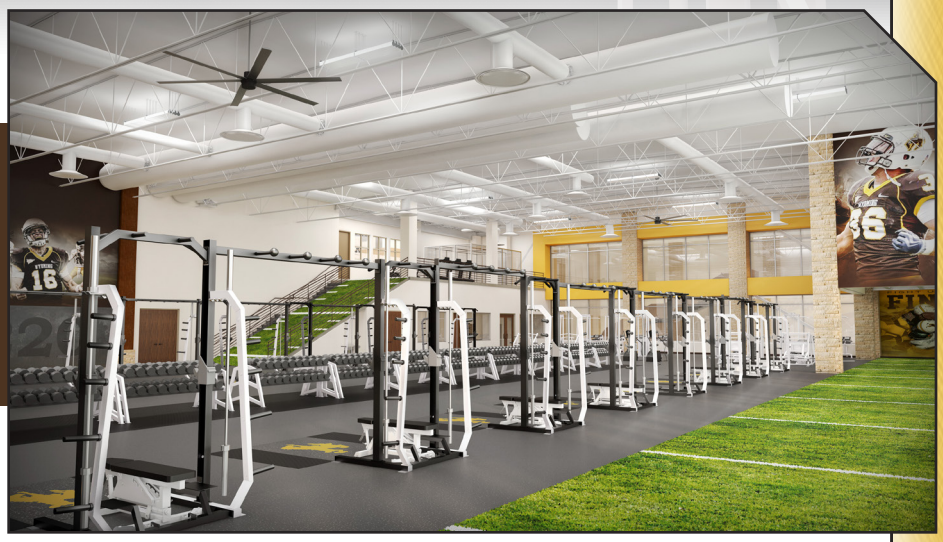


The strength and conditioning facility within the Rochelle Athletics Center is spread out over a spacious 8,633 square feet. It houses state-of-the art strength-training equipment and allows for Wyoming student-athletes to work out in a comfortable atmosphere.

STRENGTH TRAINING & NUTRITION

New Strength and Conditioning Center

In the summer of 2018 a new strength and conditioning center will open for Cowboy Football. The new area will contain 12,000 square feet of space, and will feature the newest and the best in strength training equipment.



New Training Table

With completion of the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center (HAPC) in the summer of 2018, there will be a dramatic change in how the nutritional needs of Cowboy Football student-athletes will be met. A new Training Table area will open in the HAPC and will be available for UW student-athletes in all 17 NCAA-sanctioned sports offered by the University of Wyoming. The Training Table will be located on the second level of the High Altitude Performance Center.

Wyoming's spacious Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center within the Rochelle Athletics Center allows UW student-athletes to receive the best in treatment from Wyoming's outstanding athletic training staff.

STUDENT-ATHLETE HEALTH

Hydrotherapy Area

During the 2012-13 season, the Bruce Pivic Family made a generous donation to enhance the RAC athletic training center, including a complete renovation of Wyoming's hydrotherapy area. The hydrotherapy area, contained within the sports medicine center, assists student-athletes in prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries.

Underwater Treadmill

In 2014, a new underwater treadmill pool was added to the hydrotherapy area to further aid all UW student-athletes in injury treatment and rehabilitation. This new pool also features an underwater camera system that allows the athletic-training staff to evaluate and monitor rehab sessions on the treadmill.

The Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center, located in Wyoming's Rochelle Athletics Center, contains 4,829 square feet.

The University of Wyoming athletic-training staff utilize the most current preventive and rehabilitative techniques in treating UW student-athletes.

A staff of five full-time, certified athletic trainers, two graduate assistants and student athletic trainers work to meet the needs of Wyoming's student-athletes.

PREMIER Bone & Joint Centers

The physicians of Premier Bone & Joint Centers are the team orthopedic doctors for UW Athletics. Premier Bone & Joint Centers offer seven surgeons who are on call for Wyoming sports injury management. Should injuries occur, the staff at Premier also is able to provide expertise in treatment and rehabilitation through their main clinic located in Laramie, Wyo.

In addition to the eight physicians, the main clinic in Laramie contains over 33,000 square feet and employs a staff of over 120 administrative and clinical personnel.

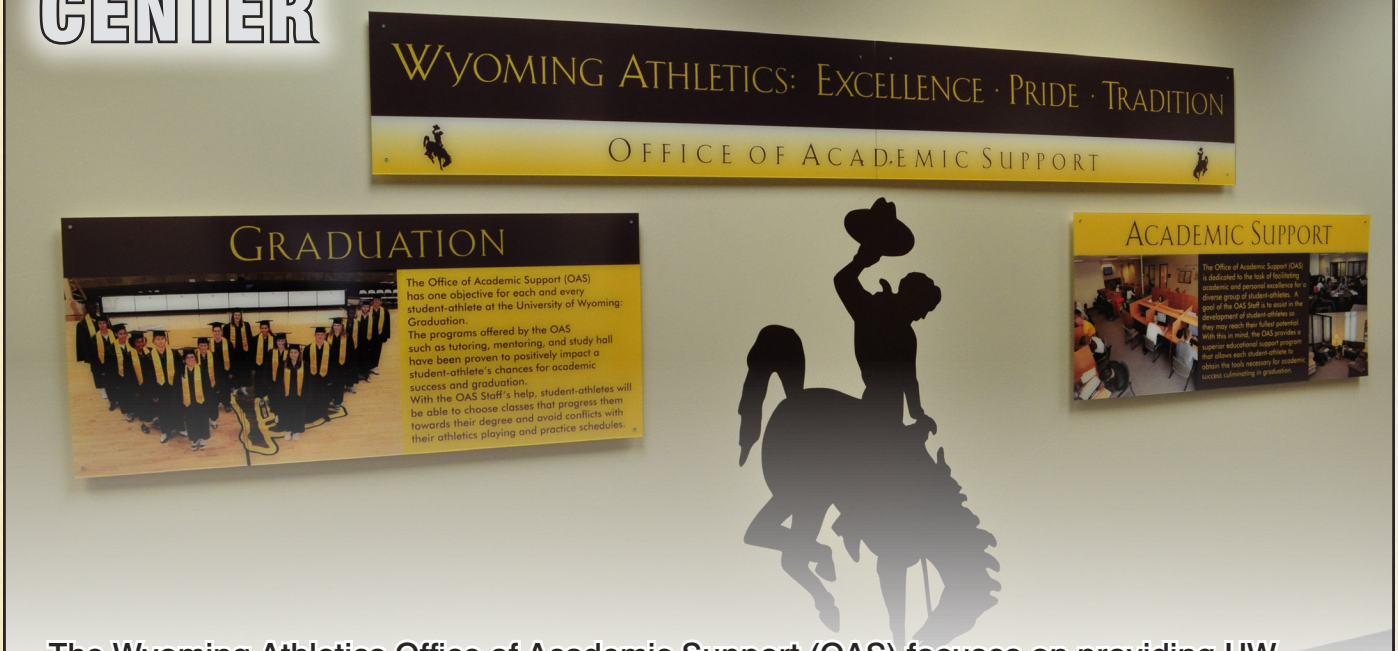
The clinic was founded in 1973 by Dr. David A. Kieffer. In 1976, Dr. Robert J. Curnow joined Kieffer in the practice, which they renamed "Gem City Bone & Joint." Kieffer and Curnow served as the team physicians for University of Wyoming athletics teams for many years. Following Kieffer's and Curnow's retirements as senior team physicians, Dr. Jay Carson and Dr. Ryan Aukerman assumed those duties in August 2008. Carson stepped down as a team physician in 2011. Aukerman now serves as the Head Team Physician. He is joined by Dr. Mark McKenna in treating University of Wyoming student-athletes.

Premier Bone & Joint Centers serves patients throughout the state of Wyoming, western Nebraska, western South Dakota and northeastern Colorado through nine locations in: Laramie, Casper, Cheyenne, Gillette, Rawlins, Riverton, Rock Springs, Torrington and Wheatland.

Premier's staff of orthopedic physicians specialize in treatment of virtually every area of the body, including: elbow; foot and ankle; hand; wrist; knee; shoulder; neck; and spine.

As a demonstration of its support of UW Athletics, Premier Bone & Joint Centers made a major commitment of support to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) at the University of Wyoming for a medical treatment facility. In recognition of that support, the medical area of the RAC is named the "Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center." The financial arrangement with Premier benefitted UW Athletics in the amount of $750,000.

ACADEMIC CENTER

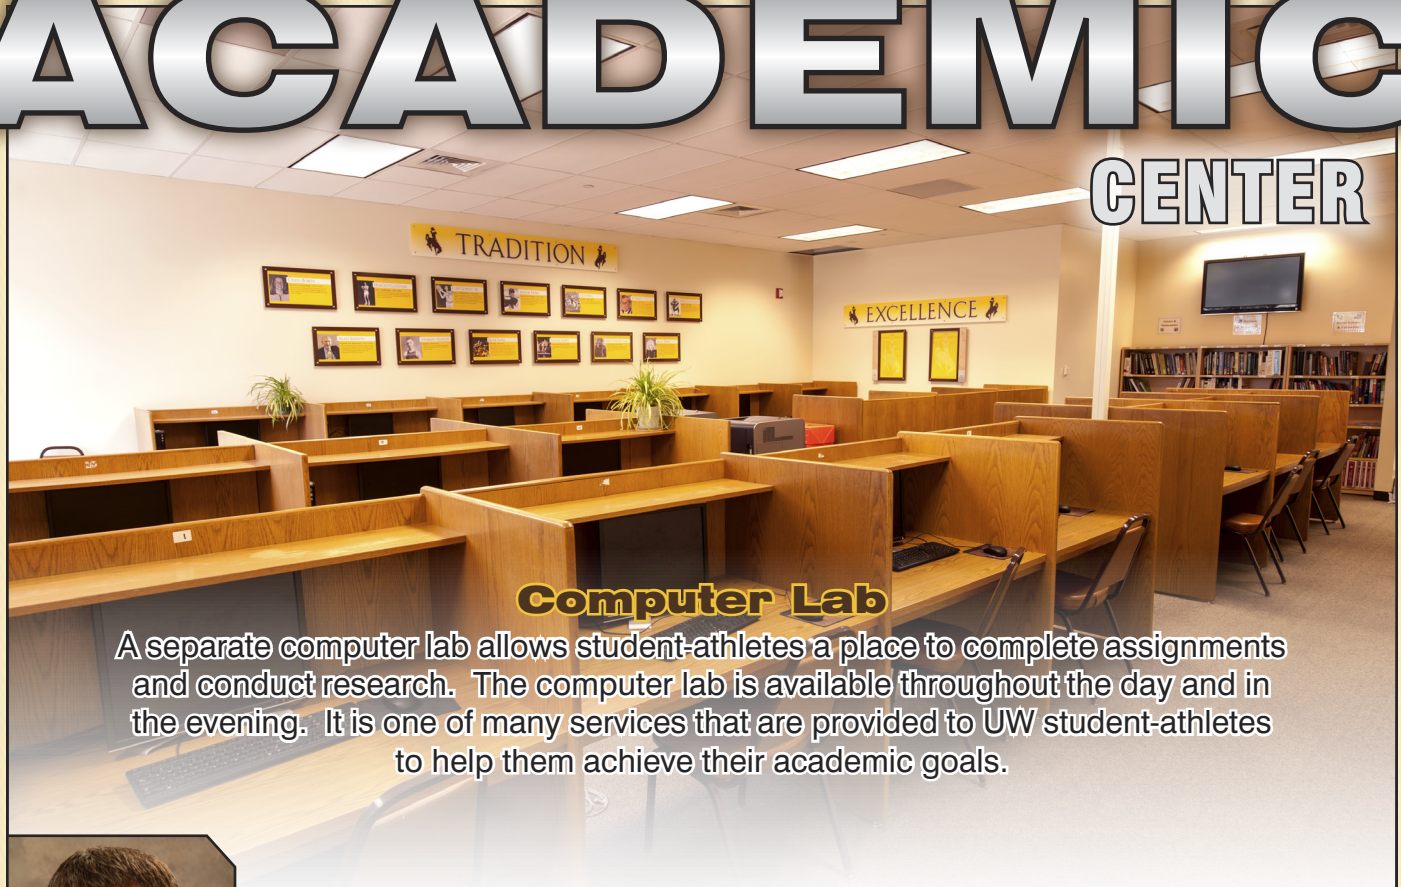


The Wyoming Athletics Office of Academic Support (OAS) focuses on providing UW student-athletes the academic support system they need to reach the ultimate goal of their college experience — graduation. Five full-time academic counselors are part of the UW Athletics staff, and are available to assist UW student-athletes in pursuing their academic and career goals.

Wyoming Athletics Academic Center

The Academic Center in the University of Wyoming Athletics Department contains 4,470 square feet, which is divided into a computer lab, study carols, tutoring and meeting rooms and academic counselors offices.

ACADEMIC CENTER



Computer Lab

A separate computer lab allows student-athletes a place to complete assignments and conduct research. The computer lab is available throughout the day and in the evening. It is one of many services that are provided to UW student-athletes to help them achieve their academic goals.

Albert Reiser

Assistant A.D. for Academic Services

Albert Reiser oversees a staff of four academic counselors as they work to provide academic services for all student-athletes on the University of Wyoming's 17 sports teams.

Tutoring Rooms

The academic support staff in the UW Athletics Department works closely with student-athletes to provide tutoring as need be. To accommodate tutoring sessions, individual rooms are provided for student-athletes to meet with tutors in a wide range of subject areas.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING PLAZA

The "Cowboy Walk" is a pregame tradition that began in 2009. The Cowboy Football team, led by the Western Thunder marching band and cheerleaders, walks from its team hotel located at the University of Wyoming Conference Center, into War Memorial Stadium prior to each home game as Wyoming fans cheer on the Pokes.

University of Wyoming Plaza

In December of 2005, development of the University of Wyoming Plaza Commercial Shops began. The Plaza has had numerous shops open since 2008, with additional shops expected to be added in the future.

Currently the UW Plaza includes such businesses as Chili's, Coal Creek Coffee, Great Clips, Jimmy John's Gourmet Sandwiches, McAlister's Deli and Union Wireless. There is a total of 58,000 square feet available for retail shops and restaurants and another 30,000 square feet of Class A office space available for sale or lease.

University of Wyoming Apartments

Located north and east of the UW Plaza are the University Apartments at the University of Wyoming that provide housing for families, married couples and single parents.

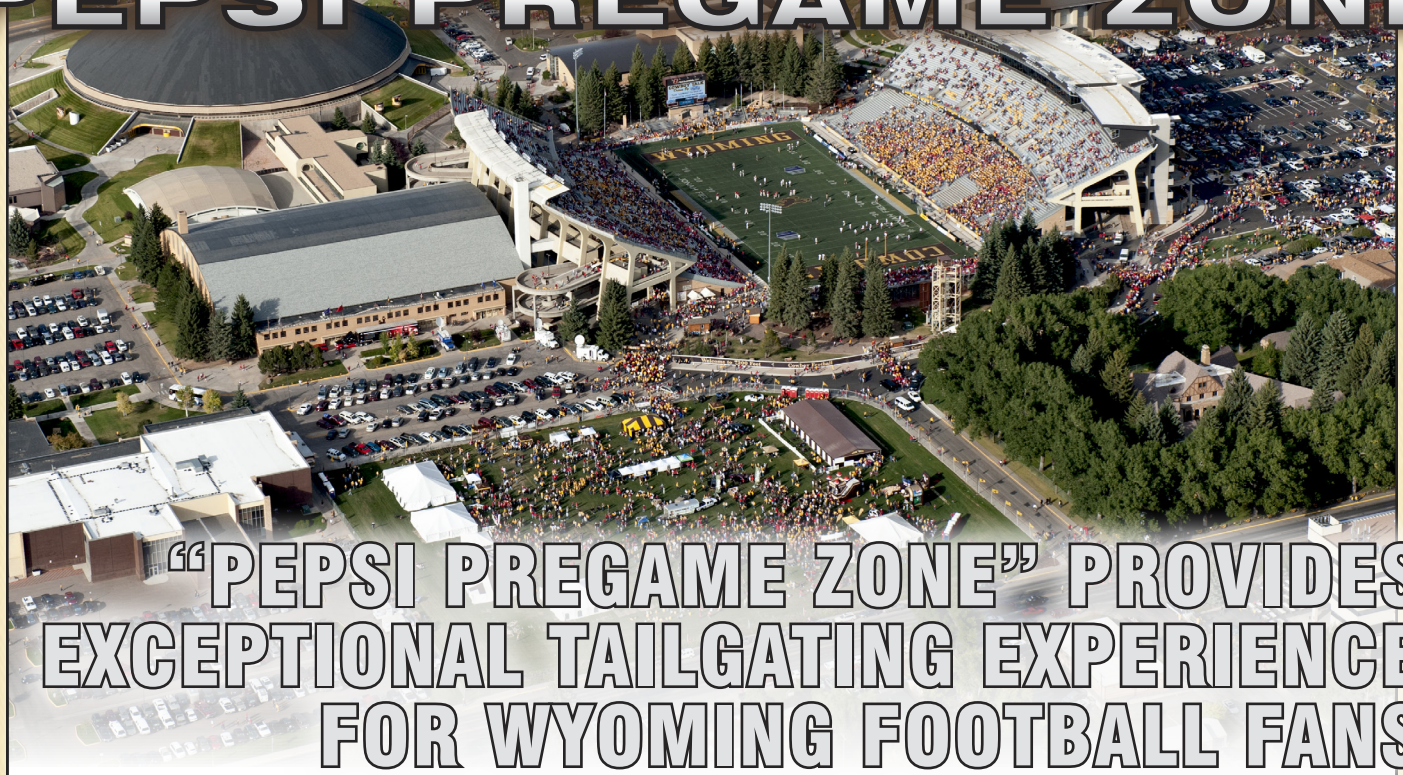
PEPSI PREGAME ZONE



"PEPSI PREGAME ZONE" PROVIDES EXCEPTIONAL TAILGATING EXPERIENCE FOR WYOMING FOOTBALL FANS

Wyoming football fans were offered a new tailgating experience in 2014 as the "Pepsi Pregame Zone" kicked off a new era of Cowboy Football. The "Pepsi Pregame Zone" shifted the pregame tailgating area to the Indoor Practice Facility and Ford Stadium Lot, and incorporated a new "Tailgate Alley" adjacent to Indoor Practice Facility.

"Fan Fest" was held for all six home games in 2014. It was open to all fans, and kicked off three hours prior to each home football game in the Indoor Practice Facility. Food and drink vendors, WYO merchandise sales, kids' games and activities, live music and televised national football games were featured for fans' enjoyment.

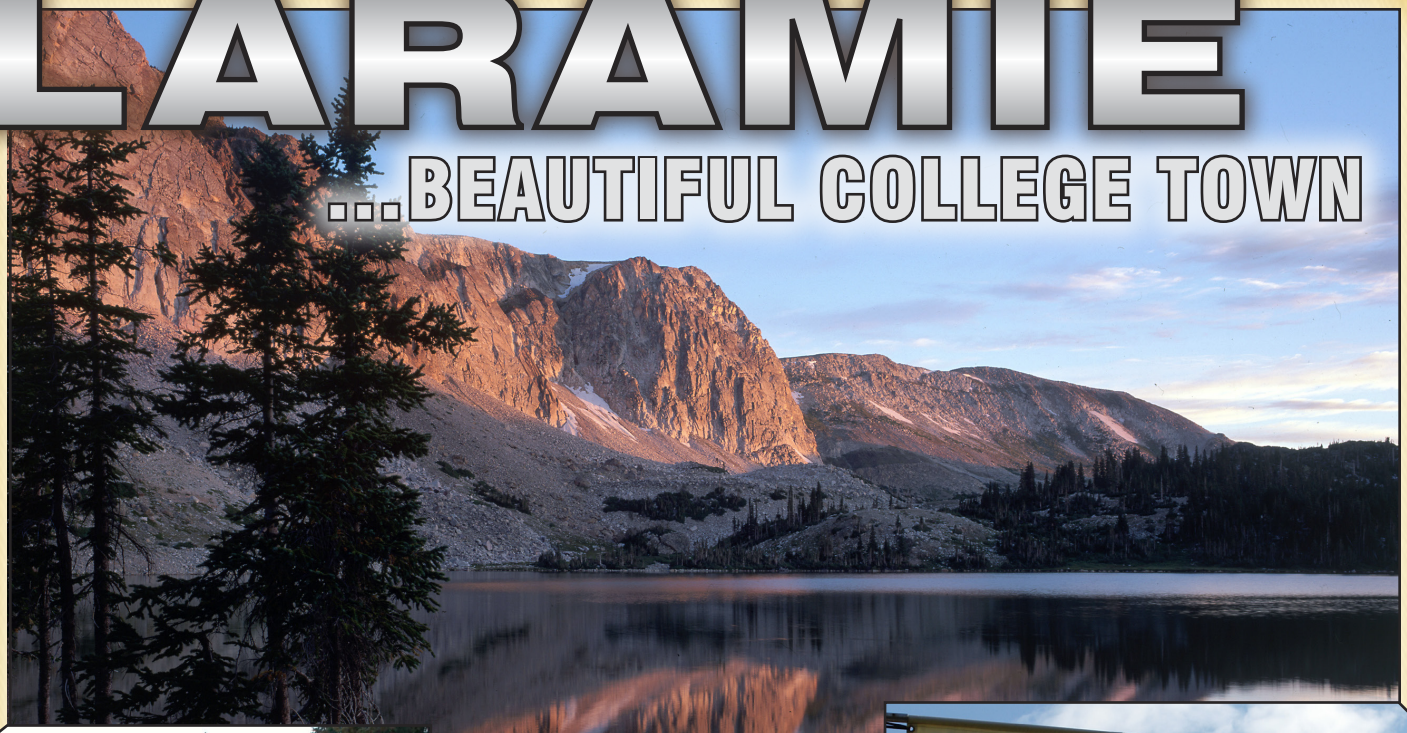
"Taligate Alley", adjacent to the south side of the Indoor Practice Facility and at the north end of the Ford Stadium Lot, was a reserved area for the truest of tailgaters. Reserved spots in "Tailgate Alley" are limited, so make your reservations with the Cowboy Joe Club now for the coming season.

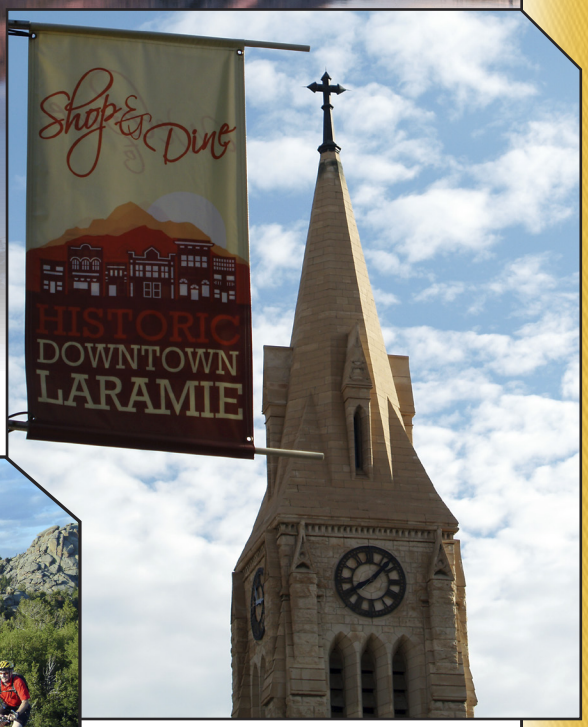
The "Pepsi Pregame Zone" provides a fun, family atmosphere for Wyoming fans -- many of whom drive several hours from every corner of the Equality State to come cheer on their Pokes.

Fans can share some food and drink as they talk about the day's upcoming game, while their kids play a game of catch. Others listen to a local band, or wait to see Wyoming's marching band, "Western Thunder", make their regular appearance prior to every home game.

LARAMIE

...BEAUTIFUL COLLEGE TOWN





One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges — the Snowy Range to the west and the Laramie Range to the east. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other nearby resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area captivates visitors from all over the world.

WYOMING

...THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE IT

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

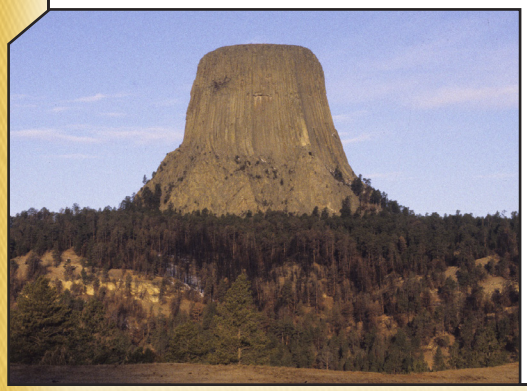
Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.



Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

SEASON OUTLOOK

WYOMING FOOTBALL FOCUSED ON TAKING ANOTHER STEP FORWARD IN 2017

Cowboys Look to Build on Successful 2016 Season

Wyoming Football will enter the 2017 season coming off one of its most successful seasons in recent history. But soon after conclusion of that very successful 2016 campaign, Cowboy head coach Craig Bohl had already turned his attention to where he wants to take his team next.

"Taking another step forward as a football program has been our focus since the start of winter conditioning," said Bohl. "Last year, we were competitive within our conference, but we need to continue to take steps to improve.

"Now, we need to learn how to finish off the back end of the season. That comes into play with having more depth and being more competitive at multiple positions. I think our guys have gotten a taste of what it's like to be competitive, and now we need to build on that."

The 2016 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year led the Cowboys to one of the biggest turnarounds in college football last season. Wyoming entered the season picked to finish last in the MW Mountain Division. By the time the season ended, UW had hosted the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game, as winners of the Mountain Division, and had earned a bid to the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. The Pokes defeated two Top 25 ranked teams along the way, earned the National Team of the Week honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those Top 25 wins and accomplished all that against the 19th most difficult schedule in the country and the second most difficult schedule among all Group of Five schools.

For a man who has been part of five national championship teams during his coaching career -- two as an assistant coach at his alma mater Nebraska and three as the head coach at North Dakota State -- Bohl knows how to keep a team focused when coming off a successful season.

"It will be important to make sure our football team recognizes we have a long ways to go," said Bohl. "Consistency is going to be really important. The days of us sneaking up on some opponents are long gone. There is an awful lot of parity in the Mountain West. We'll need to have a great fall camp and get off to great start in our non-conference schedule."

Wyoming will face two Power Five conference schools in the first three weeks of the 2017 season. UW will open the season on the road Sept. 2 at Iowa. On Sept. 16, the Pokes will host Oregon in the first appearance by the Ducks in Laramie.

"It's always great to open up with a nationally-recognized opponent like the University of Iowa," said Bohl. "Coach (Kirk) Ferentz and the Iowa Hawkeyes have been an outstanding program for a long, long time. To go to Iowa City will be a combination of a big challenge and a great opportunity for us.

"Having Oregon at our place should create a fantastic atmosphere in War Memorial Stadium, and will be a great game for our fans.

"But it's going to be more important for the growth of our program that we develop as a football team throughout the entire year. Facing the quality of opponents we will early in the season, we're going to learn more about some of our unproven guys. We've been encouraged by what we've seen, but with that said we have some question marks."

Wyoming returns 15 starters, including six on offense, eight on defense and its starting place-kicker. A total of 48 letterwinners also return -- 23 on offense, 24 on defense and one on special teams.

The returning players include a strong group of proven players with a blend of some young, but talented players.

Among the top returners are two All-America candidates in junior quarterback Josh Allen and junior safety Andrew Wingard. Allen has been mentioned by many NFL Draft experts as a potential first-round pick this coming year. Wingard was a First Team All-Mountain West selection as a sophomore and was one of 16 national semifinalists for the 2016 Jim Thorpe Award, which honors the nation's top defensive back each season. Another key returner is sophomore linebacker Logan Wilson, who was named the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year last season. Wilson also earned First Team Freshman All-America honors from both the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and USA Today. Wilson will move from the weak-side linebacker position to middle linebacker in 2017.

"There are certain areas of our football team that we feel pretty good about," said Bohl. "Obviously, the quarterback position is more entrenched than it has been, and the safety and cornerback spots return a lot of experienced players.

"I think we have some young, emerging wide receivers, who we are really excited about.

"The same thing with the tight ends and running backs, some good talent but not a lot of game experience. With the exception of the quarterback, all the guys who will be handling the football are new in terms of starting roles."

JOSH ALLEN
QUARTERBACK

"I believe we'll be stronger at the defensive line position. We have a lot more depth there.

"We have a returning place-kicker in place, and it will be important to continue to improve there.

"We have a lot of returning offensive linemen, but we will have to find a center and we have a couple candidates in our existing group that we have moved into that position.

"We are developing more depth, and those are signs of being more competitive with our overall program.

"As we watched these players at practice and on tape throughout spring, we were really impressed with how our players competed this past spring."

ANDREW WINGARD
SAFETY

Key losses on offense include 2016 Second Team All-America (USA Today) center Chase Roullier, who was drafted is the sixth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. Also gone is Third Team All-American (College Sports Madness) and Wyoming's all-time leading rusher Brian Hill, who chose to forego his senior season and was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Both Roullier and Hill were First Team All-MW performers a year ago, as was tight end Jacob Hollister, who signed as a free-agent with the New England Patriots. Another dynamic offensive performer who has moved onto the NFL is Tanner Gentry, who had an outstanding senior season in 2016, earning him Second Team All-Conference honors. Gentry signed as a free agent with the Chicago Bears. Jake Maulhardt was the fifth member of the Cowboy offense to receive an invitation to an NFL rookie camp. Maulhardt, who was the Cowboys' second leading receiver a year ago, was invited to the New Orleans Saints rookie camp.

But the Cowboys return the man who made that offense go in 2016 in Allen, who is not only being mentioned as a potential first round NFL Draft pick next spring, but is ranked by some as the potential No. 1 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft. Allen made numerous spectacular plays in 2016, including a game-winning scramble in the season opener to give Wyoming a 40-34 win in triple overtime over Northern Illinois. He threw an amazing 27-yard TD strike to Gentry in the fourth quarter against No. 13 ranked Boise State, followed immediately by a two-point conversion completion to Maulhardt to tie the game at 28-28 on way to a 30-28 Wyoming win over the Broncos. And in the regular-season win over No. 24 ranked San Diego State, Allen connected on two fourth-quarter touchdowns of 30 yards to Maulhardt and 29 yards to redshirt freshman C.J. Johnson to bring the Cowboys back from a 20-27 deficit to capture a 34-33 victory.

On defense, the Cowboys return the majority of players from last season's team, with eight starters returning. But the three senior starters lost were all leaders on the Cowboy defense. Middle linebacker Lucas Wacha ended his Wyoming career earning Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors in 2016. Wacha signed as a free agent with the Dallas Cowboys. Strong-side linebacker and kick return specialist D.J. May earned Second Team All-Conference honors his senior season as a kick returner. May was invited to the Detroit Lions rookie camp. And the third senior starter lost on defense was nose tackle Chase Appleby, who returned an interception 55 yards for a touchdown in a 38-17 win over Colorado State and scored the game-winning safety in a 30-28 win over then No. 13 ranked Boise State.

Wingard will once again be the leader of the Cowboy defense. In addition to Wingard earning First Team All-Conference honors as a sophomore and being one of the 16 semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award, he ranked among the top defensive players in the nation in tackles. He ranked No. 22 in the NCAA in total tackles in 2016, averaging 9.4 per game, and ranked No. 26 in the NCAA in solo tackles, averaging 5.4 per game. Wingard ended his sophomore season in 2016 ranked No. 1 among all current active NCAA FBS players in career solo tackles, averaging 6.08 per game for his career, and he ranked No. 2 among all current active FBS players in career total tackles, averaging 9.73 per game for his career.

LOGAN WILSON
LINEBACKER

Wingard will be joined in a leadership role on defense by his junior running mate at safety Marcus Epps, who was elected a team captain by his teammates as a sophomore in 2016. Returning Mountain West Freshman of the Year Wilson will also take on more of a leadership role as a sophomore. Wilson was moved to middle linebacker during spring drills to take over for departing senior Wacha.

"I think fans will notice differences on our defense this year in speed and athleticism," said Bohl. "We're a year older, and you're going to see guys playing more confidently. That was apparent in our spring scrimmages. I saw more speed and guys who were in the right spots making plays.

"Some of the good things that happened to our team last year was a combination of us out-scoring people on offense and our defense making key plays at key times and creating turnovers. But we need to get to the point where we can hold opponents' offenses down. We need to balance things out where we play better defense.

"Overall defensively, we should be much improved, and we need to be. Our statistical numbers last year were off the mark. For us to win games, we need to get that opponent point total down. Even though they're playing some different positions, we feel like we have good players out there."

There were some significant players who missed spring practice due to injury, but the head coach said that they should all be ready to go once fall camp opens on July 31.

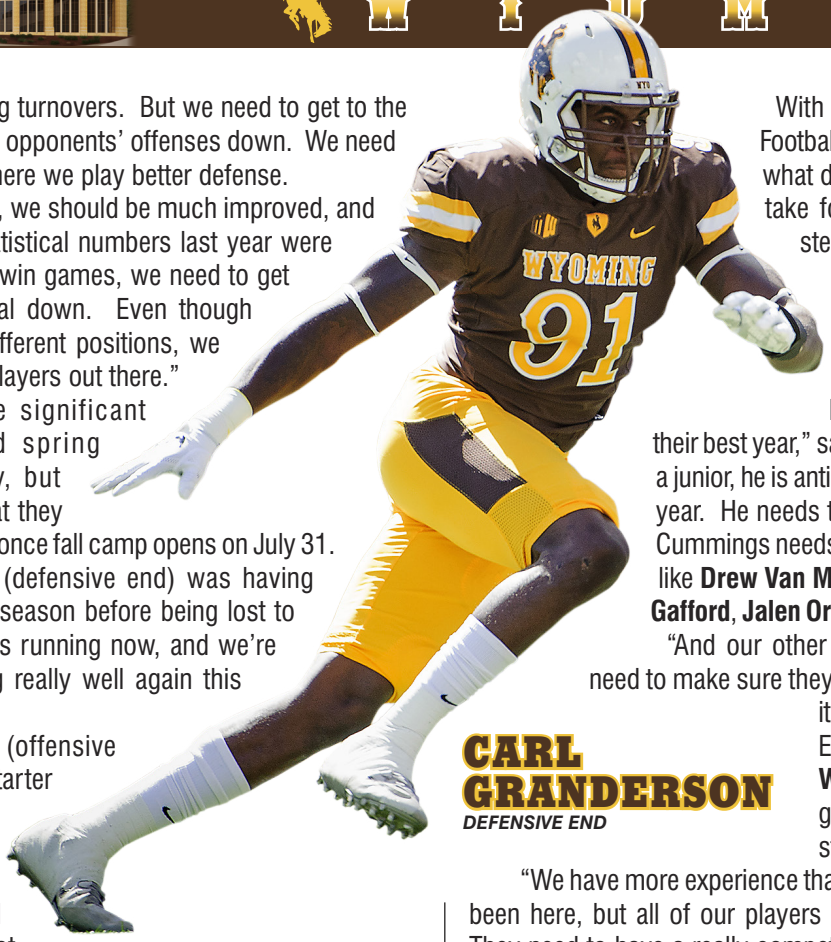
"Carl Granderson (defensive end) was having a great year for us last season before being lost to injury," said Bohl. "He's running now, and we're anticipating him playing really well again this coming season.

"Ryan Cummings (offensive right tackle) is another starter who was not able to be out there during spring. He is coming back well from his surgery, and we're pleased with that. Those two guys I think are really going to be important for us this coming season.

"Andrew Wingard (safety) missed the back half of spring, but he was out there enough, and we know what he is capable of."

Bohl has a veteran coaching staff returning in 2017. The entire offensive staff returns, guided by offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Brent Vigen, who also takes on the role of Associate Head Coach this season. On defense, Scottie Hazelton was hired as the Cowboys' new defensive coordinator and linebackers coach this past January. Hazelton had previously coached on Bohl's staff at North Dakota State for the 2007-11 seasons. His final two seasons with the Bison, Hazelton served as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. He comes to Wyoming from the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL, where he was the assistant linebackers coach the past three seasons.

"Scottie Hazelton is really familiar with our system and he's really familiar with our other coaches, so that was somewhat of a seamless transition," said Bohl. "We're really pleased to have Scottie back with us."



CARL GRANDERSON
DEFENSIVE END

RYAN CUMMINGS
OFFENSIVE TACKLE

With the goal of taking Wyoming Football another step forward in 2017, what does the head coach feel it will take for his team to take that next step forward?

"First of all, our players who have played a significant amount and particularly our guys who are going into their last year -- they have to have their best year," said Bohl. "While Josh (Allen) is a junior, he is anticipating that this will be his last year. He needs to play at his very best. Ryan Cummings needs to play at his very best. Guys like Drew Van Maanen, Robert Priester, Rico Gafford, Jalen Ortiz need to be at their very best. "And our other guys who have played a lot need to make sure they continue to improve, whether it's Andrew Wingard, or Marcus Epps, Carl Granderson, Zach Wallace. It's about all those guys collectively taking another step forward.

"We have more experience than what we've had since we've been here, but all of our players need to continue to improve. They need to have a really competitive summer and continue to mature. If they all collectively get better, we have a chance to be a pretty solid football team."

Asked what it meant to Bohl and his team to see the kind of fan support they experienced last season? Bohl responded, "That is part of another step in the development of our program. I'm sure there were a lot of our fans, who have been loyal to us for many, many years, wondering when we were going to compete for a conference championship again. "When I went to the Mountain West meetings this past spring, I heard compliments from even Coach (Rocky) Long talking about their experience coming to Wyoming. He was very complimentary about the Mountain West Championship Game, and he said the Wyoming fans were unbelievable. So that is a special shout out to our fans.

"We are so appreciative of the support we've received from our fans and the state. I would just say to all Cowboy fans make sure you're in War Memorial Stadium this coming year because we think we've got a good football team coming back."

The Cowboys are scheduled to conduct their first fall practice on Monday, July 31, in preparation for their season opener on the road at Iowa on Saturday, Sept. 2. Wyoming's home opener will be on Saturday, Sept. 9 versus Gardner-Webb.

OFFENSE

Quarterbacks

As the Wyoming Football program enters its fourth year under Craig Bohl's coaching staff, this is the first season that Wyoming will return its starting quarterback from the previous season -- and oh what a quarterback he is in junior Josh Allen. The dynamic Allen possesses a great arm and exceptional mobility, evidenced by his 3,203 passing yards, 523 rushing yards and 3,726 yards of total offense. He threw 28 TD passes, rushed for seven more and caught one TD pass.

As a sophomore in 2016, Allen ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 6 nationally in passing yards per completion (15.33 yards). He also led the MW and was No. 16 in the country in points responsible for (218). Allen threw 28 touchdown passes in 2016, placing him No. 1 in the conference and No. 20 in the NCAA. He was second in the MW and 32nd in the nation in passing yards (3,203). Allen was also No. 2 in conference and No. 40 in the nation in total offense (266.1 yards per game).

Also returning is junior Nick Smith, who served as the backup last season after playing in five games and starting two as a redshirt freshman in 2015. Sophomore Nick Szpor returns as a member of the quarterback group and as Wyoming's returning holder on field goals and PATs. The newest addition to the Cowboy quarterback group is freshman Tyler Vander Waal from Elk Grove, Calif.

Asked what were some of the areas of his team that he was particularly pleased with during 2017 spring drills, Bohl said, "I saw some great progress with Josh (Allen). I thought he took steps forward as a quarterback. There are certainly some things that he needs to improve upon, but I did see continued improvement.

"There is no doubt having a returning quarterback with Josh's ability is always a great building block. He has received an awful lot of national attention -- certainly a lot of it is well deserved. Josh did some really exceptional things last year. But his completion percentage is not where it needs to be, and his touchdown to interception ratio has got to improve.

"We have to recognize that going into last year he hadn't played a lot of football at the college level. He got 14 games under his belt last year and played a few plays for us the year before until he got injured, so he's still relative young. We're excited about Josh, and I thought he did some great things during the course of spring.

"Nick Smith gives us another mature player at the quarterback position. Nick didn't play in any games last year, but he played a lot the year before. His intelligence and maturity combined with the improvements he's made in his game gives us another quarterback who we have confidence can provide leadership to our offense."

DREW VAN MAANEN
FULLBACK

Running Backs and Fullbacks

Brian Hill set new Wyoming single-season (1,860) and career (4,287) rushing records last season before opting to enter this past year's NFL Draft following his junior season. The group of returning players looking to take over as the Cowboys' starting running back include junior Nico Evans, sophomore Milo Hall and redshirt sophomore Kellen Oversteet. Hall came out of spring practice listed No. 1 on the depth chart, with Evans and Overstreet sharing the No. 2 spot on the two-deep. Hall is a former Colorado high school player of the year at Cherry Creek High School where he led his team to the 5A state championship as a senior. Evans is a former Pac-5 All-CIF honoree in the state of California, and Overstreet was First Team Parade All-American his senior season at Penney High School in Hamilton, Mo. Redshirt freshman Mike Green II also returns and will compete for playing time in 2017.

"Brian (Hill) was such a workhorse and very productive for us," said Bohl. "He did some phenomenal things throughout his three-year career here.

"The guys we have returning have been sitting in the wings waiting for their opportunity. They had a chance to show what they could do this past spring. I think they've all made improvements. While we had separation at the tailback position before, there is probably not as much separation among this group. They all did some good things this spring, and probably exceeded my expectations. We're pretty happy with the running back position, yet it is unproven.

"Milo Hall and Nico Evans really asserted themselves in spring, as well as Kellen Overstreet did some good things."

The fullback position is led by senior Drew Van Maanen, who will be entering his fourth season as the starter. Sophomore Jaylon Watson and junior Matt List also return.

"Drew Van Maanen is an experienced senior at the fullback spot," said Bohl. "That is an important position for us, and Drew has done a really nice job the last couple of years. We also moved Jaylon Watson there in the spring from defensive end. Jaylon played some meaningful reps at fullback during spring practice, and Matt List is a junior and a returning lettermen for us."

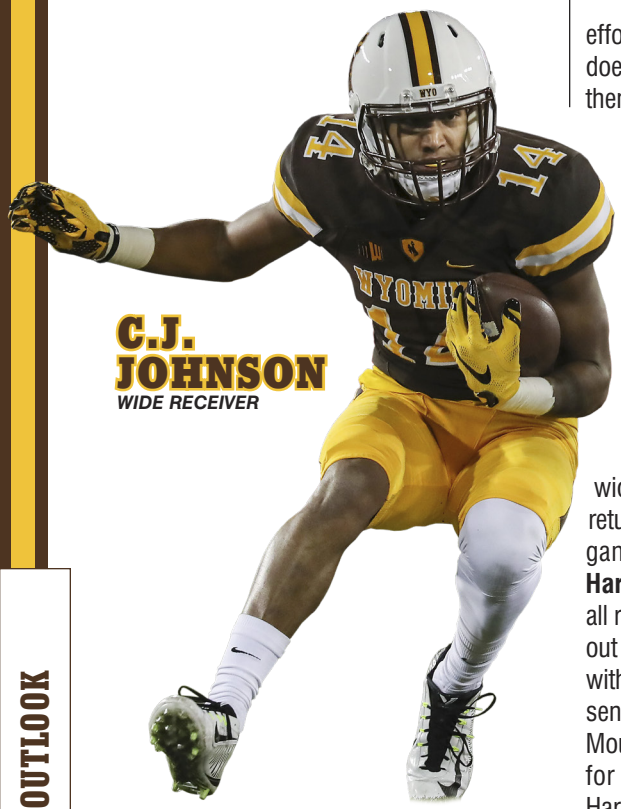
Wide Receivers

A group of returning receivers with game experience will be available for quarterback Allen in 2017. Leading that group will be current sophomore C.J. Johnson, who caught

COWBOYS BY POSITION



21 passes for 304 yards and three receiving touchdowns in 2016. Austin Conway, another sophomore, caught 11 passes for 103 yards a year ago, and junior James Price had six receptions for 75 yards. While the Cowboys lost their top three receivers from last season in senior wide receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt and tight end Jacob Hollister, Bohl feels the group of young receivers returning does provide the passing game with some promising talent.

"When you look at wide receiver, there are some guys who've shown signs of developing into a good unit, but they're not real experienced," said Bohl. "They're a group of extremely young, but talented players. Last year, we had so many big plays out of our receivers, so these guys are going to need to make the most of their opportunity now and show they can shine.

"James (Price) has really good speed and he has good body presence. He's a tall, physical receiver with good hands and provides us with a deep threat.

"We're really excited about Austin (Conway) and some of the things that he is capable of doing. He is an explosive player with the ball in his hands. He has excellent speed and tremendous quickness. He is a very competitive player.

"C.J. (Johnson) is a very smooth, effortless appearing player. He sometimes doesn't look like he's running that fast and then you see him run away from people.

"John Okwoli has also played some and shown us some good things for a young player.

"They all have their own unique abilities. None of them have asserted themselves yet like Tanner (Gentry) did last season. We've got to have a couple of those guys do that this season."

Tight Ends

The tight end position, much like the wide receiver spot, lost its top performer but returns a group of players who have extensive game experience. Three juniors in Josh Harshman, Austin Fort and Tyree Mayfield all return in 2017. Harshman and Fort came out of spring practice listed as co-starters, with Mayfield right behind them. A year ago, senior Jacob Hollister earned First Team All-Mountain West honors, catching 32 passes for 515 yards and seven TD receptions. Harshman caught five passes for 50 yards last year. Mayfield had three catches for 33 yards, while Fort played primarily on special teams. All three have developed physically since last season. Harshman is now up to 235 pounds. Fort is up to 244, and Mayfield weighs in at 241.

"We lost a good one in Jacob Hollister, but we have three returning juniors who all contributed to our success last year," said Bohl. "Josh (Harshman) has continued to get bigger and more physical. We're excited about him.

"Austin (Fort) has shown some excellent signs with his speed, has gained some weight and is a stronger presence at the tight end position.

"Tyree (Mayfield) has played a lot of football for us.

"We went from not having a true tight end in the program when we got here to now having three pretty experienced players."

Offensive Line

Offensive line is one of the most experienced positions for the Cowboys entering the 2017 season. Wyoming returns starters at four of the five offensive line positions, including two returning starters at right tackle in senior Ryan Cummings and junior Brinkley Jolly, who each started seven games last season. Cummings started the first seven games before suffering a season-ending injury. Jolly took over following Cummings' injury and started the final seven games of the season. Also returning is junior left tackle Zach Wallace and junior right guard Kaden Jackson. Sophomore Gavin Rush started all 14 games at left guard last season as a true freshman. He moved to center during 2017 spring practice to take over for Chase Roullier, who earned Second Team All-America honors his senior season. The fifth projected starter coming out of spring practice was redshirt freshman Jace Webb at left guard.

"When you look at the offensive line, we'll have four positions with returning starters, so we feel pretty good about that," said Bohl. "I'll start with Ryan Cummings and Zach Wallace at the tackle spots. They're both guys who have been multi-year starters, and they're no longer skinny guys. They are both over 300 pounds with good height and good length. Pahl Schwab also competed well at offensive tackle in the spring.

"Gavin Rush moved to center this past spring. We'll continue to see how that progresses. Gavin started at left guard for us as a true freshman last season. He's moving over to center where Chase Roullier had an outstanding season.

"At guard, we thought Kaden Jackson had a great spring. The other guard spot is where we will have a new face this season. Jace Webb has done some good things in there. Dalton Fields is another player who came out of spring competing for that position. We'll continue to take a look at that spot throughout fall camp."

DEFENSE

Defensive Line

Nine of 10 defensive lineman who saw playing time last season return for the Cowboys. Seven of those individuals made at least one start in 2016, including junior defensive tackle/nose tackle Conner Cain (12 starts), sophomore defensive end Josiah Hall (11 starts), junior defensive end Kevin Prosser (10 starts), junior defensive end Carl Granderson (6 starts), sophomore defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan (5 starts), senior defensive end Nela Lolohea (1 start) and sophomore defensive end Shiloh Windsor (1 start). Add junior nose tackle Sidney Malauulu and sophomore defensive tackle Brent Gilliland and the Cowboy defensive line has depth unlike any it has experienced in recent years. Only 2016 senior nose tackle Chase Appleby, who had a memorable season a year ago is gone. Granderson was having an outstanding season before suffering a season-ending injury in Week 6 vs. Air Force. Prosser led all Cowboy defensive linemen in tackles (36) and solo tackles (22) and lead all UW defenders in sacks (6.5) and tackles for loss (11.0) in 2016.

"Over on defense, the defensive tackles and the defensive front overall can be good," said Bohl. "I thought our defensive tackles, really established the line of scrimmage well during spring ball.

"We've always believed in starting with the front four, particularly the two tackles. Youhanna (Ghaifan) and Sidney (Malauulu) we feel both give us a great presence occupying the defensive tackle and nose tackle positions. Conner Cain has also done good work in there. Those guys are no longer young pups. They've all got good strength and good size. We will miss Chase Appleby's leadership and competitiveness, but we have good experience returning.

"We saw Kevin Prosser make a late surge in spring ball at defensive end. He picked up some lean muscle mass and really did a nice job toward the end of spring practice.

"I believe Carl Granderson has an opportunity to be an outstanding defensive end. He's about 245 pounds now, is in the 6-5 to 6-6 range and runs really well. He seems to be coming back from his knee injury, so we have high expectations for him. Josiah Hall is a 'steady eddie' player for us. We have Shiloh Windsor, who played for us as a true freshman last season, and Nela Lolohea is a senior who came to us last year from junior college and played for us. So we have five ends who we feel like we can rotate in there.

Linebackers

Leading the way for the Wyoming linebacking corps will be 2016 Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year Logan Wilson, who also earned Freshman All-America honors from both the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and USA Today. Wilson played weak-side linebacker as a freshman. This past spring, Wilson moved to middle linebacker. He will be joined by fellow sophomore Cassh Maluia, who started the final two games of his true freshman season at strong-side linebacker. Maluia also switched positions in 2017 spring practice, taking over Wilson's weak-side spot. The strong-side linebacker/nickel position has senior Jalen Ortiz atop the depth chart entering fall camp. Ortiz has the ability to play both the strong-side backer spot and stay on the field in nickel situations. Junior Adam Pilapil is listed No. 2 behind Wilson at middle linebacker. Another junior, Chavez Pownell Jr., is listed as the backup at the strong-side spot behind Ortiz. Sophomore Ben Wisdorf came out of spring as the back-up behind Maluia at weak-side linebacker.

"The linebacker crew is a little bit young, but we think we have some good athleticism there," said Bohl.

"We moved Logan Wilson from the WILL to the MIKE position in the Tampa-2 defense, which is such an important position. He did some really good things this spring, but he is still learning and it will be helpful for him to have a good fall camp to make that transition. Logan of course had an outstanding redshirt freshman season a year ago for us.

"Cassh Maluia has done some really good things at the weak-side spot.

"Jalen Ortiz is a senior who has played a lot of different positions. He is a smart player, and we believe he can play both strong-side linebacker and stay on the field as our nickel. Jalen has the lead at the position heading into fall camp.

"Adam Pilapil is a guy who can play multiple linebacker positions. He is an intelligent player, and that allows us to move him around where needed.

"We're pleased where we're at in terms of the talent and intelligence of the players we have at the linebacker positions, but we have some unproven players and players playing different spots than they did in the past. Losing two senior leaders like Lucas (Wacha) and D.J. (May) is never easy, but we like the mix of young talent we have."

Secondary

Another area of the Wyoming defense that returns a great deal of experience is the secondary. Every Cowboy who started a game at cornerback or safety in the 2016 season returns, including the junior safety tandem of Andrew Wingard and Marcus Epps. The tandem has started the last 24 consecutive games together, with Wingard starting 25 straight and Epps starting 24 in a row. Providing additional quality depth at safety is sophomore Alijah Halliburton, who played in all 14 games in 2016 as a true freshman and had an outstanding spring.

The depth is even more impressive at cornerback, where senior Robert Priester came out of spring practice No. 1 at one corner spot and sophomore Tyler Hall was listed atop the other cornerback position. Priester has started 19 career games, and Hall was a valuable special teams performer as a true freshman last season. Also returning is senior Rico Gafford, who started all 14 games in 2016 after arriving at UW from Iowa Western Community College, and junior Antonio Hull, who started 11 of 14 games as a sophomore in 2016 and has 20 career starts to his credit.

"I feel really good about the safety spot," said Bohl. "Andrew

SAFETY

COWBOYS BY POSITION

Wingard and Marcus Epps are good players, very experienced and provide us a lot of leadership. The other young player who I thought showed great promise during the course of spring was Alijah Halliburton. He has really good tackling ability and good range.

"At the corner position, Robert Priester has played a lot of football here. He's anchoring down one side, and Tyler Hall is anchoring down the other side. Tyler, who will only be a sophomore this year, really made a lot of plays from the cornerback position after we watched all the tape from spring ball."

"Antonio Hull has also played a lot for us and will be competing for playing time, as will Rico Gafford. We are better and deeper at the corner position than we've ever been."

AUSTIN CONWAY
WIDE RECEIVER

"In the kicking game, Cooper Rothe is back," said Bohl. "He started for us as a true freshman last season and did some good things. He's going to need to be more consistent.

"Tim Zaleski is an incoming freshman that we anticipate will be our punter.

"In the return game, we'll have Austin Conway back returning punts. Austin has shown some electrifying ability as a return man. Another guy who we think will be a good addition to our return game is Tyler Hall.

"There was a time in our return game when we weren't producing a lot of big plays, but I believe we can make some advances there this season.

"And we'll need to make sure we continue to make strides in our special teams, not only in our coverage teams but in our punting and kicking games."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Wyoming returns a talented, young place-kicker in sophomore Cooper Rothe. Rothe walked in as a true freshman in 2016 and took over as the starting kicker. He made all 64 of his extra-point attempts and 13 of 20 field goals. Rothe made 10 of 12 field goals of 40 yards or fewer.

Gone are two seniors who concluded their Wyoming careers playing in every game of their careers -- 50 consecutive games. Former Cowboy punter Ethan Wood and former long snapper Brendan Turelli, provided the Cowboy special teams with two extremely consistent performers. The leading candidates to take over their duties are true freshman punter Tim Zaleski and graduate transfer long snapper Kolton Donovan. Zaleski comes to Wyoming from Oak Lawn, Ill. Donovan graduated from Southern Utah University, and chose to complete the final year of his college career by transferring to Wyoming.

In the return game, the Cowboys will welcome back starting punt returner Austin Conway, but will have to replace Second Team All-Mountain West kick returner D.J. May, who completed his Wyoming career in 2016.

COWBOY COACHES

CRAIG BOHL

(Nebraska '82)

Head Coach, University of Wyoming

When Craig Bohl was hired as head football coach for the University of Wyoming, he was open in saying that he wanted to bring Cowboy Football back to a place of national prominence. In 2016, his team took the first step toward that goal, defeating two Top 25 ranked opponents, being named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those wins and receiving votes itself in the national polls. Wyoming also captured the Mountain Division title of the Mountain West Conference, earned the right to host the 2016 MW Football Championship Game as the highest ranked team in the conference and was invited to the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. His Cowboys ended the year as one of the NCAA's top scoring offenses, averaging 35.9 points per game to rank No. 25 in the nation. Bohl was recognized for his turnaround of Cowboy Football by being named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Now entering his fourth season at Wyoming and his 15th season as a head coach, Bohl is challenging his team to take another step forward in 2017 -- a step to become a team that consistently competes for and wins conference titles and reaches postseason play.

During Bohl's time at Wyoming, two Cowboys earned All-America honors in 2016 in running back Brian Hill and center Chase Roullier. Linebacker Logan Wilson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2016, joining Andrew Wingard, who earned Freshman All-America honors a year earlier.

Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota Staate and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl currently serves on the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Board of Trustees, having been elected by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention. He was also appointed to the 13-member NCAA Division I Football Competition Committee in January of 2017.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 15 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

From 2004-2007, Bohl helped lead North Dakota State through its transition to the NCAA FCS level. During that transition period, his teams posted back-to-back 10-1 seasons in 2006 and 2007, but weren't eligible for postseason play due to NCAA rules regarding teams moving up a division.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in the last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2016 season will be Bohl's 37th year coaching at the college level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1981, assisting with the Nebraska linebackers and defensive backs for three seasons from 1981-83. His first full-time coaching position came at North Dakota State in 1984, coaching the defensive backs. He moved on to coach the linebackers at the University of Tulsa for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In 1987 and '88, Bohl was the linebackers coach at the University of Wisconsin. He earned his first defensive coordinator position in 1989 at Rice, where he served as the defensive coordinator for five seasons from 1989-93. In 1994, Bohl accepted the defensive coordinator position at Duke. The following season in 1995, he had the opportunity to return to Nebraska as the linebackers coach, and in his first season back in Lincoln the Huskers won the National Championship. Two seasons later, they captured their second National Championship during Bohl's time as an assistant coach.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 59 years old when the 2017 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Brent Vigen was elevated to Associate Head Coach in the spring of 2017. He will continue in his roles as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the fourth consecutive season in 2017, and will be entering his 20th year as a college coach and his ninth as an offensive coordinator. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

The 2016 Cowboy offense averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation. The passing game, averaged 15.3 yards per completion to rank No. 8 in the NCAA, and in red-zone offense the Pokes converted 90.6 percent of their red-zone opportunities into scores to rank 14th in the country. Wyoming's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 22 in the NCAA in first downs (312), was No. 32 in the nation in time of possession (31:34), ranked No. 33 in the country in passing efficiency (143.82 rating) and No. 36 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 205.4 yards per game. Running back Brian Hill earned Third Team All-America honors from College Sports Madness and center Chase Roullier was named Second Team All-American by USA Today. Tight end Jacob Hollister joined Hill and Roullier as First Team All-Mountain West selections, and quarterback Josh Allen and wide receiver Tanner Gentry earned Second Team All-MW honors. Hill was one of 10 national semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award. Roullier was named to the Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists, and Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List. Hill was selected in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Roullier was drafted in the sixth round by the Washington Redskins. Gentry signed a free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears, and Hollister signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots.

In 2015, Vigen's offense had two individuals earn All-Mountain West honors as sophomore running back Hill and junior offensive lineman Roullier both earned Second Team All-Conference honors. Hill was one of 11 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award in 2015 and was the only semifinalist from a non-Power Five conference. Junior wide receiver Gentry was also named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List in 2015. The 2015 Wyoming offense ranked sixth in the Mountain West in passing efficiency, with a rating of 135.0.

Vigen's 2014 Cowboy offense featured Biletnikoff Award Watch List receiver Dominic Rufran, who was invited to a free-agent camp by the Atlanta Falcons following his senior season. Another Cowboy senior, offensive tackle Connor Rains, signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following the 2014 season. Vigen's Wyoming offense was very effective at protecting the ball in 2014, committing only 18 turnovers to rank No. 4 in the MW and No. 33 in the nation.

Vigen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Dakota State under current Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl from 2009-13. He began his college coaching career at his alma mater, NDSU, in 1998.

Vigen was the offensive coordinator for each of North Dakota State's three consecutive FCS National Championships in 2011, '12 and '13. In 2013, Vigen's offense at North Dakota State ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%). Vigen's 2011 offense ranked No. 5 in the country in red-zone offense (91.1%).

From 2011 through 2013, Vigen helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Vigen coached quarterback Brock Jensen, who earned Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press in 2013 and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins in the Spring of 2014. Jensen was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 2013. He also was named the: 2012 and 2013 NCAA Division I Championship Game MVP; the 2012 and 2013 College Sporting News FCS Playoff MVP; and the 2013 College Sports Journal FCS Playoff MVP. Jensen ranked: No. 4 in the country in points responsible for in 2013 (264 points); No. 5 in the nation in passing efficiency (167.4 rating); No. 5 in passing TDs (34); No. 9 in the nation in completion percentage (66.3 percent); and No. 23 in passing yards (2,793). Jensen set North Dakota State single-season passing records in 2011, throwing for 2,524 yards and broke that record with 2,793 passing yards in 2013. He concluded his career as North Dakota State's career passing leader, with 8,598 passing yards.

The 2013 Bison offense featured three All-Americans. In addition to Jensen earning Third Team AP All-America honors, offensive tackle Billy Turner was named a Consensus All-American and fullback Andrew Grothmann earned First Team All-America recognition from The Sports Network.

In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while Vigen's 2013 offense also featured 1,000-yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

Vigen began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Bison from 1998-2000. He became a full-time coach in 2001, coaching the NDSU tight ends in 2001 and the quarterbacks in 2002. He remained at his alma mater as the running backs coach in 2003 when Craig Bohl became head coach of the Bison. From 2004-08, Vigen was elevated to passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and in 2009 he was named offensive coordinator and continued to coach the Bison QBs. He coached two-time All-America tight end Jared Peck in 2000 and 2001. Peck went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Denver Broncos.

Vigen helped to develop two-time Great West Football Conference Player of the Year, quarterback Steve Walker, who earned the honor in 2006 and 2007. North Dakota State was 8th in rushing offense (219.82 ypg) and 19th in total offense (400.09 ypg) in the 2009 NCAA Division I FCS statistics. Running back Pat Paschall led the FCS in rushing yards per game (139.7) in 2009.

As a player, Vigen was a tight end for the Bison from 1993-97. He was part of three NCAA Division II Playoff squads in 1994, '95 and '97. In 1994, he helped lead NDSU to the North Central Conference (NCC) Championship. The Bison advanced to the NCAA Division II Quarterfinals in 1994 and '95 and the First Round of the 1997 Playoffs.

A native of Buxton, N.D., Vigen earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in 1998 and completed his master's degree, also from North Dakota State in 2000. He and his wife, Molly, have three boys, Jake, Grant and Luke. Molly played basketball at NDSU and was a member of the 1996 NCAA Division II National Championship team and three NCC title squads.

SCOTTIE HAZELTON

(Fort Lewis '97)

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Scottie Hazelton was hired as Wyoming Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers Coach in January of 2017. Hazelton comes to Wyoming from the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL, where he was the assistant linebackers coach the past three seasons. He previously coached with Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl for five seasons at North Dakota State from 2007-11 -- the first three seasons as the Bison defensive line coach and the last two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

In his first season as NDSU's defensive coordinator in 2010, the Bison made their first appearance in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs, advancing to the quarterfinals. The next year in 2011, NDSU won its first FCS National Championship.

"Scottie Hazelton brings a great body of experience, having coached in the NFL, in the PAC-12 and the Mountain West," said Bohl. "Most importantly, he was an architect of the start of our great defenses that we had at North Dakota State.

"Scottie and I have a long history together. We're excited about welcoming him, Brooke and their family to Wyoming. He hails from Colorado, so he is very familiar with this area. Scottie will add a great deal of vision coordinating our defense -- a defense he has many years of experience in running."

"I'm so excited to become a Cowboy," said Hazelton. "Even though I've never lived in Wyoming, it feels like I'm coming home because of the history I have with Craig (Bohl) and his staff. I'm honored and humbled to have the opportunity to help continue the tradition and culture of Cowboy Football. I'm anxious to get started. Go Pokes!"

For the 2014-16 seasons, Hazelton served as the assistant linebackers coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL. In the 2016 season, the Jaguars ranked sixth out of the 32 NFL teams in total defense, allowing opponents only 321.7 yards per game. The Jacksonville defense also ranked No. 5 in pass defense, giving up only 215.2 yards per game. Hazelton worked with linebacker Paul Posluszny, who in 2016 ranked No. 8 among all NFL players in total tackles, with 133 and in 2015 ranked No. 2 in the NFL in tackles per game, averaging 9.5. Another Jaguar linebacker that Hazelton assisted coaching was Telvin Smith, who tied for 16th in the NFL in tackles in 2016, with 118, and tied for sixth in the NFL in 2015, with 128 tackles.

Prior to earning the opportunity to coach in the NFL for three seasons, Hazelton coached 18 years at the college level. He served as the defensive coordinator at Mountain West member Nevada in 2013. Hazelton was the linebackers coach at USC in 2012 on a team that earned a Sun Bowl berth versus Georgia Tech.

Hazelton was part of Bohl's staff at North Dakota State for the 2007-11 seasons. His final two seasons with the Bison, Hazelton served as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. His first season as defensive coordinator in 2010, NDSU's defense ranked No. 7 nationally in both scoring defense (allowing only 18.21 points per game) and turnover margin (+1.07 per game), was 15th in pass efficiency defense (105.7 rating) and ranked 19th in sacks (2.57 per game).

In 2011, the Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (allowing only 12.73 points per game), was No. 8 in turnover margin (+1.20 per game), ranked 17th in rushing defense (118.73 yards per game), was 19th in sacks (2.67 per game) and was 20th in total defense (315.93 yards per game).

He was the defensive line coach for NDSU from 2007-09. In 2008, North Dakota State led the FCS in pass defense (116.82 yards per game), ranked second in sacks (3.36 per game), fifth in total defense (254.0 yards per game), fifth in tackles for loss (8.55 per game) and 19th in scoring defense (19.18 points per game allowed).

Hazelton's coaching career began in 1996 at his alma mater, Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colo. He was the defensive backs coach at Fort Lewis from 1996-99 and was the interim defensive coordinator in 1998. He served his first stint at North Dakota State from 2000-01 as a defensive graduate assistant coach. He moved on to a full-time coaching position at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., in 2002 and '03, serving as the defensive backfield coach. Hazelton was hired next at Missouri Southern in Joplin, Mo., for the 2004 and '05 seasons where he was the defensive coordinator. In 2006, he became the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Michigan Tech in Houghton, Mich., for one season before returning to North Dakota State in 2007.

Hazelton played his college football at Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colo. He was a three-year letterman at linebacker from 1992-94, and earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Fort Lewis in 1997.

Hazelton has his wife, Brooke, have two daughters, Ava and Sophie, and two sons, Bode and Crew.

Mike Bath has coached the Wyoming running backs through the most successful period in that position's history at Wyoming. The 2017 season will mark Bath's fourth season coaching the Cowboy running backs and fullbacks. He is entering his 14th season as a coach at the college level. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

Bath coached former Cowboy running back Brian Hill, who set the Wyoming career and single-season rushing records during his three-year career at Wyoming that ended in 2016. Hill concluded his career with 4,287 rushing yards, and in 2016 he set the Wyoming single-season rushing record of 1,860 yards. He ranked No. 3 in the nation in rushing yards in 2016 (1,860), ranked No. 4 in the NCAA in rushing touchdowns (22) and was 23rd in the nation in all-purpose yards (139.57 yards per game). Hill averaged 9.4 points per game to rank No. 12 in the nation, and he scored a total of 132 points to rank No. 7 nationally. Hill was one of only 10 national semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award, honoring the nation's premier running back each season. He earned Third Team All-America honors from College Sports Madness, and was selected First Team All-Mountain West by conference head coaches and media. Hill was selected in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

Bath helped coach the 2016 Cowboy offense that averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation. The passing game, averaged 15.3 yards per completion to rank No. 8 in the NCAA, and in red-zone offense the Pokes converted 90.6 percent of their red-zone opportunities into scores to rank 14th in the country. Wyoming's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 22 in the NCAA in first downs (312), was No. 32 in the nation in time of possession (31:34), ranked No. 33 in the country in passing efficiency (143.82 rating) and No. 36 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 205.4 yards per game.

The 2015 season saw Cowboy running back Shaun Wick named to the Doak Walker Award Preseason Watch List. Later in the season, UW sophomore running back Hill was added to the Doak Walker Watch List, and Hill went on to be named one of only 11 semifinalists for the award and was the only semifinalist from a non-Power Five conference. Hill earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors in 2015, and ranked No. 8 in the nation in average rushing yards per game (135.9) and No. 9 in total rushing yards (1,631). His 1,631 rushing yards and 135.9 yards per game broke the Wyoming school records originally set by Ryan Christopherson in 1994. Wick ended his Wyoming career with 2,533 career rushing yards to rank No. 6 on the Wyoming career list.

In 2014, Bath coached Wick and Hill who combined for 1,589 rushing yards and eight 100-yard rushing games. Hill was selected the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Fresno State in 2014. He accounted for 387 all-purpose yards against the Bulldgos -- 281 rushing yards and 106 receiving yards. Hill became only the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for at least 200 yards and have at least 100 yards receiving in a single game. His 387 all-purpose yards was the best single-game performance in the nation for the 2014 season and set a new University of Wyoming single-game record and a Mountain West Conference single-game record. His 281 rushing yards was the second best single-game performance in Wyoming school history.

Prior to coming to Wyoming, Bath served as the interim head coach at Miami, his alma mater, in 2013. He was named interim head coach on Oct. 6, 2013, and also assumed the role as offensive coordinator at that time after beginning the season coaching the quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Bath returned to his alma mater in 2011 to coach the wide receivers and tight ends. In 2012, he moved into the role of quarterbacks coach, and coached Miami QB Zac Dysert, who set school records for career total offense (12,678) and career passing yards (12,013). Dysert was drafted by the Denver Broncos in 2013, and was part of a Bronco team that made a run to the Super Bowl his rookie season. Bath also coached wide receiver Andy Cruse at Miami. Cruse signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans in 2013 and was on the Texans' practice squad his rookie year.

Bath began his college coaching career in 2004 as a graduate assistant coach for his alma mater. After serving as a graduate assistant in 2004 and 2005, he was named a full-time assistant in 2006 and coached the RedHawk tight ends for three seasons from 2006-08. Two of his tight ends, Tom Crabtree and Jake O'Connell, went on to play in the NFL.

In 2009, Bath accepted the opportunity to become the offensive coordinator at Ashland University in Ashland, Ohio. After serving as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers coach for two seasons (2009-10), he returned to Miami in 2011.

During his time as an assistant coach at Miami, the RedHawks captured three Mid-American Conference (MAC) East Division Championships (2004, '05 and '07) and made an Independence Bowl appearance in 2004.

A three-year starter at quarterback for Miami from 1998-2000, he compiled a record of 23-10 as a starter and led the RedHawks to the MAC East Division Co-Championship as a sophomore in 1998. That team posted a 10-1 record overall and a 7-1 conference mark. Among those 10 wins in '98 was a 13-10 upset victory over No. 12 ranked North Carolina and a 14-13 non-conference victory over Army. His junior season, Miami upset Northwestern of the Big Ten by a score of 28-3 on the road, and his senior season, the RedHawks defeated Vanderbilt of the SEC 33-30 in Nashville, Tenn. Bath was named his team's Co-MVP his senior season.

At the conclusion of his college playing career, Bath had set then Miami career records of 6,524 yards passing and 49 passing touchdowns.

He earned a double major at Miami in marketing and organizational behavior in 2001. Bath and his wife, Tara, have three children, Colton, Savannah and Case.

AJ COOPER

(North Dakota State '06)

Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Ends

AJ Cooper enters his fourth season at Wyoming as the Cowboys' defensive ends coach and special teams coordinator. He came to Wyoming after serving as a member of the North Dakota State coaching staff the previous eight seasons. His coaching career followed an outstanding playing career for the Bison. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

In 2016, several of Cooper's special teams units excelled. The Cowboys punt team ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 24 in the nation in punt return defense, allowing opponents only 4.62 yards per punt return. That punt unit also averaged 39.34 yards in net punting to rank No. 3 in the conference and No. 31 in the NCAA. Senior punter Ethan Wood was named to the Ray Guy Award Watch List for the second consecutive season. The kick return team was also very effective, averaging 22.24 yards per return to rank No. 4 in the MW and No. 41 nationally. Wyoming senior kick returner D.J. May earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors in voting by conference head coaches and media. May averaged 27.9 yards each time he returned a kickoff, ranking him No. 9 in the nation. May received an invitation to the Detroit Lions rookie camp as a free agent.

On defense, sophomore defensive end Kevin Prosser ranked ninth in the MW in sacks, with 6.5 sacks on the season. As a unit, the Cowboy defense scored five defensive touchdowns to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 3 in the nation. Wyoming recovered 12 opponent fumbles, ranking No. 1 in the MW and No. 15 in the NCAA. The Cowboys' 15 interceptions were second best in the conference and 22nd nationally. UW's 27 total forced turnovers ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 10 in the country.

The 2015 season saw Wyoming senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough earn Second Team All-Mountain West honors. Yarbrough was named to both the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List and the Ted Hendricks Award Watch List as a junior and senior. He concluded his UW playing career as the all-time leader in tackles for loss, with 39, and ranked ninth all-time in career sacks at Wyoming, with 21.5. Yarbrough signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following the 2016 NFL Draft. Punter Wood was named to the 2015 Ray Guy Award Watch List for the first time in his college career. Several special teams' units also performed well in 2015. The kickoff coverage team ranked No. 1 in the MW, allowing opponents 21.3 yards per kickoff return, and the punt coverage team ranked No. 2 in the conference and No. 21 nationally, giving up only 4.6 yards per punt return. The Cowboys averaged 23.5 yards per kick return to rank No. 5 in the league and No. 29 in the nation, and the Pokes averaged 38.6 yards as a team in net punting to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 40 in the country. Kick returner May averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return to rank No. 4 in the conference and No. 24 in the NCAA.

In 2014, Cooper also coached defensive end Yarbrough, who earned First Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior.

From 2009 through 2013, Cooper coached the Bison defensive ends. In 2013, he added special teams to his coaching responsibilities. He helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As the defensive ends coach at North Dakota State, Cooper helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons (2011-13), holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

Cooper served as NDSU's football camp and clinic director in addition to coaching the defensive ends for the Bison.

Prior to becoming the defensive ends coach in 2009, Cooper worked with the offensive line and tight ends as a student assistant and graduate assistant with the program from 2006-08.

Prominent players who Cooper coached at North Dakota State included: Coulter Boyer, who in 2011 earned Third Team All-America honors as a defensive end from Beyond Sports College Network and Honorable Mention All-America honors from College Sports Journal. Boyer was also an All-MVFC First Team honoree in 2011 and was a Second Team selection in 2010. He finished his career ranked No. 4 in school history in career sacks, with 27.5. Cooper coached defensive end Cole Jirik, who was a Second Team All-America selection by College Sports Madness in 2012. Jirik also earned Second Team All-MVFC honors in 2012, and concluded his career ranked No. 5 in Bison history in career sacks (26.0). A third NDSU defensive end who Cooper coached and went on to earn All-Conference recognition was Kyle Emanuel, who was a Second Team All-MVFC selection in 2013 and an Honorable Mention All-MVFC honoree in 2012.

An outstanding tight end for the Bison in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, Cooper earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from the Football Gazette in '05. He caught 24 passes for 473 yards (19.7 yards per catch) and scored four touchdowns as a senior. He was selected First Team All-Great West Football Conference as a senior, and also earned All-Northwest Region honors.

Following his college playing career, Cooper signed a free-agent contract with the Green Bay Packers in 2006.

Originally from Phoenix, Ariz., Cooper began his college playing career at Glendale Community College. His final season of junior college, he led all junior college tight ends in three different categories -- receptions (44), receiving yards (578) and touchdown receptions (8).

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in criminal justice in 2006. He and his wife, Amanda, who is a former NDSU women's basketball player, were married in July 2011. They have two sons, Carter Johnson and Cameron Myles.

JAKE DICKERT

(Wisconsin-Stevens Point '07)

Safeties

Jake Dickert joined the Wyoming football staff in February 2017. He brings with him 10 years of experience coaching at the collegiate level. He spent the 2016 season as the Safeties Coach and Co-Special Teams Coordinator at South Dakota State. Earlier in his career, Dickert was a part of Bohl's coaching staff at North Dakota State from 2008-10.

"Coach (Jake) Dickert is a well-experienced secondary coach," said Bohl. "He had the opportunity to coach in the National Championship Game at the Division II level at Minnesota State, Mankato. I've known Jake for many years. He's a bright, ambitious young man. He communicates extremely well with players, and will add a great dimension to our defensive staff."

"My family and I are honored to have the opportunity to join Coach Bohl's staff at Wyoming and continue to build on the foundation of Cowboy Football," said Dickert. "I am excited to get to know the players and have an impact on their lives on and off the field. Coach (Bohl) has created a culture of football here that I firmly believe in, and I can't wait to get started."

In his one season on the South Dakota State coaching staff, Dickert helped guide the Jackrabbits to the 2016 Missouri Valley Football Conference Championship and a No. 8 seed in the 2016 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs, where they advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals.

As defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Minnesota State, Mankato for the 2014 and 2015 seasons Dickert was part of a coaching staff that led the Mavericks to back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) championships and consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff berths, earning their way to the 2014 National Championship Game. Minnesota State posted a combined record of 24-3 over that two-year span. Dickert's 2014 defense ranked No. 2 in the nation in scoring defense (allowing opponents only 12.9 points per game), No. 4 in turnovers gained, No. 12 in pass defense efficiency and No. 15 in total defense. In 2015, the Mavericks ranked No. 5 in the nation in scoring defense (16.1 points per game), No. 3 in rushing defense, No. 7 in pass defense efficiency and No. 6 in total defense. He coached 16 All-Conference players, three First Team All-Americans and a two-time Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as a college defensive coordinator in 2013 at Augustana, Dickert's defense ranked No. 20 in the nation at the NCAA Division II level in scoring defense, giving up only 19.5 points per game. Augustana ranked second in the NSIC in pass defense, third in rushing defense and third in total defense. He coached five All-Conference players at Augustana.

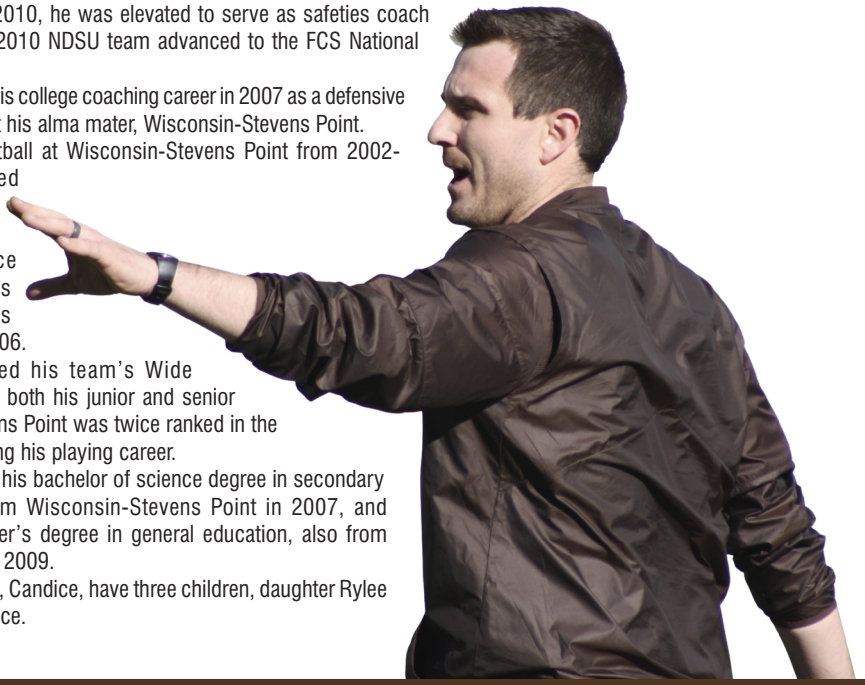
In 2012, he served as the defensive backs coach at Southeast Missouri State. The Redhawks ranked No. 18 in the nation in turnovers gained (25 total) and No. 23 in interceptions (13 total). Southeast Missouri State ranked No. 2 in the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense. Dickert also coached a First Team All-Conference strong safety at Southeast Missouri.

Dickert spent the 2011 season as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at South Dakota, where the Coyotes ranked No. 2 in the Great West Conference in fewest passing yards allowed, pass defense efficiency and interceptions. He coached three All-Conference performers while at South Dakota. On special teams, the Coyotes ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in punting average and net punting and had an individual rank in the Top 10 in punt return yards.

He joined the North Dakota State coaching staff in 2008 as a defensive graduate assistant on Bohl's staff. In 2009 and 2010, he was elevated to serve as safeties coach for the Bison. The 2010 NDSU team advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals.

Dickert began his college coaching career in 2007 as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

He played football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06. Dickert earned All-Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) honors as a wide receiver his senior season of 2006. He also was named his team's Wide Receiver of the Year both his junior and senior seasons. UW-Stevens Point was twice ranked in the nation's Top 25 during his playing career.



Dickert earned his bachelor of science degree in secondary math education from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2007, and completed his master's degree in general education, also from UW-Stevens Point in 2009.

He and his wife, Candice, have three children, daughter Rylee and sons Jett and Jace.

SCOTT FUCHS

(North Dakota State '95)

Offensive Line

Scott Fuchs will begin his 24th season as a college coach in 2016 and his fourth season coaching the offensive line at Wyoming. In 2016, Fuchs coached USA Today Second Team All-America center Chase Roullier. Roullier went on to be invited to the 2017 NFL Draft Combine, and was selected in the sixth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. Roullier also earned First Team All-Mountain West honors, and was named to the Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists. Fuchs brings a great deal of knowledge coaching offensive linemen with him to Wyoming as 22 of his previous 23 years of coaching experience have been as an offensive line coach. In 11 of his previous 23 seasons as a college coach, Fuchs has helped coach his teams to postseason play. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

Fuchs offensive line played a key role in blocking for Cowboy running back Brian Hill, who set the Wyoming career and single-season rushing records during his three-year career at Wyoming that ended in 2016. Hill concluded his career with 4,287 rushing yards, and in 2016 he set the Wyoming single-season rushing record of 1,860 yards. He ranked No. 3 in the nation in rushing yards in 2016 (1,860), ranked No. 4 in the NCAA in rushing touchdowns (22) and was 23rd in the nation in all-purpose yards (139.57 yards per game). Hill averaged 9.4 points per game to rank No. 12 in the nation, and he scored a total of 132 points to rank No. 7 nationally. Hill was one of only 10 national semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award, honoring the nation's premier running back each season, and was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons.

Fuchs helped coach the 2016 Cowboy offense that averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation. The passing game, averaged 15.3 yards per completion to rank No. 8 in the NCAA, and in red-zone offense the Pokes converted 90.6 percent of their red-zone opportunities into scores to rank 14th in the country. Wyoming's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 22 in the NCAA in first downs (312), was No. 32 in the nation in time of possession (31:34), ranked No. 33 in the country in passing efficiency (143.82 rating) and No. 36 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 205.4 yards per game.

The 2015 season saw Fuchs coach junior offensive lineman Roullier, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors. The Wyoming offensive line blocked for running back Hill, who ranked No. 8 in the nation in average rushing yards per game (135.9) and No. 9 in total rushing yards (1,631). Hill was named one of 11 semifinalists for the 2015 Walker Award.

In 2014, Fuchs coached senior offensive tackle Connor Rains, who signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following his senior season. Fuchs also coached 2014 Honorable Mention All-Conference offensive guard Roullier.

An outstanding offensive lineman himself, Fuchs was named to the 1993 Kodak/American Football Coaches Association First Team All-America squad as a senior offensive guard at North Dakota State. NDSU won three consecutive North Central Conference rushing titles during his three years as a starter. He was part of three North Central Conference Championship teams at NDSU in 1990, '91 and '92. The 1990 Bison captured the NCAA Division II National Championship.

Fuchs coached the offensive line at North Dakota State, his alma mater, the previous five seasons (2009-13) before coming to Wyoming.

From 2011 through 2013, Fuchs helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

In 2012 and 2013, Fuchs coached Consensus First Team All-America offensive tackle Billy Turner. Turner was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. In 2011, Fuchs coached Consensus All-America offensive tackle Paul Cornick, and center Joe Lund, who was selected as the FCS Rimington Award winner, which is presented to the top center in the nation each season. All total, Fuchs has coached nine All-Americans and 32 All-Conference performers during his career.

Fuchs has been on coaching staffs that have won nine conference titles during his college coaching career.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%).

Fuchs offensive lines helped pave the way for North Dakota State to have a 1,000-yard rusher for 11 consecutive seasons. In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers each season. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while the 2013 offense also featured 1,000-yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Fuchs coached one season at Southern Illinois in 2008. That team tied for the conference title and advanced to the First Round of the FCS Playoffs. He also coached at Grand Valley State (2007), Nebraska-Omaha (2003-06), Minnesota-Crookston (2000-02), Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1999) and Valley City State (1997-98). The only school he did not coach the offensive line was his one season at Wisconsin-Eau Claire when he coached the defensive line.

Fuchs' first position as a college coach was as a graduate assistant at NDSU working with the tight ends from 1994-96.

Fuchs earned his bachelor of science degree from North Dakota State in physical education and social science education in 1995 and his master of education degree with a specialization in physical education and athletic administration in 1997.

Scott and his wife, Emily, have three boys, Hank, Jack and Gus.

Where He Recruits

Northern California

Mike Grant will enter his 24th season as a college coach in 2016. He will coach the Cowboy wide receivers for the second consecutive season. Prior to coming to Wyoming, Grant spent the last five years at the University of North Texas where he coached the wide receivers, the running backs and served as recruiting coordinator during his time there. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

Grant has been part of 18 bowl teams -- 13 as a coach and five as a player. In his four seasons (1993-96) as a recruiting assistant and graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, he was part of Husker teams that won National Championships in 1994 and '95. Nebraska posted back-to-back undefeated seasons in 1994 (13-0) and '95 (12-0), and posted an 11-2 record in 1996, finishing that season ranked No. 6 in the national polls. Grant helped coach the tight ends and offensive tackles at NU. He was on the same staff at Nebraska in 1995 and '96 as current Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl.

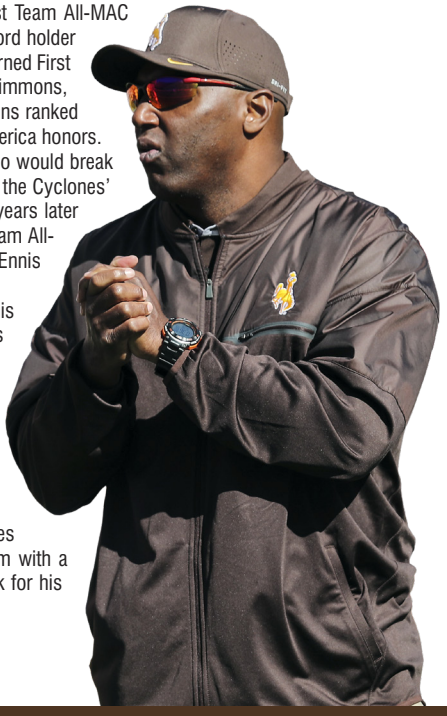
During Grant's first season with the Wyoming Cowboys in 2016, he coached senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry, who earned Second team All-Mountain West honors and signed a free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears in the spring of 2017. Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List for the second consecutive year. He caught 14 touchdown passes in 2016 to lead the Mountain West Conference and rank No. 9 in the nation. Gentry's 1,326 receiving yards in 2016 also led the MW and ranked 12th in the NCAA. He averaged 94.7 receiving yards per game, ranking him No. 3 in the conference and No. 21 in the country. His 18.42 yards per reception was 27th best in the nation. Grant also coached senior wide receiver Jake Maulhardt, who was invited to the New Orleans Saints rookie camp in the spring of 2017.

Grant was part of a coaching staff that led the 2016 Cowboy offense to a very productive season. The Pokes averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation. The passing game, averaged 15.3 yards per completion to rank No. 8 in the NCAA, and in red-zone offense the Pokes converted 90.6 percent of their red-zone opportunities into scores to rank 14th in the country. Wyoming's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 22 in the NCAA in first downs (312), was No. 32 in the nation in time of possession (31:34), ranked No. 33 in the country in passing efficiency (143.82 rating) and No. 36 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 205.4 yards per game.

Grant earned his first full-time coaching position in 1997, coaching the wide receivers and tight ends at James Madison University. Grant has coached at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level for the past 20 seasons, including: nine seasons at Iowa State (1998-06), one season at Southern Miss (2007), three at Western Michigan (2008-10), five seasons at North Texas (2011-15) and now at Wyoming (2016-17).

While at North Texas, Grant started out as the running backs coach for two seasons in 2011 and '12. As the running backs coach, Grant coached Lance Dunbar, who became the career rushing leader in North Texas history and earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors. Grant took over as the wide receivers coach from 2013-15 and added recruiting coordinator responsibilities in 2014 and '15. Among the top receivers he coached at North Texas were Brelan Chancellor, who in 2013 became the first player in Conference USA history to earn First Team All-Conference honors as both a punt returner and kickoff returner. Chancellor also earned Second Team All-Conference honors at wide receiver. Wide receiver Darnell Smith was an Honorable Mention All-Conference honoree in 2013. In 2015, wide receiver Carlos Harris finished his career No. 2 in North Texas school history in career receptions, No. 5 in career receiving yards and No. 9 in career all-purpose yards.

While coaching the wide receivers at Western Michigan from 2008-10, Grant coached four All-Mid-American Conference receivers. In 2010, he had two receivers, Jordan White and Juan Nunez, record 1,000-yard receiving seasons and each caught over 90 passes. White set a school single-season record with 1,378 receiving yards in 2010 on way to earning Honorable Mention All-America honors from CNN/SI and First Team All-MAC honors. He also concluded his career as Western Michigan's career record holder for receiving yards. Nunez had 1,032 yards receiving in 2010 and also earned First Team All-MAC honors. In 2008, Grant coached wide receiver Jamarko Simmons, who led the MAC in receptions (98) and receiving yards (1,100). Simmons ranked No. 3 in the NCAA in receptions in 2008 and earned Second Team All-America honors.



Grant's time at Iowa State included him coaching two receivers who would break the Iowa State career receiving record. In 2002, Lane Danielson became the Cyclones' all-time leading receiver and earned All-Big 12 recognition. Then three years later in 2005, Todd Blythe broke Danielson's record on way to earning First Team All-Big 12 honors. Grant also coached First Team All-Big 12 running back Ennis Haywood in 2000.

Of the 18 bowl teams Grant has been a part of nine came during his time at Nebraska, five came at Iowa State and one each came during his time at Southern Miss, Western Michigan, North Texas and Wyoming.

Grant has continued to develop his coaching skills throughout his career. He participated in the 2009 NCAA Football Coach's Academy, the 2013 NCAA/NFL Coach's Academy and the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Internship Program, serving an internship in 2013 with the Buffalo Bills.

A quarterback at Nebraska from 1988-92, he was a three-year letterwinner and was named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll. He earned his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 1993, added a second bachelor's degree in journalism with a concentration in advertising in 1995 and has completed his course work for his master's degree in mass communication.

He and his wife, Nina, have one daughter, Mireia.

PETE KALIGIS

(Washington '94)

Defensive Tackles/Nose Tackles

Pete Kaligis will coach the Wyoming defensive tackles and nose tackles for the fourth straight year in 2016. Kaligis is the longest serving assistant coach on the current Cowboy coaching staff. He is entering his ninth consecutive year at Wyoming this season. The 2016 season will mark Kaligis' 23rd season as a college coach. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

Kaligis' interior defensive line unit in 2016 was led by senior nose tackle Chase Appleby, who made two of the biggest plays of the season for the Cowboys. Appleby returned an interception 55 yards versus Colorado State for what proved to be the winning touchdown for the Cowboys. Later in the season against No. 13 ranked Boise State, Appleby created a game-winning safety to give Wyoming a 30-28 victory.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense scored five defensive touchdowns to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 3 in the nation. Wyoming recovered 12 opponent fumbles, ranking No. 1 in the MW and No. 15 in the NCAA. The Cowboys' 15 interceptions were second best in the conference and 22nd nationally. UW's 27 total forced turnovers ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 10 in the country.

During his previous years coaching at the college level, Kaligis has been a part of 13 teams that advanced to postseason play, including six bowl appearances with NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams. In addition to the Cowboys' appearances in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and UW's win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, Kaligis was a strength and conditioning coach at Washington when the Huskies played in the 1999 Holiday Bowl, won the 2000 Rose Bowl (defeating Purdue, 34-24) and played in the 2002 Sun Bowl.

In his first season coaching the Cowboys' interior defensive line in 2014, he coached senior defensive tackle Patrick Mertens. Mertens signed as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL following his senior year.

Kaligis served as Wyoming's assistant head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach in 2013. Sophomore running back Shaun Wick nearly reached the 1,000-yard plateau in 2013, rushing for 979 yards. Wick ended his Wyoming career in 2016 with 2,533 career rushing yards to rank No. 6 on the Wyoming career list. For the 2012 season, Kaligis was promoted to assistant head coach and coached both the Cowboy offensive line and running backs. Kaligis' first three years at Wyoming (2009-11) he coached the Cowboy offensive line.

In 2013, Wyoming ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (472.8 yards per game) and 26th in passing offense (282.4 yards per game). The Wyoming offense ranked second in the Mountain West Conference and 38th in the nation in passing offense in 2012, averaging 265.4 yards per game.

The 2012 season saw Kaligis coach First Team All-Mountain West center Nick Carlson. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the second time his senior season. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season. Carlson was also named to the 2012 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List, and was one of only 10 national finalists for the ARA Sportsmanship Award as a senior. Carlson (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and senior offensive tackles Josh Leonard (Oakland Raiders) and Kyle Magnuson (Oakland Raiders) each were invited to NFL camps as free agents following their senior seasons.

In 2011, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 11 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed, allowing only 12 sacks in 13 games. Three UW offensive linemen earned Mountain West All-Conference honors in 2011. Senior tackle Clayton Kirven and junior center Nick Carlson were named Second Team All-Mountain West. Sophomore offensive guard Tyler Strong earned Honorable Mention All-Conference recognition. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the first time in 2011.

Kaligis coached sophomore center Carlson in 2010. Carlson went on to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors. One of Kaligis' 2009 Cowboys, offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft.

An outstanding college football player and track and field athlete, Kaligis started all 12 games at offensive guard for the Washington Huskies and former head football coach Don James when they captured the 1991 National Championship. The Huskies posted a perfect 12-0 record and defeated Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1992, to win the national title. Kaligis was a member of the Husky Football team from 1990-94.

He was an All-American in track and field in the shot put. He won the gold medal at the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival, and placed third in the 1995 University Games. He participated in the 1996 Olympic Trials in track and field in the shot put.

Kaligis earned his B.A. degree in sociology and law enforcement at Washington in 1994. He and his wife, Kristine, have a daughter, Harlie Grace, and a son, Cooper.

John Richardson begins his fourth season as cornerbacks coach for the Wyoming Cowboys in 2016 and his ninth year coaching at the college level. He originally joined the Cowboy coaching staff in 2014. In five of Richardson's previous eight seasons as a college coach, he has helped lead his teams to postseason play. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense scored five defensive touchdowns to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 3 in the nation. Wyoming recovered 12 opponent fumbles, ranking No. 1 in the MW and No. 15 in the NCAA. The Cowboys' 15 interceptions were second best in the conference and 22nd nationally. UW's 27 total forced turnovers ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 10 in the country. Of Wyoming's 15 interceptions, five were made by Richardson's cornerbacks.

In 2015, Richardson coached a Wyoming defense that ranked 26th in the nation in fewest passing yards allowed, giving up only 196.9 passing yards per game to opponents.

Prior to coming to Wyoming, Richardson coached the North Dakota State cornerbacks in 2012 and '13. He was a member of the NDSU staff from 2009-13, spending the 2009 and '10 seasons as a student assistant before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 2011. During his time on the NDSU coaching staff, the Bison won three consecutive national titles in 2011, '12 and '13.

From 2011 through 2013, Richardson helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As a coach at North Dakota State in 2011, '12 and '13, Richardson helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons, holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

In 2012 and '13, Richardson coached Consensus First Team All-America cornerback Marcus Williams. Williams signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans following the 2014 NFL Draft. NDSU defensive back Bryan Shepherd also signed as a free agent with the Washington Redskins following the 2014 NFL Draft.

A starting cornerback, himself, at NDSU in 2007 and '08, Richardson made 85 tackles over his two-year career, with 57 solo tackles, 19 passes defended, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He began his college career in his home state of California at Mt. San Antonio Community College.

Originally from Compton, Calif., Richardson completed his bachelor's degree in sports and recreation leadership in December 2010. He earned Missouri Valley Football Conference Honor Roll honors his senior year of 2008.

He and his wife, Sahfiya, have one son, John Michael, and one daughter, Simone Faith.

GORDIE HAUG

(Bemidji State '09)

Director of Recruiting

Gordie Haug will serve as the director of recruiting for the Wyoming Football program for his fourth consecutive year in 2017. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

Haug has been very innovative in directing all recruiting efforts for the Cowboy coaching staff. He also coordinates all summer camps for Wyoming Football, and has built a very extensive and productive summer satellite camp program.

In 2015 while maintaining his duties as director of recruiting, Haug also coached the Wyoming wide receivers. Junior wide receiver Tanner Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List in 2015.

Haug came to Wyoming from North Dakota State where he was a member of head coach Craig Bohl's coaching staff for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, working as an offensive assistant.

In Haug's two years on the NDSU staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1, while capturing back-to-back Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championships.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Haug coached the running backs at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13. Each of those two seasons, NDSU had two individuals rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2013, Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,398 yards and John Crockett rushed for 1,277 yards. The 2012 season saw Ojuri rush for 1,047 yards and Crockett rush for 1,038.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%).

Before joining the North Dakota State staff, Haug spent five years (2007-11) coaching at his alma mater, Bemidji State University in Minnesota. He began as a student assistant for two years (2007-08), working with the linebackers. Haug then moved into a graduate assistant role for two seasons (2009-10), working with the running backs. He became a full-time assistant coach on the staff his final season (2011), coaching the defensive line.

At Bemidji State, Haug was also involved in recruiting and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

He earned his bachelor's degree in community health in 2009 and master's degree in sports science in 2011 both from Bemidji State.

BRENT VERNON

(Missouri '08)

Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations

Brent Vernon was promoted to the position of Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations in the spring of 2017. He will enter his fifth year directing football operations for Wyoming Football in 2017 and his ninth year overall at Wyoming. He was part of a coaching staff that led Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and earned the Cowboys the right to host the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming also earned a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

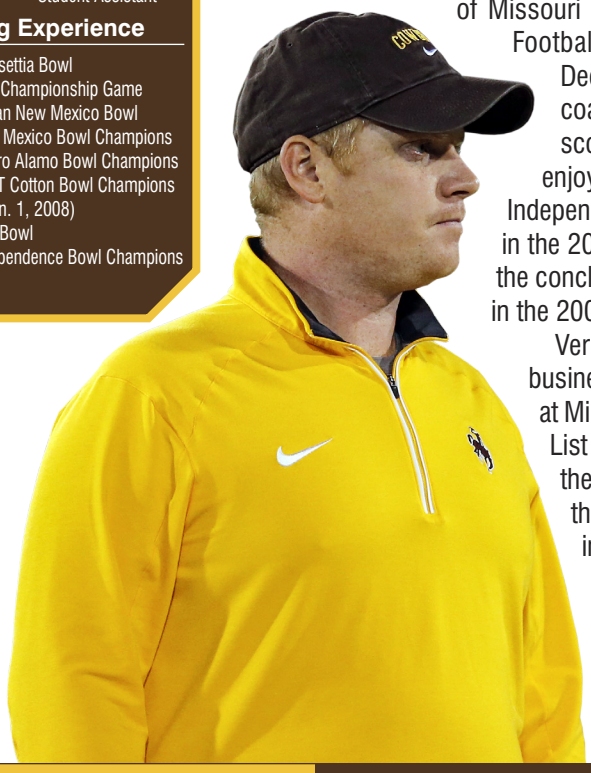
He previously served in the roles of Executive Assistant to the Head Coach and Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2012. In 2011, Vernon served as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting, being promoted from his previous position as the Cowboys' offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and '10.

In his current role, Vernon coordinates a variety of administrative duties for Cowboy Football, including: planning team travel, monitoring the football budget and helping coordinate team functions.

While serving as the Director of Recruiting in 2011, Vernon was responsible for coordinating all recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football, including: implementing Wyoming's recruiting plan for the year, scheduling recruiting travel, organizing recruiting weekends, assuring compliance with NCAA rules relative to recruiting and managing the recruiting budget.

Vernon was Wyoming's offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and 2010. He assisted with practice preparation, scout team coordination and a variety of other administrative and coaching duties for the Cowboy Offense. He also was involved in signaling plays from the sideline on game days.

Wyoming's appearance in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl was the seventh bowl game that Vernon had been a part of in his young career. He of course shared in Wyoming's appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and its 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, as the Cowboys defeated Fresno State 35-28 in double overtime. While a student assistant at Missouri, the Tigers appeared in four consecutive bowl games from 2005-08.



He came to Wyoming in the winter of 2009 from the University of Missouri where he was a student assistant with the Mizzou Football program for five seasons from August 2004 to December 2008. At Missouri, he assisted the tight ends' coach, broke down practice and game film and prepared scouting reports. During that five-year span, Missouri enjoyed unprecedented success. The Tigers won the 2005 Independence Bowl over South Carolina, played Oregon State in the 2006 Sun Bowl, won the Cotton Bowl over Arkansas at the conclusion of the 2007 season and defeated Northwestern in the 2008 Alamo Bowl.

Vernon completed his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in management, at Missouri in December of 2008. Vernon achieved Dean's List honors all four years of college. He was also named the University of Missouri Athletics' Student Assistant of the Year in 2008. He and his wife, Emily, were married in the summer of 2017.

JUSTIN MESA

(USC '07)

Director of Player Personnel

Justin Mesa was hired as Wyoming's new Director of Player Personnel in the summer of 2017. He comes to Wyoming from Dixie State University where he coached the wide receivers in 2016. Mesa also coordinated the field goal and point-after touchdown units on special teams for the Trailblazers. He recruited central and northern California, as well as the state of Utah while at Dixie State.

Prior to his recent coaching position at Dixie State, Mesa served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Loyola High School in Los Angeles, Calif., for three seasons from 2013-15.

Mesa spent six seasons serving in a variety of administrative and coaching roles at the University of Southern California from 2007-12. He originally was involved as a recruiting and operations assistant at USC in 2007. In 2008, Mesa assisted in coaching the Trojan wide receivers. The 2009 season saw Mesa being hired as a graduate assistant coach. He was elevated to an assistant quarterback coaching position in 2010. For two seasons from 2011-12, Mesa coached the USC tight ends.

While at USC, Mesa was part of the Trojans' Rose Bowl Championship teams at the conclusion of the 2007 and 2008 seasons. He was also on the coaching staff when USC won the 2009 Emerald Bowl and earned a berth in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

Mesa completed his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from USC in 2007. He is currently working on his master's degree in communication, also through USC.

SUPPORT STAFF

Haley Walsh

Cowboy Football Office Manager

Haley Walsh is entering her seventh year as office manager for the Wyoming Football program, having joined the athletic department in June of 2011.

As one of the first staff members that visitors to the Wyoming Football program meet, Walsh is an important contributor in projecting a positive image for Cowboy Football. Included in her responsibilities are: helping coordinate coaches' travel, assisting with practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules, aiding with recruiting, maintaining information on players and coaches and helping coordinate summer camps.

Walsh came to the Cowboy Football program from the University of Wyoming Foundation where she worked from October of 2009 until June 2011. While at the UW Foundation, she was an administrative assistant to the major gift officers. Prior to that, she worked for the City Engineer in Sheridan, Wyo. for one year, and worked at the Albany County Clerk's Office in Laramie, Wyo., from 2003-08 as an election clerk.

A 2001 graduate of Laramie High School, Walsh grew up on her family's ranch west of Laramie.

Jake Chapman

Video Coordinator for Cowboy Football

Jake Chapman joined the Wyoming Athletics Department in January of 2014 as video coordinator for Cowboy Football. Chapman coordinates filming of all practice and game footage for Wyoming Football, and supervises a group of student filmers. He is proficient is utilizing XOS Thunder and DragonFly Software for editing practice footage. He posts edited video footage with the use of XOS ThunderCloud IPad software and makes that footage available to members of the Wyoming Football coaching staff and players for film study. Chapman also coordinates recruiting video on potential recruits, which is utilized by the Cowboy coaching staff in all recruiting efforts. He provides video content for a variety of recruiting events during the year. Management of UW Football meeting rooms is one of Chapman's other responsibilities. He also assists television networks when they arrive on campus by providing video footage for review by TV announce crews.

Prior to Wyoming, Chapman served as the football video coordinator at North Dakota State from 2012 through 2013. His responsibilities at NDSU mirrored those he performs as video coordinator at Wyoming. In addition, Chapman helped conduct facility and campus tours and assisted with coordinating recruit visit schedules for coaches. He supervised student assistant filmers.

Chapman's first video coordinator position came while he was a student at Ohio University. He served as the football video coordinator from 2009-12.

In 2011, Chapman served as a ballpark operations intern at Goodyear Ballpark in Goodyear, Ariz. His initial work in minor-league baseball came as director of player operations and equipment manager for the Southern Ohio Copperheads from 2009-10.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with minors in business administration and economics from Ohio U. in 2012.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

Aaron Bohl

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Aaron Bohl joined the Wyoming coaching staff in the January of 2017 as a defensive graduate assistant. Bohl came to Wyoming from Minnesota State University Moorhead, where he completed his collegiate playing career in 2016. He will be involved in helping create scouting reports on upcoming opponents, assisting the defensive coaching staff in producing practice plans, helping in developing game plans and will assist in recruiting activities on campus. Bohl was a four-year starter and three-year captain at Minnesota State Moorhead from 2013-16. As a linebacker, he started all 11 games each of his four seasons. Bohl earned Second Team All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) honors his senior season, while recording 71 total tackles (34 solo tackles and 37 assists), 4.5 sacks, 7.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. He helped lead Minnesota State Moorhead to a 7-4 overall record and 5-2 conference record placing third in the North Division of the NSIC in 2016. For his career, Bohl was credited with 273 career tackles, 8.0 sacks, 22 tackles for loss, eight pass breakups, one interception, two fumble recoveries and four forced fumbles. Bohl graduated in December 2016 from MSUM with a math education degree. As a high school player at Lincoln East High School in Lincoln, Neb., Bohl was a Honorable Mention All-State honoree and earned All-Conference and All-City honors. He served as a team captain in high school, earning three letters in football. Bohl also lettered in basketball and track. He and his wife, Anna, were married in the summer of 2017. He is the son of University of Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl.

Jacob Claborn

Offensive Graduate Assistant/Tight Ends

Jacob Claborn is in his second season as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Wyoming. He will work directly with the Cowboy tight ends again in 2017. In 2016, Claborn coached First Team All-Mountain West tight end Jacob Hollister, who went on to sign a free-agent contract with the New England Patriots. He was part of a Wyoming team that won the Mountain Division of the Mountain West Conference and played in the 2016 MW Championship Game. The Cowboys went on to earn a spot in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. Claborn came to Wyoming in the spring of 2016 after coaching the offensive line as a full-time assistant coach at Central Washington University in Ellensburg, Wash., for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Prior to that, Claborn spent two seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minn., in 2012 and 2013. He served as the run-game coordinator, offensive line coach and tight ends coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran, for the 2011 season after coaching the O-Line and tight ends there in 2009 and 2010. He was originally a student assistant at Cal Lutheran in 2007 and '08. During his time in college coaching, Claborn has coached one NCAA FBS All-Conference performer, five NCAA Division II All-Conference players, an NCAA Division III All-American and 12 Division III All-Conference performers. He participated in the NCAA Future Football Coaches Academy in 2013. Claborn achieved his bachelor's degree in exercise science and sports medicine from Cal Lutheran in 2009. He completed his master's degree in educational administration and leadership from St. Cloud State in 2014. He is studying instructional technology at Wyoming. Claborn is originally from Santa Maria, Calif. He and his wife, Brett, have one daughter, Harper, and one son, Collin.

Josh Firm

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Josh Firm is in his third year with Cowboy Football in 2017. He moved into the role of offensive graduate assistant for Wyoming Football in the spring of 2016, after previously serving as the Cowboys' recruiting graduate assistant during the 2015 season. He was part of a Wyoming team that won the Mountain Division of the Mountain West Conference and played in the 2016 MW Championship Game. The Cowboys went on to earn a spot in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. As an offensive graduate assistant, Firm will assist in practice preparation and preparing scouting reports, as well as assisting the Cowboy coaching staff on game days. As UW's recruiting graduate assistant, he assisted the director of recruiting with all facets of the recruiting process, including: collecting recruiting information for review by the Cowboy coaching staff, assisting with recruit visits, helping produce recruiting materials and assisting in scheduling recruiting trips by Wyoming coaches. He began his coaching career in the spring and summer of 2013 as a player/coach for the Calanda Broncos in Chur, Switzerland, where he was the starting QB and co-offensive coordinator. In August of 2013, he returned to his alma mater, Missouri University of Science and Technology as an assistant coach for the running backs. From January 2014 to June 2014, Firm served as the offensive coordinator for the Bron-Villeurbanne Falcons in Lyon, France. Firm came to Wyoming in July 2014 to serve as an intern with Cowboy Football. Firm played his college football at Missouri S&T where he was the Miners' starting quarterback in 2011 and 2012, earning Great Lakes Football Conference All-Academic honors in 2011. Before transferring to Missouri S&T, Firm began his college playing career at Antelope Valley Community College in California. He earned his bachelor's degree in business management and information systems from Missouri S&T in 2013, and is currently working on his master's degree in instructional technology at Wyoming. He is originally from Lancaster, Calif.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

Ian McGrew

Recruiting Graduate Assistant

Ian McGrew is entering his second season as Wyoming's recruiting graduate assistant in 2017. He originally served as an intern with the Cowboy Football program in 2015. Among his duties as Wyoming's recruiting GA are: updating Wyoming's recruiting database, organizing and assisting in evaluation of potential recruits' videotape for review by the Cowboy coaching staff, helping coordinate campus visits by recruits and overseeing recruiting materials that are sent to potential recruits. He was part of a Wyoming team that won the Mountain Division of the Mountain West Conference and played in the 2016 MW Championship Game. The Cowboys went on to earn a spot in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. McGrew interned with the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League prior to coming to Wyoming. He assisted with scouting and football operations with the Rattlers. McGrew earned his bachelor's degree in sport business from the University of Tennessee-Martin in 2015. He is originally from Union City, Tenn.

Rob Schlaeger

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Rob Schlaeger came to Wyoming in January of 2017 and will work with the Cowboy defensive coaching staff. Schlaeger was most recently the outside linebackers coach at the University of West Florida, an NCAA Division II school in Pensacola, Fla., which played its inaugural season in 2016. Schlaeger developed practice plans for the outside linebackers created scouting reports on opponents and participated in constructing game plans for upcoming games. On game days, he communicated directly with the defensive coordinator from the coaching booth in the press box. Schlaeger recruited parts of Alabama, as well as recruiting the states of Minnesota and Iowa and Kansas junior colleges. West Florida went 5-6 in its first season of college football, including recording two shutouts and defeating No. 16 ranked Florida Institute of Technology. Prior to his one season at West Florida, Schlaeger was an undergraduate assistant at Southwest Minnesota State from December 2011 to June 2016. He assisted in coaching the linebackers for three seasons and spent one season working with the defensive secondary. His final season of 2015, he was promoted to a graduate assistant position responsible for coaching the outside linebackers. In 2013, Southwest Minnesota State earned its first-ever Division II bowl bid to the Mineral Water Bowl, and in 2015 it posted and 8-3 record -- its best record at the Division II level. Schlaeger earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and sport management from Southwest Minnesota State in 2015, and completed his master's degree in coaching of sport, also from Southwest Minnesota State, in 2016.

Doug Watterson

Administrative Graduate Assistant

Doug Watterson joined the Wyoming Football program as a graduate assistant in July 2016, and will be entering his second season as a member of the Cowboy staff in 2017. In his first season at Wyoming, he assisted in producing scouting reports, analyzing opponent film and providing input into game plans. He worked directly with the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in preparing practice plans for the Cowboy offense. Watterson also played a key role in hosting recruits on their campus visits to Laramie. He was part of a Wyoming team that won the Mountain Division of the Mountain West Conference and played in the 2016 MW Championship Game. The Cowboys went on to earn a spot in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. Before joining the Wyoming Football program, Watterson served as an offensive student assistant at his alma mater, Colorado State-Pueblo from May 2015 through June 2016. Watterson assisted in coaching the quarterbacks and wide receivers at CSU-Pueblo and helped Pueblo to its fifth consecutive Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Championship and the quarterfinals of the 2015 NCAA Division II Playoffs. He assisted in recruitinng California junior colleges and the states of Arizona and Texas. He was also heavily involved in summer football camps at Pueblo. As a player, Watterson was a quarterback at CSU-Pueblo. In the 2014 season, the Thunderwolves won the NCAA Division II National Championship. Watterson was forced to end his career after the 2014 season due to injury. He played the 2013 season at Los Angeles Valley Community College. Watterson completed his bachelor's degree in business administration, economics and finance at CSU-Pueblo in August 2016. He graduated summa cum laude from Pueblo, and is currently working on his master's degree in education and instructional technology at the University of Wyoming.

HONORS

- 2017 Maxwell Award Watch List
- 2017 Ranked by numerous NFL scouts as potential First Round Draft Pick
- 2016 Second Team All-Mountain West Conference
- 2016 Manning Award National Star of the Week vs. Utah State
- 2016 Two-time MW Offensive Player of the Week vs. N. Illinois and Utah State

UW This Season: Josh Allen is one of college football's top returning quarterbacks. He was named to the Maxwell Award Watch List in the summer of 2017. The Maxwell Award has been presented to the College Player of the Year since 1937. Numerous NFL scouts have rated Allen as a potential first round draft pick in the 2018 NFL Draft. He considered entering last year's NFL Draft, but decided to return to Wyoming for his junior season. Since the conclusion of the 2016 season, Allen was invited to and attended the Manning Passing Academy in June 2017. He also attended a special program approved by the NCAA for underclassmen at this past year's NFL Draft Combine in Indianapolis, Ind. 2016: Allen helped lead Wyoming to the 2016 Mountain Division title and a spot in the Mountain West Conference Championship Game. Wyoming hosted that championship game as the highest ranked team in the conference. The Cowboys went on to earn a berth in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. He was a key player in Wyoming's win over two Top 25 ranked teams in 2016, as the Cowboys also earned votes in the national polls. The Cowboy offense ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 25 in the nation in scoring offense, averaging 35.9 points per game. Wyoming led the conference and ranked 22nd nationally in first downs (312). As a team, UW averaged 15.27 yards per pass completion to rank No. 3 in the MW and No. 8 in the NCAA. The Cowboys converted 90.6 percent of their red-zone opportunities into points to rank No. 2 in the league and No. 14 in the country. As a sophomore, Allen ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 6 nationally in passing yards per completion (15.33 yards). He also led the MW and was No. 16 in the country in points responsible for (218). Allen threw 28 touchdown passes in 2016, placing him No. 1 in the conference and No. 20 in the NCAA. He was second in the MW and 32nd in the nation in passing yards (3,203). Allen was also No. 2 in conference and No. 40 in the nation in total offense (266.1 yards per game). His 3,203 passing yards in 2016 are the fifth best single-season total in Wyoming school history, and his 3,726 yards of total offense in a single season rank No. 3 in school history. His 36 touchdowns responsible for -- passing (28), rushing (7) and receiving (1) -- rank No. 2 in Wyoming history. Allen's 28 passing TDs rank as the third best single season at Wyoming. He had five games of 300+ yards of total offense: 315 vs. Northern Illinois; 327 vs. Boise State; 327 vs. Utah State; 366 at UNLV; and 338 vs. San Diego State in the regular-season meeting between the two schools. His high passing game was a 334-yard effort at UNLV, his high rushing game was 74 yards vs. Air Force and his high total offense game was 366 at UNLV (334 passing and 32 rushing). 2015: Allen saw action in the first two games of the 2015 season for the Pokes before suffering a season-ending injury. He was granted a medical hardship by the NCAA, restoring his sophomore season of eligibility in 2016. He earned his first career start against Eastern Michigan. Against Eastern Michigan, he was 3 of 4 passing for 32 yards, and he rushed for 40 yards on three carries with a long run of 24 yards. Allen also appeared in the season opener against North Dakota going 1 of 2 passing for 19 yards. For the season, Allen was 4 of 6 passing for 51 yards with three carries for 40 yards. Junior College: Allen led a Reedley Community College offense that averaged 452.2 yards of total offense per game to rank No. 9 among all California junior college teams in total offense. Reedley averaged 285.3 passing yards per game to rank No. 7 among all California JCs, scored 39.4 points per game to rank No. 10 in the state and averaged 166.9 yards rushing to rank 26th. Individually, Allen's 26 touchdown passes tied him for No. 7 among all California junior college quarterbacks in 2014. He also ranked 20th among California JUCO quarterbacks in passing yards as a freshman, and ranked 42nd in the state in rushing, averaging 66.0 yards per game. He played for head coach Randy Whited at Reedley College. High School: Allen played his high school football at Firebaugh High School in Firebaugh, Calif. Personal: He is the son of LaVonne and Joel Allen, and is majoring in communication.

GAME #1

Wyoming 40, NIU 34 3OT

Sept. 3, 2016
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The 2016 season opener for the Wyoming Cowboys resulted in one of the most memorable victories in the history of Cowboy Football. In triple overtime, the Pokes captured a 40-34 triple overtime home win over Northern Illinois to kick off the 120th season of Wyoming Football. The game was the longest in school history at 4 hours and 14 minutes.

In the third overtime the Cowboy defense held the Huskies on their final series of the contest. During the Cowboys' final possession on a third and four from the seven-yard line, UW sophomore quarterback Josh Allen scrambled out of the pocket and after avoiding several defenders dived into the end zone for the winning touchdown giving the Pokes' a 40-34 victory. Allen ended the night with 315 yards of total offense, with two touchdown passes and his game-winning rushing TD.

In addition to Allen's outstanding performance, junior running back Brian Hill rushed for 125 yards on 33 carries and scored two touchdowns, including a five-yard TD run in the second overtime. Senior wide receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt each had 100-yard receiving games. Gentry caught eight passes for 104 yards and one TD. Maulhardt had five receptions for 106 yards.

Defensively, sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard led the way with 12 tackles. Sophomore linebacker Logan Wilson and senior linebacker D.J. May each finished with nine tackles.

GAME #2

Wyoming 17, Nebraska 52

Sept. 10, 2016
Memorial Stadium
Lincoln, Neb.

After not committing a turnover in the season opener, the Cowboys recorded six total turnovers in a 52-17 loss at Big Ten foe Nebraska on Saturday afternoon in Memorial Stadium in Lincoln, Neb. The Pokes fall to 1-1 on the season, as the Huskers improve to 2-0.

The Husker offense recorded 550 yards of total offense on the day with 412 passing yards. The Cowboy offense produced 320 yards of total offense with 189 yards through the air.

Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry paced the Cowboy offense recording seven catches for 124 yards with one touchdown. He has five career 100-yard games and has 100 yards receiving in back-to-back contests. Sophomore Andrew Wingard finished with a game-high 13 tackles and one forced fumble. He has at least 10 tackles in six of his last seven games.

Allen was 16-of-32 passing for 189 yards with a touchdown and five interceptions. Hill rushed for 49 yards on 17 carries. He remains fifth in career rushing at Wyoming and is five yards short of passing Marques Brigham for fourth in school history.

Senior D.J. May recorded a career-high two tackles for loss for 10 yards against the Huskers. Sophomore Carl Granderson tied a career-high in tackles with six. Granderson added a sack and has a sack in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

GAME #3

Wyoming 45, UC Davis 22

Sept. 17, 2016
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

A fast start by the Wyoming Cowboys gave UW a 14-0 lead with only six minutes gone in the first quarter on way to a 45-22 home win over UC Davis as the Cowboys captured their third consecutive home victory. The Cowboy offensive attack featured a physical running game, accounting for 274 yards, while the UW defense held the Aggies to only 74 rushing yards and only 255 yards of total offense.

The 45 points scored by the Cowboys tied for the most in the Craig Bohl era. UC Davis' 22 points were the fewest by a Cowboy opponent since Nevada scored 21 in a 28-21 Cowboy victory last season. Wyoming led UC Davis 35-9 at halftime. That was the most points the Pokes had scored in a half since scoring 35 in the first half of a 59-56, double-overtime victory over Hawai'i in 2013.

Junior Brian Hill would end the day with 207 yards rushing and two TD runs. It was the sixth 200-yard rushing game of his career, and his 13th 100-yard game. Hill began the day fifth on Wyoming's career rushing list and ended the day third. He now has 2,808 career rushing yards. Hill passed former Cowboys Marques Brigham (2,605 yards from 1995-98) and Wynel Seldon (2,672 yards from 2005-08).

The Cowboy defense was led by cornerback Antonio Hull, who had eight tackles and 1.0 tackle for a loss. He was joined by strong safety Marcus Epps, who had seven tackles and forced a fumble.

GAME #4

Wyoming 24, Eastern Michigan 27

Sept. 23, 2016
Rynearson Stadium
Ypsilanti, Mich.

A late touchdown drive and interception by Eastern Michigan lifted the Eagles past the University of Wyoming, 27-24 on Friday in Rynearson Stadium in Ypsilanti, Mich. The Pokes fall to 2-2 with the Eagles moving to 3-1 on the season.

The Cowboys recorded four interceptions on the day including two for touchdowns. It was the most interceptions since recording four against Ole Miss in Laramie in 2004. It was also the first time UW had returned two interceptions for touchdowns since 2013 against Northern Colorado.

Sophomore Marcus Epps recorded two interceptions for the Cowboys including one for a touchdown. Redshirt freshman Logan Wilson also returned an interception for a touchdown. Sophomore Antonio Hull added his first career interception as a Cowboy.

Redshirt sophomore Josh Allen was 19-of-29 passing for 234 yards. Junior running back Brian Hill rushed for 82 yards on 22 carries. He now needs 74 yards to become Wyoming's all-time leader in rushing. Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry had a career-high 12 receptions for 127 yards. It was his sixth game with over 100 yards in his career and third this season.

GAME #5

Wyoming 38, Colorado State 17

Oct. 1, 2016
Hughes Stadium
Fort Collins, Colo.

A balanced effort by the Cowboy offense, defense and special teams lifted Wyoming (3-2, 1-0 MW) past Colorado State (2-3, 0-1 MW) 38-17 on Saturday evening in Hughes Stadium in Fort Collins, Colo. Junior running back Brian Hill became UW's all-time rushing leader and became the first UW back to reach 3,000 career rushing yards.

The Cowboys also earned the "Bronze Boot" in the process for the first time since 2012. The "Bronze Boot" game record swings in the Pokes' favor at 25-24 after Saturday's win.

Hill finished the game with 166 yards with one touchdown on 19 carries. He was the first 100 yard rusher against the Rams this season. He passed Devin Moore's career rushing mark on a 39-yard run in the second quarter. He now has 3,056 rushing yards in his career. Not to be out done senior punter Ethan Wood was effective as well. Wood punted six times, averaging 44.5 yards per punt. He pinned the Rams inside their own 20-yard line four times.

The Pokes rushed for 284 yards on the night and went 4-of-4 in the red zone. The Cowboy defense played a big role helping UW score 14 points off of turnovers. The Cowboy defense added a defensive touchdown for back-to-back games with a defensive score. Wyoming has now forced 10 turnovers during the 2016 season (7 interceptions and 3 fumbles). Wyoming forced 10 total turnovers in 2015 (5 interceptions and 5 fumbles).

Allen finished the game with 165 passing yards with one touchdown. He also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown. Gentry has caught a pass in 24-straight games. With 15 carries for 54 yards, Wick moved into sixth place on UW's all-time rushing yards list.

GAME #6

Wyoming 35 Air Force 26

Oct. 8, 2016
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

An aggressive Wyoming defense that forced four Air Force turnovers and a balanced Cowboy offense that generated 189 yards rushing and 173 passing led the Wyoming Cowboys to a 35-26 home win over the Falcons.

For Air Force, it was the Falcons' first loss of the season, dropping them to 4-1 and 1-1 in the Mountain West. The Falcons came into the game allowing opponents only 53 rushing yards per game, but the Cowboys were able to generate 189 rushing yards, including 92 by junior running back Brian Hill and 74 by sophomore quarterback Josh Allen.

Forcing turnovers were key for the Cowboys for the second straight week. The Pokes intercepted the Falcons three times and senior linebacker D.J. May returned an Air Force fumble for 15 yards and a touchdown.

May's TD marked the third consecutive game that the Wyoming defense scored at least one touchdown. Sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps picked off an Air Force pass in the first quarter. Sophomore cornerback Antonio Hull intercepted two passes -- one late in the third quarter and a second interception on Air Force's final possession with 1:43 remaining in the game to seal the victory for the Pokes.

The Cowboys built a 28-6 lead late in the third quarter, but Air Force fought its way back into the game with three consecutive touchdowns to pull with two points at 28-26 with 3:31 remaining in the game.

GAME #7 NEVADA

Wyoming 42, Nevada 34

Oct. 22, 2016
Mackay Stadium
Reno, Nev.

Junior running back Brian Hill rushed for a career-high 289 leading the Pokes to a 42-34 win over Nevada on Saturday evening in Mackay Stadium in Reno, Nev. With the win the Cowboys move to 5-2 overall and 3-0 in Mountain West. It is the best start in conference play for the Pokes since moving to the conference.

Hill had seven rushes over 15 yards on the night and added a career-high three touchdowns. It was the highest rushing total in the MW this season and the second most in school history. He now owns four of the top-10 single-game rushing outputs in school history.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen threw for 145 yards on 9-of-13 passing. He also rushed for 52 yards with two touchdowns and one receiving touchdown. Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry had four grabs for 109 yards.

Sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard recorded 11 tackles on the night. He has double-digit tackles in 12 career games. Redshirt freshman Logan Wilson added nine tackles tying a career high. He added a sack and an interception to seal the game for the Pokes. Sophomore Antonio Hull had a career-high 10 tackles for the Wyoming.

Hill was on fire in the opening quarter running for 97 yards. On his first touch of the contest, he sprinted past the Wolf Pack defenders for a 41-yard gain. He would later put the Pokes on the board first on a 56-yard rush to make it 7-0.

GAME #8 BOISE STATE

Wyoming 30, Boise State 28

Oct. 29, 2016
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

Wyoming defeated #13 ranked Boise State 30-28 in War Memorial Stadium in a come-from-behind win.

A fourth-quarter touchdown drive led by redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen and a safety forced by senior nose tackle Chase Appleby with 1:25 remaining in the game gave Wyoming its first win over a Top 25 ranked team since 2002 and earned the Cowboys sole possession of first place in the Mountain West Conference's Mountain Division, with a 4-0 conference mark. The Pokes trailed the entire game until that fourth quarter TD and two-point conversion tied the game at 28-28, and the safety gave them their first lead.

On the night, Cowboy quarterback Allen posted a career best 274 yards passing. Hollister recorded a career best 144 yards receiving, and Hill rushed for 146 yards for his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season.

With 10:50 remaining in the game, Boise State grabbed a 28-20 lead following a five-play, 78-yard TD drive. The Cowboys would take the ball at their own 25-yard line on the ensuing possession and began their drive with two runs of nine and two yards by junior running back Brian Hill. Allen then dropped back and fired a pass to the back of the end zone and Gentry jumped over the Bronco defender pulling in the TD pass to get the Cowboys to within two points at 28-26 with 6:42 remaining. Allen worked some more magic on the two-point conversion. He was flushed out of the pocket to his right and then threw back across the field to the middle of the end zone, hitting Maulhardt to tie the game at 28-28.

GAME #9

Wyoming 52, Utah State 28

Nov. 5, 2016
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys scored on their first two drives of the game and scored 35 points in the first half on way to a 52-28 home win over the Utah State Aggies on Saturday.

Saturday's victory extended the Cowboys' winning streak to five games, and their home winning streak to six straight. The last time Wyoming won five consecutive games was back in 1998, when UW won seven straight. The 1998 season was also the last time Wyoming started a season this well. Through the first nine games of '98, Wyoming was 8-1. Six consecutive home victories has not been accomplished since a stretch from 2006 to 2007.

Wyoming's 52 points Saturday were the most scored during the three years of the Craig Bohl era, and the 24-point margin of victory was the largest of the season for the Pokes.

Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen had another outstanding night, completing 16 of 26 passes (61.5 percent) for 261 yards. He threw four touchdown passes and one interception. Allen also ran for 66 yards and another TD. The four TD passes were a career high. The 327 yards of total offense matched his career high set a week ago in the Cowboys win over Boise State. Allen came into Saturday's game leading the Mountain West in points responsible for, averaging 14.5 points per game passing, running and receiving. He was responsible for 30 points against Utah State, with his four TD passes and one rushing touchdown.

GAME #10

Wyoming 66, UNLV 69 3OT

Nov. 12, 2016
Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev.

The Wyoming Cowboys fought back from a 13-point deficit in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 52-52 on the last play of regulation, sending their game versus UNLV into overtime on Saturday afternoon in Las Vegas. But after exchanging touchdowns with UNLV in the first two overtimes, the Rebels intercepted the Pokes in the third overtime and a 40-yard field goal by UNLV's Nicolai Bornand resulted in a 69-66 win for the Rebels. It was the Cowboys first loss in Mountain West Conference play this season.

Gentry had a career day receiving for the Cowboys with 184 yards on five catches and three touchdowns. In addition to his 19-yard TD catch on the final play of regulation to force overtime. Gentry made a spectacular reception at the end of the first half, catching a 48-yard pass one-handed with a defender hanging on him to pull the Cowboys to within three points at 24-27.

While the Cowboys generated 485 yards of total offense, they gave up 653 total yards to UNLV, including 401 rushing yards. Forcing opponent turnovers, while limiting its own turnovers had been a strength for Wyoming all season, but turnovers hurt the Pokes on Saturday. UW turned the ball over four times on two lost fumbles and two interceptions. The Cowboys were able to force only one turnover by UNLV.

GAME #11

Wyoming 34, San Diego State 33

Nov. 19, 2016
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

In a season of spectacular finishes for the Wyoming Cowboys, Saturday night's win over No. 24 ranked San Diego State was one for the record books. It ended a perfect 6-0 regular season at home for the Cowboys for the first time since 1996. The win was Wyoming's second over a Top 25 ranked team in 2016, marking the first time the Cowboys had defeated two Top 25 teams in the same season since 1999. The Cowboys improved their record to 8-3 and 6-1 in the Mountain West Conference to maintain a tie for first place in the Mountain Division.

Wyoming did not lead in the game until taking a 34-27 lead with only 1:07 remaining in the game on a 29-yard touchdown pass from redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen to redshirt freshman wide receiver C.J. Johnson. It was a meticulous drive by the Pokes, going 85 yards in 15 plays and taking six minutes and 14 seconds off the clock.

The final stats showed the Cowboys with 487 yards of total offense to San Diego State's 389. Wyoming finished with an decisive advantage in time of possession -- 36:43 to 23:17. Wyoming's defense recorded 6.0 tackles for loss on the day and 4.0 sacks.

Highlights for the Cowboys included Allen completing 16 of 31 passes (51.6 percent) for 282 yards, two TDs and one interception. He added 56 rushing yards for 338 yards of total offense, marking his fourth consecutive game with 300 or more yards in total offense.

GAME #12

Wyoming 35, New Mexico 56

Nov. 26, 2016
University Stadium
Albuquerque, N.M.

The New Mexico rushing attack was too much for the Cowboys to overcome in a 56-35 loss to the Lobos on Saturday evening in University Stadium in Albuquerque, N.M. The Pokes allowed a school record 568 rushing yards. It was the most since allowing 548 to Wisconsin on Oct. 6, 1973.

With the loss the Pokes fall to 8-4 overall and 6-2 in the MW. New Mexico improved to 8-4 and 6-2 in the MW to earn a share of the Mountain Division crown with Wyoming and Boise State. The Pokes own the tie breaker and will play in the MW Championship next Saturday in a site to be determined.

Junior running back Brian Hill rushed 126 yards with three touchdowns on the night. He broke his single-season rushing record of 1,631 last season. Hill has rushed for 1,674 this season. He also went over 4,000 career rushing yards becoming the third running back in conference history. to reach the mark. He now has 4,101 rushing yards in his career. He tied Eddie Talboom's school record 34 rushing touchdowns with his three scores on the night.

Senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry grabbed five catches for 112 yards. He now has 1,132 yards receiving this season ranking sixth in single-season school history. He also has 2,621 in his career with the Cowboys ranking sixth in career receiving yards.

Senior linebacker Lucas Wacha recorded nine tackles on the night along with sophomore safety Andrew Wingard. Wacha has 334 career tackles, as he tied Tyler Gottschalk (2000-03) for eighth in career tackles with 334.

GAME #13

Wyoming 27, San Diego State 24

MW Championship Game - Dec. 3, 2016
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys were looking for one more magical finish, but it wasn't to be as they fell by three points, 27-24, to the San Diego State Aztecs in the 2016 Mountain West Conference Football Championship Game on Saturday in Laramie.

Trailing by 14 points, 24-10, heading into the fourth quarter, Wyoming rallied with an eight-play, 75-yard drive to start the fourth. That drive included two 15-yard passes from Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen to tight end Tyree Mayfield and wide receiver Jake Maulhardt. The drive would end with a familiar play for Cowboy fans -- a 33-yard touchdown strike from Allen to wide receiver Tanner Gentry in the right corner of the end zone to pull to within seven at 24-17.

The Cowboy defense would force SDSU into a punt on its next possession, putting the Pokes in a position for a drive to tie the game. But the Aztec defense would quickly come up with a big play of its own. On third and nine from the Wyoming 14, it appeared that Allen was going to run for a first down but SDSU linebacker Jay Henderson stripped Allen and Aztec defensive end Kyle Kelley recovered the fumble at the UW 22.

The first half was dominated by defense, as Wyoming allowed San Diego State only 160 total yards and the Aztecs gave up only 122 to the Cowboys.

At the end of the game, Wyoming had 343 yards of total offense and San Diego State had 327.

GAME #14

Wyoming 21, BYU 24

Dec. 21, 2016
Qualcomm Stadium
San Diego, Calif.

A furious comeback by the Cowboys fell short in a 24-21 loss to BYU in the Twelfth Annual Poinsettia Bowl in Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, Calif.

Wyoming recorded 373 yards of total offense on the night with BYU recording 313. UW recorded 254 yards of offense in the second half, while only allowing 167 yards in the second stanza. BYU rushed for 216 yards on the evening with Jamaal Williams accounting for 210 of those yards.

Junior running back Brian Hill rushed for 93 yards on 26 carries. He finished the season with 1,860 yards. He now has 4,287 yards in his career at UW. He also has 35 career touchdowns after scoring Wyoming's first touchdown. He stands all alone in career rushing touchdowns at UW.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Allen was 17-of-32 passing for 207 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions.

In a rain soaked game that was Wyoming's first game on natural grass since last season, UW battled back to within three points at 24-21 with under two-minutes remaining after trailing 24-7. UW falls to 6-18 in their 14 Bowl appearances.

LARRY BIRLEFFI PRESS ROOM

flanked by former UW Athletics Director Paul Roach (on left) acknowledges the crowd on Oct. 17, 1992, the day UW dedicated the press area in the War Memorial Stadium Press Box as "The Larry Birleffi Press Room".

In 1992 the University of Wyoming Athletics Department honored long-time newspaper, radio and TV personality Larry Birleffi, by naming the working press area in the War Memorial Stadium media facility after him.

For over 50 years, and 1200 events, Birleffi covered the Cowboys and Cowgirls for newspaper, radio and television. While coaches, players and fans have come and gone, Birleffi was there. He was the one common thread through the tapestry that is Wyoming tradition. He carried the word of Wyoming athletics longer, and more effectively, than any other. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born in Hartville, Wyoming's first incorporated town on April 17, 1918, Birleffi graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1942. He had begun covering the Cowboys for the UW student newspaper the Branding Iron in 1937.

Birleffi died on September 27, 2008.

THE BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Honoring the Nation's Top Receiver

MARCUS HARRIS, 1996

Marcus Harris is presented with the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver in 1996.

One of Wyoming's most decorated football players, Marcus Harris was a consensus All-American in 1996, being selected First Team All-American by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Football News. In 1996, he won the Biletnikoff Award (named after former Oakland Raiders receiver Fred Biletnikoff), symbolic of the nation's top receiver. He also finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996. During his college career, Harris became the NCAA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 4,518 career yards, and he remains the only receiver in NCAA history to have three 1,400 yard receiving seasons. With his 1,650 yards in 1996, Harris led the nation in receiving yards, earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight year, and was named the WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

MOUNTAIN WEST

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 18th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

2016-17 In Review

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams continue to be competitive in the national landscape. In football, the fourth annual MW Football Championship game took place on December 3, 2016 at War Memorial Stadium in Laramie, Wyoming. The Cowboys, champions of the Mountain Division, hosted two-time defending West Division champion San Diego State with the Aztecs claiming their second-consecutive Conference title, 27-24.

For the fourth straight season, the Mountain West sent seven or more teams into postseason bowl games. MW Champion San Diego State earned a spot in the Las Vegas Bowl, where it scored 34 unanswered points on Houston, out of the American Athletic Conference, gliding to a 34-10 victory.

The league has earned 84 bowl bids since 1999 and holds a 46-38 (.548) all-time record. The 2016 bowl season marked the 10th consecutive year the MW sent at least five teams to bowls and the 13th time overall since the league's inception.

Nevada captured the Mountain West regular-season and tournament titles, becoming the first men's basketball program to win both championships in the same season since New Mexico in 2013. The Wolf Pack earned the league's lone bid to the NCAA Tournament. Colorado State, Boise State and Fresno State each participated in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT), while Wyoming became the second MW team in as many seasons to win the College Basketball Invitational (CBI).

In women's basketball, Boise State claimed its second Mountain West Tournament title in program history to secure the league's automatic bid to the NCAA postseason. MW regular-season champion Colorado State was the Conference's automatic qualifier into the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT), where it was joined by UNLV and Wyoming. Utah State participated in the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI).

The Mountain West sent three women's volleyball teams to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2009. MW champion Boise State claimed the league's automatic bid, while Colorado State and UNLV joined the Broncos in the postseason as at-large selections. Both Boise State and UNLV captured first round victories.

For the first time since 2006 and the third time in program history, UNLV captured the Mountain West Women's Soccer Championship crown. The title earned the Rebels their fourth NCAA Tournament appearance as members of the Conference.

Five Mountain West cross country student-athletes earned all-American accolades at the NCAA Championships. In the team event at the NCAA Championships, the New Mexico women placed seventh, giving the Lobos a top-10 finish in the team standings in seven consecutive years. The Lobos earned their ninth consecutive MW women's title, while Boise State claimed the men's crown for the first time in program history.

Colorado State's Mostafa Hassan (Shot Put) and Josh Kerr (Mile Run) of New Mexico became the first Mountain West male student-athletes to win individual national titles at the NCAA Championships since the Lobos' Kendall Spencer captured the Long Jump crown in 2012. A total of 23 MW student-athletes were named USTFCCCA All-Americans, including six individuals who garnered first-team accolades. At the Conference Championship meet, Colorado State swept both the men's and the women's titles.

New Mexico's Josh Kerr won gold in the 1,500-Meter Run and Allie Ostrander of Boise State captured the 3,000-Meter Steeplechase title at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships. Kerr and Ostrander were two of 49 Mountain West student-athletes who earned USTFCCCA All-America accolades. At the MW Outdoor T&F Championships, Air Force claimed the men's title for the second-straight year, while the San Diego State women captured their fourth league crown in program history.

Seven MW student-athletes earned all-America honors at the 2017 NCAA Women's Swimming & Diving Championships, including Sharae Zheng of Nevada who garnered a pair all-America accolades. Boise State captured the Mountain West Swimming & Diving title for the third time, while Air Force's Genevieve Miller became the first swimmer in league history to win four titles in two different events at the Conference championship.

Utah State men's tennis won the first Mountain West tournament title in any sport for the Aggies since joining the league prior to the 2013-14 season. Utah State earned the Conference's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. On the women's side, San José State won its first MW title and advanced to the NCAA postseason for the second time in program history. In individual competition, UNLV's Carol Zi Yang earned a bid to the NCAA Singles Championship.

For the second year in a row, UNLV swept the Mountain West men's and women's golf championships. The league sent three men's teams and four individuals to the NCAA regionals. It was the 18th consecutive season the MW sent at least three teams to NCAA regionals, while the four individuals are the most in Conference history. No. 17-ranked UNLV won the West Lafayette Regional and advanced to the NCAA Men's Golf Championship, where it was joined by New Mexico. The Rebels tied for seventh in the stroke play event to advance to the match play round, before falling to top seed Vanderbilt, 3-2.

On the women's side, the MW was represented by three teams and two individuals in the NCAA regionals. The league has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Women's Golf Regionals in 17 of its 18 years. It is the 13th time in 14 seasons in which the Conference has sent at least three teams to the postseason.

San José State won its first MW softball title and garnered the Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Fresno State joined the Spartans in the NCAA postseason after earning an at-large berth. In addition to the two NCAA bids, the Mountain West landed three squads in the National Invitational Softball Championships (NISC). Utah State earned an automatic berth into the 26-team field, while Boise State and Nevada garnered at-large selections. MW Player of the Year Jenavee Peres of San Diego State was named a second-team all-American by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

San Diego State earned the Mountain West's automatic bid to the NCAA Baseball Tournament after capturing the 2017 MW Championship title. New Mexico won the league's regular-season crown. Six student-athletes garnered all-America honors, while a total of 25 players were selected in the Major League Baseball draft. New Mexico's Luis Gonzalez was the first MW player off the board, as the center fielder was taken in the third round with the 87th overall pick by the Chicago White Sox.

Mountain West Commissioner Craig Thompson

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named Commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the Conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league enters its 18th season of competition in 2016-17, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for Mountain West institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West opened its doors on January 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW has flourished under the guidance of Commissioner Thompson and continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. He has been instrumental in negotiating nearly $300 million in television revenue and has been an innovator in the postseason bowl structure as MW teams have participated in six inaugural bowl games.

As conference realignment spread throughout the collegiate landscape, Thompson positioned the Mountain West for the future with the additions of Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012, and San José State University and Utah State University on July 1, 2013. The University of Hawai'i also joined the league as a football-only member on July 1, 2012, while Colorado College became a member in women's soccer on July 1, 2014.

Thompson's leadership and vision have helped the conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS Sports Network and ESPN, and becoming the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming around its athletic programs, as well as conference news. In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference. The Mountain West was also one of the first conferences to develop its own digital network. The Mountain West Network, powered by Campus Insiders, continues to expand and enhance the league's profile through live-event streaming and on-demand content.

Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the Mountain West in the college football landscape - both in the previous Bowl Championship Series (BCS) format and in the current College Football Playoff (CFP) structure. In 2006, he spearheaded an effort that resulted in better access for the MW and more than doubled the annual BCS revenue on an annual basis for non-automatic-qualifying conferences. The MW has been steadfast in its efforts to find a way to make the collegiate postseason football system fair for all universities. Through its first 17 years of competition, the Mountain West has participated in 76 bowl games, amassing a 42-35 (.545) all-time record in those contests.

Thompson is an integral part of the national landscape in intercollegiate athletics, holding many prestigious NCAA posts. He currently sits on the NCAA Division I Council and CFB Management Committee. In addition, Thompson is a member of the College Football Officiating Board of Managers, LLC. He also has served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee (1995-2000) and was appointed Chair of the committee in July 1999, completing his term September 1, 2000.

Over the tenure of his career, Thompson has been a member of the Executive Committee and the Director's Cup Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), as well as the governing NCAA Council and various Council subcommittees. He has also played a prominent role in hosting numerous men's and women's NCAA postseason basketball tournaments in St. Louis, Atlanta, New Orleans and Denver.

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly eight years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the merger of the two leagues in 1991.

During his eight years at the Sun Belt, he spent the majority of his time addressing national trends and challenges in intercollegiate athletics, television exposure, issues relating to conference membership and promoting corporate involvement. In 1997-98, the Sun Belt instituted a comprehensive sportsmanship policy, which earned Thompson designation as a 1998 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport. Under Thompson's leadership, the Sun Belt was active in expansion as it continued to strengthen its posture nationally, adding Florida International University and the University of Denver.

Prior to its merger with the Sun Belt, Thompson served as the first and only commissioner of the American South Conference, which boasted an NCAA national champion in women's basketball during its first year. The American South also gained immediate national cable television exposure on ESPN and sent numerous teams into NCAA postseason play during the conference's four-year history.

Preceding his move to commissioner, Thompson served four years as the Director of Communications for the Metro Conference in Atlanta. While at the Metro, he directed the communications operations and administered conference championship events. Thompson originated the Metro Conference Sportswriters and Broadcasters Association, began a weekly radio program with over 300 affiliate stations, and originated a weekly satellite video program involving all Metro institutions. He also took on administrative duties such as coordination of officials, scheduling of tournament and regular-season play, and handling of legislative rules interpretations.

Thompson graduated from the University of Minnesota with an undergraduate degree in journalism. Following graduation, he spent two years as assistant sports information director at Kansas State University, earning numerous CoSIDA publication awards. He then spent three years as director of public relations and promotions for the NBA's Kansas City Kings.

Thompson and his wife, Carla, have a son (Ted) and a daughter (Emma).

UW ADMINISTRATION

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING PRESIDENT LAURIE NICHOLS

Laurie Nichols began her duties as UW's 26th president May 16, 2016.

President Nichols had been the provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at South Dakota State University since 2009, helping the university of about 12,600 students advance on a number of fronts. Before that, she was dean of the SDSU College of Education and Human Sciences from 1994 to 2008. From August 2008 through mid-June 2009, Dr. Nichols served as interim president of Northern State University in Aberdeen, S.D. She began her career in higher education as a member of the faculty of the University of Idaho from 1988 to 1994.

"This is just an incredible opportunity for me, and I am beside myself with excitement at being able to come to Wyoming," Nichols says. "It's a great university and a wonderful state, and I don't think I could have found a better place and a better fit."

"We're delighted to have someone of Dr. Nichols' experience and enthusiasm agree to take the reins of the University of Wyoming," says Board of Trustees President Dave Palmerlee. "We're confident she will work well with the trustees and UW's many stakeholders to lift the university to new heights of excellence."

President Nichols was born and raised in South Dakota. A first-generation college graduate, she received a bachelor's degree in education from South Dakota State in 1978. She then earned a master's degree in vocational and adult education from Colorado State University in 1984 and a Ph.D. in family and consumer sciences education from Ohio State University in 1988.

Both South Dakota State and the University of Idaho are land-grant universities like UW; so are Colorado State University and Ohio State University, where Nichols earned her graduate degrees.

"I just really love the mission of land-grant universities – I have spent my whole life at them, and I am a product of them," Nichols says. "I believe in the mission of teaching, research, service and outreach, and I'm delighted that I will be leading a university that embraces that mission."

She and her husband, Tim, have two adult daughters.

TOM BURMAN
UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Tom Burman

During the past decade that Tom Burman has served as Athletics Director at the University of Wyoming, perhaps no year was more successful or more memorable than the 2016-17 year of competition.

It all began when Wyoming earned the right to host the 2016 Mountain West Football Championship Game by winning the Mountain Division and being the highest ranked team in the conference to end the regular season. The Cowboys defeated two Top 25 teams along the way and received votes themselves in the 2016 college football polls. The Pokes went on to post an 8-6 record and earn a bid to the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. Head coach Craig Bohl was voted the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year.

In the winter, Cowboy wrestling tied for 21st at the 2017 NCAA Championships, and Wyoming junior Bryce Meredith of Cheyenne placed fourth at 141 pounds and earned All-America honors for the second consecutive season.

A young Cowgirl basketball team captured a second-place finish in the Mountain West Conference for the 2016-17 season. The Cowgirls defeated then No. 15 ranked Colorado to conclude non-conference play. Wyoming proceeded to post a 22-10 overall record, and earned a Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) bid, advancing to the second round. Joe Legerski was selected the MW Coach of the Year.

Cowboy Basketball was led by first-year head coach Allen Edwards in the 2016-17 season. Wyoming ended its season on a high note by winning the 2017 College Basketball Invitational (CBI) Championship and posting a 23-15 record.

Another highlight from the winter season was the debut of two UW freshman divers who both placed at the 2017 NCAA Championships. Cowboy Scotia Mullin placed 14th in the platform and Cowgirl Karla Contreras placed 19th in the 1-meter competition, 22nd in the 3-meter and 37th in the platform event. Kyle Bogner was named the Men's Diving Coach of the Year for the Western Athletic Conference.

The spring season saw Cowgirl Tennis win a school record 18 matches, and post a perfect 10-0 home record. Wyoming was undefeated (5-0) in conference duals to win the Mountain Division. The Cowgirls advanced to the semifinals of the 2017 Mountain West Championships under the direction of head coach Dean Clower, who is the winningest coach in Wyoming Tennis history.

Cowboy golfer Ryan Wallen qualified for the 2017 NCAA Washington Regional, where he placed 38th.

Eleven members of the Cowboy and Cowgirl track and field team qualified for the 2017 NCAA West Preliminary in Austin, Texas. And for the first time since 2004, Wyoming track and field had both a Cowboy and a Cowgirl earn All-America honors at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Scott Carter captured the bronze medal in the men's triple jump at the 2017 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships to earn First Team All-America honors. Audra DeStefano earned Honorable Mention All-America honors by finishing 21st in the women's 3,000-meter steeplechase at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

"I care deeply about this University, the success of UW Athletics and the well-being of our student-athletes," Burman said upon his hiring. "We will build a program that wins championships, is a source of great pride to our alumni and generates enthusiasm across the state. The future starts now."

Since Burman was named to the position of Athletics Director on Oct. 9, 2006, Wyoming Athletics has enjoyed many of the most memorable moments in school history. He has hired some of the most accomplished head coaches in University of Wyoming history. Academically, Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes have achieved at exceptional levels. Fundraising and season-ticket sales have reached record levels in Burman's 10-plus years directing the UW Athletics department, and numerous facility projects have been completed. Burman has also scheduled many of the greatest events in Wyoming Athletics history.

Competitive Excellence

- Burman changed the course of Wyoming football in December 2013 when he hired Bohl as head coach. Bohl had coached North Dakota State to three consecutive FCS National Championships in 2011, '12 and '13, was named National Coach of the Year in 2012 and '13 and was part of two FBS National Championship teams as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, 1995 and '97.
- The Cowboys have made three bowl appearances during Burman's tenure as athletics director. Wyoming won the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, earned a bid to the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and played in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.
- In the spring of 2011, Burman hired Larry Shyatt away from his position as associate head coach at the University of Florida to return to Laramie and take over as head coach of Cowboy Basketball. Shyatt had been part of two National Championships with the Gators in 2006 and '07. Burman's hiring of Shyatt received numerous positive reviews, including an "A" rating from ESPN.com. Of the 19 coaching hires that ESPN.com rated, Wyoming received one of only five "A" ratings.
- The Cowboy Basketball team reached the Top 25 of the USA Today Coaches' Poll during the 2012-13 season and defeated No. 5 ranked San Diego State in the 2013-14 season before capturing the 2015 Mountain West Basketball Tournament Championship and earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.
- Burman promoted former Cowboy assistant coach Edwards to succeed Shyatt after Shyatt chose to step aside following the 2015-16 season. Edwards enjoyed a tremendous playing career at Kentucky from 1995-98 that included the Wildcats advancing to three consecutive NCAA Final Fours and winning two national titles in 1996 and '98.
- Cowgirl Basketball has achieved unprecedented success under the direction of head coach Legerski. Wyoming won the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) National Championship in the 2006-07 season, defeating Wisconsin, 72-56, in the championship game before a sold-out crowd in Laramie. In 2007-08, the Cowgirls earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. In the 2005-06, 2009-10, 2010-11, 2012-13 and 2016-17 seasons Wyoming also earned bids to the WNIT.
- Head wrestling coach Mark Branch was hired by Burman prior to the 2008-09 season. Branch has since been named the Western Wrestling Conference Coach of the Year three times at Wyoming. Branch was part of four NCAA Championships as associate head coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, and won two individual NCAA titles as a competitor at OSU in 1994 and '97.
- Wyoming wrestling joined the Big 12 Conference, beginning in the 2015-16 season.
- In 2016, sophomore wrestler Meredith earned his way to the NCAA national championship match at 141 pounds before falling just one point shy of capturing a national title. UW Wrestling posted an 18th-place team finish at the 2016 NCAA Championships, which was its best finish since 1996.
- Current track and field coach Bryan Berryhill is a fifth UW head coach who has achieved a national title and was hired by Burman. Berryhill captured individual NCAA national championships in the indoor 1-mile run and outdoor 1,500-meter run in 2001 at Colorado State.
- The 2014 women's soccer season saw the Cowgirls advance to the Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship game, while head coach Pete Cuadrado was named Mountain West Coach of the Year.
- The women's tennis team advanced to the 2015 Mountain West Conference Championship match, and head coach Clower earned MW Coach of the Year honors.

Academic Success and Student Services

- Under Burman's leadership, the University of Wyoming has increased resources in the areas of academic success and student-athlete well-being by over 100 percent. Increased funding of academic support for student-athletes has resulted in unprecedented success.
- For the second consecutive year University of Wyoming Athletics had 60 student-athletes earn Mountain West Conference Academic All-Conference honors during the 2016 fall semester. The 60 UW student-athletes tied for the most Cowboys and Cowgirls to earn Academic All-MW in a fall semester. It marked the second consecutive fall semester that UW had 60 individuals earn the honor.
- The combined student-athlete cumulative grade-point average for all University of Wyoming sports reached an all-time high for the 2016-17 academic year. That cumulative gpa was 3.13, and is the highest since the cumulative gpa has been tracked, starting in 2002. Five UW athletics teams also set 10-year highs in cumulative gpas. Those five teams were: men's basketball, women's basketball, men's golf, women's soccer and men's wrestling.
- Seven Cowboy and Cowgirl teams earned all-time high Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores in the most recent data released by the NCAA in May 2017. Men's basketball (955), women's basketball (987), football (964), men's golf (1,000), men's swimming and diving (987), women's tennis (1,000) and women's track and field (991) all recorded all-time high four-year rates for their programs.
- All of the University of Wyoming's athletics teams once again far exceeded the 930 minimum four-year average benchmark set by the NCAA to qualify for postseason competition. All of UW's athletics teams earned a multi-year APR score of 955 or higher.
- Wyoming men's golf and women's tennis teams were recognized by the NCAA for ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports' APR scores. Both Cowboy Golf and Cowgirl Tennis posted perfect four-year scores of 1,000. It was the fifth consecutive year that men's golf posted a perfect score and the third straight year that women's tennis achieved a perfect mark.
- A total of 60 Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes graduated during UW's spring graduation ceremonies. They joined a group of 20 UW student-athletes who graduated in December of 2016 for a total of 80 graduates this past academic year.
- Burman's commitment to student-athlete well-being is evident in the addition of several key staff devoted to improving the overall athletic and academic experience for student-athletes. These new staff members include: a full-time athletics department team physician, a sports nutritionist and additional sports medicine, sports performance and academic support staff members.

Revenue Generation/Facilities

- Wyoming Athletics shattered its annual fundraising record in the 2015-16 fiscal year as $20.4 million in pledges and gifts were made to UW Athletics. That broke the previous record of $12.8 million in pledges and gifts to UW Athletics that was also set during Burman's tenure as A.D. in the 2013-14 fiscal year.
- Cowboy Joe Club annual revenue grew from $2.1 million in 2006 to over $5 million as of the end of the 2015-16 fiscal year.
- In 2011, season-ticket sales for Wyoming Football surpassed the 10,000 season-ticket mark for the first time in school history.
- Burman has spearheaded over $100 million in facilities projects during his time as athletics director, including: construction of a new $11 million Indoor Practice Facility (Fall 2007); construction of the $22 million Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites addition to War Memorial Stadium (Fall 2010); extensive renovations to the east side of War Memorial Stadium; significant upgrades to the UniWyo Sports Complex for volleyball and wrestling; completion of a new $3 million Indoor Tennis Facility (Spring 2011); a new $1.2 million golf practice facility (Summer 2014); and Phase I and II of a $30 million renovation to the Arena-Auditorium that will be completed in the fall of 2017.
- The new Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center is currently under construction and will provide all UW student-athletes with a world-class training facility. The $44 million facility is being funded by $24 million in private donations and $20 million in matching funds from the state of Wyoming that were allocated with the support from the Wyoming State Legislature and Gov. Matt Mead. Construction of the facility began in December 2016 and will be completed in the summer of 2018.

Scheduling

- The 2017 season will see the Oregon Ducks make their first-ever appearance in Laramie. Burman negotiated a home-and-home series with Oregon. Oregon has been one of the most successful programs in the nation over the past decade. In January 2015, Oregon played in the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Game, and in January 2011 the Ducks played in the BCS National Championship Game.
- Burman scheduled the most-anticipated event in the history of War Memorial Stadium when the No. 9 ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers came to Laramie on Sept. 24, 2011, for the first time. It marked only the second time that a Big Ten football team had appeared in Laramie.
- Burman negotiated the 2009 appearance of the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns in War Memorial Stadium. The Longhorns made their first-ever appearance in Wyoming and went on to play for the 2009 National Championship, finishing as the national runner-up.
- In addition to Texas (2009), Nebraska (2011) and Oregon (2017), Burman has also secured future football contracts to bring the following teams to War Memorial Stadium: Washington State (2018), Missouri (2019) and Texas Tech (2023).

Before becoming A.D. at Wyoming, Burman had previously served as an Associate Athletics Director at UW from 1995-2000. His first position at his alma mater was as Associate Athletics Director for Development, serving as Executive Director of the Cowboy Joe Club from 1995-97. From 1997-2000, Burman was Wyoming's Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. During that time period, he was instrumental in raising funds for the $9.4 million Rochelle Athletics Center.

He served as Athletics Director at Portland State University from Sept. 2000 through March 2006. Burman returned to UW in March 2006 as Associate Vice President for Institutional Advancement with the UW Foundation, before being selected by President Tom Buchanan as the eighth athletics director in UW history.

Burman began his intercollegiate athletics career as Director of Marketing and Promotions (1993-95) at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho. Before entering a career in college athletics, he worked as a project manager for the sports management company DeWilber & Associates in McLean, Va., from 1990-92.

He earned a bachelor of science degree from Wyoming in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Robert Morris University in Coraopolis, Pa., in 1991. Burman is 51 years old, born Jan. 4, 1966. He and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Drew and Nathan.
