Josh Allen Earns Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week Honor:

Wyoming quarterback Josh Allen was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week on Monday after leading the Cowboys to a 40-34 triple overtime win against Northern Illinois last Saturday. Allen earned the honor in his first start of the 2016 season and only his second career start for the Cowboys.

Allen scored the winning touchdown on a spectacular seven-yard scramble in the third overtime to give Wyoming the home victory over NIU. Allen's game-winning touchdown came on a third-down and four play and was one of five third-down plays he converted into first downs or scores on the night. His third-down conversions included the seven-yard winning TD scamper, a 15-yard run, and pass completions of 14, 13 and five yards for first downs.

Against the Huskies, Allen completed 19 of 29 pass attempts (65.5 percent) for 245 yards, 2 TD passes and no interceptions. He also had 10 rushing attempts for 70 yards and one rushing TD (the game winning TD in the third overtime).

In the second half and overtime, Allen was spectacular completing 77.8 percent of his passes (14 of 18 passing) for 190 yards through the air.

The sophomore from Firebaugh, Calif., accounted for 315 yards in total offense, while leading the Pokes to 488 yards of total offense in the victory.

Allen connected with seven different receivers in the game, including two receivers who posted 100-yard receiving games. Senior Tanner Gentry ended with 104 yards receiving and one TD reception, and fellow senior Jake Malhaurdt had 106 yards.

Cowboys Attract Attention from ESPN With Week 1 Success: Wyoming attracted attention from ESPN this past weekend when College GameDay host Desmond Howard (@DesmondHoward) picked the Cowboys as his "Super Dog" pick to upset the favored Northern Illinois Huskies.

Following the Cowboys 40-34, triple overtime win over the Huskies, Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen's winning TD run was highlighted in the weekend's top plays at No. 9.

Making History -- Longest Game in Cowboy History: Last Saturday's 40-34, triple overtime victory over Northern Illinois was one of the most memorable in Wyoming history.

The game was the longest in school history at 4 hours and 14 minutes. It eclipsed a 53-45 triple overtime Wyoming victory over UNLV on Nov. 6, 2004 in Las Vegas. That 2004 win lasted 4 hours and three minutes.

Thunderstorms forced a one hour and 43-minute delay prior to the opening kickoff against Northern Illinois. The game was originally scheduled to kick off at 8:37 p.m., but was delayed until 10:20 p.m., which made it the latest kickoff in Wyoming Football history. The game ended at 2:34 a.m., making it the latest finish to a game in Cowboy history.

Balanced Offense: A more balanced offense was something the Wyoming Cowboys were striving for entering the 2016 season, and in the season opener against Northern Illinois they accomplished that. The Pokes rushed for 243 yards versus NIU and threw for 245 yards for a total of 488 yards of total offense.

Balanced Offense Part Two -- 100-Yard Cowboys: As part of the balanced offensive attack that Wyoming displayed in its 2016 season opener, there was also a good balance among individual Cowboys.

Junior running back Brian Hill recorded the 12th 100-yard rushing game of his career, with 125 yards against Northern Illinois.

Key Stats: Among the key stats for the Wyoming Cowboys in their season-opening win over Northern Illinois were:

- Wyoming controlled the ball, possessing it 35 minutes and 39 seconds to NIU's 24:21.
- The Cowboys did not commit a turnover, while coming up with a critical turnover in overtime
- UW did not allow a single sack of quarterback Josh Allen.

WYOMING FOOTBALL 2016

Taking a Stand: The Wyoming Defense took a stand on Saturday night. The Cowboy defenders allowed Northern Illinois to convert only 5 of 18 third-down attempts on the night, and came up with the only turnover of the game in the first overtime on a fumble recovery by freshman linebacker Logan Wilson. Wilson made that recovery at the four-yard line in the first overtime, ending a Northern Illinois threat.

Then in the third overtime, the Cowboy defense came up with a huge stop of the NIU offense, giving the ball back to the Cowboys for what would be the eventual game-winning possession.

Pokes Looking for Third Consecutive

Win: The Wyoming Cowboys will be looking for their third consecutive win when they travel to Lincoln, Neb., this Saturday to face Nebraska. UW ended the 2015 season with a 35-28 home win over UNLV, and began 2016 with last Saturday's 40-34 victory over Northern Illinois.

Those four Nebraska Cowboys are:

•Youhann Ghaifan, RFr., DT

Grand Island, Neb. (Central Catholic)

Played in his first game vs. Northern Illinois and had 1 pass breakup

•C.J. Johnson, RFr., WR

Bellevue, Neb. (Bellevue West)

Played in his first game vs. Northern Illinois and had 1 reception for 7 yards

•Trevor Meader, Sr., DE

Lincoln, Neb. (Wayne State College/Lincoln Southwest H.S.)

Phillips, Neb. (Aurora)

Building the O-Line With True Freshmen Continues in 2016:

For the third consecutive season, the Wyoming Cowboys have a true freshman starting on the offensive line. This year's true freshman starter is left guard Gavin Rush. Rush started the 2016 season-opening game vs. Northern Illinois. A year ago in 2015, the Pokes had two true freshmen start games. Zach Wallace started the last 10 games at right tackle and is now the Cowboys' starting left tackle. Kaden Jackson started two games at right guard in 2015, and is now UW's regular starter at that position.

In 2014, Ryan Cummings started the final seven games of that season at left tackle. He started all 12 games at left tackle in 2015, and is currently the Pokes starting right tackle.

UW center Chase Roullier is the only current Cowboy starter to have redshirted his freshman season, which was back in 2013. Since that time, he has started 28 games, including the last 27 consecutive.

2016 Wyoming Team Notes

University of Wyoming Football

Family Affair: Wyoming has two Cowboys whose fathers played football at the University of Nebraska.

•According to Gatorade archives, Clester and C.J. Johnson became the first father-son tandem to ever both be named Gatorade Players of the Year during their senior years in high school. They both played at Bellevue West High School in Bellevue, Neb. Clester won the award in 1991. C.J. was the Nebraska Gatorade Player of the Year in 2014.

•Andrew Wingard was named the state of Colorado Gatorade Player of the Year in 2014.

•The younger Wingard and the younger Johnson also have been roommates for each of the past two years at Wyoming.

Former Huskers on Cowboy Sideline: Not only are there ties to Nebraska for players on the Wyoming football team, but there are ties to Nebraska on the Wyoming coaching staff.

Cowboy head coach Craig Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and was a reserve defensive back for the Huskers from 1977 to 1979. He served as a graduate assistant with the Nebraska football program from 1981-83. In 1995, Bohl returned to his alma mater coaching the NU linebackers from 1995 to 1999. During that time, Nebraska captured two national championships in 1995 and '97. Bohl was elevated to defensive coordinator at NU from 2000-02 and continued to coach the linebackers those three seasons.

Current Wyoming defensive coordinator Steve Stanard also played at Nebraska from 1986-87. Stanard served as a student assistant coach for his alma mater in 1988, and was a graduate assistant coach from 1989-90.

Wyoming's newest assistant coach, Mike Grant who coaches the Cowboy wide receivers, played quarterback for the Huskers from 1988-92. He was a recruiting assistant for Nebraska in 1993, and was a graduate assistant from 1994-96.

The Legacy of Bob Devaney Looms Large Over Both the Wyoming and Nebraska Football Programs:

The common thread that binds the history of Wyoming Cowboy Football and Nebraska Cornhusker Football together is Bob Devaney.

Devaney was head coach at Wyoming from 1957-61. He is still the winningest coach in Wyoming history in terms of winning percentage. Devaney won 75.0 percent of his games at Wyoming, posting a 35-10-5 record in five seasons. He led Wyoming to four conference titles (two Skyline Conference outright championships in 1958 and '59, and two co-championships in 1960 and '61).

His 1958 squad went 8-3 and captured the Sun Bowl Championship.

In 1959, the Cowboys compiled a 9-1 record and ended the season ranked No. 16 in the final Associated Press poll.

The 1960 Cowboy team posted an 8-2 record, and in 1961 the Pokes were 6-1-2 and concluded the year ranked No. 17 in the final United Press International poll.

Devaney took over as head coach at Nebraska in 1962. For the next 11 years, Devaney led the Cornhuskers to eight Big Eight Conference titles, a 101-20-2 (.829) record and back-to-back National Championships in 1970 and '71. After the 1972 season, Devaney retired with a 136-30-7 (.806) record as a head coach, making him the winningest active coach in the nation at the time he retired.

Wyoming-Nebraska Series Dates Back to 1934: The University of Wyoming and University of Nebraska first played each other in football back in 1934, and have played seven previous times in the two schools' histories. Nebraska has won each of the previous seven meetings.

One of the five previous meetings between the Cowboys and Huskers featured Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney coaching against his former team, Wyoming, in 1968. Devaney was Wyoming's head coach for five seasons from 1957-61. He left Wyoming to take the head-coaching position at Nebraska where he coached for 11 seasons from 1962-72.

The last two times Wyoming faced Nebraska in Lincoln were in 1994 and 2013. Wyoming, gave the Huskers all they could handle in 1994 before falling by 10 points, 42-32, to the eventual National Champions. In 2013, the Cowboy lost by three points 34-37.

WYOMING FOOTBALL 2016

Dynamic Duo at Wide Receiver -- Gentry and Maulhardt Form One of the Mountain West's Most Productive Receiving Duos: An area of the Cowboy offense that emerged during the 2015 season was the receiving corps -- particularly wide receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt. Both return for their senior seasons in 2016.

- Gentry and Maulhardt were among the most productive receiving tandems in the Mountain West in 2015 in terms of receiving yards, averaging a combined 151.3 receiving yards per game.

- Gentry missed the last five games, and so didn't play in enough games to be ranked in MW or NCAA rankings. But his season average of 96.9 yards per game would have ranked No. 2 in the league and No. 16 in the nation.

- Maulhardt ranked No. 7 in the MW in receiving yards (54.4 yards per game).

- Gentry averaged 5.29 receptions per game, which would have ranked him No. 5 in the MW and No. 51 in the nation.

- Maulhardt averaged 4.75 catches per game and was No. 6 in the MW and No. 74 in the NCAA.

- Maulhardt had eight TD receptions in 2015 to rank No. 2 in the conference and No. 37 nationally. Gentry had four TD catches.

- Gentry had three 100-yard games in 2015 -- 176 vs. North Dakota, 130 vs. New Mexico and 127 at Washington State.

- Maulhardt had two 100-yard games in 2015 -- 113 yards at Washington State and 107 at San Diego State.

Maulhardt Ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West in Receiving Touchdowns:

Wyoming wide receiver Jake Maulhardt finished the 2015 season with eight receiving touchdowns to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and 37th in the NCAA in receiving touchdowns.

He had one streak of catching at least one touchdown pass in four consecutive games on versus Air Force, Nevada, Boise State and Utah State. Maulhardt caught two TD passes at Air Force, one against Nevada, one at Boise State and two at Utah State before not scoring vs. CSU. Earlier in the season, he caught his first TD pass of the season at Washington State, giving him seven for the season. He caught his eighth TD in the season finale vs. UNLV.

Gentry Part of Second Longest Pass Play in School History:

Wide receiver Tanner Gentry was part of the second longest pass play in school history in the 2015 season opener vs. North Dakota. Gentry caught a 92-yard touchdown pass from redshirt senior quarterback Cam Coffman for Wyoming's first TD of the season. The only longer pass play in school history was a 93-yard TD pass from Brett Smith to Robert Herron versus San Jose State in 2013.

2016 Wyoming Team Notes University of Wyoming Football

Tanner Gentry Was Named to the 2015 Biletnikoff Award Watch List, But Suffered Season-Ending Shoulder Injury in Week 7 vs. Nevada:

Wyoming wide receiver Tanner Gentry was added to the 2015 Biletnikoff Award watch list based on his outstanding play through Week 7 of the 2015 season. The Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc., creator and sponsor of the Biletnikoff Award, made the announcement. The Biletnikoff Award is presented annually to the college football season's outstanding receiver.

Gentry caught 37 passes for 678 yards in the seven games he played in the 2015 season. Gentry recorded three 100-yard receiving games through the first seven games of this season. He had 176 yards vs. North Dakota, 127 at Washington State and 130 vs. New Mexico. This was the first time in his career that Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award watch list.

The Biletnikoff Award was founded in 1994 and is a season, not career, award. Former University of Wyoming Cowboy Marcus Harris was the recipient of the award for the 1996 season.

Tanner Gentry Returns for Senior Season After Suffering Season-Ending Injury in 2015:

Wide receiver Tanner Gentry was having an outstanding season prior to suffering a shoulder injury against Nevada. He didn't play in enough games (only 7 of UW's 12 games) to rank in MW or NCAA rankings. His numbers through the first seven games of the season were outstanding. His average of 96.9 yards per game would have ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 16 in the NCAA in receiving yards for the season if he had played in just two more games (75% of Wyoming's games for the season).

In the conference opener versus New Mexico, Gentry caught nine passes for 130 yards and had one touchdown reception. He enjoyed the best game of his career in the 2015 season opener versus North Dakota where he set a career high with 176 receiving yards. He also tied his career high in receptions with nine catches, and set a personal best in all-purpose yardage with 205 all-purpose yards, including 29 yards in punt returns to go with his 176 receiving yards.

He followed up that performance with seven receptions for 127 yards and one TD at Washington State.

While Gentry did not play in the required 75 percent of his team's games to be ranked in NCAA or MW average rankings this season, he did still rank in two Mountain West statistical categories based on raw totals.

Individual Category	Average	MWC Rank
Total Receiving Yards	678	No. 7
Receiving TDs	4 total receiving TDs	No. 17

University of Wyoming Launches Major Initiative for new $44 Million High Altitude Performance Center:

The University of Wyoming unveiled plans in April of 2015 for a $44 million renovation and expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center that will triple the size of the facility. This major new addition to the Rochelle Athletics Center will be called the High Altitude Performance Center.

In addition, UW announced a $3 million leadership gift from Marian Rochelle to launch the project. The gift will be doubled to $6 million by the State of Wyoming. Marian and her late husband Curt were the lead contributors to the Rochelle Athletics Center in 1998.

The High Altitude Performance Center will be funded by a $24 million private support campaign and a $20 million State of Wyoming matching program.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," said Governor Matt Mead. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support, and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

This remarkable public-private partnership will expand the current 48,000-square-foot Rochelle Athletics Center into a 126,000-square-foot premier collegiate athletics complex, solidifying Wyoming's reputation as a state committed to excellence—producing student-athletes who succeed in the classroom, compete at the highest level on the field, and define a lasting legacy for this great state.

"The expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center to include the High Altitude Performance Center will assist our student-athletes to be the best they can be," said April Brimmer Kunz, daughter of Marian Rochelle and UW Foundation Board of Directors vice chair. "Our family's donation is targeted to help student-athletes receive a meaningful degree when they graduate from the University of Wyoming."

"It is fitting that the lead gift to this important project is being made by Marian Rochelle," said Cowboy Football Head Coach Craig Bohl. "Her unwavering commitment is a testament to Marian's recognition of the ongoing needs of our student-athletes. Marian's extraordinary philanthropy continues to shape the course of Cowboy Athletics and Wyoming's university. It is a redefining moment for Cowboy football."

While the central focus of the expansion is to provide the football program with the tools it needs to win Mountain West Conference championships, the facility will also benefit all UW student-athletes.

When this initiative is complete, the facility will become the premier athletics center in the Mountain West Conference, featuring new or expanded spaces focused on academic success, nutrition, strength and conditioning and sports medicine and rehabilitation facilities for all of Wyoming's student-athletes.

"The Athletics department and university have had a wonderful long-term partnership with the Rochelle family," says UW Athletics Director Tom Burman. "It is exciting that Marian is investing in this transformational project. When this facility is complete, the new High Altitude Performance Center will become the premier athletic center in the Mountain West Conference. We are so appreciative of Marian and April. It is simply amazing the impact that they have had on UW through the years."

The first floor will maximize efficiency and create a welcoming environment with the Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center centrally located so it can be accessed by all student-athletes.

The first floor will also have the Football Strength and Performance Center, a tiered team meeting room and an expanded football locker room, as well as a Heritage Hall honoring the history and traditions of Cowboy Football.

The existing football coaches' office suite and position meeting rooms on the second floor will be reconfigured and enlarged.

The second floor Training Table will integrate technology for customizing each meal to meet the individual nutritional needs of every individual student-athlete. The arrangement of the space will allow for team meals, as well as more casual and intimate dining.

"The University of Wyoming, in partnership with transformational private supporters like Marian Rochelle and State of Wyoming leaders guided by Governor Mead and so many key members of the Wyoming Legislature, is making a statement that the commitment to excellence in our state knows no bounds," said Ben Blalock, UW Foundation president.

"Marian H. Rochelle is one of UW's greatest supporters and friends," said UW President Dick McGinity. "She and her husband Curt's initial gift for the Rochelle Athletics Center changed the face of the university and its programs. That gift made the center possible, and this most recent one will make it better. Marian's generosity has touched many places on campus, but the most important impact her generosity has had is on students. She shares the university's vision of giving students every opportunity to become successful, and with her continued support, they will be able to accomplish just that."

Cowboys Have Taken Huskers to the Wire in Last Two Trips to Memorial Stadium: The Cowboys have given the Huskers all they could handle in their last two trips to Lincoln.

The Pokes fell to the Huskers 37-34 in their last visit to the Big Ten foe. A late touchdown by Robert Herron gave the Cowboys a chance in the game's final minutes.

The Joe Tiller passing game totally befuddled Nebraska's vaunted defense in 1994 and the Pokes gave the national champs their biggest scare of the year.

UW quarterback Jeremy Dombek threw for 264 yards and two touchdowns before being knocked out of the game after a sack. His replacement, John Gustin, came on to throw for another score as the Cowboys finally fell 42-32.

2016 Opponent Information University of Wyoming Football

About Nebraska: The Huskers head into Saturday's matchup with a 1-0 record after defeating Fresno State 43-10 last weekend in Lincoln, Neb. The Cornhuskers recorded 22 points in the contest's final quarter to earn the win.

Nebraska was impressive in the Red Zone going 5-for-5 on the night with five touchdowns. Defensively, the Huskers held the Bulldogs to 276 yards of total offense allowing 31 yards rushing, but allowed 243 passing yards.

Husker running back Devine Ozigbo rushed for 103 yards in the season opener adding two touchdowns. He averaged 6.1 yards per carry on 17 touches. Quarterback Tommy Armstrong, Jr. rushed for 42 yards on the night and threw for 108 yards with one touchdown. He was 5-of-10 passing with a long toss of 57 yards. Wide receiver Alonzo Moore had a team-high three catches for 92 yards and a touchdown. He grabbed a game-high 57 yard reception.

Defensively, safety Kieron Williams led the Huskers with 10 tackles. He also added an interception with an eight yard return. Cornerback Josh Kalu added seven tackles to go along with a sack and one pass breakup. Cornerback Lamar Jackson added six tackles with a sack. He finished the game with two tackles for loss. Defensive end Ross Dzuris had two sacks and three tackles for loss for six yards.

Nebraska Head Coach Mike Riley: Nebraska head coach Mike Riley enters his second season at the helm of the Huskers. He is 7-7 as head coach of Nebraska after going 6-7 a season ago leading the Huskers to a win the Foster Farms Bowl.

Riley enters his 42nd overall season as a coach in 2016, the most coaching experience of any current Football Bowl Subdivision Head Coach. The 2016 season will mark Riley's 25th year as a head coach, including 16 in the collegiate ranks. He also owns nine years as a professional head coach, second among current FBS head coaches.

Riley took over the Husker football program following 12 seasons as the head coach at Oregon State, and 14 seasons overall in Corvallis. Riley also had prior experience at the highest level of football, serving as the head coach of the San Diego Chargers for three seasons, while also spending time in the Canadian Football League and the World Football League.

In his time at Oregon State, Riley built the Beaver program into a consistent winner and regular contender in the Pac-12 Conference. Riley had a 93-80 overall record as the Beavers' head coach. Riley posted a 6-2 record in bowl games with the Beavers.

Riley earned his bachelors degree from Alabama in 1975. He was a cornerback on the Crimson Tide football team from 1971 to 1974. He earned a master's degree from Whitworth College.

The Last Time These Teams Met: Wyoming scored a touchdown to draw within three points with just 1:32 to go in the contest, but couldn't overcome a big second-half by Nebraska as UW fell 37-34.

In the season opener for both teams, junior quarterback Brett Smith threw for four scores and 383 yards, and gave Wyoming a chance with less than two minutes to get into field-goal range for the tie. But his pass with 11 seconds left fell incomplete, and 18th-ranked Nebraska escaped with a win in its home opener.

Senior safety Marqueston Huff stripped NU quarterback Taylor Martinez of the ball on a fourth-down attempt, and recovered the ball on the UW 38 with 2:01 remaining in the game. Huff finished with 18 tackles, a career high and 10th in UW single-game history. Junior wide receiver Dominic Rufran 11 catches for 120 yards.

2016 Mountain West Bowl Synopsis

The following bowl information has been compiled by the Mountain West Conference entering the 2016 season.

(The schedule at the bottom of this page reflects the bowl game Mountain West teams will play in during the 2016 bowl season. The Mountain West also has a relationship with the Ticket City Cactus Bowl that is explained below.)

The number of postseason appearances for the Mountain West will be driven by on-the-field performance, starting with the opportunity to play in the national semifinals or another New Year's Day bowl game as part of the College Football Playoff arrangement.

The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system.

In the 17 seasons since the league's inception, the Mountain West's champion or a current MW member has secured that position 12 times, placing teams in the Fiesta (3), Rose and Sugar (2) Bowls during that period.

The MW also has agreements with six (6) different bowl games that in any given year will generate as many as six (6) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Nova Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and a secondary position with the Cactus Bowl.

The Mountain West will collaborate with the bowl partners to place all eligible teams with consideration given to matchup, geography and historical considerations (e.g., last time a team participated in any bowl or a particular bowl). NOTE: The MW is the primary backup for the Ticket City Cactus Bowl if the Big 12 or Pac-12 does not fill their position.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In its third season, the College Football Playoff format remains unchanged: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and the national championship game played in a different city every year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performances during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The 2016 season will mark the third season Craig Bohl will lead the Wyoming Football program as head coach and will mark his 14th year as a college head coach. Over his first two years at Wyoming, he focused on building Cowboy Football for the long term. Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that."

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success."

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 13 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in his last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2016 season will be Bohl's 36th year coaching at the college level.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 58 years old when the 2016 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Players Who Will Return for 2016 Season After Missing All or Part of 2015 Season Due to Injury:

The Wyoming Cowboys suffered a number of key injuries during the 2015 season. Here are some of those key players who missed significant playing time last year that will return in 2016.

•Josh Allen, RSo., QB, A broken clavicle in the second game of season versus Eastern Michigan ended Allen's 2015 season prematurely. He played in only the first two series of the Eastern Michigan game before breaking his collarbone on that second series. Allen missed the rest of the 2015 season. He was granted a medical hardship and will have three years of eligibility remaining. Allen came to Wyoming in 2015 from Reedley Community College in California where he played one season.

•Chase Appleby, Sr., NT, A sprained MCL forced him to miss the final five games of the 2015 season. Appleby started five of the first seven games of his junior season before suffering the season-ending injury.

•Tanner Gentry, Sr., WR, Missed the final five games of the 2015 season following a shoulder injury suffered against Nevada in Week 7. He was leading the Mountain West and ranked 16th in the nation in receiving yards per game (98.7) entering the Nevada game.

•Shaun Wick, RSo., RB, Suffered a concussion early in the fourth game of the 2015 season versus New Mexico and missed the final eight games of the season. Granted a medical hardship giving him his senior year back. Wick had never redshirted at Wyoming, having played since his true freshman season of 2012. He enters the 2015 season ranked No. 9 in school history in career rushing yards, with 2,179.

GAME #1

Wyoming 40, NIU 34 3 OT

Sept. 3, 2016

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

The 2016 season opener for the Wyoming Cowboys resulted in one of the most memorable victories in the history of Cowboy Football. In triple overtime, the Pokes captured a 40-34 triple overtime home win over Northern Illinois to kick off the 120th season of Wyoming Football. The game was the longest in school history at 4 hours and 14 minutes.

In the third overtime the Cowboy defense held the Huskies on their final series of the contest. During the Cowboys' final possession on a third and four from the seven-yard line, UW sophomore quarterback Josh Allen scrambled out of the pocket and after avoiding several defenders dived into the end zone for the winning touchdown giving the Pokes' a 40-34 victory. Allen ended the night with 315 yards of total offense, with two touchdown passes and his game-winning rushing TD.

In addition to Allen's outstanding performance, junior running back Brian Hill rushed for 125 yards on 33 carries and scored two touchdowns, including a five-yard TD run in the second overtime. Senior wide receivers Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt each had 100-yard receiving games. Gentry caught eight passes for 104 yards and one TD. Maulhardt had five receptions for 106 yards.

Defensively, sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard led the way with 12 tackles. Sophomore linebacker Logan Wilson and senior linebacker D.J. May each finished with nine tackles.
